The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of the said Territory, enacts as follows:

1. In this Ordinance, "Revised Ordinances" means the Revised Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1958, designated as such by section 2.

2. (1) Subject to this Ordinance, the Ordinances contained in Schedule A and the several sections and parts thereof, being comprised within chapters numbered consecutively 1 to 112, shall be and are hereby declared to be law by the designation "Revised Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1958", to all intents and purposes as though the Ordinances therein contained and the several sections and parts thereof were expressly embodied in and enacted by this Ordinance.

(2) The Revised Ordinances shall come into operation and have effect as law as hereinbefore provided, on, from and after the 31st day of March, 1959 or such earlier day as may be fixed by order of the Commissioner.

3. Subject as hereinafter provided, on, from and after the coming into operation of the Revised Ordinances, the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances set out in Schedule B are repealed to the extent mentioned in the fourth column of that Schedule.

4. The repeal of the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances set out in Schedule B, as provided in section 3, does not revive any Ordinance or provision of law repealed by any of them, nor does the repeal prevent the effect of any saving clause in any of those Ordinances or portions of Ordinances, or of the application of any of those Ordinances or portions of Ordinances, or of any Ordinance or provision of law formerly in force, to any transaction, matter or thing anterior to the repeal to which they would otherwise apply.

5. The repeal of the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances set out in Schedule B, as provided in section 3, does not defeat, disturb, invalidate or affect

(a) any penalty, forfeiture or liability, civil or criminal, incurred prior to the time of the repeal, or any proceeding for enforcing it, had, done, completed or pending at the time of the repeal;
(b) any indictment, information, conviction, order, sentence or prosecution had, done, completed or pending at the time of the repeal;

(c) any action, suit, judgment, decree, certificate, execution, distress, process, order, rule or any proceeding, matter or thing whatsoever respecting it, had, pending, existing or in force at the time of the repeal;

(d) any act, deed, right, title, interest, grant, assurance, descent, will, registry, filing, by-law, rule, order-in-council, proclamation, regulation, order, contract, lien, charge, status, capacity, immunity, matter or thing had, done, made, acquired, established or existing at the time of the repeal;

(e) any office, appointment, commission, salary, remuneration, allowance, security or duty, or any matter or thing appertaining thereto at the time of the repeal; or

(f) any other matter or thing whatsoever had, done, completed, existing or pending at the time of the repeal; and the same shall remain and continue as if the repeal had not taken place, and, so far as necessary, may and shall be continued, prosecuted, enforced and proceeded with under the Revised Ordinances and the other Ordinances and laws in force in the Territory, and, subject to the provisions of the several Ordinances and laws, as if the repeal had not taken place.

6. (1) The Revised Ordinances shall not be held to operate as new laws, but shall be construed and have effect as a consolidation and as declaratory of the law as contained in the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances so repealed, and for which the Revised Ordinances are substituted.

(2) The various provisions of the Revised Ordinances corresponding to, and substituted for, the provisions of the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances so repealed shall, where they are the same in effect as the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances so repealed, be held to operate retrospectively as well as prospectively and to have been enacted or to have become effective upon the days respectively upon which the Ordinances and portions of Ordinances so repealed came into effect or from which they were stated to be effective, as the case may be.

(3) If, upon any point, the provisions of the Revised Ordinances are not in effect the same as those of the repealed Ordinances and portions of Ordinances for which they are substituted, then as respects all transactions, matters and things subsequent to the coming into operation of the Revised Ordinances, the provisions contained in the Revised Ordinances shall prevail, but as respects all transactions, matters and things anterior to that time, the provisions of the repealed Ordinances and portions of Ordinances shall prevail.

7. A reference in any Ordinance enacted prior to the coming into operation of the Revised Ordinances and remaining in force after that time, or in any instrument or document, to any Ordinance or portion of any Ordinance so repealed shall, from and after the coming into operation of the Revised Ordinances, be held as regards any transaction, matter or thing subsequent to that time to be a reference to the enactments in the Revised Ordinances having the same effect as the Ordinance or portion thereof so repealed.

8. The inclusion of any Ordinance in Schedule B shall not be construed as a declaration that the Ordinance or any portion of it was or was not in force immediately prior to the coming into operation of the Revised Ordinances.

9. Copies of the Revised Ordinances purporting to be printed by the Queen's Printer of Canada shall be received as evidence of such Revised Ordinances in all courts and places whatsoever, without further proof of any kind.

10. Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, the rules of construction and interpretation set forth in the Interpretation Ordinance, chapter 58 of the Revised Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1958, apply to the Revised Ordinances and to this Ordinance.

11. Any Ordinance comprised in the Revised Ordinances may be cited or referred to in any Ordinance or proceedings either by its title as an Ordinance or its short title as indicated therein, or by its title as an Ordinance or its short title as indicated therein together with the expression "chapter..... of the Revised Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1958".

12. A copy of this Ordinance may be printed and bound in the volume published by the Queen's Printer of Canada and containing the Revised Ordinances, in addition to being printed, bound and published with the Ordinances enacted at the session of the Council during which this Ordinance is enacted.

(c) giving the unmarried minor the same right to any claim for nurture, maintenance and education upon his adopting parent as he would have had were the adopting parent his natural parent.

(3) In and by the adoption order the judge may in his discretion give to the adopted child the surname of his adopting parent and change his Christian name or names, giving the child such Christian name or names as the adopting parent may desire, and in such event the child is thenceforth entitled to be known by the surname of the adopting parent and the Christian name or names so given.

(4) The fact that the child was born out of wedlock shall in no case appear upon the adoption order.

11. No adoption order shall be made where the applicant has received or agreed to receive or any person has given or agreed to give any payment or other consideration for the adoption.
Adoption.

12. (1) A person who has been adopted under this Ordinance has the same rights of succession to property from or through his adopting parent as though born to such parent in lawful wedlock on the date of the order of adoption.

(2) Where a person who has been adopted under this Ordinance dies intestate, his property shall be distributed in the same manner as though born to his adopting parent in lawful wedlock.

(3) Where a person is adopted he does not lose his right to inherit from his natural parents or kindred.

13. The word "child" or its equivalent in any instrument includes an adopted child unless the contrary plainly appears by the terms of the instrument.

14. A person who has been adopted in accordance with the laws of any of the provinces of Canada is, upon proof of the adoption, entitled to the same rights of succession to property as he would have had if he had been adopted under this Ordinance.

15. Where an unmarried minor has been previously adopted, a subsequent adoption shall determine all the legal consequences of the former order of adoption except in so far as any interest in property may have vested in such unmarried minor.

REGULATIONS.

16. The Commissioner may make regulations

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Agisters and Livery Stable Keepers Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,

(a) "agister" means a person other than a livery, boarding or sales stable keeper who, for a money consideration or its equivalent, feeds, grazes, stables, boards or cares for animals;

(b) "boarding stable keeper" means a person who, for a money consideration or its equivalent, stables, boards or cares for animals;

(c) "livery stable keeper" means a person who for a money consideration or the equivalent thereof carries on the business of letting or hiring out carriages, sleighs or other vehicles, or horses or other animals, whether with or without vehicles, and whether accompanied by an employee of the livery stable keeper or not; and

(d) "sales stable keeper" means a person who stables, boards or cares for animals other than his own, with the intention of selling or disposing of the same, and who receives or is to receive payment for such services whether in the nature of a commission or otherwise.

3. Every agister, livery stable, boarding stable or sales stable keeper has a lien on the animals and articles hereinafter in this section mentioned for the value or price of food, care, attendance or accommodation furnished for such animals or articles and in addition to all other remedies provided by law may detain in his custody and possession any animal, vehicle, harness furnishings or other gear appertaining thereto and the personal effects of any person who is indebted to him for feeding, grazing, stabling, boarding or caring for such animal.

4. (1) Every agister, livery stable, boarding stable or sales stable keeper who has exercised a right of detention under this Ordinance shall keep in his possession and be responsible for the proper care of any animal or article detained by him for the full period of such detention, unless they are sooner released.
(2) Where the owner does not reclaim the animals and articles detained under this Ordinance by paying the indebtedness in respect thereof within one month from the day they were so detained, the person detaining them may sell or cause them to be sold by public auction on giving two weeks' notice of sale by advertisement in the newspaper published nearest to the place where the animals and articles are detained, or, if more newspapers than one are published in the same locality, then in any one of such newspapers, and by posting notices of the intended sale in the nearest post office and in the stable or, in the case of an agister, at the place where the animals and articles are detained, stating, if known,

(b) the amount of indebtedness and charges for detention;

(c) a description of the animals and articles; and

(d) the name of the seller.

5. The proceeds derived from the sale shall be applied first in paying the expenses incurred by the detention, advertising and sale, then the debt for which the detention was made, and the surplus, if any, shall on application be paid to the person entitled thereto.

6. In case the owner does not apply for the same within one month from the day of sale, the surplus shall be handed over to the Territorial Treasurer to be kept by him in a special trust account for one year, after which time if the owner does not appear or claim the amount so kept it shall be paid into and form part of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

(7) Where before the registration of the amended statement and affidavit referred to in subsection (6) a person has in good faith made an advance of money or given any valuable consideration to the grantor, or has incurred any costs in proceedings taken relying on the accuracy of the renewal statement as first registered, the bill of sale as to the amount so advanced or the valuable consideration given or costs incurred by such person, shall, as against that creditor, purchaser or mortgagee, stand good only for the amount stated in the renewal statement as first registered, or to the extent or amount of the liability secured in the renewal statement as first registered.

Where a registered bill of sale evidences a mortgage of chattels, and before the payment and discharge of the bill of sale, chattels comprised therein are permanently removed into a registration district other than the one in which they were situate at the time of its execution, the bill of sale shall, within thirty days after the grantee has received notice of the place to which the chattels have been removed, be registered in the office of the proper officer of the registration district into which the chattels are removed, by filing therein a copy of the bill of sale and of all affidavits and documents accompanying the bill of sale or filed on the registration or renewal thereof, certified as a true copy by the proper officer in whose office the bill of sale was registered or was last renewed; and failing such registration the bill of sale, in respect of the chattels so renewed ceases to be valid as against creditors and as against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees claiming from or under the grantor in good faith, for valuable consideration and without notice, whose conveyances or mortgages have been registered or are valid without registration.

17. Where chattels subject to a mortgage that was executed at a time when they were situate without the Territory are permanently removed into the Territory, the mortgage shall within thirty days after the grantee has received notice of the place to which the chattels have been removed, be registered as a bill of sale, in the office of the proper officer of the registration district into which the chattels are removed, by filing therein a copy of the mortgage and of all affidavits and documents accompanying or relating to the mortgage proved to be a true copy by the affidavit of some person who has compared the same with the original; and failing such registration the grantee shall not be permitted to set up any right of property or right of

(2) The grantor shall not, prior to the complete performance of the contract, sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of his interest in chattels comprised in a bill of sale, unless he, or the person to whom he is about to sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of same, has notified the grantee in writing, personally or by registered mail, of the name and address of such person, not less than ten days before such sale, mortgage, charge or other disposal.

(3) Where the grantor removed chattels comprised in a bill of sale or disposes of his interest in them contrary to this section, the grantee may retake possession of the chattels and deal with them as in case of default in payment of all or part of the purchase price.

19. A sale or mortgage or a bill of sale that under this Ordinance is void, or has ceased to be valid, as against creditors, purchasers or mortgagees, is not, by reason of the fact that the grantee has subsequently taken possession of the chattels sold or mortgaged, rendered valid as against persons who became creditors, purchasers or mortgagees before the grantee took possession.

20. (1) An assignment of a bill of sale need not be registered, but it may be registered by filing the assignment, accompanied by an affidavit of an attesting witness of the execution thereof, in any office in which the bill of sale is registered.

(2) The proper officer in whose office an assignment is registered shall note the fact of the assignment against each entry in the books of his office respecting the registration of the bill of sale, and shall make a like notation upon the bill of sale or copy filed in his office.

(3) Where the chattels comprised in a bill of sale that has been assigned are situate partly in one registration district and partly in another registration district, registration of the assignment may be effected by filing the assignment and affidavit pursuant to subsection (1), in the office of the proper officer in one of such registration districts, and by filing a duplicate original of the assignment and affidavit, or a copy of the assignment and affidavit certified by the proper officer of that registraexcept that the Court may, in the case of any person or class, for special reasons, dispense with the notice required by this section.

(4) The Court may make an order confirming the alteration either wholly or in part, and on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit, and may make such order as to costs as it thinks proper.

(5) The Court shall, in exercising its discretion under this section, have regard to the rights and interests of the members of the company or of any class of them, as well as to the rights and interests of the creditors, and may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the proceedings in order that an arrangement may be made to the satisfaction of the Court for the purchase of the interests of dissentient members, and may give such directions and make such orders as it may think expedient for facilitating or carrying into effect any such arrangement, subject to the condition that no part of the capital of the company may be expended in any such purchase.

(c) the date at which any person ceased to be a member.

(5) Where a company makes default in complying with the requirements of this section it is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues, and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the default is liable to the like penalty.

(6) Every extra-territorial registered company shall, within the time hereinbefore mentioned, file with the Registrar a statement setting forth all the information with reference to such company required by paragraphs (k) and (l) of subsection (2) and by subsection (3), and such statement shall be certified by the auditors and by the president, vice-president, secretary or other officer of such company; but, except as aforesaid, this section shall not apply to an extra-territorial company.
34. No notice of any trust, expressed, implied or constructive, shall be entered on the register or be receivable by the Registrar in the case of companies registered pursuant to this Ordinance.

35. On the application of the transferor of any share or interest in a company, the company shall enter in its register of members the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application for the entry were made by the transferee.

36. A transfer of the share or other interest of a deceased member of a company made by his personal representative shall, although the personal representative is not himself a member, be as valid as if he had been a member at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

37. Every executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall represent the shares or stock in his hands at all meetings of the company, and may vote accordingly as a shareholder; and every person who pledges his stock may nevertheless represent the same at all such meetings, and may vote accordingly as a shareholder.

38. No person holding shares, stock or other interest in the company as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee shall be personally subject to liability as a shareholder; but the estates and funds in the hands of such person shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator or intestate or the minor, ward or person interested in the trust fund would be if living and competent to act and holding such shares, stock or other interest in his own name.

39. No person holding shares, stock or other interest as collateral security shall be personally subject to liability as a shareholder; but the person pledging such shares, stock or other interest as such collateral security shall be considered as holding the same, and shall be liable as a shareholder in respect thereof.

40. (1) The register of members, commencing from the date of the registration of the company, shall be kept at the registered office of the company, and, except when closed under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall during business hours, subject to such reasonable restrictions as the company in general meeting may impose so that not less than two hours in each day be allowed for inspection, be open to the inspection of any member gratis, and to the inspection of any other person on payment of twenty-five cents or such less sum as the company may prescribe, for each inspection.

(2) Any member or other person may require a copy of the register, or of any part thereof, or of the list and summary required by this Ordinance, or any part thereof, on payment of twenty-five cents or such less sum as the company may prescribe, for every hundred words or fractional part thereof required to be copied.
(3) Where any inspection or copy required under this section is refused, the company is liable for each refusal to a fine not exceeding ten dollars, and to a further fine not exceeding ten dollars for every day during which the refusal continues, and every director and manager of the company who knowingly authorizes or permits the refusal is liable to the like penalty; and a judge of the Territorial Court may by order compel an immediate inspection of the register.

41. A company may, on giving notice by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in the district in which the registered office of the company is situate, close the register of members for any time or times not exceeding in the whole thirty days in each year.

42. (1) If,
   (a) the name of any person is, without sufficient cause, entered in or omitted from the register of members of a company; or
   (b) default is made or unnecessary delay takes place in entering on the register the fact of any person having ceased to be a member, the person aggrieved, or any member of the company, or the company, may apply to the Court for rectification of the register.

   (2) The application may be made to a judge of the Territorial Court sitting in Chambers, and the Court may either refuse the application or direct rectification of the register and payment by the company of any damages sustained by any party aggrieved.

   (3) On any application under this section, the Court may decide any question relating to the title of any person who is a party to the application to have his name entered in or omitted from the register, whether the question arises between members or alleged members, or between members or alleged members on the one hand and the company on the other hand; and generally may decide any question necessary or expedient to be decided for rectification of the register.

   (4) In the case of a company required by this Ordinance to send a list of its members to the Registrar, the Court, when making an order for rectification of the register, shall by its order direct rectification of the register to be given to the Registrar.

43. The register of members is prima facie evidence of any matter by this Ordinance directed or authorized to be inserted therein.

Share Warrants.

44. (1) A company limited by shares, if so authorized by its articles, may, with respect to any fully paid-up shares, or to stock, issue under its common seal a warrant stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares or stock therein specified, and may provide, by coupons or otherwise, for the payment of the future dividends on the shares or stock included in the warrant (in this Ordinance termed a "share warrant").

(2) A share warrant entitles the bearer thereof to the shares or stock therein specified, and the shares or stock may be transferred by delivery of the warrant.

(3) The bearer of a share warrant shall, subject to the articles of the company, be entitled, on surrendering it for cancellation, to have his name entered as a member in the register of members; and the company shall be responsible for any loss incurred by any person by reason of the company entering in its register the name of a bearer of a share warrant in respect of the shares or stock therein specified without the warrant being surrendered and cancelled.

(4) The bearer of a share warrant may, if the articles of the company so provide, be deemed to be a member of the company within the meaning of this Ordinance, either to the full extent or for any purposes defined in the articles; except that he shall not be qualified in respect of the shares or stock specified in the warrant for being a director or manager of the company, in cases where such a qualification is required by the articles.

(5) On the issue of a share warrant the company shall strike out of the register of members the name of the member then entered therein as holding the shares or stock specified in the warrant as if he had ceased to be a member, and shall enter in the register the following particulars:

(a) the fact of the issue of the warrant;

(b) a statement of the shares or stock included in the warrant, distinguishing each share by its number; and

(c) the date of the issue of the warrant.

(6) Until the warrant is surrendered, the above particulars shall be deemed to be the particulars required by this Ordinance to be entered in the register of members; and, on the surrender, the date of the surrender must be entered as if it were the date at which a person ceased to be a member.

Differential Shares.

45. A company, if so authorized by its articles, may do any one or more of the following things:

(a) make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the shareholders in the amounts and times of payment of calls on their shares;

(b) accept from any member who assents thereto the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him, although no part of that amount has been called up; and

(c) pay dividend in proportion to the amount paid up on each share where a larger amount is paid up on some shares than on others.
Chap. 19. Companies.

Reduction of Paid-up Capital out of Profits.

46. (1) When a company has accumulated a sum of undivided profits, which with the sanction of the shareholders may be distributed among the shareholders in the form of a dividend or bonus, it may, by special resolution, return the same or any part thereof to the shareholders in reduction of the paid-up capital of the company, the unpaid capital being thereby increased by a similar amount.

(2) The resolution shall not take effect until a memorandum, showing the particulars required by this Ordinance in the case of a reduction of share capital, has been produced to and registered by the Registrar, but the other provisions of this Ordinance with respect to reduction of share capital do not apply to a reduction of paid-up share capital under this section.

(3) On a reduction of paid-up capital in pursuance of this section, any shareholder, or any one or more of several joint shareholders, may, within one month after the passing of the resolution for the reduction, require the company to retain, and the company shall retain accordingly, the whole of the money actually paid on the shares held by him either alone or jointly with any other person, which, in consequence of the reduction, would otherwise be returned to him or them, and thereupon those shares shall, as regards the payment of dividend, be deemed to be paid up to the same extent only as the shares on which payment has been accepted by the shareholders in reduction of paid-up capital; and the company shall invest and keep invested the money so retained in such securities authorized for investment by trustees as the company may determine, and on the money so invested, or on so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of calls subsequently made on the shares in respect of which it has been retained, the company shall pay the interest received from time to time on the securities.

(4) The amount retained and invested shall be held to represent the future calls which may be made to replace the share capital so reduced on those shares, whether the amount obtained on sale of the whole or such proportion thereof as represents the amount of any call when made produces more or less than the amount of the call.

(5) On a reduction of paid-up share capital in pursuance of this section, the powers vested in the directors of making calls on shareholders in respect of the amount unpaid on their shares shall extend to the amount of the unpaid share capital as augmented by the reduction.

(6) After any reduction of share capital under this section the company shall specify in the annual list of members required by this Ordinance the amounts retained at the request of any of the shareholders in pursuance of this section, and shall specify in the statements of account laid before any general meeting of the company the amount of undivided profits returned in reduction of paid-up share capital under this section.
Companies.

Alteration of Share Capital.

47. (1) A company limited by shares, if so authorized by its articles, may alter the conditions of its memorandum as follows; that is to say, it may

(a) increase its share capital by the issue of new shares of such amount as it thinks expedient;

(b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;

(c) convert all or any of its paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into paid-up shares of any denomination;

(d) subdivide its shares, or any of them, into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum, so, however, that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived; and

(e) cancel shares that, at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.

(2) The powers conferred by this section with respect to subdivision of shares shall be exercised by special resolution.

(3) Where any alteration has been made under this section in the memorandum of a company, every copy of the memorandum issued after the date of the alteration shall be in accordance with the alteration; where a company makes default in complying with this provision it is liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars for each copy in respect of which default is made; and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the default is liable to the like penalty.

(4) A cancellation of shares in pursuance of this section shall not be deemed to be a reduction of share capital within the meaning of this Ordinance.

48. Where a company having a share capital has consolidated and divided its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares, or converted any of its shares into stock, or reconverted stock into shares, it shall give notice to the Registrar of the consolidation, division, conversion or reconversion, specifying the shares consolidated, divided or converted, or the stock reconverted.

49. Where a company having a share capital has converted any of its shares into stock, and given notice of the conversion to the Registrar, all the provisions of this Ordinance that are applicable to shares only shall cease as to so much of the share capital as is converted into stock; and the register of members of the company, and the list of members to be forwarded to the Registrar, shall show the amount of stock held by each member instead of the amount of shares and the particulars relating to shares hereinbefore required by this Ordinance.

50. (1) Where a company having a share capital, whether its shares have or have not been converted into stock, has increased its share capital beyond the registered capital, and where a company not having a share capital has increased the number of its members beyond the registered number, it shall give to the Registrar, in the case of an increase of share capital, within fifteen days after the passing, or in the case of a special resolution the confirmation, of the resolution authorizing the increase, and in the case of an increase of members within fifteen days after the increase was resolved on or took place, notice of the increase of capital or members, and the Registrar shall record the increase.

(2) Where a company makes default in complying with the requirements of this section it is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues; and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the default is liable to the like penalty.

51. (1) A company limited by shares may, by special resolution confirmed by an order of the Court, modify the conditions contained in its memorandum so as to reorganize its share capital, whether by the consolidation of shares of different classes or by the division of its shares into shares of different classes; except that no preference or special privilege attached to or belonging to any class of shares shall be interfered with except by a resolution passed by a majority in number of shareholders of that class holding three-fourths of the share capital of that class and confirmed at a meeting of shareholders of that class in the same manner as a special resolution of the company is required to be confirmed, and every resolution so passed shall bind all shareholders of the class.

(2) Where an order is made under this section, a copy thereof certified by the Clerk of the Court shall be filed with the Registrar within seven days after the making of the order, or within such further time as the Court may allow, and the resolution shall not take effect until such a copy has been so filed.

Reduction of Share Capital.

52. (1) Subject to confirmation by the Court, a company limited by shares, if so authorized by its articles, may by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way, and in particular, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may

(a) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share capital not paid up;
Companies.

(b) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid-up share capital that is lost or unrepresented by available assets; or

(c) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, pay off any paid-up share capital that is in excess of the wants of the company; and may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.

(2) A special resolution under this section is in this Ordinance called a “resolution for reducing share capital”.

53. Where a company has passed and confirmed a resolution for reducing share capital it may apply to the Court for an order confirming the reduction.

54. (1) On and from the confirmation by a company of a resolution for reducing share capital, or, where the reduction does not involve either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, then on and from the presentation of the petition for confirming the reduction, the company shall add to its name, until such date as the Court may fix, the words “and reduced”, as the last words in its name, and those words shall, until that date, be deemed to be part of the name of the company.

(2) Where the reduction does not involve either the diminution of any liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, the Court may, if it thinks expedient, dispense altogether with the addition of the words “and reduced”.

55. (1) Where the proposed reduction of share capital involves either diminution of liability in respect of unpaid share capital or the payment to any shareholder of any paid-up share capital, and in any other case if the Court so directs, every creditor of the company who at the date fixed by the Court is entitled to any debt or claim that, if that date were the commencement of the winding-up of the company, would be admissible in proof against the company, shall be entitled to object to the reduction.

