INFORMATION FOR PARTIES WHO RECEIVE THIS NOTICE TO END TENANCY

You have the right to dispute this by filing an Application for Dispute Resolution at the Residential Tenancies Office. (Note: only valid reasons under the RLTA will be considered). The objection MUST be done promptly in accordance with the timelines established by the RLTA.

If you do not file an Application for Dispute Resolution within the legislated time, you are presumed to have accepted the notice and must move out of the rental unit by the date set out in this notice (you can move out sooner).

If the tenant fails to move out of the rental unit, you can apply to the Residential Tenancies Office for an Order of Possession and reasonable compensation.

INFORMATION FOR BOTH LANDLORDS AND TENANTS

- Keep copies of all Notices to End Tenancy and record each date and how the Notice was given or received.
- An error in this Notice or an incorrect move-out date on this Notice does not necessarily make it invalid. If the move-out date does not comply with the RLTA, the effective date is the earliest date that complies with the RLTA.