(2) The Court shall settle a list of creditors so entitled to object, and for that purpose shall ascertain, as far as possible without requiring an application from any creditor, the names of those creditors and the nature and amount of their debts or claims, and may publish notices fixing a day or days within which creditors not entered on the list are to claim to be so entered or are to be excluded from the right of objection to the reduction.
(3) Where a creditor entered on the list whose debt or claim is not discharged or determined does not consent to the reduction, the Court may, if it thinks fit, dispense with the consent of that creditor, on the company securing payment of his debt or claim by appropriating, as the Court may direct, the following amount:

(a) if the company admits the full amount of his debt or claim, or, though not admitting it, is willing to provide for it, then the full amount of the debt or claim; or

(b) if the company does not admit or is not willing to provide for the full amount of the debt or claim, or if the amount is contingent or not ascertained, then an amount fixed by the Court after the like inquiry and adjudication as if the company were being wound up by the Court.

56. The Court, if satisfied with respect to every creditor of the company who under this Ordinance is entitled to object to the reduction that either his consent to the reduction has been obtained or his debt or claim has been discharged or has determined or has been secured, may make an order confirming the reduction on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

57. (1) The Registrar, on production to him of an order of the Court confirming the reduction of the share capital of a company, and the delivery to him of a copy of the order and of a minute approved by the Court, showing with respect to the share capital of the company, as altered by the order, the amount of the share capital, the number of shares into which it is to be divided, and the amount of each share, and the amount, if any, at the date of the registration deemed to be paid up on each share, shall register the order and minute.

(2) On the registration, and not before, the resolution for reducing the share capital as confirmed by the order so registered shall take effect.

(3) Notice of the registration shall be published in such manner as the Court may direct.

(4) The Registrar shall certify under his hand the registration of the order and minute, and his certificate shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this Ordinance with respect to reduction of share capital have been complied with, and that the share capital of the company is such as is stated in the minute.

58. (1) The minute, when registered, shall be deemed to be substituted for the corresponding part of the memorandum of the company, and shall be valid and alterable as if it had been originally contained therein, and shall be embodied in every copy of the memorandum issued after its registration.
(2) Where a company makes default in complying with the requirements of this section it is liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars for each copy in respect of which default is made; and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the default is liable to the like penalty.

59. (1) A member of the company, past or present, shall not be liable in respect of any share to any call or contribution exceeding in amount the difference, if any, between the amount paid, or, as the case may be, the reduced amount, if any, that is to be deemed to have been paid, on the share, and the amount of the share as fixed by the minute; except that if any creditor entitled in respect of any debt or claim to object to the reduction of share capital is, by reason of his ignorance of the proceedings for reduction, or of their nature and effect with respect to his claim, not entered on the list of creditors, and, after the reduction, the company is unable, within the meaning of the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to winding-up by the Court, to pay the amount of his debt or claim, then

(a) every person who was a member of the company at the date of the registration of the order for reduction and minute shall be liable to contribute for the payment of that debt or claim an amount not exceeding the amount which he would have been liable to contribute if the company had commenced to be wound up on the day before that registration; and

(b) if the company is wound up, the Court, on the application of any such creditor, and proof of his ignorance as aforesaid, may, if it thinks fit, settle accordingly a list of persons so liable to contribute, and make and enforce calls and orders on the contributories settled on the list as if they were ordinary contributories in a winding-up.

(2) Nothing in this section affects the rights of the contributories among themselves.

60. Where any director, manager or officer of the company wilfully conceals the name of any creditor of the company entitled to object to the reduction, or wilfully misrepresents the nature or amount of the debt or claim of any creditor, or where any director or manager of the company aids or abets in or is privy to any such concealment or misrepresentation as aforesaid, every such director, manager or officer is, for every such violation of this Ordinance, upon summary conviction, liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

61. In any case of reduction of share capital, the Court may require the company to publish as the Court directs the reasons for reduction, or such other information in regard thereto as the Court may think expedient with a view to giving proper information to the public, and, if the Court thinks fit, the causes that led to the reduction.
62. A company limited by guarantee and registered after the 1st day of May, 1914, may, if it has a share capital and is so authorized by its articles, increase or reduce its share capital in the same manner and subject to the same conditions in and subject to which a company limited by shares may increase or reduce its share capital under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Reduction of Capital by certain Limited Companies.

63. (1) In addition to the aforesaid power of reducing its share capital, it shall be lawful for companies incorporated under this or any former Ordinance of the Territory, whose principal and main business is to acquire tracts of land with the object of subdividing the same into lots and selling such lots when so subdivided as aforesaid, to declare and pay dividends out of the moneys being the net proceeds of the sale of their lands so subdivided as aforesaid, and all such dividends and payments shall be taken and considered as a reduction of the capital of such company, provided such companies have paid all debts legally owing by them, or have made ample provision for the payment of the same, testified by a statutory declaration made by the secretary of the company, who shall also exhibit and file with the Registrar a full, true and correct account of the liabilities and assets of the company.

(2) A resolution passed by the shareholders holding at least two-thirds in value of the paid-up capital stock of the company, at any general meeting of shareholders, shall be necessary for the declaration and payment of such dividends; and such resolution shall only be passed after the expiration of ten days from the filing of the statutory declaration hereinbefore required to be filed with the Registrar.

(3) A copy of every such resolution, under the seal of the company, and certified to by the secretary of the company, shall be filed in the office of the Registrar within ten days after the passing of the resolution, and ten days shall elapse after the filing thereof before payment out of any such dividends to the shareholders shall be made.

(4) After the filing of every such resolution with the Registrar, the said Registrar shall, by a notice published in four issues of the Yukon Gazette, declare to what sum the capital of any such company, by such payment of dividends, stands reduced; and the company shall pay the Registrar the costs of such publication.

Registration of Unlimited Company as Limited.

64. (1) Subject to this section, any company registered as unlimited may register under this Ordinance as limited, but the registration of an unlimited company as a limited company shall not affect any debts, liabilities, obligations or contracts incurred or entered into by, to, with or on behalf of the company before the registration, and those debts, liabilities, obligations and contracts may be enforced in manner provided by Part XII in the case of a company registered in pursuance of that Part.

(2) On registration in pursuance of this section, the Registrar shall close the former registration of the company and may dispense with the delivery to him of copies of any documents with copies of which he was furnished on the occasion of the original registration of the company, but, save as aforesaid, the registration shall take place in the same manner and shall have effect as if it were the first registration of the company under this Ordinance, and as if the provisions of the Ordinance under which the company was previously registered and regulated had been contained in different Ordinances from those under which the company is registered as a limited company.

65. An unlimited company having a share capital may, by its resolution for registration as a limited company in pursuance of this Ordinance, do either or both of the following things, namely:

(a) increase the nominal amount of its share capital by increasing the nominal amount of each of its shares, but subject to the condition that no part of the increased capital shall be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up; and

(b) provide that a specified portion of its uncalled share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up.

_Reserve Liability of Limited Company._

66. A limited company may by special resolution determine that any portion of its share capital which has not been already called up shall not be capable of being called up, except in the event and for the purposes of the company being wound up, and thereupon that portion of its share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in the event and for the purposes aforesaid.

_Unlimited Liability of Directors._

67. (1) In a limited company the liability of the directors or managers or of the managing director, may, if so provided by the memorandum, be unlimited.

(2) In a limited company in which the liability of a director or manager is unlimited, the directors or managers of the company and the member who proposes a person for election or appointment to the office of director or manager, shall add to that proposal a statement that the liability of the person holding that office will be unlimited, and the promoters, directors, managers and secretary of the company, or one of them, shall, before the person accepts the office or acts therein, give him notice in writing that his liability will be unlimited.

(3) Where any director, manager or proposer makes default in adding such a statement, or if any promoter, director, manager or secretary makes default in giving such a notice, he is liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and shall also be liable for any damage which the person so elected or appointed may sustain from the default, but the liability of the person elected or appointed shall not be affected by the default.

68. (1) A limited company, if so authorized by its articles, may, by special resolution, alter its memorandum so as to render unlimited the liability of its directors or managers or of any managing director.

(2) Upon the confirmation of any such special resolution the provisions thereof shall be as valid as if they had been originally contained in the memorandum; and a copy thereof shall be embodied in or annexed to every copy of the memorandum issued after the confirmation of the resolution.

(3) Where a company makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, it is liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars for each copy in respect of which default is made and every director or manager of the company who knowingly and willfully authorizes or permits the default is liable to the like penalty.

(4) This section does not apply to an extra-territorial company.
72. (1) Every company limited by shares registered after the 1st day of May, 1914, shall, within a period of not less than one month nor more than three months from the date at which the company is entitled to commence business, hold a general meeting of the members of the company, which shall be called "the statutory meeting".

(2) The directors shall, at least seven days before the day on which the meeting is held, forward a report (in this Ordinance called the "statutory report") to every member of the company and to every other person entitled under this Ordinance to receive it.

(3) The statutory report shall be certified by not less than two directors of the company, or, where there are less than two directors, by the sole director and manager, and shall state as may be just.

(10) The provisions of this section as to the forwarding and filing of the statutory report do not apply in the case of a private company.

any person liable for the default, may apply to the Court for relief, and the Court, if satisfied that such default was accidental or due to inadvertence, or that it is just and equitable to grant relief, may make an order extending the time for compliance with this section for such period as the Court may think proper.

pany, the directors of a company shall, on the requisition of the holders of not less than one-tenth of the issued share capital of the company upon which all calls or other sums then due have and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the company, and may consist of several documents in like form, each signed by one or more requisitionists.

(4) If at any such meeting a resolution requiring confirmation at another meeting is passed, the directors shall forthwith convene a further extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of considering the resolution and, if thought fit, of confirming it as a special resolution; and, if the directors do not convene the meeting within seven days from the date of the passing of the first resolution, the requisitionists, or a majority of them in value, may themselves convene the meeting.

76. (1) A resolution shall be an extraordinary resolution when it has been passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths of such members entitled to vote as are present in person or by proxy, where proxies are allowed, at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as an extraordinary resolution has been duly given.

(2) A resolution shall be a special resolution when it has been
(a) passed in manner required for the passing of an extraordinary resolution; and

(b) confirmed by a majority of such members entitled to vote as are present in person or by proxy, where proxies are allowed, at a subsequent general meeting, of which notice has been duly given, and held after an interval of not less than fourteen days, nor more than one month, from the date of the first meeting.

(3) At any meeting at which an extraordinary resolution is submitted to be passed or a special resolution is submitted to be passed or confirmed, a declaration of the chairman that the resolution is carried shall, unless a poll is demanded, be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(4) At any meeting at which an extraordinary resolution is submitted to be passed or a special resolution is submitted to be passed or confirmed a poll may be demanded, if demanded by three persons for the time being entitled according to the articles to vote, unless the articles of the company require a demand by such number of such persons, not in any case exceeding five, as may be specified in the articles.

(5) When a poll is demanded in accordance with this section, in computing the majority on the poll reference shall be had to the number of votes to which each member is entitled by the articles of the company.

(6) For the purposes of this section, notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be duly given and the meeting to be duly held when the notice is given and the meeting held in manner provided by the articles.

77. (1) A copy of every special and extraordinary resolution duly authenticated as provided in section 124 shall, within fifteen days from the confirmation of the special resolution or from the passing of an extraordinary resolution, as the case may be, be filed with the Registrar.

(2) Where articles have been registered, a copy of every special resolution for the time being in force shall be embodied in or annexed to every copy of the articles issued after the confirmation of the resolution.

(3) Where articles have not been registered, a copy of every special resolution shall be forwarded to any member at his request, on payment of twenty-five cents or such less sum as the company may direct.

(4) Where a company makes default in forwarding a copy of a special or extraordinary resolution to the Registrar, it is liable to a fine not exceeding ten dollars for every day during which the default continues.
(5) Where a company makes default in embodying in or annexing to a copy of its articles or in forwarding to a member when required by this section a copy of a special resolution, it is liable to a fine not exceeding five dollars for each copy in respect of which default is made.

(6) Every director and manager of a company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits any default by the company in complying with the requirements of this section is liable to the like penalty as is imposed by this section on the company for that default.

78. (1) Every company shall cause minutes of all proceedings of general meetings and, where there are directors or managers, of its directors or managers to be entered in books kept for that purpose.

(2) Any such minute if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were had, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, shall be evidence of the proceedings.

(3) Until the contrary is proved, every general meeting of the company or meeting of directors or managers in respect of the proceedings whereof minutes have been so made shall be deemed to have been duly held and convened, and all proceedings had thereat to have been duly had, and all appointments of directors, managers or liquidators shall be deemed to be valid.

Appointment, Qualification, etc., of Directors.

79. (1) A person is not capable of being appointed director of a company by the articles, and shall not be named as a director or proposed director of a company in any prospectus issued by or on behalf of the company, unless, before the registration of the articles or the publication of the prospectus, as the case may be, he has, by himself, or by his agent authorized in writing,

(a) signed and filed with the Registrar a consent in writing to act as such director; and

(b) either signed the memorandum for a number of shares not less than his qualification, if any, or signed and filed with the Registrar a contract in writing to take from the company and pay for his qualification shares if any.

(2) On the application for registration of the memorandum and articles of a company the applicant shall deliver to the Registrar a list of the persons who have consented to be directors of the company, and, if this list contains the name of any person who has not so consented, the applicant shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars.

(3) This section does not apply to a private company nor to a prospectus issued by or on behalf of a company after the expiration of one year from the date at which the company is entitled to commence business.
80. (1) Without prejudice to the restrictions imposed by section 79, it shall be the duty of every director who is by the regulations of the company required to hold a specified share qualification, and is not already qualified, to obtain his qualification within two months after his appointment, or such shorter time as may be fixed by the regulations of the company.

(2) The office of director of a company shall be vacated if the director does not within two months from the date of his appointment, or within such shorter time as may be fixed by the regulations of the company, obtain his qualification, or if after the expiration of such period or shorter time he ceases at any time to hold his qualification; and a person vacating office under this section shall be incapacible of being reappointed director of the company until he has obtained his qualification.

(3) Where after the expiration of the said period or shorter time any unqualified person acts as a director of the company, he is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day between the expiration of the said period or shorter time and the last day on which it is proved that he acted as a director.

81. The acts of a director or manager shall be valid notwithstanding any defect that may afterwards be discovered in his appointment or qualification.

82. (1) Every company shall keep at its registered office a register containing the names and addresses and the occupations of its directors or managers, and send to the Registrar a copy thereof, and from time to time notify to the Registrar any change among its directors or managers.

(2) Where default is made in compliance with this section, the company is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues; and every director and manager of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits the default is liable to the like penalty.

Contracts, etc.

83. (1) Contracts on behalf of a company may be made as follows:

(a) any contract that if made between private persons would by law be valid although made by parol only, according to the law of the Territory or Canada to be under seal, may be made on behalf of the company in writing under the common seal of the company, and may in the same manner be varied or discharged;

86. A company may, by writing under its common seal, empower any person, either generally or in respect of any specified matters as its attorney, to execute deeds on its behalf in any place situate within or without the limits of the Territory; and every deed signed by such attorney, on behalf of the company and under his seal, shall bind the company and have the same effect as if it were under the common seal of the company.

Chap. 19.
(5) Where the prospectus mentioned in this section is published as a newspaper advertisement, it shall not be necessary in the advertisement to specify the contents of the memorandum or the signatories thereto, and the number of shares subscribed for by them.

(6) In the event of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this section, a director or other person responsible for the prospectus shall not incur any liability by reason of the non-compliance, if he proves that

(a) as regards any matter not disclosed, he was not cognizant thereof; or

(b) the non-compliance arose from an honest mistake of fact on his part;

except that, in the event of non-compliance with the requirements contained in paragraph (m) of subsection (1) no director or other person shall incur any liability in respect of the non-compliance unless it is proved that he had knowledge of the matters not disclosed.

(7) This section does not apply to a circular or notice inviting existing members or debenture-holders of a company to subscribe either for shares or for the debentures of the company, whether with or without the right to renounce in favour of other persons; but, subject as aforesaid, this section applies to any prospectus whether issued on or with reference to the formation of a company or subsequently.

(8) The requirements of this section as to the memorandum and the qualification, remuneration and interest of directors, the names, descriptions and addresses of directors or proposed directors, and the amount or estimated amount of preliminary expenses, shall not apply in the case of a prospectus issued more than one year after the date at which the company is entitled to commence business.

(9) Nothing in this section limits or diminishes any liability that any person may incur under the general law or this Ordinance apart from this section.

90. (1) A company that does not issue a prospectus on or with reference to its formation shall not allot any of its shares or debentures unless before the first allotment of either shares or debentures there has been filed with the Registrar a statement in lieu of prospectus signed by every person who is named therein as a director or a proposed director of the company or by his agent authorized in writing, in the form and containing the particulars set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) This section does not apply to a private company or to a company that has allotted any shares or debentures before the 1st day of May, 1914.

91. A company shall not, previously to the statutory meeting, vary the terms of a contract referred to in the prospectus, except subject to the approval of the statutory meeting.
92. (1) Where a prospectus invites persons to subscribe for shares in or debentures of a company, every person who is a director of the company at the time of the issue of the prospectus and every person who has authorized the naming of him and is named in the prospectus as a director or as having agreed to become a director either immediately or after an interval of time, and every promoter of the company, and every person who has authorized the issue of the prospectus, is liable to pay compensation to all persons who subscribe for any shares or debentures on the faith of the prospectus for the loss or damage they may have sustained by reason of any untrue statement thereof, or by reference incorporated therein or issued therewith, unless it is proved,

(a) with respect to every untrue statement not purporting to be made on the authority of an expert, or of a public official document or statement, that he had reasonable ground to believe, and did up to the time of the allotment of the shares or debentures, as the case may be, believe, that the statement was true;

(b) with respect to every untrue statement purporting to be a statement by or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a report or valuation of an expert, that it fairly represented the statement, or was a correct and fair copy of or extract from the report or valuation; but the director, person named as director, promoter or person who authorized the issue of the prospectus, is liable to pay compensation as aforesaid if it is proved that he had no reasonable ground to believe that the person making the statement, report or valuation was competent to make it; and

(c) with respect to every untrue statement purporting to be a statement made by an official person or contained in what purports to be a copy of or extract from a public official document, that it was a correct and fair representation of the statement or copy of or extract from the document;

or unless it is proved

(d) that having consented to become a director of the company he withdrew his consent before the issue of the prospectus, and that it was issued without his authority or consent;

(e) that the prospectus was issued without his knowledge or consent, and that on becoming aware of its issue he forthwith gave reasonable public notice that it was issued without his knowledge or consent; or

(f) that after the issue of the prospectus and before allotment thereunder, he, on becoming aware of any untrue statement therein, withdrew his consent thereto, and gave reasonable public notice of the withdrawal, and of the reason therefor.
(2) Where an existing company has issued shares or debentures, and for the purpose of obtaining further capital by subscriptions for shares or debentures issues a prospectus, a director is not liable in respect of any statement therein, unless he has authorized the issue of the prospectus, or has adopted or ratified it.

(3) Where the prospectus contains the name of a person as a director of the company, or as having agreed to become a director thereof, and he has not consented to become a director or has withdrawn his consent before the issue of the prospectus, and has not authorized or consented to the issue thereof, the directors of the company, except any without whose knowledge or consent the prospectus was issued, and any other person who authorized the issue thereof, is liable to indemnify the person named as aforesaid against all damages, costs and expenses to which he may be made liable by reason of his name having been inserted in the prospectus, or in defending himself against any action or legal proceedings brought against him in respect thereof.

(4) Every person who by reason of his being a director, or named as a director or as having agreed to become a director, or of his having authorized the issue of the prospectus, becomes liable to make any payment under this section may recover contribution, as in cases of contract, from any other person who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment, unless the person who has become so liable was, and that other person was not, guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation.

(5) For the purposes of this section,

(a) "promoter" means a promoter who was a party to the preparation of the prospectus, or of the portion thereof containing the untrue statement, but does not include any person by reason of his acting in a professional capacity for persons engaged in procuring the formation of the company; and

(b) "expert" includes engineer, valuer, accountant and any other person whose profession gives authority to a statement made by him.

Allotment.

93. (1) No allotment shall be made of any share capital of a company offered to the public for subscription, unless the following conditions have been complied with, namely:

(a) the amount, if any, fixed by the memorandum or articles and named in the prospectus as the minimum subscription upon which the directors may proceed to allotment; or

(b) if no amount is so fixed and named, then the whole amount of the share capital so offered for subscription; has been subscribed, and the sum payable on application for the amount so fixed and named, or for the whole amount offered for subscription, has been paid to and received by the company.
(2) The amount so fixed and named and the whole amount aforesaid shall be reckoned exclusively of any amount payable otherwise than in cash, and is in this Ordinance referred to as the "minimum subscription".

(3) The amount payable on application on each share shall not be less than five per cent of the nominal amount of the share.

(4) Where the conditions aforesaid have not been complied with on the expiration of sixty days after the first issue of the prospectus, all money received from applicants for shares shall be forthwith repaid to them without interest; and where any such money is not so repaid within seventy-five days after the issue of the prospectus, the directors of the company are jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the expiration of the seventy-fifth day; except that a director shall not be liable if he proves that the loss of the money was not due to any misconduct or negligence on his part.

(5) Any condition requiring or binding any applicant for shares to waive compliance with any requirement of this section shall be void.

(6) This section, except subsection (3), does not apply to any allotment of shares subsequent to the first allotment of shares offered to the public for subscription.

(7) In the case of the first allotment of share capital payable in cash of a company which does not issue any invitation to the public to subscribe for its shares, no allotment shall be made unless the minimum subscription, that is to say,

(a) the amount, if any, fixed by the memorandum or articles as the minimum subscription upon which the directors may proceed to allotment; or

(b) if no amount is so fixed and named, then the whole amount of the share capital other than that issued or agreed to be issued as fully or partly paid up otherwise than in cash,

(8) Subsection (7) does not apply to a private company or to a company that has allotted any shares or debentures before the 1st day of May, 1914.

94. (1) An allotment made by a company to an applicant in contravention of section 93 shall be voidable at the instance of the applicant within one month after the holding of the statutory meeting of the company and not later, and shall be so voidable notwithstanding that the company is in course of being wound up.
(2) Where any director of a company knowingly contravenes or permits or authorizes the contravention of any of the provisions of section 93 with respect to allotment, he is liable to compensate the company and the allottee respectively for any loss, damages or costs which the company or the allottee may have sustained or incurred thereby; except that proceedings to recover any such loss, damages or costs shall not be commenced after the expiration of two years from the date of the allotment.

95. (1) A company shall not commence any business or exercise any borrowing powers unless

(a) shares held subject to the payment of the whole amount thereof in cash have been allotted to an amount not less in the whole than the minimum subscription;

(b) every director of the company has paid to the company on each of the shares taken or contracted to be taken by him, and for which he is liable to pay in cash, a proportion equal to the proportion payable on application and allotment on the shares offered for public subscription, or in the case of a company that does not issue a prospectus inviting the public to subscribe for its shares, on the shares payable in cash;

(c) there has been filed with the Registrar a statutory declaration by the secretary or one of the directors, in the prescribed form, that the aforesaid conditions have been complied with; and

(d) in the case of a company that does not issue a prospectus inviting the public to subscribe for its shares, there has been filed with the Registrar a statement in lieu of prospectus.

(2) The Registrar shall, on the filing of this statutory declaration, certify that the company is entitled to commence business, and that certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the company is so entitled.

(3) Any contract made by a company before the date at which it is entitled to commence business shall be provisional only, and shall not be binding on the company until that date, and on that date it shall become binding.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the simultaneous offer for subscription or allotment of any shares and debentures or the receipt of any money payable on application for debentures.

(5) Where a company commences business or exercises borrowing powers in contravention of this section, every person who is responsible for the contravention is, without prejudice to any other liability, liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars for every day during which the contravention continues.

96. (1) Whenever a company limited by shares makes any allotment of its shares, the company shall within one month thereafter file with the Registrar

(2) Where any contract mentioned in subsection (1) is not reduced to writing, the company shall within one month after the allotment file with the Registrar the prescribed particulars of the contract.

(3) Where default is made in complying with the requirements of this section, every director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company who is knowingly a party to the default is liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars for every day during which the default continues; except that, in case of default in filing with the Registrar within one month after the allotment any document required to be filed by this section, the company, or any person liable for the default, may apply to the Court for relief, and the Court, if satisfied that the omission to file the document was accidental or due to inadvertence or that it is just and equitable to grant relief, may make an order extending the time for the filing of the document for such period as the Court thinks proper.

Commissions and Discounts.

97. (1) It shall be lawful for a company to pay a commission to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares in the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company, if the payment of the commission is authorized by the memorandum or articles, and the commission paid or agreed to be paid

(2) Save as mentioned in subsection (1), no company shall apply any of its shares or capital money either directly or indirectly in payment of any commission, discount or allowance to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any shares of the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any shares in the company, whether the shares or money be so applied by being added to the purchase money of any property acquired by the company or to the contract price of any work to be executed for the company, or the money be paid out of the nominal purchase money or contract price, or otherwise.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the power of any company to pay such brokerage as has heretofore been lawful for a company to pay, and a vendor to, promoter of, or other person who receives payment in money or shares from, a company has and shall be deemed always to have had power to apply any part of the money or shares so received in payment of any commission, the payment of which, if made directly by the company, would have been lawful under this section.

98. Where a company has paid any sums by way of commission in respect of any shares or debentures, or allowed any sums by way of discount in respect of any debentures, the total amount so paid or allowed, or so much thereof as has not been written off, shall be stated in every balance-sheet of the company until the whole amount thereof has been written off.

(a) no such payment shall be made unless the same is authorized by the articles or by special resolution;

(b) no such payment, whether authorized by the articles or by special resolution, shall be made without the previous sanction of the Commissioner;

(c) before sanctioning any such payment the Commissioner may, at the expense of the company, appoint a person to inquire and report to him as to the circumstances of the

(d) the payment shall be made only for such period as may be determined by the Commissioner, and such period shall in no case extend beyond the close of the half-year next after the half-year during which the works or buildings have been actually completed or the plant provided;

(e) the rate of interest shall be that agreed upon, and if there shall be no such agreement, shall be the rate provided by statute in cases where interest is by law payable and the rate is not agreed upon;

(f) the payment of the interest shall not operate as a reduction of the amount paid up on the shares in respect of which it is paid; and

(g) the accounts of the company shall show the share capital on which, and the rate at which, interest has been paid out of capital during the period to which the accounts relate.

Certificates of Shares, etc.

(g) the time for registration of a mortgage or charge created outside the Territory, and requiring registration under this Ordinance, shall be thirty days from the creation of such mortgage or charge;

(i) where a negotiable instrument has been given to secure the payment of any book debts of a company, the deposit of the instrument for the purpose of securing an advance to the company shall not, for the purposes of this section be treated as a mortgage or charge on those book debts; and

(4) Where any commission, allowance or discount has been paid or made either directly or indirectly by the company to any person in consideration of his subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for any debentures of the company, or procuring or agreeing to procure subscriptions, whether absolute or conditional, for any such debentures, the particulars required to be sent for registration under this section shall include particulars as to the amount or rate per cent of the commission, discount or allowance so paid or made, but an omission to do this shall not affect the validity of the debentures issued; but the deposit of any debentures as security for any debt of the company shall not for the purposes of this subsection be treated as the issue of the debentures at a discount.

(5) The Registrar shall give a certificate under his hand of the registration of any mortgage or charge registered in pursuance of this section, stating the amount thereby secured, and the certificate shall be conclusive evidence that the requirements of this section as to registration have been complied with.

(6) It shall be the duty of the company to register every mortgage or charge and every series of debentures created or issued by it requiring registration under this section, but registration of any such mortgage or charge may be effected on the application of any person interested therein; and where the registration is effected on the application of some person other than the company, that person shall be entitled to recover from the company the amount of any fees properly paid by him to the Registrar on the registration.

(7) The register kept in pursuance of this section shall be open to inspection by any person on payment of the prescribed fee, not exceeding twenty-five cents for each inspection.

(8) Every company shall cause a copy of every instrument creating any mortgage or charge requiring registration under this section to be kept at the registered office of the company; except that, in the case of a series of uniform debentures, a copy of one such debenture shall be sufficient.

(k) to distribute any of the property of the company among the members in specie;

(l) to sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any company; except, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up; and

(m) to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects.

133. Every company, the objects whereof are restricted as aforesaid, shall have written or printed on its charter, prospectuses, stock certificates, bonds, contracts, agreements, notices, advertisements and other official publications, and in all bills of exchange, promissory notes, indorsements, cheques, and orders for money or goods purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the company, and in all bills of parcels, invoices, receipts and letter heads of the company, immediately after or under the name of such company, and shall have engraved upon its seal the words “Non-Personal Liability,” and such words shall be the last words of its name; and every such company that refuses, or knowingly neglects, to comply with this section shall incur a penalty of twenty dollars for every day during which such name is not so kept written or printed, recoverable upon summary conviction; and every director and manager, secretary and officer of the company who knowingly and wilfully authorizes or permits such default shall be liable to the like penalty.

134. (1) In the event of any call or calls on assessable shares in a company, the objects whereof are restricted as aforesaid, remaining unpaid by the subscriber thereto, or holder thereof, for a period of sixty days after notice and demand of payment, such shares may be declared by the directors to be in default, and the secretary of the company may advertise such shares for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, by giving notice of such sale in some newspaper published or circulating in the city or district where the principal office of the company is situated, for a period of one month.

(2) The notice required by this section shall contain the number of the certificate or certificates of such shares, and the number of shares, the amount of the assessment due and unpaid, and the time and place of sale; and in addition to the publication of the notice, notice shall be personally served upon such subscriber or holder by registered letter mailed to his last known address; and if the subscriber or holder of such shares fails to pay the amount due upon such shares, with interest upon the same at the rate provided by the articles, by-laws or regulations of the company, or where no rate is so fixed, at the same rate as is provided by statute in other cases where interest is by law payable and the rate is not agreed upon, and cost of advertising, before the time fixed for such sale, the secretary shall proceed to sell the same or such portion thereof as shall suffice to pay such assessment, together with such interest and cost of advertising; except that if the price of the share so sold exceeds the amount due with said interest and cost thereon, the excess thereof shall be paid to the defaulting subscriber or holder.

135. No shareholder or subscriber for shares in any company, the objects whereof are restricted as aforesaid, shall be personally liable for non-payment of any calls made upon his shares, nor shall such shareholder or subscriber be personally liable for any debt contracted by the company, or for any sum payable by the company.
136. Wherever any shares have been, prior to the 1st day of May, 1914, issued by any company duly incorporated under any Ordinance as fully paid-up shares, either at a discount or in payment for any mine, mineral claim or mining property purchased or acquired by such company, or for the acquiring whereof such company has been incorporated, all such shares shall, except as to any debts contracted by the company before the 1st day of May, 1914, in regard to which the liability in such shares shall be the same as if this Ordinance had not been passed, be deemed and held to be fully paid up, and the holder thereof shall be subject to no personal liability thereon, in the same manner as if the memorandum of association of the company had contained the provision aforesaid.

137. Any company with specially limited liability on shares heretofore incorporated under an Ordinance respecting mining companies, being Chapter 60 of the Consolidated Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1902, and the powers, rights and liabilities of any such company and of its shareholders, shall be and remain specially limited as provided in those sections and all shares of any such company heretofore issued, or that may hereafter be issued, as full paid and non-assessable, as therein provided, shall at all times be deemed to be full-paid and non-assessable.

138. (1) In case a resolution authorizing reincorporation and registration under this Ordinance, and authorizing the execution by the directors on behalf of the shareholders of the company of a memorandum of association for the objects specified in such resolution, is passed at a general meeting of the shareholders of the company duly called specially for the purpose, at which meeting at least two-thirds in value of all the shares of the company are represented by the holders thereof in person or by proxy and vote in favour of such resolution, any company heretofore or hereafter incorporated, subject to section 131 of this Ordinance or the like provisions of any former Ordinance, and being at the time of registration a subsisting and valid company, and upon payment to the Registrar of a fee of ten dollars, and no more (except where the capital is increased), is entitled to receive from the Registrar a certificate of the reincorporation and registration of the company under this Ordinance as an unlimited company, or as a company limited by shares, or as a company limited by guarantee, for the objects and purposes to be set out in the memorandum of association executed in pursuance of such resolution, and thereupon the old company shall, as such company, cease to exist, and all the rights, property and obligations of the former company shall thereby be and be deemed ipso facto to have been transferred to the new company, and all proceedings may be continued or commenced by or against the new company that might have been continued or commenced by or against the old company, and it shall not be necessary in the certificate of reincorporation or registration to set out the names of the shareholders.

(2) After such reincorporation and registration the company shall be governed in all respects by this Ordinance, except that the liabilities of the shareholders to creditors of the old company shall remain as at the time of reincorporation; and of such reincorporation the certificate aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence, as well as conclusive evidence of the due registration and observance of all statutory requirements with respect of registration or incorporation in force prior to the passing of this Ordinance.

(3) Where an existing company applies for registration under this section, the directors may, in and by the memorandum of association executed pursuant to and conforming to the resolution of the company authorizing the execution thereof, extend, vary or limit the powers and objects of the company, and the certificate of registration under this section shall be to the new company by a different name than that of the old company.

(4) Where the existing company is registered under this section, the capital of the company may be increased or decreased to any amount which may be fixed by the resolution of the company authorizing such registration; but where increased the fees for increase of capital mentioned in Table B shall be paid to the Registrar.

(5) The said resolution shall prescribe the manner in which the shares in the new company are to be allotted to holders of shares in the old company, and shall prescribe to what amount, if any, the shares in the new company shall be assessable, and generally the terms upon which the new shares shall be deliverable to the allottees; except, however, that no shareholder in the old company shall be liable upon any shares in the new company unless he accepts the allotment to him of the same.

(6) The memorandum of association may be accompanied by articles of association, in accordance with section 19 of this Ordinance, and such articles of association must be authorized by the resolution authorizing registration under this section.

(7) Whenever the Registrar considers that public notice of an intended application for reincorporation and registration under this section should be given, he shall require notice to be published in the Yukon Gazette, or otherwise, as he thinks proper.

(8) The Registrar may, in any case where he thinks it proper so to do, refuse reincorporation and registration; but the company may appeal from the decision of the Registrar under this section to the Territorial Court, or a judge thereof in Chambers, by motion.

(9) Every certificate of registration issued under this section shall be published in one issue of the Yukon Gazette and in one issue of a newspaper circulating in the city or district in which the registered office of the company is situate.
PART VI.

LICENSING AND REGISTRATION OF EXTRA-TERRITORIAL COMPANIES.

General.

139. (1) Every extra-territorial company, other than a company incorporated under authority of an Act of the Parliament of Canada, having gain for its purpose and object within the scope of this Ordinance is hereby required to be licensed or registered under this or some former Ordinance, and no company, firm, broker or other person shall, as the representative or agent of or acting in any other capacity for any such extra-territorial company, carry on any of the business of an extra-territorial company within the Territory until such extra-territorial company shall have been licensed or registered as aforesaid.

(2) This section applies to an extra-territorial company notwithstanding that it was heretofore registered as a foreign company under the provisions of any other Ordinance.

(3) Every such company incorporated under authority of an Act of the Parliament of Canada, is also required to be registered under this or some former Ordinance, but the above provisions restrictive of its carrying on business before licensing or registration do not apply to such company.

140. The Registrar may, for good cause shown, dispense with the filing, by an extra-territorial company proceeding to obtain a licence or registration under this Part, of one or more of the documents that compose its charter and regulations, and may allow to be substituted therefor a list of the documents so dispensed with, accompanied by a statement of the reasons for dispensing with the originals, and, if he so require, by such memorandum of the contents of such originals as he may deem sufficient.

141. Any extra-territorial company licensed or registered under this or some former Ordinance may sue and be sued in its corporate name, and, if authorized so to do by its charter and regulations, may acquire and hold lands in the Territory by gift, purchase or as mortgagees or otherwise, as fully and freely as private individuals, and may sell, lease, mortgage or otherwise alienate the same.

142. Every extra-territorial company registered as a company under this or some former Ordinance shall, subject to the provisions of its charter and regulations, and of this Ordinance, have and may exercise all the rights, powers and privileges by this Ordinance granted to and conferred upon companies incorporated thereunder; and every such extra-territorial company and the directors, officers and members thereof shall, save as in this Ordinance otherwise provided, be subject to and shall, subject as aforesaid, observe, carry out and perform every act, matter, obligation and duty by this Ordinance prescribed and imposed upon companies incorporated thereunder, or upon the directors, officers and members thereof.

143. (1) Every extra-territorial company registered under this Part shall, in and by the power of attorney hereinafter prescribed empower its attorney to issue and transfer shares of the company.

(2) Every such extra-territorial company shall, at its head office or chief place of business in the Territory, provide and keep, in form and manner provided by section 32, a register of all shares issued at such head office or chief place of business, and of all transfers of shares in the company made within the Territory and presented for record at such head office or chief place of business; and every lawful transfer of shares made by a member shall, upon the entry and record on such register, be valid and binding to all intents and purposes; and every act, matter or thing lawfully done by the attorney of the company pursuant to this section shall be as valid and binding in all respects as if done by the company or the directors, managers or officers of the company, pursuant to the provisions of the charter and regulations of the company and of this Ordinance in that behalf.

144. Every extra-territorial company duly incorporated under the laws of the United Kingdom, or of the late Province of Canada, or of any of the provinces of Canada, registered prior to the 1st day of May, 1914, in the Territory as a foreign company under the provisions of any Ordinance, may surrender to the Registrar the certificate of registration of the company issued under such Ordinance and obtain from him a licence under the provisions of this Part; and for the purpose of obtaining such licence the surrender of such certificate of registration and the filing of the power of attorney prescribed by paragraph (c) of section 152 shall be deemed to be a sufficient compliance with the requirements of this Part.

145. The licence issued in pursuance of section 144 to an extra-territorial company heretofore registered as a foreign company need not contain in detail the objects of the company, but may incorporate them by reference to the former certificate of registration of the company.

146. Every extra-territorial company registered in the Territory before the passage of this Ordinance, as a foreign company under the provisions of any Ordinance in that behalf, other than a company entitled to obtain and that has obtained a licence under some former Ordinance, may obtain a licence under this Part, and the directors, officers and members thereof, shall be subject to and shall observe, carry out and perform every act, matter, obligation and duty by this Ordinance prescribed and imposed upon companies incorporated thereunder, or upon the directors, officers and members thereof.

147. In case of any suit or other proceeding being commenced by any extra-territorial company against any person or corporation residing or carrying on business in the Territory, such extra-territorial company shall furnish security for costs, if demanded.

148. The Commissioner may, by order published in three consecutive issues of the Yukon Gazette, suspend or revoke and make null and void any licence granted or any registration effected under this or some former Ordinance to any company that refuses or fails to keep a duly appointed attorney within the Territory, or to comply with any of the provisions of this Part; and, notwithstanding such suspension or revocation, the rights of creditors of the company shall remain as at the time of such suspension or revocation.

149. Sections 101 to 110 of this Ordinance apply to every extra-territorial company.

150. The licence or certificate of registration to any extra-territorial company the objects whereof are restricted as mentioned in subsection (1) of section 131 may, if so applied for in the application for such licence, or in the petition for such registration, contain the provision that the company is specially limited as in that section expressed; and in such case the provisions of sections 131 to 135 apply to such extra-territorial company.

Licensing of Extra-territorial Companies.

151. Any extra-territorial company duly incorporated under the laws of the United Kingdom, the former Province of Canada, any province of Canada or the Parliament of Canada that is duly authorized by its charter and regulations to carry out or effect any of the purposes or objects to which the legislative authority of the Council extends, may obtain a licence from the Registrar authorizing it to carry on business within the Territory on compliance with this Ordinance, and on payment to the Registrar in respect of the several matters mentioned in the Table B in the First Schedule the several fees therein specified, and shall, subject to the provisions of the charter and regulations of the company and to the terms of the licence, thereupon have the same powers and privileges in the Territory as if incorporated under this Ordinance.

(d) notice of the place where the head office without the Territory is situate;
(e) notice of the city, town or district in the Territory where the head office of the company is proposed to be situate;
(f) the amount of the capital of the company; and

and such certificate together with a statement by the Registrar of the objects for which the company has been established and licensed shall be published at the expense of the company once in the Yukon Gazette or in a newspaper published in the Territory at or nearest the place that is to be the chief place of business of the company; and such licence shall be conclusive evidence of compliance with all the requirements of this Ordinance.

155. If the power of attorney hereinbefore prescribed becomes invalid or ineffectual from any reason, or if other service cannot be readily effected, the Court or judge may order substitutional service of any process or proceeding upon the company to be made by such publication as is deemed requisite to be made in the premises, for at least four weeks in at least one newspaper; and such publication shall be held to be due service upon the company of such process or proceeding.

Registration of Extra-territorial Companies.

156. Any other extra-territorial company, duly authorized by its charter and regulations to carry out or effect any of the purposes or objects to which the legislative authority of the Council extends, may register the company as a company under this Ordinance on compliance with the provisions of this Part, and on payment to the Registrar in respect of the several matters mentioned in the Table B in the First Schedule the several fees therein specified, and such company shall, subject to the provisions of the charter and regulations of the company and of this Ordinance, thereupon have the same powers and privileges in the Territory as if incorporated under this Ordinance.

Companies.

157. Any extra-territorial company desiring to become registered as a company under this Ordinance may petition therefor under the common seal of the company, and with such petition shall file in the office of the Registrar:

(a) a true copy of the charter and regulations of the company, verified in manner satisfactory to the Registrar, and showing that the company by its charter has authority to carry on business in the Territory; and if any instrument included in the aforesaid is not written in the English language, a notarially certified translation thereof;

(b) an affidavit or statutory declaration that the said company is still in existence and legally authorized to transact business under its charter;

(c) a duly executed power of attorney, under its common seal, empowering some person therein named, and residing in the city or place where the head office of the company in the Territory is situate, to act as its attorney and to sue and be sued, plead or be impleaded, in any Court, and generally, on behalf of such company and within the Territory, to accept service of process and to receive all lawful notices, to issue and transfer shares or stock, and to do all acts and to execute all deeds and other instruments relating to the matters within the scope of the power of attorney and of the company to give to its attorney; and such company may from time to time, by a new or other power of attorney executed and deposited as aforesaid, appoint another attorney within the Territory for the purposes aforesaid to replace the attorney formerly appointed; the power of attorney may be according to a form approved of and provided by the Registrar;

(g) the number of shares into which it is divided.

158. (1) The Registrar may accept from any extra-territorial company, proceeding to obtain registration under section 157, a power of attorney which varies in substance from that called for by paragraph (c) of that section in that it omits to empower the attorney named therein to issue and transfer shares or stock, upon its being shown to his satisfaction either that the company is not a public company the shares or stock whereof are upon the market, or that although the company is a public company and the shares or stock thereof are upon the market, yet, either owing to the small quantity of the shares or stock of the company held in the Territory and to the fact that the company does not propose to place any of the shares or stock upon the market in the Territory, or to the fact that the consent of the holders of shares or stock within the Territory has been obtained, the preponderance of convenience is in favour of exempting the company from empowering their attorney in the manner specified.

(2) The certificate of registration issued to the company under section 159 shall state, after the name, address and occupation of the attorney, that such attorney is not empowered to issue or transfer shares or stock; and the company shall thereupon be relieved from compliance with section 143.

159. (1) The Registrar shall issue to any extra-territorial company registered under this Ordinance a certificate of registration which shall set forth and such certificate, together with a statement by the Registrar of the objects for which the company has been established and registered, shall be published at the expense of the company once in the Yukon Gazette or in a newspaper published in the Territory at or nearest the place that is to be the chief place of business of the company; and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of compliance with all the requirements of this Ordinance.

(2) Notice of the appointment of a new attorney, or of the company ceasing to carry on business in the Territory, shall likewise be published for the time and in manner aforesaid.

160. The certificate of registration or any copy thereof certified under the hand and seal of the Registrar, or a copy of the Yukon Gazette containing such certificate of registration, shall be sufficient evidence in any proceeding in any Court in the Territory of the due registration of the company.

161. If the power of attorney hereinbefore prescribed becomes invalid or ineffectual from any reason, or if other service cannot readily be effected, the Court or judge may order substitutional service of any process or proceeding upon the company to be made by such publication as is deemed requisite to be made in the premises, for at least four weeks in at least one newspaper; and such publication shall be held to be due service upon the company of such process or proceeding.

162. No act, matter, disposition or thing affecting the corporate rights and property of the company within the Territory, made, done or executed by any extra-territorial company entitled to registration only under this Part, although valid by the laws of the country or state under which such company is incorporated, or permissible under its original corporate powers, shall be of any force or effect, or enforceable by the company or any one on its behalf by action in any Court in the Territory, unless such act, matter, disposition or thing be valid and permissible by the laws of the Territory.

Disabilities and Penalties.

163. Where any extra-territorial company, without being licensed or registered pursuant to this or some former Ordinance carries on in the Territory any part of its business, such company is liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for every day upon which it so carries on business.

164. So long as any extra-territorial company remains unlicensed or unregistered under this or some former Ordinance, it shall not be capable of maintaining any action, suit or other proceeding in any Court in the Territory in respect of any contract made in whole or in part within the Territory in the course of or in connection with its business, contrary to the requirements of this Part; except, however, that upon the granting or restoration of the licence or the issuance or restoration of the certificate of registration or the removal of any suspension of either licence or the certificate, any action, suit or other proceeding may be maintained as if such licence or certificate had been granted or restored or such suspension removed before the institution of any such action, suit or other proceedings.

165. No extra-territorial company required by this Ordinance to be licensed or registered is capable of acquiring or holding lands or any interest therein in the Territory, or registering any title thereto under the Land Titles Act, unless duly licensed or registered under this or some former Ordinance; except that the granting of a licence or certificate of registration shall operate as a removal of any disability under this section.

166. Where any company, firm, broker or other person acting as the agent or representative of or in any other capacity for an extra-territorial company not licensed or registered under this or some former Ordinance carries on any of its business contrary to the requirements of this Part, such company, firm, broker, agent or other person is liable to a penalty of twenty dollars for every day it, he or they shall so carry on such business.
167. The Commissioner may, when or after a licence has been granted or a certificate issued, remit in whole or part any penalty incurred under this Ordinance by the company receiving the licence or the certificate, or by any representative or agent thereof, and may also remit in whole or part the costs of any action or proceeding commenced for the recovery of any such penalty, and thereupon the whole or such part of the costs, as the case may be, are not recoverable.

168. The penalties imposed by this Part are recoverable only by action at the suit of or brought with the written consent of the Commissioner, and any action or proceeding to recover any such penalty shall be commenced within six months after the liability for such penalty has been incurred, and not afterward; except that in any action to recover any such penalty the onus of proving that a company is duly licensed or registered under this or some former Ordinance shall be upon the defendant.

169. No act, matter, contract, agreement, undertaking or proceeding of an extra-territorial company carrying on business in the Territory prior to the passage of this Ordinance shall be attacked, nor shall the same be invalidated, nullified or held so to be by reason only of the fact that the company, or the directors, officers or members thereof, or any of them, may hereafter become liable to a penalty for neglect to observe any provision of this Ordinance.

170. The taking of orders by travellers for goods, wares or merchandise to be subsequently imported into the Territory to fill such orders, or the buying or the selling of such goods, wares or merchandise by correspondence, if the company has no resident agent or representative and no warehouse, office or place of business in the Territory, the onus of proving which shall in any prosecution under this Part rest on the accused, shall not be deemed to be carrying on business within the meaning of this Part.

172. In this Part, the word “company” means any unlicensed and unregistered extra-territorial company that has done, entered into or made any act, matter, contract or disposition giving to any person or company a right of action in any Court.
173. Any writ or summons, plaint, injunction or other legal proceeding duly issued at the instance or suit of any person by the Territorial Court or any Police Magistrate's Court, or officer of such Court, may be served as against the company by delivering the same to the clerk of the Territorial Court.

174. It shall be the duty of such Clerk to cause to be inserted in the four regular issues of the Yukon Gazette, consecutively, following the delivery of such process to him, a notice of process with a memorandum of the date of delivery, stating generally the nature of the relief sought and the time limited and the place mentioned for entering an appearance.

175. After the advertisement has appeared in such four issues, the delivery of such process to the clerk shall be deemed, as against the defendant company, to be good and valid service of such process.

176. In entering up, applying for or obtaining a judgment by default, or for the purpose of taking any proceeding consequent or following on such service, it shall not be necessary, so far as such service is concerned, to file any affidavit, but the plaintiff shall, instead thereof, file a copy of each of the four issues of the Yukon Gazette in which the advertisement shall have appeared; except that when service of process has been effected as hereinbefore mentioned, the plaintiff shall prove the amount of the debt or damages claimed by him before a judge of the Territorial Court or a police magistrate or before the Clerk, as a judge of the said Court, or police magistrate may direct; and the making of such proof shall be a condition precedent to the plaintiff obtaining judgment.

177. In any action, suit or proceeding against the company, it shall not be necessary to aver in any pleading, or to adduce any evidence, that the company was organized or incorporated under the laws of any foreign state or jurisdiction, or that the company has power under its organization or incorporation to make the contract or incur the liability in respect of which the action, suit or proceeding against the company shall be brought.

178. Nothing in this Part shall be deemed to limit, abridge or take away any legal right, recourse or remedy against a company not therein enacted or recognized, nor to absolve or lessen any obligation, rule or duty imposed by law on a company.
PART VIII.

189. The Commissioner may extend the term of existence of any company incorporated for a limited period under this Ordinance, for such further period as by order made previous to the expiry of such period, he may direct, and the provisions of this Ordinance having regard to the expiration of the term of existence of a company shall thereupon apply to such term as so extended.

Neither the service nor the connecting pipes, wires or conductors of the company, nor any meters, lustres, lamps, pipes, gas fittings, electric fittings or any other property of any kind whatsoever of the company shall be subject to or liable for rent nor liable to be seized or attached in any way by the possessor or owner of the premises wherein the same may be nor be in any way whatsoever liable to any person for the debt of any person to and for whose use or the use of whose house or building the same may be supplied by the company notwithstanding the actual or apparent possession thereof by such person.

202. Where any person supplied by the company with gas, water, electricity or other product, telephone or other service neglects, to pay the rent, rate or charge due to the company at any of the times fixed for the payment thereof, the company or any one acting under its authority on giving forty-eight hours' previous notice to the person supplied may stop the supply of gas, water, electricity or other product from entering or being supplied, and may cut off such telephone or other service to the premises of and to the person in arrear as aforesaid by cutting off the service pipe or pipes, wires or conductors or by such other means as the company or its officers see fit and may recover the rent or charge due up to such time together with the expense of cutting off the gas, water, electricity or other product or service as the case may be, in any competent court notwithstanding any contract to furnish for a longer time.

203. In all cases where the company may lawfully cut off and take away the supply of gas, water, electricity or other product or service from any house, building or premises the company, their agents or their workmen upon giving forty-eight hours previous notice to the person in charge or the occupier may enter into the house, building or premises between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, making as little disturbance and inconvenience as possible and may remove and take away any pipe, meter, cock, branch, lamp, fitting, telephone or other apparatus the property of and belonging to the company and any servant duly authorized by the company may between the hours aforesaid enter any house into which gas, water, electricity or other product or service as aforesaid have been taken or supplied for the purpose of repairing and making good any such house, building or premises or for the purpose of examining any meter, pipe, apparatus or fitting belonging to the company or used for their gas, water, electricity or other product or service, and where any person refuses to permit or does not permit the servants and officers of the company to enter and perform the acts aforesaid the person so refusing or obstructing shall incur a penalty to the company, for every such offence, of twenty dollars, and a further penalty of four dollars for every day during which such refusal or obstruction continues, to be recovered with costs as hereinafter provided.

204. Where any customer discontinues the use of the gas, or other means of lighting or heating, or water, electricity or power or other product or service furnished or supplied by a company incorporated under this Ordinance and subject to the provisions of this Part, or the company lawfully refuses to continue any longer to supply the same, the officers and servants of the company may at all reasonable times enter the premises in or upon which such customer was supplied with gas, or other means of lighting or heating, water, electricity, power or other product or service for the purpose of removing therefrom any fittings, machines, apparatus, meters, pipes, wires, conductors, telephones or other things, being the property of the company, in or upon such premises and may remove the same therefrom, doing no unnecessary damage.

205. (1) Where it is found necessary or deemed proper to conduct any of the pipes, wires or conductors or to carry any of the works of the company through the lands of any person lying within or within ten miles of the locality for supplying which the company is incorporated and the consent of such person cannot be obtained for that purpose the company may take or use the land required and nominate and appoint a disinterested person and the owner or owners of the land taken or damaged may nominate and appoint another, which two persons so appointed shall nominate and appoint a third person and the said three persons shall act as arbitrators in the matter between the company and the owner or owners of the property.

(2) Nothing in this section authorizes the company to take or use any house, land or property in contravention of section 198.

206. The arbitrators shall examine all witnesses and administer all necessary oaths or declarations to them and the arbitrators or a majority of them shall award, determine and adjudge what sum or sums of money respectively shall be paid to the owner or owners of the property so taken or damaged by the company.

207. The sum or sums of money so awarded shall be paid within three months after the date of the award and in default of such payment the owner or owners may resume the possession of his property with all the rights appertaining thereto, but the company shall be held liable to such owner for any damage it may have done to the property.

208. In the event of the company or the owner of such property failing to appoint an arbitrator after eight days' notice from one of the said parties to the other or of the said two arbitrators failing to appoint a third, a judge of the Territorial Court may appoint a third arbitrator and the decision of the three arbitrators or a majority of them shall be binding on all parties concerned.

209. All companies having the privileges conferred by this Part shall supply the utility controlled by them to all persons within the area covered by the privilege except in such cases where the company may lawfully refuse to supply such utility.

210. This Part, in so far as the same may be applicable, applies to any company heretofore incorporated under any general or special Ordinance for any of the purposes referred to in section 179.

PART IX.

WINDING-UP.

Preliminary.

211. (1) The winding-up of a company may be either (a) by the Court; (b) by voluntary action; or (c) subject to the supervision of the Court.
(2) The provisions of this Ordinance with respect to winding-up apply, unless the contrary appears, to the winding-up of a company in any manner mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) This Part applies to the winding-up of all companies or associations incorporated by or under the authority of the Council, except those companies or associations wound up on the ground of the bankruptcy or insolvency of such company or association.

Contributories.

212. (1) In the event of a company being wound up, every present and past member shall, subject to this section, be liable to contribute to the assets of the company to an amount sufficient for payment of its debts and liabilities and the cost, charges and expenses of the winding-up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, subject to the following:

(a) a past member is not liable to contribute if he has ceased to be a member for one year or upwards before the commencement of the winding-up;

(b) a past member is not liable to contribute in respect of any debt or liability of the company contracted after he ceased to be a member;

(c) a past member is not liable to contribute unless it appears to the Court that the existing members are unable to satisfy the contributions required to be made by them in pursuance of this Ordinance;

(d) in the case of a company limited by shares, no contribution shall be required from any member exceeding the amount, if any, unpaid on the shares in respect of which he is liable as a present or past member;

(e) in the case of a company limited by guarantee, no contribution shall be required from any member exceeding the amount undertaken to be contributed by him to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up; and

(f) a sum due to any member of a company, in his character of a member, by way of dividends, profits or otherwise, shall not be deemed to be a debt of the company, payable to that member in a case of competition between himself and any other creditor not a member of the company; but any such sum may be taken into account for the purpose of the final adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

(2) In the winding-up of a limited company, any director or manager, whether past or present, whose liability is, in pursuance of this Ordinance, unlimited, is, in addition to his liability, if any, to contribute as an ordinary member, liable to make a further contribution as if he were, at the commencement of the winding-up, a member of an unlimited company; except that

(a) a past director or manager is not liable to make such further contribution if he has ceased to hold office for a year or upwards before the commencement of the winding-up;
Companies.

(b) a past director or manager is not liable to make such further contribution in respect of any debt or liability of the company contracted after he ceased to hold office; and

(c) subject to the articles of the company, a director or manager is not liable to make such further contribution unless the Court deems it necessary to require that contribution in order to satisfy the debts and liabilities of the company, and the costs, charges and expenses of the winding-up.

(3) In the winding-up of a company limited by guarantee that has a share capital, every member of the company is liable, in addition to the amount undertaken to be contributed by him to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up, to contribute to the extent of any sums unpaid on any shares held by him.

213. The term “contributory” means every person liable to contribute to the assets of a company in the event of its being wound up, and, in all proceedings for determining and in all proceedings prior to the final determination of the persons who are to be deemed contributories, includes any person alleged to be a contributory.

214. The liability of a contributory shall create a debt, of the nature of a specialty, accruing due from him at the time when his liability commenced, but payable at the times when calls are made for enforcing the liability.

215. (1) Where a contributory dies either before or after he has been placed on the list of contributories, his personal representatives and his heirs and devisees are liable in a due course of administration to contribute to the assets of the company in discharge of his liability, and are contributories accordingly.

(2) Where the personal representatives are placed on the list of contributories, the heirs or devisees need not be added, but they may be added as and when the Court thinks fit.

(3) Where the personal representatives make default in paying any money ordered to be paid by them, proceedings may be taken for administering the personal and real estates of the deceased contributory, or either of them, and of compelling payment thereout of the money due.

Winding-up by Court.

216. A company may be wound up by the Court

(a) if the company has by special resolution resolved that the company be wound up by the Court;

(b) if default is made in filing the statutory report or in holding the statutory meeting;

(c) if the company does not commence its business within a year from its incorporation, or suspends its business for a whole year;

Chap. 19.

Companies.

(d) if the number of members is reduced, in the case of a private company, below two, or in the case of any company registered prior to this Ordinance, below three, or, in the case of any other company, below five; or

(e) if the Court is of opinion that it is just and equitable that the company should be wound up.

217. (1) An application to the Court for the winding-up of a company shall be by petition, presented subject to the provisions of this section either by the company, or by any contributory or contributories, or either of those parties, together or separately; except that

(a) a contributory is not entitled to present a petition for winding up a company unless

(i) either the number of members is reduced, in the case of a private company, below two, or, in the case of any other company, below five; or

(ii) the shares in respect of which he is a contributory, or some of them, either were originally allotted to him or have been held by him and registered in his name for at least six months during the eighteen months before the commencement of the winding up, or have devolved on him through the death of a former holder; and

(b) a petition for winding-up a company on the ground of default in filing the statutory report or in holding the statutory meeting shall not be presented by any person except a shareholder, nor before the expiration of fourteen days after the last day on which the meeting ought to have been held.

(2) Where a company is being wound up voluntarily or subject to supervision, a petition may be presented by the liquidator, as well as by any other person authorized in that behalf under the other provisions of this section, but the Court shall not make a winding-up order on the petition unless it is satisfied that the voluntary winding-up or winding-up subject to supervision cannot be continued with due regard to the interests of the creditors or contributories.

218. An order for winding-up a company operates in favour of all the creditors and of all the contributories of the company.

219. A winding-up of a company by the Court shall be deemed to commence at the time of the presentation of the petition for the winding-up.

220. At any time after the presentation of a petition for winding-up, and before a winding-up order has been made, the company, or any contributory, may,
Companies.

(a) where any action or proceeding against the company is pending in the Territorial Court or Court of Appeal, apply to the Court in which the action or proceeding is pending for a stay of proceedings therein; and

(b) where any other action or proceeding is pending against the company, apply to the Court having jurisdiction to wind up the company to restrain further proceedings in the action or proceeding;

and the Court to which application is so made may, as the case may be, stay or restrain the proceedings accordingly on such terms as it thinks fit.

221. (1) On hearing the petition the Court may dismiss it with or without costs, or adjourn the hearing conditionally or unconditionally, or make any interim order, or any other order that it deems just, but the Court shall not refuse to make a winding-up order on the ground only that the assets of the company have been mortgaged to an amount equal to or in excess of those assets, or that the company has no assets.

(2) Where the petition is presented on the ground of default in filing the statutory report or in holding the statutory meeting the Court may order the costs to be paid by any persons who, in the opinion of the Court, are responsible for the default.

222. When a winding-up order has been made, no action or proceeding shall be proceeded with or commenced against the company except by leave of the Court, and subject to such terms as the Court may impose.

223. On the making of a winding-up order, a copy of the order must forthwith be forwarded by the company to the Registrar, who shall make a minute thereof in his books relating to the company.

224. The Court may at any time after an order for winding-up, and on proof to the satisfaction of the Court that all proceedings in relation to the winding-up ought to be stayed, make an order staying the proceedings, either altogether or for a limited time, on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit.

225. The Court may, as to all matters relating to a winding-up, have regard to the wishes of the creditors or contributories as proved to it by any sufficient evidence.

Liquidators.

226. (1) For the purpose of conducting the proceedings in winding up a company and performing such duties in reference thereto as the Court may impose, the Court may appoint a liquidator or liquidators.
Chap. 19. Companies.

(2) The Court may make such an appointment provisionally at any time after the presentation of a petition and before the making of an order for winding up, and

(a) if a provisional liquidator is appointed before the making of a winding-up order, any fit person may be appointed;

(b) such provisional liquidator shall promptly give notice of his appointment to the Registrar and give security in such amount as the Court may direct, to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Court; and

(c) where any person other than the provisional liquidator is afterwards appointed liquidator, he shall not be capable of acting as liquidator until he has notified his appointment to the Registrar and given security in the prescribed manner to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the Court.

(3) If more than one liquidator is appointed by the Court, the Court shall declare whether any act by this Ordinance required or authorized to be done by the liquidator is to be done by all or any one or more of the persons appointed.

(4) A liquidator appointed by the Court may resign or, on cause shown, be removed by the Court, and a vacancy in the office of a liquidator appointed by the Court shall be filled by the Court.

(5) The liquidator shall receive such salary or remuneration by way of percentage or otherwise as the Court may direct; and, if more such persons than one are appointed liquidators, their remuneration shall be distributed among them in such proportions as the Court directs.

(6) A liquidator shall be described by the style of the liquidator of the particular company in respect of which he is appointed, and not by his individual name.

(7) The acts of a liquidator shall be valid notwithstanding any defects that may afterwards be discovered in his appointment or qualification.

227. (1) In a winding-up by the Court the liquidator shall take into his custody, or under his control, all the property and things in action to which the company is or appears to be entitled.

(2) In a winding-up by the Court, if and so long as there is no liquidator, all the property of the company shall be deemed to be in the custody of the Court.

228. (1) The liquidator in a winding-up by the Court has power, with the sanction either of the Court or of the committee of inspection, if any,

(a) to bring or defend any action or other legal proceeding in the name and on behalf of the company;
Companies.

(b) to carry on the business of the company, so far as may be necessary for the beneficial winding-up thereof; and

(c) to employ a solicitor or other agent to take any proceedings or do any business which the liquidator is unable to take or do himself; but the sanction in this case must be obtained before the employment, except in cases of urgency, and in those cases it must be shown that no undue delay took place in obtaining the sanction.

(2) The liquidator in a winding-up by the Court has power

(a) to sell the real and personal property and things in action of the company by public auction or private contract, with power to transfer the whole thereof to any person or company, or to sell the same in parcels;

(b) to do all acts and to execute, in the name and on behalf of the company, all deeds, receipts and other documents, and for that purpose to use, when necessary, the company's seal;

(c) to prove, rank and claim in the distribution of the estate of any contributory, for any balance against his estate, and to receive dividends in such distribution in respect of that balance, as a separate debt from the estate of the contributory, and ratably with the other separate creditors;

(d) to draw, accept, make and indorse any bill of exchange or promissory note in the name and on behalf of the company, with the same effect with respect to the liability of the company as if the bill or note had been drawn, accepted, made or indorsed by or on behalf of the company in the course of its business;

(e) to raise on the security of the assets of the company any money requisite;

(f) to take out in his official name letters of administration to any deceased contributory, and to do in his official name any other act necessary for obtaining payment of any money due from a contributory or his estate which cannot be conveniently done in the name of the company; and in all such cases the money due shall, for the purpose of enabling the liquidator to take out the letters of administration or recover the money, be deemed to be due to the liquidator himself; and

(g) to do all such other things as may be necessary for winding up the affairs of the company and distributing its assets.

(3) The exercise by the liquidator of the powers conferred by this section is subject to the control of the Court, and any creditor or contributory may apply to the Court with respect to any exercise or proposed exercise of any of those powers.

(4) Where a liquidator is provisionally appointed by the Court, the Court may limit and restrict his powers by the order appointing him.
Chap. 19.

Companies.

229. (1) Where a winding-up order has been made by the Court, the liquidator shall summon separate meetings of the creditors and contributories of the company for the purpose of determining whether or not an application is to be made to the Court for the appointment of a committee of inspection to act with the liquidator, and who are to be the members of the committee if appointed.

(2) The Court may make an appointment and order required to give effect to any such determination, and, if there is a difference between the determinations of the meetings of the creditors and contributories in respect of any of the matters mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this section, the Court shall decide the difference and make such order thereon as the Court may think fit.

230. (1) Every liquidator of a company that is being wound up by the Court shall, in such manner and at such times as the Court may direct, pay the money received by him into some chartered bank.

(2) Where any such liquidator at any time retains for more than ten days a sum exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or such other amount as the Court in any particular case authorizes him to retain, then, unless he explains the retention to the satisfaction of the Court, he shall pay interest on the amount so retained in excess at the lawful rate per annum, and is liable to disallowance of all or such part of his remuneration as the Court may think just, and to be removed from his office by the Court, and shall pay any expenses occasioned by reason of his default.

(3) A liquidator of a company that is being wound up by the Court shall not pay any sums received by him as liquidator into his private banking account.

231. (1) Every liquidator of a company that is being wound up by the Court shall, at such times as may be prescribed, but not less than twice in each year during his tenure of office, send to the Clerk of the Court an account of his receipts and payments as liquidator.

(2) The account shall be in a prescribed form, shall be made in duplicate, and shall be verified by a statutory declaration in the prescribed form.

(3) The Court shall cause the account to be audited, and for the purpose of the audit the liquidator shall furnish the auditor with such vouchers and information as he may require, and the auditor may at any time require the production of and inspect any books or accounts kept by the liquidator.

(4) When the account has been audited, one copy thereof shall be filed with the Court, and such copy shall be open to the inspection of any creditor, or of any person interested.
(5) The auditor shall cause the account when audited or a summary thereof to be printed, and shall send a printed copy of the account or summary by post to every creditor and contributory.

232. Every liquidator of a company that is being wound up by the Court shall keep, in manner prescribed, proper books in which he shall cause to be made entries or minutes of proceedings at meetings, and of such other matters as may be prescribed and any creditor or contributory may, subject to the control of the Court, personally or by his agent inspect any such books.

233. (1) When a liquidator of a company that is being wound up by the Court has realized all the property of the company, or so much thereof as can, in his opinion, be realized without needlessly protracting the liquidation, and has distributed a final dividend, if any, to the creditors and adjusted the rights of the contributories among themselves, and made a final return, if any, to the contributories, or has resigned, or has been removed from his office, the Court shall, on his application, cause a report on his accounts to be prepared, and, on his complying with all the requirements of this Ordinance, shall take into consideration the report, and any objection which may be urged by any creditor, or contributory, or person interested against the release of the liquidator, and shall either grant or withhold the release accordingly.

(2) Where the release of a liquidator is withheld, the Court may, on the application of any creditor or contributory, or person interested, make such order as it thinks just, charging the liquidator with the consequences of any act or default which he may have done or made contrary to his duty.

(3) An order of the Court releasing the liquidator shall discharge him from all liability in respect of any act done or default made by him in the administration of the affairs of the company, or otherwise in relation to his conduct as liquidator, but any such order may be revoked on proof that it was obtained by fraud or by suppression or concealment of any material fact, or may be reversed on appeal to the Court of Appeal.

(4) Where the liquidator has not previously resigned or been removed, his release shall operate as a removal of him from his office.

234. (1) Subject to this Ordinance, the liquidator of a company that is being wound up by the Court shall, in the administration of the assets of the company and in the distribution thereof among its creditors, have regard to any directions that may be given by resolution of the creditors or contributories at any general meeting, or by the committee of inspection; and any directions given by the creditors or contributories at any general meeting shall, in case of conflict, be deemed to override any directions given by the committee of inspection.
Chap. 19.

Companies.

(2) The liquidator may summon general meetings of the creditors or contributories for the purpose of ascertaining their wishes, and it is his duty to summon meetings at such times as the creditors or contributories, by resolution, either at the meeting appointing the liquidator or otherwise, may direct, or whenever requested in writing to do so by one-tenth in value of the creditors or contributories, as the case may be.

(3) The liquidator may apply to the Court in manner prescribed for directions in relation to any particular matter arising under the winding-up.

(4) Subject to this Ordinance, the liquidator shall use his own discretion in the management of the estate and its distribution among the creditors.

(5) Where any person is aggrieved by any act or decision of the liquidator, that person may apply to the Court, and the Court may confirm, reverse or modify the act or decision complained of, and make such order in the premises as it thinks just.

235. (1) The Court shall take recognizance of the conduct of liquidators of companies that are being wound up by the Court, and, if a liquidator does not faithfully perform his duties and duly observe all the requirements imposed on him by Ordinance, rules or otherwise with respect to the performance of his duties, or if any complaint is made to the Court by any creditor or contributory in regard thereto, the Court shall inquire into the matter, and take such action thereon as may be deemed expedient.

(2) The Court may at any time require any liquidator of a company which is being wound up by the Court to answer any inquiry in relation to any winding-up in which he is engaged, and may, if thought fit, order his examination on oath before the Clerk of the Court or any special examiner appointed by the Court concerning the winding-up.

(3) The Court may also direct a local investigation to be made of the books and vouchers of the liquidator.

Committee of Inspection, Special Manager, Receiver.

236. (1) A committee of inspection appointed in pursuance of this Ordinance shall consist of creditors and contributories of the company or persons holding general powers of attorney from creditors or contributories in such proportions as may be agreed on by the meetings of creditors and contributories, or as, in case of difference, may be determined by the Court.

(2) The committee shall meet at such times as they from time to time appoint, and, failing such appointment, at least once a month; and the liquidator or any member of the committee may also call a meeting of the committee as and when he thinks necessary.

(3) The committee may act by a majority of their members present at a meeting, but shall not act unless a majority of the committee are present.

(4) Any member of the committee may resign by notice in writing signed by him and delivered to the liquidator.

(5) Where a member of the committee becomes insolvent, compounds or arranges with his creditors, or is absent from five consecutive meetings of the committee without the leave of those members who together with himself represent the creditors or contributories, as the case may be, his office thereupon becomes vacant.

(6) Any member of the committee may be removed by an ordinary resolution at a meeting of creditors (if he represents creditors) or of contributories (if he represents contributories), of which seven days' notice has been given, stating the object of the meeting.

(7) On a vacancy occurring in the committee the liquidator shall forthwith summon a meeting of creditors or of contributories as the case may require, to fill the vacancy, and the meeting may, by resolution, reappoint the same or appoint another creditor or contributory to fill the vacancy.

(8) The continuing members of the committee, if not less than two, may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the committee.

(9) Where there is no committee of inspection, any act or thing or any direction or permission by this Ordinance authorized or required to be done or given by the committee may be done or given by the Court on the application of the liquidator.

237. (1) The liquidator of a company, whether provisionally or otherwise, may, if satisfied that the nature of the estate or business of the company, or the interests of the creditors or contributories generally, require the appointment of a special manager of the estate or business of the company other than himself, apply to the Court to, and the Court may on such application, appoint a special manager thereof to act during such time as the Court may direct, with such powers, including any of the powers of a receiver or manager, as may be intrusted to him by the Court.

(2) The special manager shall give such security and account in such manner as the Court may direct; and shall receive such remuneration as may be fixed by the Court.

Ordinary Powers of Court.

238. (1) As soon as may be after making a winding-up order, the Court shall settle a list of contributories, with power to rectify the register of members in all cases where rectification is required in pursuance of this Ordinance, and shall cause the assets of the company to be collected and applied in discharge of its liabilities.
Chap. 19.

(Companies.)

(2) In settling the list of contributories, the Court shall distinguish between persons who are contributories in their own right and persons who are contributories as being representatives of or liable to the debts of others.

239. The Court may, at any time after making a winding-up order, require any contributory for the time being settled on the list of contributories, and any trustee, receiver, banker, agent or officer of the company, to pay, deliver, convey, surrender or transfer forthwith, or within such times as the Court directs, to the liquidator any money, property or books and papers in his hands to which the company is prima facie entitled.

240. (1) The Court may, at any time after making a winding-up order, make an order on any contributory for the time being settled on the list of contributories to pay, in manner directed by the order, any money due from him or from the estate of the person whom he represents to the company, exclusive of any money payable by him or the estate by virtue of any call in pursuance of this Ordinance.

Second. In settling the list of contributories, the property...
liquidator instead of to the liquidator, and any such order may be enforced in the same manner as if it had directed payment to the liquidator.

(2) All moneys and securities paid or delivered into any bank or any branch thereof in the event of a winding-up by the Court are subject in all respects to the orders of the Court.

243. (1) An order made by the Court on a contributory is, subject to any right of appeal, conclusive evidence that the money, if any, thereby appearing to be due or ordered to be paid is due.

(2) All other pertinent matters stated in the order shall be taken to be truly stated as against all persons, and in all proceedings, except proceedings against the real estate of a deceased contributory, in which case the order shall be only prima facie evidence for the purpose of charging his real estate, unless his heirs or devisees were on the list of contributories at the time of the order being made.

244. The Court may fix a time or times within which creditors are to prove their debts or claims, or to be excluded from the benefit of any distribution made before those debts are proved.

245. The Court shall adjust the rights of the contributories among themselves, and distribute any surplus among the persons entitled thereto.

246. The Court may, in the event of the assets being insufficient to satisfy the liabilities, make an order as to the payment out of the assets of the costs, charges and expenses incurred in the winding-up in such order of priority as the Court thinks just.

247. (1) When the affairs of a company have been completely wound up, the Court shall make an order that the company be dissolved from the date of the order, and the company shall be dissolved accordingly.

(2) The order shall be reported by the liquidator to the Registrar, who shall make in his books a minute of the dissolution of the company.

(3) Where the liquidator makes default in complying with the requirements of this section, he is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which he is in default.

248. General rules may be made for enabling or requiring all or any of the powers and duties conferred and imposed on the Court by this Ordinance, in respect of the matters following, to be exercised or performed by the liquidator as an officer of the Court and subject to the control of the Court; that is to say, the powers and duties of the Court in respect of
(a) holding and conducting meetings to ascertain the wishes of creditors and contributories;
(b) settling lists of contributories and rectifying the register of members where required, and collecting and applying the assets;
(c) requiring delivery of property or documents to the liquidator;
(d) making calls; and
(e) fixing a time within which debts and claims must be proved;

except that the liquidator shall not, without the special leave of the Court, rectify the register of members, and shall not make any call without either the special leave of the Court or the sanction of the committee of inspection.

Extraordinary Powers of Court.

249. (1) The Court may, after it has made a winding-up order, summon before it any officer of the company or person known or suspected to have in his possession any property of the company or supposed to be indebted to the company, or any person whom the Court deems capable of giving information concerning the trade, dealings, affairs or property of the company.

(2) The Court may examine him on oath concerning the same, either by word of mouth or on written interrogatories, and may reduce his answers to writing and require him to sign them.

(3) The Court may require him to produce any books and papers in his custody or power relating to the company; but, where he claims any lien on books or papers produced by him, the production shall be without prejudice to that lien, and the Court has jurisdiction in the winding-up to determine all questions relating to that lien.

(4) Where any person so summoned, after being tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, refuses to come before the Court at the time appointed, not having a lawful impediment, made known to the Court at the time of its sitting, and allowed by it, the Court may cause him to be apprehended and brought before the Court for examination.

250. (1) When an order has been made for winding up a company by the Court, and the liquidator has made report under this Ordinance stating that in his opinion a fraud has been committed by any person in the promotion or formation of the company, or by any director or other officer of the company in relation to the company since its formation, the Court may, after consideration of the report, direct that any person who has taken any part in the promotion or formation of the company, or has been a director or officer of the company, shall attend before the Court on a day appointed by the Court.

for that purpose and be publicly examined as to the promotion or formation or the conduct of the business of the company, or as to his conduct and dealings as director or officer thereof.

(2) The liquidator and any creditor or contributory may take part in the examination, either personally or by solicitor or counsel.

(3) The Court may put such questions to the person examined as the Court thinks fit.

(4) The person examined shall be examined on oath, and shall answer all such questions as the Court may put or allow to be put to him.

(5) A person ordered to be examined under this section shall at his own cost, before his examination, be furnished with a copy of the liquidator's report and may at his own cost employ a solicitor with or without counsel, who shall be at liberty to examine him for the purpose of enabling him to explain or qualify any answers given by him; except that if he is, in the opinion of the Court, exculpated from any charges made or suggested against him, the Court may allow him such costs as in its discretion it may think fit.

(6) Notes of the examination shall be taken down either in shorthand or in writing, and if in writing shall be read over to or by, and signed by, the person examined, and may thereafter be used in evidence against him, and shall be open to the inspection of any creditor or contributory at all reasonable times.

(7) The Court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the examination from time to time.

(8) An examination under this section may, if the Court so directs, and subject to general rules, be held before any officer of the Court being a clerk or deputy clerk of the Court named for the purpose, and the powers of the Court under this section as to the conduct of the examination, but not as to costs, may be exercised by the person before whom the examination is held.

251. The Court, at any time either before or after making a winding-up order, on proof of probable cause for believing that a contributory is about to quit the Territory, or otherwise to abscond or to remove or conceal any of his property for the purpose of evading payment of calls or of avoiding examination respecting the affairs of the company, may cause the contributory to be arrested, and his books and papers and movable personal property to be seized, and him and them to be safely kept until such time as the Court may order.

252. Any powers by this Ordinance conferred on the Court are in addition to and not in restriction of any existing powers of instituting proceedings against any contributory or debtor of the company, or the estate of any contributory or debtor, for the recovery of any call or other sums.

Enforcement of and Appeal from Orders.

253. Orders made by the Court under this Ordinance may be enforced in the same manner as orders made in any action pending therein.

254. Subject to the Rules of Court, an appeal from any order or decision made or given in the winding-up of a company by the Court under this Ordinance lies in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as an appeal from any order or decision of the Court in cases within its ordinary jurisdiction.

Voluntary Winding-up.

255. A company may be wound up voluntarily

(a) when the period, if any, fixed for the duration of the company by the Ordinance, charter or instrument of incorporation has expired, or when the event, if any, has occurred upon the occurrence of which it is provided by the Ordinance or charter or instrument of incorporation that the company is to be dissolved and the company in general meeting has passed a resolution requiring the company to be wound up;

(b) if the company resolves by special resolution that the company be wound up voluntarily; and

(c) if the company, although it may be solvent as respects creditors, resolves by extraordinary resolution to the effect that it cannot by reason of its liabilities continue its business, and that it is advisable to wind up.

256. A voluntary winding-up is deemed to commence at the times of the passing of the resolution authorizing the winding-up.

257. Where a company is wound up voluntarily, the company shall, from the commencement of the winding-up, cease to carry on its business, except so far as may be required for the beneficial winding-up thereof; except that the corporate state and corporate powers of the company shall, notwithstanding anything in its articles, continue until it is dissolved.

258. Where a company has resolved by special or extraordinary resolution to wind up voluntarily, it shall give notice of the resolution by advertisement in the Yukon Gazette.

259. The following consequences ensue on the voluntary winding-up of the company:

(a) the property of the company shall be applied in satisfaction of its liabilities pari passu, and, subject thereto, shall, unless the articles otherwise provide, be distributed among the members according to their rights and interests in the company;

(2) Where the liquidator fails to comply with the requirements of this section, he is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues.

261. (1) Every liquidator appointed by a company in a voluntary winding-up shall, within seven days from his appointment, send notice by post to all persons who appear to him to be creditors of the company that a meeting of the creditors of the company will be held on a date, not being less than fourteen nor more than twenty-one days after his appointment, and at a place and hour, to be specified in the notice, and shall also advertise notice of the meeting once in the Yukon Gazette and once at least in one local newspaper circulating in the district where the registered office or principal place of business of the company was situate.

company, or for the appointment of a committee of inspection, and, if the creditors so resolve, an application may be made accordingly to the Court at any time, not later than fourteen days after the date of the meeting, by any creditor appointed for the purpose of the meeting.

(3) On any such application the Court may make an order either for the removal of the liquidator appointed by the company and for the appointment of some other person as liquidator or for the appointment of some other person to act as liquidator jointly with the liquidator appointed by the company, or for the appointment of a committee of inspection either together with or without any such appointment of a liquidator, or such other order as, having regard to the interests of the creditors and contributories of the company, may seem just.

(4) No appeal lies from any order of the Court upon an application under this section.

(5) The Court shall make such order as to the costs of the application as it may think fit, and if it is of opinion that, having regard to the interests of the creditors in the liquidation, there were reasonable grounds for the application, may order the costs of the application to be paid out of the assets of the company, notwithstanding that the application is dismissed or otherwise disposed of adversely to the applicant.

262. (1) Where a vacancy occurs by death, resignation or otherwise in the office of liquidator appointed by the company in a voluntary winding-up, the company in general meeting may, subject to any arrangement with its creditors, fill the vacancy.

(2) For that purpose a general meeting may be convened by any contributory or, if there were more liquidators than one, by the continuing liquidators.

(3) The meeting shall be held in manner prescribed by the articles, or in such manner as may, on application by any contributory or by the continuing liquidators, be determined by the Court.

263. (1) A company about to be, or in course of being, wound up voluntarily may, by extraordinary resolution, delegate to its creditors, or to any committee of them, the power of appointing liquidators or any of them, and of supplying vacancies among the liquidators, or enter into any arrangement with respect to the powers to be exercised by the liquidators, and the manner in which they are to be exercised.

(2) Any act done by creditors in pursuance of any such delegated power shall have the same effect as if it had been done by the company.

section, binding on the company if sanctioned by any extraordinary resolution, and on the creditors if acceded to by three-fourths in number and value of the creditors.

(2) Any creditor or contributory may, within three weeks from the completion of the arrangement, appeal to the Court against it, and the Court may thereupon, as it thinks just, amend, vary or confirm the arrangement.

265. (1) Where a company is proposed to be, or is in course of being, wound up altogether voluntarily, and the whole or part of its business or property is proposed to be transferred or sold to another company (in this section called the "transferee company"), the liquidator of the first-mentioned company (in this section called the "transferor company") may, with the sanction of special resolution of that company, conferring either a general authority on the liquidator or an authority in respect of any particular arrangement, receive, in compensation or part compensation for the transfer or sale, shares, policies or other like interests in the transferee company, for distribution among the members of the transferor company, or may enter into any other arrangement whereby the members of the transferor company may, in lieu of receiving cash, shares, policies or other like interests, or in addition thereto, participate in the profits of or receive any other benefit from the transferee company.

(2) Any sale or arrangement in pursuance of this section is binding on the members of the transferor company.

(3) Where any member of the transferor company who did not vote in favour of the special resolution at either of the meetings held for passing and confirming the same expresses his dissent therefrom in writing addressed to the liquidator, and left at the registered office of the company within seven days after the confirmation of the resolution, he may require the liquidator either to abstain from carrying the resolution into effect, or to purchase his interest at a price to be determined by agreement or by arbitration in manner provided by this section.

(4) Where the liquidator elects to purchase the member's interest the purchase money must be paid before the company is dissolved, and be raised by the liquidator in such manner as may be determined by special resolution.

(5) A special resolution is not invalid for the purposes of this section by reason that it passed before or concurrently with a resolution for winding up the company, or for appointing liquidators; but, where an order is made within a year for winding up the company by or subject to the supervision of the Court, the special resolution is not valid unless sanctioned by the Court.

(6) For the purpose of an arbitration under this section the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance with respect to the settlement of disputes by arbitration shall apply.
266. Any company now or hereafter incorporated under this Ordinance has and shall be deemed to have had from the date of its incorporation power by resolution of the company to sell or dispose of its assets and whole undertaking for such consideration as the company thinks fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar, if such sale or disposition is one of the objects of the company contained in its memorandum of association.

267. (1) Where a company is being wound up voluntarily, the liquidator or any contributory or creditor may apply to the Court to determine any question arising in the winding-up, or to exercise, as respects the enforcing of calls, or any other matter, all or any of the powers which the Court might exercise if the company were being wound up by the Court.

(2) The Court, if satisfied that the determination of the question or the required exercise of power will be just and benef-cial, may accede wholly or partially to the application on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks fit, or may make such other order on the application as the Court thinks just.

268. (1) Where a company is being wound up voluntarily, the liquidator may summon general meetings of the company for the purpose of obtaining the sanction of the company by special or extraordinary resolution, or for any other purposes he may think fit.

(2) In the event of the winding-up continuing for more than one year, the liquidator shall summon a general meeting of the company at the end of the first year from the commencement of the winding-up, and of each succeeding year, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, and shall lay before the meeting an account of his acts and dealings and of the conduct of the winding-up during the preceding year.

269. (1) In the case of every voluntary winding-up, as soon as the affairs of the company are fully wound up, the liquidator shall make up an account of the winding-up, showing how the winding-up has been conducted and the property of the company has been disposed of; and thereupon shall call a general meeting of the company for the purpose of laying before it the account, and giving any explanation thereof.

(2) The meeting shall be called by advertisement in the Yukon Gazette, specifying the time, place and object thereof, and published continuously for one month at least before the meeting.

(3) Within one week after the meeting, the liquidator shall make a return to the Registrar of the holding of the meeting and of its date, and in default of so doing is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues.
Companies.

(4) The Registrar on receiving the return shall forthwith register it, and on the expiration of three months from the registration of the return the company shall be deemed to be dissolved; except that the Court may, on the application of the liquidator or of any other person who appears to the Court to be interested, make an order deferring the date at which the dissolution of the company is to take effect for such time as the Court thinks fit.

(5) It is the duty of the person on whose application an order of the Court under this section is made, within seven days after the making of the order, to file with the Registrar an office copy of the order, and if that person fails so to do he is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues.

270. All costs, charges and expenses properly incurred in the voluntary winding-up of a company, including the remuneration of the liquidator, are payable out of the assets of the company in priority to all other claims.

271. The voluntary winding-up of a company does not bar the right of any creditor or contributory to have it wound up by the Court, if the Court is of opinion that the rights of the creditors or that the rights of the contributories will be prejudiced by a voluntary winding-up.

272. Where a company is being wound up voluntarily, and an order is made for winding-up by the Court, the Court may, if it thinks fit, by the same or any subsequent order, provide for the adoption of all or any of the proceedings in the voluntary winding-up.

Winding-up subject to Supervision of Court.

273. When a company has by special or extraordinary resolution resolved to wind up voluntarily, the Court may make an order that the voluntary winding-up shall continue, but subject to such supervision of the Court, and with such liberty for creditors, contributories or others to apply to the Court, and generally on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks just.

274. A petition for the continuance of a voluntary winding-up subject to the supervision of the Court shall, for the purpose of giving jurisdiction to the Court over actions, be deemed to be a petition for winding-up by the Court.

275. The Court may, in deciding between a winding-up by the Court and a winding-up subject to supervision, in the appointment of liquidators, and in all other matters relating to the winding-up subject to supervision, have regard to the wishes of the creditors or contributories as proved to it by any sufficient evidence.

276. (1) Where an order is made for a winding-up subject to supervision, the Court may, by the same or any subsequent order, appoint any additional liquidator.

(2) A liquidator appointed by the Court under this section has the same powers, is subject to the same obligations, and in all respects stands in the same position as if he had been appointed by the company.

(3) The Court may remove any liquidator so appointed by the Court or any liquidator continued under the supervision order and fill any vacancy occasioned by the removal, or by death or resignation.

277. (1) Where an order is made for a winding-up subject to supervision, the liquidator may, subject to any restrictions imposed by the Court, exercise all his powers, without the sanction or intervention of the Court, in the same manner as if the company were being wound up altogether voluntarily.

(2) An order for a winding-up subject to supervision is for all purposes, including the staying of actions and other proceedings, the making and enforcement of calls, and the exercise of all other powers, deemed to be an order for winding-up by the Court.

Supplemental Provisions.

279. In every winding-up under this Ordinance, all debts payable on a contingency, and all claims against the company, present or future, certain or contingent, ascertained or sounding only in damages, are admissible to proof against the company, a just estimate being made, so far as possible, of the value of such debts or claims as may be subject to any contingency or sound only in damages, or for some other reason do not bear a certain value.

280. (1) In every winding-up there shall be paid in priority to all other debts

(a) all assessed taxes, rates, real-property tax, personal-property tax, wild-land tax, coal-land tax, timber-land tax or income tax assessed on the company up to the first day of January next before that date, and not exceeding in the whole one year's assessment; within one month next before the date of a winding-up order, payment is made.

282. Where any company is being wound up by or subject to the supervision of the Court, any attachment, sequestration, distress or execution put in force against the estate or effects of the company after the commencement of the winding-up is void to all intents.

(a) pay any classes of creditors in full;

(2) In the case of a winding-up by the Court, the exercise by the liquidator of the powers of this section is subject to the control of the Court, and any creditor or contributory may apply to the Court with respect to any exercise or proposed exercise of any of those powers.

284. (1) Where in the course of winding up a company it appears that any person who has taken part in the formation or promotion of the company, or any past or present director, manager, liquidator or any officer of the company, has misapplied or retained or become liable or accountable for any money or property of the company, or been guilty of any misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the company, the Court may, on the application of the liquidator, or of any creditor or contributory, examine into the conduct of the promoter, director, manager, liquidator or officer, and compel him to repay or restore the money or property or any part thereof, respectively, with interest at such rate as the Court thinks just, or to contribute such sum to the assets of the company by way of compensation in respect of the misapplication, retainer, misfeasance or breach of trust as the Court thinks just.
Companies.

(2) This section applies notwithstanding that the offence is one for which the offender may be criminally responsible.

(3) Where an order for payment of money is made under this section, the order shall be deemed to be a final judgment.

285. (1) Where it appears to the Court in the course of a winding-up by or subject to the supervision of the Court that any past or present director, manager, officer or member of the company has been guilty of an offence in relation to the company for which he is criminally responsible, the Court may, on the application of any person interested in the winding-up, or of its own motion, direct the liquidator to prosecute for the offence, and may order the costs and expenses to be paid out of the assets of the company.

(2) Where it appears to the liquidator in the course of a voluntary winding-up that any past or present director, manager, officer or member of the company has been guilty of an offence in relation to the company for which he is criminally responsible, the liquidator, with the previous sanction of the Court, may prosecute the offender, and all expenses properly incurred by him in the prosecution are payable out of the assets of the company in priority to all other liabilities.

286. (1) Where by this Ordinance the Court is authorized, in relation to winding-up, to have regard to the wishes of creditors or contributories, as proved to it by any sufficient evidence, the Court may, if it thinks fit, for the purpose of ascertaining those wishes, direct meetings of the creditors or contributories to be called, held and conducted in such manner as the Court directs, and may appoint a person to act as chairman of any such meeting, and to report the result thereof to the Court.

(2) In the case of creditors, regard shall be had to the value of each creditor's debt.

(3) In the case of contributories, regard shall be had to the number of votes conferred on each contributory by the articles.

287. Where any company is being wound up, all books and papers of the company and of the liquidators are, as between the contributories of the company, prima facie evidence of the truth of all matters purporting to be therein recorded.

288. After an order for a winding-up by or subject to the supervision of the Court, the Court may make such order for inspection by creditors and contributories of the company of its books and papers as the Court thinks just, and any books and papers in the possession of the company may be inspected by creditors or contributories accordingly, but not further or otherwise.
289. (1) When a company has been wound up and is about to be dissolved, the books and papers of the company and of the liquidators may be disposed of as follows:

   (a) in the case of winding-up by or subject to the supervision of the Court, in such way as the Court directs; and

   (b) in the case of a voluntary winding-up, in such way as the company by extraordinary resolution directs.

   (2) After two years from the dissolution of the company no responsibility shall rest on the company or the liquidators or any person to whom the custody of the books and papers has been committed, by reason of the same not being forthcoming to any person claiming to be interested therein.

290. (1) Where a company has been dissolved, the Court may, at any time within one year of the date of the dissolution, on an application being made for the purpose by the liquidator of the company or by any other person who appears to the Court to be interested, make an order, upon such terms as the Court thinks fit, declaring the dissolution to have been void, and thereupon such proceedings may be taken as might have been taken if the company had not been dissolved.

   (2) It is the duty of the person on whose application the order was made, within seven days after the making of the order, to file with the Registrar a copy of the order, certified by the Clerk of the Court; and where that person fails so to do he is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day during which the default continues.

291. (1) If the winding-up is not concluded within one year after its commencement, the liquidator shall, at such intervals as may be prescribed, until the winding-up is concluded, send to the Registrar a statement in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars with respect to the proceedings in and position of the liquidation.

   (2) Any person stating himself in writing to be a creditor or contributory of the company is entitled, by himself or by his agent, at all reasonable times, on payment of the prescribed fee, to inspect the statement, and to receive a copy thereof or extract therefrom; but any person untruthfully so stating himself to be a creditor or contributory is guilty of a contempt of Court, and is punishable accordingly on the application of the liquidator.

   (3) Where a liquidator fails to comply with the requirements of this section, he is liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day during which the default continues.

   (4) Where it appears from any such statement or otherwise that a liquidator has in his hands or under his control any money representing unclaimed or undistributed assets of the company which have remained unclaimed or undistributed for six months after the date of their receipt, the liquidator shall forthwith pay the same into the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund with a copy of the statement referred to in subsection (1), and is entitled to the prescribed certificate of receipt for the money so paid, and that certificate is an effectual discharge to him in respect thereof.

(5) Any person claiming to be entitled to any money paid into the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund in pursuance of this section may apply to the Commissioner for payment of the same, and the Commissioner may, on a certificate by the liquidator that the person claiming is entitled, make an order for the payment to that person of the sum due.

(6) Any person dissatisfied with the decision of the Commissioner in respect of any claim made in pursuance of this section may appeal to the Court.

292. In all proceedings under this Part all courts, judges and persons judicially acting, and all officers of any court, or employed in enforcing the process of any court, shall take judicial notice of the signature of any officer of the court appended to or impressed on any document made, issued or signed under the provisions of this Part, or any official copy thereof.

293. (1) The Clerk of the Territorial Court shall be a Special commissioner for the purpose of taking evidence under this Ordinance, and the Court may refer the whole or any part of the examination of any witnesses under this Ordinance to any person hereby appointed commissioner, who is hereby required to act as such commissioner.

(2) Every commissioner has, in addition to any other powers which he might lawfully exercise, in the matter so referred to him all the same powers of summoning and examining witnesses, of requiring the production or delivery of documents, of punishing defaults by witnesses, and of allowing costs and expenses to witnesses as the Court which made the winding-up order.

(3) The examination so taken shall be returned or reported to the Court which made the order in such manner as that Court directs.

294. (1) Any affidavit required to be sworn under the provisions or for the purposes of this Part may be sworn before any person lawfully authorized to take and receive affidavits pursuant to the Evidence Ordinance.

(2) All courts, judges, justices, commissioners and persons acting judicially shall take judicial notice of the seal or stamp or signature, as the case may be, of any such person attached, appended or subscribed to any such affidavit or to any other document to be used for the purposes of this Part.

295. The officers of the courts acting in the winding-up of companies shall make to the Registrar such returns of the business of their respective courts and offices, at such times and in such manner and form as may be prescribed, and from those returns the Registrar shall cause books to be prepared which shall be open for public information and searches.

296. (1) All documents purporting to be orders or certificates made or issued by the Registrar for the purposes of this Ordinance, and to be sealed with his seal of office, shall be received in evidence and deemed to be such orders or certificates without further proof, unless the contrary is shown.

(2) A certificate purporting to be signed by the Territorial Secretary that any order made, certificate issued, or act done is the order, certificate or act of the Commissioner, is conclusive evidence of the fact so certified.

Rules and Fees.

297. (1) The Commissioner may make general rules for carrying into effect the objects of this Part.

(2) All general rules made under this section shall be laid before the Council within three weeks after they are made, if the Council is then sitting, and, if it is not sitting, within one week after the beginning of the next session of the Council, and shall be judicially noticed, and shall have effect as if enacted by this Ordinance.

(3) There shall be paid in respect of proceedings under this Ordinance in relation to the winding up of companies such fees as the Commissioner may direct, and the Commissioner may further direct by whom and in what manner the same are to be collected and accounted for, and to what account they are to be paid.

Removal of Defunct Companies from Register.

298. (1) Where a company incorporated under any public Ordinance of the Territory, or a registered extra-territorial company, has failed for any period of two years after such incorporation or registration to send or file any return notice or document required to be made or filed or sent to the Registrar pursuant to this Ordinance or any former public Ordinance, or the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that such company or an extra-territorial licensed company is not carrying on business or in operation, he shall send to the company by post a registered letter inquiring whether such company is carrying on business or in operation and notifying it of its default, if any.

(2) If within two months no reply to such letter is received by the Registrar, or such company fails to fulfil the lawful requirements of the Registrar or notifies the Registrar that it is not carrying on business or in operation, he may, at the expiration of another fourteen days, publish in the Yukon Gazette and send to such company a notice that at the expiration of two months from the date of that notice the name of such company mentioned therein will, unless cause is shown to the contrary, be struck off the register, and the company, if one incorporated as aforesaid, will be dissolved.

(3) At the expiration of the time mentioned in such last mentioned notice, the Registrar shall, unless cause to the contrary is previously shown by such company, strike the name of such company off the register, and shall publish notice thereof in the Yukon Gazette for one month, and on such last mentioned publication the company, being an incorporated company as aforesaid, shall be dissolved, or, being an extra-territorial company, shall be deemed to have ceased to do business in the Territory, under its licence or certificate of registration; except that the liability, if any, of every director, managing officer and member of any such company shall continue and may be enforced as if the name of said company had not been struck off the register.

(4) Where any such company or a member or creditor thereof feels aggrieved by the name of such company having been struck off the register in pursuance of this section, the company or member or creditor may, before the completion of the last mentioned publication, apply to the Court; and the Court, if satisfied that the company was at the time of the striking off carrying on business or in operation and that it is just to do so, may, upon such terms as the Court may see fit to impose, including the payment of any costs and expenses, order the name of the company to be restored to the register, and thereupon the company shall be deemed to have continued in existence as if the name thereof had never been struck off; and the Court may by the order give such directions and make such provisions as seem just for placing the company and all other persons in the same position, as nearly as may be, as if the name of the company had never been struck off.

(5) A letter or notice authorized or required for the purpose of this section to be sent to any such company may be sent by post addressed to the company at its registered or head office in the Territory; or, if no office has been registered, addressed to the care of some director or officer of the company; or, if there be no director or officer of the company whose name and address are known to the Registrar, the letter or notice in identical form may, in the case of a company incorporated as aforesaid, be sent to each of the persons who subscribed the memorandum of association, addressed to him at the address mentioned in the memorandum; and in the case of an extra-territorial company sent to the attorney of such company.

(6) Where a company is being wound up, and the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe either that no liquidator is acting or that the affairs of the company are fully wound up and the returns required to be made by the liquidator have not been made for a period of three consecutive months, after notice by the Registrar demanding the returns has been sent by post to the registered address of the company and to the liquidator at his last known place of business, the provisions of this section apply in like manner as if the Registrar had not within two months after sending the letter first mentioned received any answer thereto.

PART X.

REGISTRATION OFFICE AND FEES.

299. (1) The Commissioner may appoint such Assistant Registrars, clerks and servants as may be deemed necessary for the registration of companies under this Ordinance, and the carrying out of such other duties as may be imposed upon them, and may make regulations with respect to their duties and may remove any persons so appointed.

(2) The Commissioner may direct a seal or seals to be prepared for the authentication of documents required for or connected with the registration of companies.

(3) Any person may inspect the documents kept by the Registrar on payment of such fees as may be appointed by the Commissioner, not exceeding twenty-five cents for each inspection; and any person may require a certificate of the incorporation of any company, or a copy or extract of any other document or any part of any other document, to be certified by the Registrar, on payment for the certificate, certified copy or extract of the prescribed fees, not exceeding one dollar for a certificate of incorporation, and not exceeding ten cents for each folio of a certified copy or extract.

(4) A copy of or extract from any document kept and registered at the office of the registration of companies, certified to be a true copy under the hand of the Registrar or a Deputy or Assistant Registrar (whose official position it shall not be necessary to prove), shall, in all legal proceedings, be admissible in evidence as of equal validity with the original document.

(5) Whenever any act is by this Ordinance directed to be done to or by the Registrar, it shall, until the Commissioner otherwise directs, be done to or by the existing Registrar, or, in his absence, to or by such person as the Commissioner may for the time being authorize.

300. (1) There shall be paid to the Registrar in respect of the several matters mentioned in Table B in the First Schedule the several fees therein specified, or such smaller fees as the Commissioner may from time to time direct.

(2) All fees paid to the Registrar shall be paid into the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.
PART XI.

APPLICATION OF ORDINANCE TO COMPANIES FORMED AND REGISTERED UNDER FORMER COMPANIES ORDINANCES.

301. In the application of this Ordinance to existing companies, it shall apply in the same manner in the case of a limited company, other than a company limited by guarantee, as if the company had been formed and registered under this Ordinance as a company limited by shares; in the case of a company limited by guarantee, as if the company had been formed and registered under this Ordinance as a company limited by guarantee; in the case of a company specially limited under the provisions of Chapter 60 of the Consolidated Ordinances of the Yukon Territory, 1902, as a company specially limited under the Yukon Territory, 1902, as a company specially limited under Part V of this Ordinance, and in the case of a company other than a limited company, as if the company had been formed and registered under this Ordinance as an unlimited company except that any reference, express or implied, to the date of registration shall be construed as a reference to the date at which the company was registered under the Acts or Ordinances, as the case may be, under which it was registered.

302. Except as hereinbefore provided, this Ordinance applies to every company registered under any former public Act or Ordinance, in the same manner as it is hereinafter in this Ordinance declared to apply to companies registered but not formed under this Ordinance; except that any reference, express or implied, to the date of registration shall be construed as a reference to the date at which the company was registered under the aforesaid Acts or Ordinances, as the case may be.

303. Any existing company may cause its shares to be transferred in manner hitherto in use, or in such other manner as the company may direct, and shall not require any greater number of shareholders than required by the Act or Ordinance under which incorporated.

PART XII.

COMPANIES AUTHORIZED TO REGISTER UNDER THIS ORDINANCE.

304. (1) With the exceptions and subject to the provisions mentioned and contained in this section,

(a) any company consisting of three or more members that was in existence on the 1st day of May, 1914; and

(b) any company formed after the date aforesaid, whether before or after the commencement of this Ordinance, in pursuance of any Ordinance of the Territory other than this Ordinance, or of letters patent, or being otherwise duly constituted by law, and consisting of five or more members, may at any time register under this Ordinance as an unlimited company, or as a company limited by shares, or as a company limited by guarantee; and the registration shall not be invalid by reason that it has taken place with a view to the company being wound up.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1),
   (a) a company having the liability of its members limited by Ordinance of the Territory or letters patent, and not being a joint-stock company as hereinafter defined, shall not register in pursuance of this section;
   (b) a company having the liability of its members limited by Ordinance of the Territory or letters patent shall not register in pursuance of this section as an unlimited company or as a company limited by guarantee;
   (c) a company that is not a joint-stock company as hereinafter defined shall not register in pursuance of this section as a company limited by shares;
   (d) a company shall not register in pursuance of this section without the assent of a majority of such of its members as are present in person or by proxy in cases where proxies are allowed by the regulations of the company at a general meeting summoned for the purpose;
   (e) where a company not having the liability of its members limited by Ordinance of the Territory or letters patent is about to register as a limited company, the majority required to assent as aforesaid shall consist of not less than three-fourths of the members present in person or by proxy at the meeting; and
   (f) where a company is about to register as a company limited by guarantee, the assent to its being so registered shall be accompanied by a resolution declaring that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the company, in the event of its being wound up while he is a member, or within one year afterwards, for payment of the debts and liabilities of the company contracted before he ceased to be a member, and of the costs and expenses of winding up, for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves, such amount as may be required, not exceeding a specified amount.

(3) In computing any majority under this section when a poll is demanded, regard shall be had to the number of votes to which each member is entitled according to the regulations of the company.

305. For the purposes of this Part, as far as relates to registration of companies as companies limited by shares, a "joint-stock company" means a company having a permanent paid-up or nominal share capital of fixed amount, divided into shares, also of fixed amount, or held and transferable as stock, or divided and held partly in one way and partly in the other, and formed on the principle of having for its members the holders of those shares or that stock, and no other persons; and such a company when registered with limited liability under this Ordinance shall be deemed to be a company limited by shares.

306. Before the registration in pursuance of this Part of a joint-stock company, there shall be delivered to the Registrar the following documents:

(a) a list showing the names, addresses and occupations of all persons who on a day named in the list, not being more than six clear days before the day of registration, were members of the company, with the addition of the shares or stock held by them respectively, distinguishing, in cases where the shares are numbered, each share by its number;

(b) a copy of any private Ordinance of the Territory, charter, letters patent, deed of settlement, contract of copartnery, memorandum and articles of association and by-laws or any other instrument constituting or regulating the company; and

(c) if the company is intended to be registered as a limited company, a statement specifying the following particulars:
   (i) the nominal share capital of the company and the number of shares into which it is divided, or the amount of stock of which it consists;
   (ii) the number of shares taken and the amount paid on each share;
   (iii) the name of the company, with the addition of the word "limited" as the last word thereof; and
   (iv) in the case of a company intended to be registered as a company limited by guarantee, the resolution declaring the amount of the guarantee.

307. Before the registration in pursuance of this Part of any company not being a joint-stock company, there shall be delivered to the Registrar:

(a) a list showing the names, addresses and occupations of the directors or other managers, if any, of the company;

(b) a copy of any Ordinance of the Territory, letters patent, deed of settlement, contract of copartnery or other instrument constituting or regulating the company; and

(c) in the case of a company intended to be registered as a company limited by guarantee, a copy of the resolution declaring the amount of the guarantee.

308. The lists of members and directors and any other particulars relating to the company required to be delivered to the Registrar shall be verified by a statutory declaration of any two or more directors or other principal officers of the company.
309. The Registrar may require such evidence as he thinks necessary for the purpose of satisfying himself whether any company proposing to be registered is or is not a joint-stock company as hereinbefore defined.

310. No fees shall be charged in respect of the registration in pursuance of this Part of a company if it has already paid the same fees as if it had originally been registered under this Ordinance, otherwise the same fees shall be paid as are payable by a company registering under this Ordinance.

311. When a company registers in pursuance of this Part with limited liability, the word "limited" shall form and be registered as part and the last word of its name.

312. On compliance with the requirements of this Part with respect to registration, and on payment of such fees, if any, as are payable under Table B of the First Schedule, the Registrar shall certify under his hand that the company applying for registration is incorporated as a company under this Ordinance, and in the case of a limited company that it is limited, and thereupon the company is incorporated, and has perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to hold lands.

313. All property, real and personal (including choses in action), belonging to or vested in a company at the date of its registration in pursuance of this Part shall, on registration, pass to and vest in the company as incorporated under this Ordinance for all the estate and interest of the company therein.

314. Registration of a company in pursuance of this Part does not affect the rights or liabilities of the company in respect of any debt or obligation incurred, or any contract entered into, by, to, with or on behalf of the company before registration.

315. All actions and other legal proceedings that at the time of the registration of the company in pursuance of this Part are pending by or against the company, or the public officer or any member thereof, may be continued in the same manner as if the registration had not taken place; nevertheless, execution shall not issue against the effects of an individual member of the company on any judgment, decree or order obtained in any such action or proceeding; but, in the event of the property and effects of the company being insufficient to satisfy the judgment, decree or order, an order may be obtained for winding up the company.

316. (1) Where a company is registered in pursuance of this Part,

(a) all provisions contained in any Ordinance of the Council, deed or settlement, contract of copartnery, letters patent or other instrument constituting or regulating the company, including, in the case of a company registered as a company limited by guarantee, the resolution declaring the amount of the guarantee, shall be deemed to be conditions and regulations of the company, in the same manner and with the same incidents as if so much thereof as would, if the company had been formed under this Ordinance, have been required to be inserted in the memorandum were contained in a registered memorandum, and the residue thereof were contained in registered articles;

(b) all the provisions of this Ordinance apply to the company, and the members, contributories and creditors thereof, in the same manner in all respects as if it had been formed under this Ordinance, subject as follows:

(i) the regulations in Table A of the First Schedule do not apply unless adopted by special resolution;

(ii) the provisions of this Ordinance, relating to the numbering of shares do not apply to any joint-stock company whose shares are not numbered;

(iii) subject to this section, the company does not have power to alter any provision contained in any Ordinance of the Council, relating to the company;

(iv) subject to this section, the company does not have power, without the sanction of the Commissioner, to alter any provision contained in any letters patent relating to the company;

(v) the company does not have power to alter any provision contained in a charter, or letters patent with respect to the object of the company; and

(vi) in the event of the company being wound up, every person shall be a contributory, in respect of the debts and liabilities of the company contracted before registration, who is liable to pay or contribute to the payment of any debt or liability of the company contracted before registration, or to pay or contribute to the payment of any sum for the adjustment of the rights of the members among themselves in respect of any such debt or liability; or to pay or contribute to the payment of the costs and expenses of winding-up the company, so far as relates to such debts or liabilities as aforesaid; and every contributory shall be liable to contribute to the assets of the company, in the course of the winding-up, all sums due from him in respect of any such liability as aforesaid; and, in the event of the death of any contributory, the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to the personal representatives, heirs and devisees of deceased contributories apply; and

(c) the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to

(i) the registration of an unlimited company as limited;

(ii) the powers of an unlimited company on registration as a limited company to increase the nominal amount of its share capital and to provide that a portion of its share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in the event of winding-up; and

(iii) the power of a limited company to determine that a portion of its share capital shall not be capable of being called up except in the event of winding-up, apply, notwithstanding any provisions contained in any Ordinance of the Council, charter, deed of settlement, contract of copartnery, letters patent or other instrument constituting or regulating the company.

(2) Nothing in this section authorizes the company to alter any such provisions contained in any deed of settlement, contract of copartnery, letters patent or other instrument constituting or regulating the company, as would, if the company had originally been formed under this Ordinance, have been required to be contained in the memorandum and are not authorized to be altered by this Ordinance.

(3) Nothing in this Ordinance derogates from any power of altering its constitution or regulations which may, by virtue of any Ordinance of the Council, deed of settlement, contract of copartnery, letters patent or other instrument constituting or regulating the company, be vested in the company.

317. (1) Subject to this section, a company registered in pursuance of this Part may, by special resolution, alter the form of its constitution by substituting a memorandum and articles for a deed of settlement.

(2) The provisions of this Ordinance with respect to confirmation by the Court and registration of an alteration of the objects of a company shall, so far as applicable, apply to an alteration under this section, with the following modifications:

(a) there shall be substituted for the copy of the altered memorandum required to be delivered to the Registrar a copy of the substituted memorandum and articles; and

(b) on the registration of the alteration being certified by the Registrar, the substituted memorandum and articles shall apply to the company in the same manner as if it were a company registered under this Ordinance with that memorandum and those articles, and the company's deed of settlement shall cease to apply to the company.

(3) An alteration under this section may be made either with or without any alteration of the objects of the company under this Ordinance.

(4) In this section “deed of settlement” includes any contract of copartnery or other instrument constituting or regulating the company, not being an Ordinance of the Council, a royal charter or letters patent.
The provisions of this Ordinance with respect to staying and restraining actions and proceedings against a company at any time after the presentation of a petition for winding-up and before the making of a winding-up order, in the case of a company registered in pursuance of this Part, where the application to stay or restrain is by a creditor, extend to actions and proceedings against any contributory of the company.

Where an order has been made under this Ordinance for winding up a company registered in pursuance of this Part, no action or proceeding shall be commenced or proceeded with against the company or any contributory of the company in respect of any debt of the company except by leave of the Court, and subject to such terms as the Court may impose.

PART XIII.

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL.

Legal Proceedings, Offences, etc.

320. All violations of the provisions of this Ordinance made punishable by any fine may be prosecuted under the provisions regarding summary convictions contained in the Criminal Code.

321. The Court imposing any fine under this Ordinance may direct that the whole or any part thereof be applied in or towards payment of the costs of the proceedings, or in or towards rewarding the person on whose information or at whose suit the fine is recovered; and subject to any such direction all fines under this Ordinance shall, notwithstanding anything in any other Ordinance, be paid into the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

322. Where a limited company is plaintiff in any action or other legal proceeding, any judge having jurisdiction in the matter may, if it appears by credible testimony that there is reason to believe that the company will be unable to pay the costs of the defendant if successful in his defence, require sufficient security to be given for those costs, and may stay all proceedings until the security is given.

323. If in any proceeding against a director, or person occupying the position of director, of a company for negligence or breach of trust it appears to the Court hearing the case that the director or person is or may be liable in respect of the negligence or breach of trust, but has acted honestly and reasonably, and ought fairly to be excused for the negligence or breach of trust, that Court may relieve him, either wholly or partly, from his liability on such terms as the Court may think proper.
Chap. 19. Companies.

324. Where any person or persons trade or carry on business within the Territory under any name or title of which "limited" is the last word, that person or those persons are, unless duly incorporated with limited liability or licensed or registered, and entitled to use the word "limited" as the last word of their name, liable to a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars for every day upon which that name or title has been used.

325. All applications to the Court authorized by this Ordinance in which the procedure is not otherwise prescribed may, in all actions pending or other proceeding already in Court, be made to the Court or to a judge in chambers by motion, and in all other cases to a judge in chambers by petition.

326. A judge in chambers may adjourn any matter before him into Court for further argument and consideration.

327. A judge in chambers has power at any time to remit or relieve from, either absolutely or upon condition, any penalty imposed or to which a company may be liable for the infraction of this Ordinance.

Authentication of Documents issued by the Commissioner.

328. Any approval, sanction or licence, or revocation of licence, which under this Ordinance may be given or made by the Commissioner may be under the hand of any person authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner.

329. Registers of companies kept in any existing office shall be deemed part of the registers of companies to be kept under this Ordinance.

330. The Commissioner may from time to time make rules and regulations for carrying out the purpose of this Ordinance, including matters in respect whereof no express or only partial or imperfect provision has been made.

331. Subject to this Ordinance and to any rules made by the Commissioner, the Registrar may make rules and regulations for the management of his office and the conduct of business therein.

332. Sections 33, 73, 82, 119 and 120 apply to all companies heretofore or hereafter incorporated by any public Ordinance of the Territory.
Companies.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

TABLE A.

REGULATIONS FOR MANAGEMENT OF A COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES.

1. In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, expressions defined in the Companies Ordinance, or any statutory modification thereof in force at the date at which these regulations become binding on the company, shall have the meanings so defined; and words importing the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa, and words importing the masculine gender shall include females, and words importing persons shall include bodies corporate.

2. The directors shall have regard to the restrictions on the commencement of business imposed by section 95 of the Companies Ordinance, if, and so far as, those restrictions are binding upon the company.

3. Subject to the provisions (if any) in that behalf of the memorandum of association of the company, and without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of existing shares in the company, any share in the company may be issued with such preferred, deferred, or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of share capital, or otherwise, as the company may from time to time by special resolution determine.

4. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of these regulations relating to general meetings shall, mutatis mutandis, apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class.

5. No share shall be offered to the public for subscription except upon the terms that the amount payable on application shall be at least five per cent of the nominal amount of the share; and the directors shall, as regards any allotment of shares, duly comply with such of the provisions of sections 93 and 96 of the Companies Ordinance as may be applicable thereto.
6. Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall, without payment, be entitled to a certificate under the common seal of the company specifying the share or shares held by him and the amount paid up thereon; provided that, in respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all.

7. If a share certificate is defaced, lost, or destroyed, it may be renewed on payment of such fee (if any), not exceeding twenty-five cents, and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnity as the directors think fit.

8. No part of the funds of the company shall be employed in the purchase of, or in loans upon the security of, the company's shares.

Lien.

9. The company shall have a lien on every share (not being a fully paid share) for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share, and the company shall also have a lien on all shares (other than fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a single person for all moneys presently payable by him or his estate to the company; but the directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause. The company's lien (if any) on a share shall extend to all dividends payable thereon.

10. The company may sell, in such manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien, but no sale shall be made unless some sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable, nor until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled by reason of his death or bankruptcy to the share.

11. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares prior to the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares, and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.

Calls on Shares.

12. The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any moneys unpaid on their shares: Provided that no call shall exceed one-fourth of the nominal Companies.

Chap. 19.

amount of the share, or be payable at less than one month from the last call; and each member shall (subject to receiving at least fourteen days' notice specifying the time or times of payment) pay to the company at the time or times so specified the amount called on his shares.

13. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof.

14. If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest upon the sum at the rate of five per centum per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment, but the directors shall be at liberty to waive payment of that interest wholly or in part.

15. The provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

16. The directors may make arrangements on the issue of shares for a difference between the holders in the amount of calls to be paid and in the times of payment.

17. The directors may, if they think fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate (not exceeding, without the sanction of the company in general meeting, six per cent) as may be agreed upon between the member paying the sum in advance and the directors.

Transfer and Transmission of Shares.

18. The instrument of transfer of any shares in the company shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee, and the transferee shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

19. Shares in the company shall be transferred in the following form, or in any usual or common form which the directors shall approve:

I, A. B., of , in consideration of the sum of $ , paid to me by C. D., of (hereinafter called "the said transferee"), do hereby transfer to the said transferee the share (or shares) numbered in the undertaking called the Company, Limited, to hold unto the said transferee, his executors, administrators, and assigns, subject to the several con-conditions on which I held the same at the time of the execution hereof; and I, the said transferee, do hereby agree to take the said share (or shares) subject to the conditions aforesaid.

As witness our hands the day of Witness to the signatures of, etc.

20. The directors may decline to register any transfer of shares not being fully paid shares, to a person of whom they do not approve, and may also decline to register any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien. The directors may also suspend the registration of transfers during the fourteen days immediately preceding the ordinary general meeting in each year. The directors may decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless

(a) a fee not exceeding fifty cents is paid to the company in respect thereof; and

(b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

21. The executors or administrators of a deceased sole holder of a share shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to the share. In the case of a share registered in the names of two or more holders, the survivors or survivor, or the executors or administrators of the deceased survivor, shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to the share.

22. Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member shall, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the directors, have the right either to be registered as a member in respect of the share, or, instead of being registered himself, to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or bankrupt person could have made; but the directors shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the deceased or bankrupt person before the death or bankruptcy.

23. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company.

Forfeiture of Shares.

24. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for the payment thereof, the directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of such call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.

25. The notice shall name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

26. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors to that effect.

27. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the directors think fit, and at any time before a sale or disposition the forfeiture may be cancelled on such terms as the directors think fit.

28. A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding remain liable to pay to the company all moneys which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares, but his liability shall cease if and when the company receives payment in full of the nominal amount of the shares.

29. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share, and that declaration, and the receipt of the company for the consideration (if any) given for the share on the sale or disposition thereof, shall constitute a good title to the share, and the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any), nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share.

30. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
Conversion of Shares into Stock.

31. The directors may, with the sanction of the company previously given in general meeting, convert any paid-up shares into stock, and may with the like sanction reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.

32. The holders of stock may transfer the same, or any part thereof, in the same manner and subject to the same regulations as, and subject to which, the shares from which the stock arose might previously to conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit; but the directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum, but the minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

33. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of the stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges, and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose, but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company) shall be conferred by any such aliquot part of stock as would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

34. Such of the regulations of the company (other than those relating to share warrants) as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock, and the words "share" and "shareholder" therein shall include "stock" and "stockholder".

Share Warrants.

35. The company may issue share warrants, and accordingly the directors may in their discretion, with respect to any share which is fully paid up, on application in writing signed by the person registered as holder of the share, and authenticated by such evidence (if any) as the directors may from time to time require as to the identity of the person signing the request, and on receiving the certificate (if any) of the share, and such fee as the directors may from time to time require, issue under the company's seal a warrant, duly stamped, stating that the bearer of the warrant is entitled to the shares therein specified, and may provide by coupons or otherwise for the payment of dividends, or other moneys, on the shares included in the warrant.

36. A share warrant shall entitle the bearer to the shares included in it, and the shares shall be transferred by the delivery of the share warrant, and the provisions of the regulations of the company with respect to transfer and transmission of shares shall not apply thereto.

37. The bearer of a share warrant shall, on surrender of the warrant to the company for cancellation, and on payment of such sum as the directors may from time to time prescribe, be entitled to have his name entered as a member in the register of members in respect of the shares included in the warrant.
38. The bearer of a share warrant may at any time deposit the warrant at the office of the company, and so long as the warrant remains so deposited the depositor shall have the same right of signing a requisition for calling a meeting of the company, and of attending and voting and exercising the other privileges of a member at any meeting held after the expiration of two clear days from the time of deposit, as if his name were inserted in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the deposited warrant. Not more than one person shall be recognized as depositor of the share warrant. The company shall, on two days' written notice, return the deposited share warrant to the depositor.

39. Subject as herein otherwise expressly provided, no person shall, as bearer of a share warrant, sign a requisition for calling a meeting of the company, or attend, or vote, or exercise any other privilege of a member at a meeting of the company or be entitled to receive any notices from the company; but the bearer of a share warrant shall be entitled in all other respects, to the same privileges and advantages as if he were named in the register of members as the holder of the shares included in the warrant, and he shall be a member of the company.

40. The directors may from time to time make rules as to the terms on which (if they shall think fit) a new share warrant or coupon may be issued by way of renewal in case of defacement, loss, or destruction.

Alteration of Capital.

41. The directors may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution of the company, increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as the resolution shall prescribe.

42. Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the resolution sanctioning the increase of share capital, all new shares shall, before issue, be offered to such persons as at the date of the offer are entitled to receive notices from the company of general meetings in proportion, as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled. The offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, will be deemed to be declined, and after the expiration of that time, or on the receipt of an intimation from the person to whom the offer is made that he declines to accept the shares offered, the directors may dispose of the same in such manner as they think most beneficial to the company. The directors may likewise so dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently offered under this article.
43. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture, and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.

44. The company may, by special resolution,—

(a) Consolidate and divide its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares:

(b) By subdivision of its existing shares, or any of them, divide the whole or any part of its share capital into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum of association, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section 47 of the Companies Ordinance:

(c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person:

(d) Reduce its share capital in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized, and consent required, by law.

General Meetings.

45. The statutory general meeting of the company shall be held within the period required by section 72 of the Companies Ordinance.

46. A general meeting shall be held once in every year at such time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, or, in default, at such time in the month following that in which the anniversary of the company's incorporation occurs, and at such place as the directors shall appoint. In default of a general meeting being so held, a general meeting shall be held in the month next following, and may be convened by any two members in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.

47. The above-mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings; all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary.

48. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitions, as provided by section 73 of the Companies Ordinance. If at any time there are not within the Territory sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum, any director or any two members of the company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.
Proceedings at General Meeting.

49. Seven days' notice at the least (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given), specifying the place, the day, and the hour of meeting, and, in case of special business, the general nature of that business, shall be given in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner (if any) as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under the regulations of the company, entitled to receive such notices from the company; but the non-receipt of the notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

50. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting, and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting, with the exception of sanctioning a dividend, the consideration of the accounts, balance-sheets, and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors the election of directors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

51. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business; save as herein otherwise provided, three members personally present shall be a quorum.

52. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.

53. The chairman (if any) of the board of directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the company.

54. If there is no such chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or is unwilling to act as chairman, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman.

55. The chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting), adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
56. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands, unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded by at least three members, and, unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book of the proceedings of the company, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.

57. If a poll is duly demanded it shall be taken in such manner as the chairman directs, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

58. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

59. A poll demanded on the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs.

Votes of Members.

60. On a show of hands every member present in person shall have one vote. On a poll every member shall have one vote for each share of which he is the holder.

61. In the case of joint holders the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders; and for this purpose seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.

62. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any Court having jurisdiction in lunacy may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee, curator bonis, or other person in the nature of a committee or curator bonis appointed by that Court and any such committee, curator bonis, or other person may, on a poll, vote by proxy.

63. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.

64. On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy.

65. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or, if the appointer is a corporation, either under the common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney.

66. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed, or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the registered office of the company not less than forty-eight hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

67. An instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form, or in any other form which the directors shall approve:

70. The qualification of a director shall be the holding of at least one share in the company, and it shall be his duty to comply with the provisions of section 80 of the Companies Ordinance.

Powers and Duties of Directors.

71. The business of the company shall be managed by the directors, who may pay all expenses incurred in getting up and registering the company, and may exercise all such powers of the company as are not, by the Companies Ordinance, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, or by these articles, required to be exercised by the company in general meeting, subject nevertheless to any regulation of these articles, to the provisions of the said Ordinance, and to such regulations, being not inconsistent with the aforesaid regulations or provisions, as may be prescribed by the company in general meeting; but no regulation made by the company in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.
72. The directors may from time to time appoint one or more of their body to the office of managing director or manager for such term and at such remuneration (whether by way of salary, or commission, or participation in profits, or partly in one way and partly in another) as they may think fit, and a director so appointed shall not, while holding that office, be subject to retirement by rotation, or taken into account in determining the rotation of retirement of directors; but his appointment shall be subject to determination ipso facto if he ceases from any cause to be a director, or if the company in general meeting resolve that his tenure of the office of managing director or manager be determined.

73. The amount for the time being remaining undischarged of moneys borrowed or raised by the directors for the purposes of the company (otherwise than by the issue of share capital) shall not at any time exceed the issued share capital of the company without the sanction of the company in general meeting.

74. The directors shall duly comply with the provisions of the Companies Ordinance, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, and in particular with the provisions in regard to the registration of the particulars of mortgages and charges affecting the property of the company, or created by it, and to keeping a register of the directors, and to sending to the Registrar of Companies an annual list of members, and a summary of particulars relating thereto, and notice of any consolidation or increase of share capital or conversion of shares into stock, and copies of special resolutions, and a copy of the register of directors and notifications of any changes therein.

Disqualifications of Directors.

77. The office of director shall be vacated if the director
(a) ceases to be a director by virtue of section 80 of the Companies Ordinance; or
(b) holds any other office of profit under the company except that of managing director or manager; or reason of his being a member of any company which has entered into contracts with or done any work for the company of which he is a director; but a director shall not vote in respect of any such contract or work, and if he does so vote his vote shall not be counted.

Rotation of Directors.

of the directors shall retire from office, and at the ordinary meeting in every subsequent year one-third of the directors for the time being, or, if their number is not three or a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office.

81. The company at the general meeting at which a director retires in manner aforesaid may fill up the vacated office by electing a person thereto.

82. If at any meeting at which an election of directors ought to take place the places of the vacating directors are not filled up, the meeting shall stand adjourned till the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, and, if at the adjourned meeting the places of the vacating directors are not filled up, the vacating directors, or such of them as have not had their places filled up, shall be deemed to have been re-elected at the adjourned meeting.

83. The company may from time to time in general meeting increase or reduce the number of directors, and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

84. Any casual vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled up by the directors but the person so chosen shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a director.

85. The directors shall have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint a person as an additional director who shall retire from office at the next following ordinary general meeting, but shall be eligible for election by the company at that meeting as an additional director.

86. The company may by extraordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in his stead; the person so appointed shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place he is appointed was last elected a director.

Proceedings of Directors.

87. The directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings, as they think fit. Questions arising at any meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote. A director may, and the secretary on the requisition of a director shall, at any time summon a meeting of the directors.

88. The quorum necessary for the transaction of the business of the directors may be fixed by the directors, and unless so fixed shall (when the number of directors exceeds three) be three.

89. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body, but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the number fixed by or pursuant to the regulations of the company as the necessary quorum of directors, the continuing directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that number, or of summoning a general meeting of the company, but for no other purpose.

90. The directors may elect a chairman of their meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office; but, if no such chairman is elected, or if at any meeting the chairman is not present within five minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the directors present may choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

93. A committee may meet and adjourn as they think proper. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present, and in case of an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

94. All acts done by any meeting of the directors or of a committee of directors, or by any person acting as a director shall, notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such directors or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.

Dividends and Reserve.

95. The company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the directors.

96. The directors may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the directors to be justified by the profits of the company.

97. No dividend shall be paid otherwise than out of profits.

98. Subject to the rights of persons (if any) entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid on the shares; but if, and so long as nothing is paid up on any of the shares in the company, dividends may be declared and paid according to the amounts of the shares. No amount paid on a share in advance of calls shall, while carrying interest, be treated for the purposes of this article as paid on the share.

99. The directors may, before recommending any dividend set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as they think proper as a reserve or reserves, which shall, at the discretion of the directors, be applicable for meeting contingencies, or for equalizing dividends, or for any other purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied, and pending such application may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the company) as the directors may from time to time think fit.

100. If several persons are registered as joint holders of any share, any one of them may give effectual receipts for any dividend payable on the share.

102. No dividend shall bear interest against the company.

and expenditure takes place; and
(b) of the assets and liabilities of the company.

104. The books of account shall be kept at the registered office of the company, or at such other place or places as the directors think fit, and shall always be open to the inspection of the directors.

105. The directors shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members not being directors, and no member (not being a director) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the company except as conferred by Ordinnance or authorized by the directors or by the company in general meeting.

106. Once at least in every year the directors shall lay before the company in general meeting a profit and loss account for the period since the preceding account or (in the case of the first account) since the incorporation of the company, made up to a date not more than six months before such meeting.

107. A balance-sheet shall be made out in every year and laid before the company in general meeting made up to a date not more than six months before such meeting. The balance-sheet shall be accompanied by a report of the directors as to the state of the company's affairs, and the amount which they recommend to be paid by way of dividend, and the amount (if any) which they propose to carry to a reserve fund.

108. A copy of the balance-sheet and report shall, seven days previously to the meeting, be sent to the persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings in the manner in which notices are to be given hereunder.

Audit.

109. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 119 and 120 of the Companies Ordinance or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force.

Notices.

110. A notice may be given by the company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him to his registered address, or (if he has no registered address in the Yukon Territory) to the address (if any) within the said Territory supplied by him to the company for the giving of notices to him.
Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying, and posting a letter containing the notice, and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

111. If a member has no registered address in the Yukon Territory and has not supplied to the company an address within the said Territory for the giving of notices to him, a notice addressed to him and advertised in a newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood of the registered office of the company shall be deemed to be duly given to him on the day on which the advertisement appears.

112. A notice may be given by the company to the joint holders of a share by giving the notice to the joint holder named first in the register in respect of the share.

113. A notice may be given by the company to the persons entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member by sending it through the post in a prepaid letter addressed to them by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased, or trustee of the bankrupt, or by any like description, at the address (if any) in the Yukon Territory supplied for the purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled, or (until such an address has been so supplied) by giving the notice in any manner in which the same might have been given if the death or bankruptcy had not occurred.

114. Notice of every general meeting shall be given in some manner hereinbefore authorized to

(a) every member of the company (including bearers of share warrants) except those members who (having no registered address within the Yukon Territory) have not supplied to the company an address within the said Territory for the giving of notices to them, and

(b) every person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member, who, but for his death or bankruptcy, would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting.

No other persons shall be entitled to receive notices of general meetings.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING HIRE RECEIPTS AND CONDITIONAL SALE OF GOODS.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Conditional Sales Ordinance.

2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) "buyer" means the person who buys or hires the goods covered by a conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person;
   (b) "conditional sale" means
      (i) any contract for the sale of goods under which possession is or is to be delivered to the buyer and the property in the goods is to vest in him at a subsequent time upon payment of the whole or part of the price or the performance of any other condition, or
      (ii) any contract for the hiring of goods by which it is agreed that the hirer shall become, or have the option of becoming, the owner of the goods upon full compliance with the terms of the contract;
   (c) "goods" means all chattels personal other than things in action or money, and includes emblements, industrial growing crops, and things attached to or forming part of the land that are agreed to be severed before sale or under the contract of sale;
   (d) "proper officer" means the officer with whom bills of sale and chattel mortgages are registered or filed;
   (e) "registration district" means a registration district established under the Bills of Sale Ordinance; and
   (f) "seller" means the person who sells or lets to hire the goods covered by a conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

3. (1) After possession of goods has been delivered to a buyer under a conditional sale, every provision contained therein whereby the property in the goods remains in the seller, unless the requirements of this Ordinance are complied with, is void as against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees claiming from or under the buyer in good faith, for valuable consideration and without notice, and as against creditors of the buyer who at the time of becoming creditors have no notice of the provision and who subsequently obtained judgment, execution, or an attaching order, under which the goods, if the property of the buyer, might have been seized; and for the purpose of enforcing the rights of such creditors but not otherwise, is void as against a creditor suing on behalf of himself and other creditors, and as against an assignee for the general benefit of creditors, and as against a trustee under the Bankruptcy Act, a receiver of the estate and effects of the buyer, and a liquidator of a company under the Winding-up Act or under any statute or ordinance for the winding-up of companies, without regard to whether or not the creditor so suing had at the time of becoming a creditor notice of the provision, or whether or not the assignee, trustee, receiver or liquidator at the time of his appointment had notice of the provision, and the buyer shall, notwithstanding such provision, be deemed the owner of the goods.

(2) The provision referred to in subsection (1) shall be evidenced by a writing signed prior to or at the time of, or within ten days after delivery of the goods, by the buyer or his agent, giving a description of the goods by which they may be readily and easily known and distinguished, and stating the amount unpaid of the purchase price or the terms and conditions of the hiring; and the writing or a true copy thereof shall be filed within twenty days after it has been signed, with the proper officer of the registration district in which the buyer resided at the time of the making of the conditional sale, or, in case his residence is outside the Territory of the district where the goods are delivered.

(3) Where the buyer resides in one registration district and the goods are delivered to him in another, an original of the writing made pursuant to this section or a true copy thereof shall be filed in the registration district in which the delivery is made as well as in that of the buyer’s residence.

(4) Where the goods are after delivery removed by the buyer into another registration district, the original of the writing made pursuant to this section or a true copy thereof shall, within twenty days after such removal has come to the knowledge of the seller, be filed in the district into which the goods are removed.

(5) Where the goods, having been delivered at a place outside the Territory, are subsequently removed into the Territory by the buyer, the writing made pursuant to this section or a true copy thereof shall be filed in the registration district to which the goods are removed, within twenty days after such removal has come to the knowledge of the seller.

(6) Where the buyer is a corporation, the residence of that buyer shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to be at the place where the principal place of business of the corporation in the Territory is situated.

4. (1) Where a writing or a true copy thereof referred to in section 3 has been filed in accordance with that section, a renewal statement and an affidavit in respect thereof shall be filed in accordance with this section within three years after the day of the filing of the writing.
(2) A renewal statement filed pursuant to this section shall set out the interest of the seller in the goods comprised in the conditional sale and the amount still owing for principal and interest under the conditional sale and of all payments made on account thereof, and shall be accompanied by an affidavit by the seller or his agent stating that the statement is true and that the conditional sale has not been kept in force for any fraudulent purpose or to defeat, delay or prejudice the creditors of the buyer.

(3) The renewal statement and affidavit referred to in subsection (2) shall be filed,

(a) in the case of goods still situate in the registration district in which the writing evidencing the conditional sale or a true copy thereof was filed in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) of section 3, with the proper officer of that registration district, and

(b) in the case of any goods comprised in the conditional sale that have been removed to a registration district other than that mentioned in paragraph (a) where the writing evidencing the conditional sale or a true copy thereof has been filed pursuant to subsection (4) or (5) of section 3, with the proper officer of the registration district where the goods were removed.

(4) A further renewal statement accompanied by an affidavit shall be filed in accordance with subsections (2) and (3) within the period of three years from the filing of the first renewal statement and thereafter within each succeeding period of three years from the filing of the last preceding renewal statement.

(5) Where any mistake is made in a renewal statement filed pursuant to this section, the seller may file an amended statement clearly pointing out the mistake therein and correcting it.

(6) Where before the filing of an amended statement and affidavit referred to in subsection (5) a person has in good faith made an advance of money or given valuable consideration to the buyer or has incurred costs in proceedings taken relying on the accuracy of the renewal statement as first filed, the conditional sale as to the amount so advanced or the valuable consideration given or costs incurred by such person shall, as against him, stand good only for the amount stated in the renewal statement as first filed.

5. Where the goods are delivered to a trader or other person and the seller expressly or impliedly consents that the buyer may resell them in the course of business, and such trader or other person resells the goods in the ordinary course of his business, the property in the goods shall pass to the purchaser notwithstanding the other provisions of this Ordinance.
6. The seller shall deliver a copy of the writing evidencing a conditional sale to the buyer within twenty days after the execution thereof, and if, after request, he neglects or refuses to do so a judge may, on summary application, make an order for the delivery of such copy.

7. (1) The proper officer shall make an entry of every writing that is filed in his office under this Ordinance in an index book to be kept for that purpose.

(2) The Commissioner may by regulation prescribe that separate index books shall be kept by the proper officer of any registration district for the entries of writings respecting conditional sales of any certain class of goods.

8. An error of a clerical nature or in an immaterial or non-essential part of the copy of the writing, that does not mislead, does not invalidate the filing or destroy the effect of it.

9. (1) The seller shall, within five days after the receipt of a request from any person proposing to purchase the goods or from any actual or intending creditor of the buyer or from any other interested person, accompanied by a sufficient amount in money or postage stamps to pay the postage on a reply by registered letter, furnish particulars of the amount remaining due to the seller and the terms of payment and in default he is liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

(2) The person making the request referred to in subsection (1) shall give a name and post office address to which a reply may be sent, and it is sufficient if the information is given by registered letter, postage prepaid, deposited in a post office within the prescribed time addressed to the name and post office address so given.

10. (1) Except for temporary purposes for a period of not more than twenty days, the buyer shall not remove the goods into another registration district unless he has, at least ten days before such removal, given the seller personally or by registered mail, written notice of the place to which the goods are to be removed and the approximate time of the intended removal.

(2) The buyer shall not, prior to the complete performance of the contract, sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of his interest in the goods, unless he, or the person to whom he is about to sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise disposed of same, has notified the seller in writing, personally or by registered mail, of the name and address of such person, not less than ten days before such sale, mortgage, charge, or other disposal.

(3) Where the buyer removes the goods or disposes of his interest in them contrary to this section, the seller may retake possession of the goods and deal with them as in case of default in payment of all or part of the purchase price.
11. (1) Where the seller retakes possession of the goods pursuant to any condition in the contract, he shall retain them for twenty days, and the buyer may redeem the same within that period by paying or tendering to the seller the balance of the contract price, together with the actual costs and expenses of taking and keeping possession, or by performance or tender of performance of the condition upon which the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer and payment of such costs and expenses; and thereupon the seller shall deliver up to the buyer possession of the goods so redeemed.

(2) Where the goods are not redeemed within the period of twenty days, and subject to the giving of the notice of sale as prescribed by this section, the seller may sell the goods, either by private sale or at public auction, at any time after the expiration of that period.

(3) Where the price of the goods exceeds thirty dollars and the seller intends to look to the buyer or any person guaranteeing payment of the amount due under the contract for any deficiency on a resale, the goods shall not be resold until after notice in writing of the intention to sell has been given to the buyer and such other person guaranteeing payment of the amount due under the contract.

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) shall contain:
   (a) a brief description of the goods;
   (b) an itemized statement of the balance of the contract price due and the actual costs and expenses of taking and keeping possession up to the time of the notice;
   (c) a demand that the amount as stated in the notice shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than five days from the delivery of the notice, where it is personally delivered, or not less than seven days from the mailing of the notice, where it is sent by mail; and
   (d) a statement that, unless the amount as stated in the notice is paid within the time mentioned, the goods will be sold either at private sale or advertised and sold by public auction.

(5) The notice may be given by personal delivery to the buyer or by mailing it by prepaid registered mail addressed to the buyer at his last-known address.

(6) The notice may be given during the twenty days mentioned in subsection (1).

(7) This section applies notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary.

12. (1) Upon payment or tender of the amount due in respect of the goods or performance of the conditions of sale, and upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer or any other person having an interest in the goods, the seller shall sign and deliver to the person demanding it a memorandum in writing stating that his claims against the goods are satisfied, and such memorandum shall be accompanied by an affidavit of execution of an attesting witness, and may on payment of the prescribed fee be filed.

(2) If for ten days after the receipt of the demand mentioned in subsection (1), the seller unreasonably fails to mail or deliver the required memorandum, he is liable for the damages suffered by the person demanding it in consequence of his default.

(3) Upon the filing of the memorandum pursuant to subsection (1) the proper officer with whom the writing evidencing the conditional sale agreement or copy thereof is filed under section 3 shall enter satisfaction upon the writing or copy so filed.

13. A valid assignment in writing of a conditional sale transfers the assignor’s rights of property in the goods therein comprised, his right of seizure, removal, and sale, and all other rights that he possesses for enforcement of the conditional sale.

14. A copy of any instrument filed under this Ordinance, certified by the proper officer, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the contents of the original instrument and also as prima facie evidence of the execution of the original instrument according to the purport of the copy; and the proper officer’s certificate shall be received as prima facie evidence of the date and hour of filing.

15. (1) For services under this Ordinance the proper officer is entitled to the following fees:

(a) for each filing, including stamping original or duplicate, if any, with filing stamp, seventy-five cents;
(b) for searching each name, fifty cents;
(c) for each certificate or abstract of search, one dollar; and
(d) for copies of documents, including certificate thereof, every one hundred words, twenty cents.

(2) The fees mentioned in subsection (1) shall be paid to the Territorial Treasurer and shall form part of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.
CHAPTER 21.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING LIABILITY IN ACTIONS FOR DAMAGES FOR NEGLIGENCE WHERE MORE THAN ONE PARTY IS AT FAULT.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Contributory Negligence Ordinance.

2. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), where by the fault of two or more persons damage or loss is caused to one or more of them, the liability to make good the damage or loss is in proportion to the degree in which each person was at fault.

(2) Where, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it is not possible to establish different degrees of fault, the liability shall be apportioned equally.

(3) Nothing in this section renders a person liable for damage or loss to which his fault has not contributed.

3. Where damage or loss has been caused by the fault of two or more persons, a judge or a jury, as the case may be, shall determine the degree in which each was at fault, and where two or more persons are found at fault they are jointly and severally liable to the person suffering damage or loss, but as between themselves, in the absence of any contract express or implied, they are liable to make contribution to and to indemnify each other in the degree in which they are respectively found to have been at fault.

4. Unless a judge otherwise directs, the liability for costs of the parties in an action under this Ordinance is in the same proportion as their respective liability to make good the damage or loss.

5. In an action, the amount of damage or loss, the fault, if any, and the degrees of fault are questions of fact.

6. At the trial of an action, a judge shall not take into consideration or shall not submit to the jury, as the case may be, any question as to whether, notwithstanding the fault of one party, the other could have avoided the consequences thereof, unless in the opinion of the judge there is evidence that the act or omission of the latter was clearly subsequent to and severable from the act or omission of the former so as not to be substantially contemporaneous with it.
Contributory Negligence.

7. Where it appears that a person who is not a party to an action is or may be wholly or partly responsible for the damages claimed, that person may be added as a party defendant or may be made a third party to the action upon such terms as a judge deems just.

8. Where no cause of action exists against the owner or the person operating a motor vehicle by reason of section 137 of the Motor Vehicles Ordinance, no damages or contribution or indemnity are recoverable from any person for the portion of the damage or loss caused by the negligence of the owner or the person operating a motor vehicle, and the portion of the damage or loss so caused shall be determined although such owner or person is not a party to the action.

9. In an action founded upon negligence and brought for damage or loss resulting from bodily injury to or the death of a married person, where one of the persons found to be negligent is the spouse of the married person, no damages or contribution or indemnity are recoverable for the portion of damage or loss caused by the negligence of the spouse, and the portion of the loss or damage so caused shall be determined although the spouse is not a party to the action.

Application Arising out of Petitions.

11. The respondent may, within twenty days after service of the petition upon him, apply to the Court to set the petition aside on any of the following grounds:
(a) that the petitioner is not qualified to bring the petition;
(b) that the petition was not filed or served within the time prescribed;
(c) that the prescribed security for costs was not deposited; or
(d) that the petition does not disclose sufficient facts and grounds for declaring void and setting aside the election of the respondent.

12. (1) The respondent may, within twenty days after service of the petition upon him or, if he has made application under section 11 to set it aside, within five days after the disposal of such application, apply to the Court for an order for particulars or for further and better particulars of the facts and grounds relied upon to support the petition.

(2) The Court may order such particulars or such further and other particulars as it deems necessary to ensure a fair trial and may, in such order, prescribe the time in which such particulars shall be delivered to the applicant and that, in default of delivery, the petitioner shall be precluded from adducing evidence at the trial of the petition with respect to the facts and grounds of which such particulars are ordered.

Trial of Petitions.

13. Where a petition is not withdrawn or set aside and all applications that may be made with respect thereto have been disposed of or the time for making such applications has expired, the petition shall be at issue and may be set down for trial.

14. The petitioner may, at any time after a petition is at issue, apply to the Court to appoint a time and place for trial of the petition and the Court shall, on being satisfied that the petition is at issue, appoint a time and place for trial.

15. (1) Where a petitioner does not, within thirty days after the petition is at issue, make an application to set it down for trial, the respondent may apply to the Court to dismiss the petition.

(2) The Court may, upon application under this section, dismiss the petition or appoint a time and place for trial of the petition, as it deems advisable.

16. A petition shall be tried in open court.

17. (1) The Court shall file with the Clerk its directions as to the judgment to be entered and its reasons therefor and thereupon the petitioner or respondent may, subject to approval of its terms by the Court, enter a formal declaratory judgment pursuant to such directions.
(2) A judgment under this section shall include such provisions as to recovery of costs as the Court has directed.

(3) The Court shall, within fourteen days after filing its directions as to judgment, make and forward to the Commissioner a report of the judgment and directions and reasons therefor.

18. (1) Where the judgment dismisses the petition, the respondent shall continue to be a member of the Council as if the petition had never been brought.

(2) Where the judgment declares that the respondent's election is void and should be set aside, the Commissioner shall, after receiving the report of the Court under section 17, make an order declaring that the respondent's election is void and set aside, and thereupon the respondent's election is void and set aside.

(3) Where there is a stay of proceedings after judgment or an appeal taken from the judgment, this section shall not apply until the stay of proceedings is vacated or the appeal dismissed.

19. (1) A respondent may file a written notice, supported by his affidavit containing his reasons therefor, admitting that the petition should be allowed and that his election should be declared void and set aside.

(2) A copy of the notice and affidavit shall be served upon the petitioner.

(3) Where the Court is satisfied with the bona fides of the entry of judgment, it may permit the petitioner to enter, subject to approval of its terms by the Court, a formal declaratory judgment that the respondent's election is void and should be set aside.

(4) The provisions of sections 17 and 18 as to entry, report and effect of judgments apply to judgments under this section.

Appeals.

20. Where an appeal, as provided in section 35 of the Yukon Act, is taken from the judgment of a Court given under this Ordinance, the Court shall, as soon as possible, send the Commissioner a report of the judgment on appeal and the reasons, if any, given therefor and, upon receipt of the report by the Commissioner, the consequences of such judgment on appeal shall take effect in the same manner as in the case of the judgment of a Court under section 18.

Costs.

21. (1) Unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance, costs of a petition and any proceedings thereunder may be awarded as the Court may in its discretion decide.
(2) The Court may order that any costs to be paid by the petitioner be paid, after final determination of the petition, out of the security for costs deposited by the petitioner, but such an order shall not be construed as prohibiting the respondent from recovering costs or any portion thereof by any other lawful means.

NO COUNTING OF BALLOTS.

22. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed as authorizing the Court in proceedings under this Ordinance to count or recount the ballots cast in an election.

(2) The powers specified in paragraphs (e) to (i) of subsection (1) may only be exercised in each case by extraordinary resolution of the association.

association has changed its name, stating therein the new name, and, if he thinks it advisable, shall, at the cost of the association, publish in the Yukon Gazette a notice of the change.

(3) The change of name shall not effect any rights or obligations of the association, or render defective any legal proceedings by or against the association, and any legal proceedings that might have been continued or commenced against it by its former name may be continued or commenced against it by its new name.

15. An association may, by extraordinary resolution, alter its objects so as to include some object or objects within the or so as to restrict or abandon any objects specified in the memorandum.

16. An association may, by extraordinary resolution, alter the denomination of its shares by consolidation and division into shares of larger amount or by subdivision into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum, so, however, that the proportion between the amounts, if any, paid and unpaid on any existing share shall be the same as it was before the alteration.

17. No resolution under section 15 or 16 shall take effect until it is filed with and registered by the Registrar, and a certificate issued by him under his seal of office setting forth particulars of the alteration; a notice of any such alteration shall, if the Registrar thinks it advisable, be published in the Yukon Gazette by him at the cost of the association.

19. An association may by extraordinary resolution reduce its share capital in any way authorized by the Companies Ordinance, for the reduction of share capital with the sanction of the Court by a company having a share capital, and the provisions of the Companies Ordinance relating thereto shall mutatis mutandis apply.

20. (1) Contracts on behalf of an association may be made as follows:

   (c) any contract that, if made between private persons, would by law be valid although made by parol only and not reduced into writing on behalf of the association by any person acting under its authority, express or implied, and may in the same manner be varied or discharged.

   (2) All contracts made, varied or discharged according to this section shall, so far as concerns the form thereof, be effectual in law and binding on the association and all other parties thereto.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING CORONERS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Coroners Ordinance. Short Title.

APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL.

2. The Commissioner may appoint one or more coroners for the Territory and may at any time remove, supersede or dispense with any or all of them and appoint others in their stead.

3. (1) A coroner shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to, before a judge of the Court, police magistrate, justice of the peace or a person authorized by the Commissioner to administer oaths, an oath of allegiance and an oath of office.

   (2) The oath of allegiance to be taken by a coroner is as follows:

       "I, ........................................., do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors according to law. So help me God."

   (3) The oath of office to be taken by the coroner is as follows:

       "I, ........................................., do solemnly and sincerely promise and swear that I will faithfully and honestly fulfill the duties that devolve upon me by reason of my appointment as a coroner and that I will not, without due authority on that behalf, disclose or make known any matter that comes to my knowledge by reason of my duties or office. So help me God."

JURISDICTION.

4. (1) The coroner residing nearest the place where the death occurred or the place at which the body is found or nearest the route of travel by which such place can be most readily reached has jurisdiction to act as coroner respecting a deceased person.

   (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a coroner has jurisdiction throughout the Territory and the Commissioner or a judge may at any time direct a coroner to make an investigation or hold an inquest at any place in the Territory, in which case the jurisdiction of other coroners, whether they are within subsection (1) or not, is suspended respecting such investigation or inquest.
5. (1) A coroner shall not conduct an inquest or make an investigation into the circumstances connected with the death of a person

(a) on whom he has attended in his professional capacity as a medical practitioner at any time during the period of thirty days immediately prior to the day of that person's death;

(b) on whose body he has, otherwise than in the course of an inquest or investigation in his capacity as coroner, performed an autopsy or post mortem examination; or

(c) whose death has been caused at, on or in or in connection with a railway, mine or other work in respect of which the coroner is the owner, part owner, director, etc., or employed as a medical attendant or in some other capacity by the owner or manager or under any agreement or understanding, direct or indirect, with the employees at, on or in such work.

(2) Where a coroner who would normally exercise jurisdiction under section 4 or is directed pursuant to that section to exercise jurisdiction is disqualified from so doing under subsection (1) of this section, he shall immediately notify the Commissioner and the nearest available coroner of his disqualification.

6. A medical practitioner, undertaker, embalmer, peace officer or any person residing in the house in which the deceased resided immediately prior to his death or any other person who has reason to believe that a deceased person died as a result of violence, misadventure or unfair means, from any cause other than disease or sickness, as a result of negligence, misconduct or malpractice on the part of others or under such other circumstances as require investigation shall immediately notify the coroner, who ordinarily has jurisdiction in the locality in which the body of the deceased person is found, of the circumstances relating to the death.

7. (1) Subject to subsection (3), where a coroner is notified that there is, within his jurisdiction, the body of a deceased person respecting whom there is reason to believe that death resulted from violence, misadventure or unfair means from a cause other than disease or sickness, as a result of negligence, misconduct or malpractice on the part of others or under such other circumstances as require investigation, he shall, unless disqualified from acting under this Ordinance issue his warrant, in Form A in the Schedule, to take possession of the body and shall view the body and make such further inquiry as may be required to satisfy himself whether or not an inquest is necessary.
Coroners.

(2) Unless otherwise directed by the Commissioner or a judge, where a coroner has issued a warrant under this section, no other coroner shall issue a warrant or interfere in the case.

(3) Where a coroner is notified of a death occurring without the attendance of a duly qualified medical practitioner, he is not required to issue his warrant to take possession of the body or view the body, if, after inquiry into all the circumstances connected with the death, he is satisfied that it is unnecessary to hold an inquest.

(4) For the purposes of making inquiries under this section, a coroner may request the assistance of one or more constables or other peace officers who shall, upon such request, make immediate inquiries into the circumstances of the death and submit a detailed report of the results of such inquiries to the coroner.

(5) A coroner may, with the approval of the Commissioner, employ experts to assist him in an inquiry.

8. (1) Where the coroner, after investigation, is satisfied that an inquest is unnecessary, he shall

(a) issue his warrant to bury the body, in Form B in the Schedule;

(b) forthwith transmit to the Commissioner an affidavit, in Form C in the Schedule, setting forth briefly the result of the inquiry and the grounds on which he issued the burial warrant; and

(c) forthwith transmit to the funeral director or undertaker or other person having charge of the body the information and particulars required under the Vital Statistics Ordinance.

(2) Notwithstanding the decision of a coroner and transmission of an affidavit under subsection (1), the Commissioner may direct the coroner or some other coroner to hold an inquest on the body and the coroner so directed shall forthwith hold an inquest.

INQUESTS GENERALLY.

9. (1) Where a coroner, after investigation, has good reason to believe that a deceased person came to his death as a result of violence, misadventure or unfair means or as a result of negligence, misconduct or malpractice on the part of others or under such other circumstances as require an inquest, he shall hold an inquest.

(2) Before holding an inquest, the coroner shall make an affidavit in Form D which shall be returned and filed by the coroner with the inquisition.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to an inquest held at the direction of the Commissioner or a judge or an inquest held on the body of a prisoner who died in or about any prison, gaol or lockup or in the custody of a peace officer.
10. Where the Commissioner or a judge has reason to believe that a deceased person came to his death under circumstances which, in his opinion, make the holding of an inquest advisable, he may direct any coroner to conduct an inquest into the death of such person and the coroner so directed shall conduct an inquest in accordance with this Ordinance, whether or not he or any other coroner has viewed the body, made an inquiry or investigation, held an inquest into or done any other act in connection with the death.

11. Where a prisoner in a prison, gaol or lockup or in the custody of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police or a peace officer dies and notice of his death is given to a coroner by the warden or other official or person in charge or in whose custody the prisoner was, the coroner shall issue his warrant in Form A and hold an inquest on the body.

12. (1) Where the body of a person respecting whom it is necessary to hold an inquest has been buried and the coroner is of opinion that no good purpose would be affected by disinterring the body for the purposes of the inquest, the Commissioner or a judge may, either upon application to him or otherwise, issue written permission to the coroner concerned to proceed therewith without disinterring the body.

(2) Where the body of a person respecting whom it is necessary to hold an inquest has been transported out of the Territory to be interred, the Commissioner or a judge may, either upon application to him or otherwise, issue written permission to the coroner concerned to proceed therewith without having the body brought back to the Territory.

13. Where a coroner is satisfied that a death, respecting which it is necessary to hold an inquest, has occurred within his jurisdiction, but, either due to the cause of death or for any other reason, the body or any part thereof cannot be found or recovered the coroner may, after first obtaining the written consent of the Commissioner or a judge, proceed to hold, without any view of the body, an inquiry as to the cause of death and it shall be conducted in all other respects in the same manner as other inquests held under this Ordinance.

14. Where an inquest is to be held upon the body of a person who met death by violence in the wreck of a building, bridge, structure, embankment, aeroplane, motor vehicle, boat, machine or apparatus, the coroner may take charge of all wreckage and place constables or other peace officers in charge thereof in order to prevent any disturbance of the wreckage until such examinations as are deemed necessary by the coroner have been completed.

15. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a coroner may, where he considers it advisable,

(a) for the purposes of an investigation, or Coroners.

(b) prior to the termination of an inquest, conduct a post-mortem examination or direct that a post-mortem examination be conducted by a medical practitioner.

(2) Where a coroner proposes to conduct a post-mortem examination or to direct a medical practitioner to do so for the purposes of an investigation and an inquest has not been ordered, the examination shall not be made without the permission of a judge, the Commissioner or a person authorized by the Commissioner.

(3) Where the coroner has reason to believe that the death was directly or indirectly caused by the improper or negligent action of a medical practitioner or other person, that medical practitioner or other person shall not be allowed to perform or assist at the post-mortem examination.

(4) Where a coroner is of opinion that the body of a deceased person that has been buried should be disinterred for the purposes of an examination or where he is so directed by the Commissioner or a judge, the coroner shall issue a warrant in Form J.

(5) A copy of a coroner’s warrant for disinterment shall be sent to the Registrar General of Vital Statistics and a re-burial certificate secured.

(6) The coroner shall send to the Commissioner the accounts in respect of a post-mortem examination.

16. (1) Where an inquest is held concerning a death caused by an accident at, or in connection with a mine, the coroner shall send reasonable notice of its time and place to a person who is an inspector under the Mining Safety Ordinance or a person authorized to act for him and such inspector or other person is entitled to be present and to cross-examine any witness at the inquest.

(2) Where the inspector or other person who receives notice of an inquest fails to appear at the appointed time or place or requests a postponement or adjournment of the inquest, the coroner may postpone or adjourn the inquest if he deems it advisable in the public interest to do so, but no such postponement or adjournment shall exceed twenty-four hours.

(3) In the case of an inquest under this section, the jury if any, shall wherever practicable contain at least three employees of the mine, of whom at least one is familiar with the work in respect of which the accident arose.

CORONER’S JURIES.

17. (1) At an inquest held pursuant to this or any other Ordinance, a coroner shall, where he is of opinion that it is practicable to secure a jury, sit with a jury but may, where he is of opinion that it is not practicable to secure a jury, proceed without a jury, and, in the latter case, has full authority to find such verdict as a jury might have found.
Chap. 24.

Coroners.

(2) Subject to this Ordinance or any other Ordinance, a coroner's jury shall consist of six male persons who are qualified to serve and liable to serve as jurors under the Jury Ordinance.

(4) The summons to a person to serve on a coroner's jury shall be in Form F and shall specify the time, place and purpose of the inquest and the name and address of the person upon whom it is to be served.

(5) Subject to section 16, no person who, whether or not liable or qualified to serve as a juror under the Jury Ordinance, is

(a) an officer, employee or inmate of a hospital, asylum, charitable institution, gaol, prison or lockup in which the death of a deceased person occurred; or

(b) the owner or an employee of the owner of any building or premises used for any trade or business and in which the death of a deceased person occurred; shall serve on the coroner's jury at an inquest respecting the death of such deceased person.

18. (1) The sheriff, constable or other peace officer to whom the coroner's warrant is issued under subsection (3) of section 17 shall attend at the time and place appointed for the inquest and make his return as to the summoning of the jurors.

(2) Where six jurors are present the coroner shall proceed with the inquest.

(3) Where less than six jurors are present upon the return of the summons, the coroner shall order the sheriff, constable or other peace officer to summon, by word of mouth if necessary, a sufficient number of male persons, whether qualified jurors or not, to complete the jury and where a full jury cannot be obtained within one hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the inquest, the coroner may proceed with a jury of not less than three jurors or dispense with a jury.

(4) Where a coroner's jury consists of six persons, five of them may return a verdict but, where the jury consists of less than six persons, the verdict must be unanimous.

19. Where an inquest is held without a coroner's jury or with a coroner's jury consisting of less than six persons, the inquisition shall state that the inquest has been so held and give the reasons therefor.

BORROWING POWERS.

39. Subject to the consent of the Registrar, a credit union may from time to time borrow moneys not exceeding in the aggregate twenty-five per cent of its combined capital, surplus and deposits, upon a vote of at least three-fourths of the members of the board of directors, and may from time to time borrow moneys not exceeding in the aggregate fifty per cent of its combined capital, surplus and deposits, upon a vote of three-fourths of the members present, or one-third of the total membership, whichever is the greater, taken at an annual meeting of the credit union or at a special meeting called for the purpose, with those voting in support of the resolution representing a majority of the shares issued.

40. A credit union may charge, hypothecate, mortgage or pledge its real or personal property, rights and powers, undertakings, franchises, including book debts and unpaid calls of the credit union, to secure any liability for the repayment of moneys borrowed in pursuance of a resolution passed under section 39.

APPORTIONMENT OF SURPLUS.

41. After paying all expenses including interest, if any, on deposits and after making proper allowance for depreciation, the directors shall present to the annual meeting for confirmation a resolution respecting the apportionment of the surplus arising from the yearly business of the credit union, which resolution shall provide

(a) that there be set aside as a reserve fund against uncollectable loans and probable future losses, all entrance fees, fines collected from members and, at the end of each fiscal year, at least twenty-five per cent of the surplus, and so from year to year until such reserve fund is equal to at least ten per cent of the assets of the credit union from time to time;

and may provide

(b) that after setting aside such part of the surplus as is required for the reserve fund, a dividend of a specified amount, but not exceeding five per cent per annum, be paid to the shareholders on all fully paid-up shares shown by the books of the credit union as outstanding at the end of the preceding fiscal year;

(c) that there be set aside, if the by-laws so provide, a specified amount, but not exceeding five per cent of the surplus, to be used for such educational purposes as the directors may determine, but the moneys so set aside from time to time shall be expended within three years after they are set aside, or transferred within such period to the reserve fund;

(d) that there be set aside a specified amount for emergencies or estimated losses, or special expenditures needed to achieve the objects of the credit union, but the moneys so set aside shall be expended within three years after they are set aside, or transferred within such period to the reserve fund or paid as dividends on shares or as borrower dividends for the fiscal year preceding the annual meeting at which they are set aside; and

(e) that, after making provision for a reserve fund, the payment of dividends on shares, an educational fund, if any, and an emergency fund, if any, the remainder, if any, of the surplus be divided among the members as a borrower dividend in proportion to the amount of interest paid by them to the credit union on all loans or on specified classes of loans during the preceding fiscal year.

42. (1) The reserve fund may be invested in the stocks, bonds or securities of the Government of Canada or may be deposited in accordance with paragraph (d) of section 17.
Credit Unions.

(2) The income received from such investments or deposits shall form a part of the general revenue of the credit union.

(3) The fund shall be held as a reserve against uncollectable loans or losses and shall not be used for any other purpose except on liquidation.

Membership.

43. Every credit union shall have a membership of at least ten.

44. Subject to section 45, the membership of a credit union shall be limited to groups of persons having a common bond of occupation or association, or to groups within a well defined neighbourhood, community, municipality or district.

45. (1) Any other credit union may be a member of a credit union.

(2) An association incorporated under the Co-Operative Association Ordinance may be a member of a credit union if such association is composed for the most part of the same general group as that comprising the membership of the credit union.

(3) A credit union or a co-operative association admitted as a member of a credit union may vote at meetings of the credit union by a duly appointed delegate, in accordance with the supplemental by-laws of the credit union.

(4) The terms and conditions upon which a member credit union or co-operative association may obtain loans shall be those set forth in a supplemental by-law of the lending credit union and not inconsistent with this Ordinance but the total amount of all loans made by a credit union to member credit unions and co-operative associations shall not at any time exceed an amount equivalent to twenty-five per cent of its combined paid up capital and deposits.

46. A minor may be a member but a minor shall not vote until he has reached the age of sixteen years, nor shall he be elected as a director or as a member of the credit committee or supervisory committee until he has attained the age of eighteen years; and upon attaining the age of eighteen years he may enjoy all the rights of a member.

47. A register, or list of shareholders, shall be kept by every credit union, and such register shall show and shall be prima facie evidence of

(a) the names, addresses and occupations of the shareholders, the number of shares held by them respectively, the numbers of such shares and the amount paid or considered as paid thereon;

(b) the date on which each shareholder was registered; and

(c) the date at which any shareholder ceased to be such.
48. (1) The directors by at least a two-thirds vote, at a meeting duly called and at which a majority of the directors are present, may expel a member from the credit union.

(2) Within five days from the date on which the member is expelled, the secretary shall notify him in writing of the action of the directors.

(3) An appeal from the action of the directors may be taken by the member to the next general meeting of the credit union if written notice of the intention to appeal is given by him to the secretary within thirty days from the date of the receipt of the notice mentioned in subsection (2).

(4) At such meeting a majority of the members present may confirm or rescind the action of the directors.

49. A member may withdraw from the credit union at any time on giving such notice of withdrawal as may be required by the by-laws or such additional notice as, in any particular case, the directors may deem necessary and is approved by the Registrar.

50. All amounts paid in on shares or as deposits by a member who is expelled or withdraws and any relative dividends or interest shall be paid to him as funds become available and after deducting all amounts due from him to the credit union.

51. A member who is expelled or withdraws shall have no further rights in the credit union but shall not be released, by such expulsion or withdrawal, from any remaining liability to the credit union.

52. No member entrusted with or participating in the direct management of the affairs of a credit union shall withdraw, or transfer or otherwise dispose of his shares, during the exercise of his functions, and in case of insolvency of the credit union any such withdrawal or transfer or disposal made by him within four months preceding such insolvency shall be null and void, and such member shall remain liable to the creditors of the credit union to the extent of such shares so transferred or disposed of.

53. Subject to this Ordinance, the method of operation of joint membership accounts shall be set forth from time to time in the standard by-laws governing all credit unions in the Yukon Territory.

58. The by-laws of every credit union shall bind the credit union and the members thereof to the same extent as if each member had subscribed his name and affixed his seal thereto and there were in such by-laws a covenant on the part of himself, his heirs, executors and administrators to conform to such by-laws subject to this Ordinance.

59. (1) All moneys payable by a member of a credit union shall be a debt due from him to the credit union and shall be recoverable as such in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) The credit union shall have a lien on the shares and deposits of a member for any sum due from him to the credit union and for any loan indorsed by him.

RETURNS.

60. Every credit union shall
(a) within two weeks after each annual meeting send to the Registrar an audited statement of the receipts and expenditures, assets and liabilities of the credit union and such other information as may be required by the Registrar; and
(b) supply gratuitously to every shareholder, on his application, a copy of the last annual return.

61. Every credit union shall furnish the Registrar with such information as may from time to time be required.

62. Every return and other document required for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be made in such form as the Registrar may prescribe.

INSPECTION OF CREDIT UNIONS.

63. (1) The affairs of every credit union shall be examined at least annually by or under the direction of the Registrar, and the credit union shall produce all books, documents and other papers required by the person conducting the examination.
Offences.

64. It shall be an offence against this Ordinance if any credit union
(a) fails to give any notice, send any return or document, or do or allow to be done any act or thing which the credit union is by this Ordinance required to give, send, do or allow to be done;
(b) wilfully neglects or refuses to do any act or to furnish any information required for the purposes of this Ordinance by the Registrar or any other official or person whose duties require him to obtain the information, or does any act or thing forbidden by this Ordinance; or
(c) makes a return or wilfully furnishes information in any respect false or insufficient.

65. Every offence by a credit union shall be deemed to have been also committed by every officer of the credit union who is bound by the by-laws thereof to fulfil the duties whereof such an offence is a breach or, if there is no such officer, then by each of the directors and members of the credit and supervisory committee, unless such officer, director or member of committee is proved to have been ignorant of or to have attempted to prevent the commission of such offence.

66. (1) No person, firm, corporation or association doing business in the Territory shall use the words “credit union” or “caisse populaire,” or any abbreviation or derivative thereof, as part of its corporate or business name unless incorporated by or under the authority of an Act of Parliament of Canada or an Ordinance of the Territory.

(2) Any person, firm, corporation or association contravening this section is guilty of an offence against this Ordinance.

67. Every person, firm, corporation, association or credit union guilty of an offence under this Ordinance is, on the complaint of any credit union or any member thereof or of the Registrar, liable on summary conviction to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Dissolution.

68. (1) A credit union may be dissolved by consent of three-fourths of its members, shown by their signatures to an instrument of dissolution.

(2) The instrument of dissolution shall set forth in detail the liabilities and assets of the credit union, the number of members and the nature of their respective interests in the credit union, the claims of creditors, if any, and the provision to be made for their payment, and the intended appropriation or division of the funds or property of the credit union unless the same is stated in the instrument to be left to the award of the Registrar.

(3) A statutory declaration shall be made by the president and secretary that the provisions of this Ordinance have been complied with, and shall be sent to the Registrar with the instrument of dissolution.

(4) The Registrar shall cause a notice of the dissolution to be published, at the expense of the credit union, in the Yukon Gazette and in a newspaper circulating in the district in which the registered office of the credit union is situated.

69. (1) Subject to the approval of the Commissioner, the Registrar by order may dissolve a credit union if satisfied that
(a) the incorporation of the credit union was obtained by fraud or mistake;
(b) the credit union exists for an illegal purpose;
(c) the number of members has been reduced to less than ten;
(d) the credit union is not carrying on business or is not in operation; or
(e) the credit union has wilfully, after notice by the Registrar, violated any of the provisions of this Ordinance.

(2) The Registrar shall give the credit union not less than two months’ notice of proposed dissolution, specifying the reason therefor and stating that, unless cause is shown to the contrary within the said period, the name of the credit union will be struck off the register and the credit union dissolved.

(3) At the expiration of the time mentioned in the notice the Registrar may, unless cause to the contrary is previously shown by the credit union, strike the name of the credit union off the register, and in such case he shall publish notice thereof in the Yukon Gazette, whereupon the credit union shall be dissolved.

70. Where a credit union is dissolved under this Ordinance the credit union shall nevertheless be considered as subsisting and be in all respects subject to the provisions of this Ordinance, so long and so far as any matter relating to the same remains unsettled, to the intent that the credit union may do all things necessary to the winding up of the concerns thereof, and the credit union may sue and be sued in respect of all such matters.

71. (1) Where a credit union is wound up under Part IX of the Companies Ordinance the liquidation shall, when the affairs of the credit union have been fully wound up and a general meeting has been called for the purpose of having the liquidators’ accounts laid before it, forward to the Registrar a duplicate of the return required to be made to the Registrar of Joint-Stock Companies, and the Registrar shall file such return in his office.
Chap. 25. Credit Unions.

(2) Where the liquidators make default in transmitting the return mentioned in subsection (1), they are severally liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty dollars for every day during which the default continues.

72. (1) Where a surplus remains after all debts and liabilities of a credit union have been satisfied in full, the liquidator may, subject to the approval of the Registrar, allow a reasonable rate of dividend, not exceeding five per cent on the paid up capital to the shareholders of record as of the date of the instrument of dissolution.

(2) After payment of a dividend under subsection (1), any surplus remaining shall, subject to the approval of the Registrar, be paid to one or more recognized local organizations or associations that have for their objects activities of a benevolent, charitable or educational nature to promote occupational or community group welfare if such organization or association is in operation in the district and is of service to the group served by the credit union.

(3) A receipt from the secretary or some authorized officer of the organization or association to which any payment is made under subsection (2) shall constitute a discharge to the liquidation of the credit union.

GENERAL.

73. The fees payable to the Registrar for services under this Ordinance shall be those set forth in Form C.

74. All fees received by the Registrar under or by virtue of this Ordinance shall be paid by him into and form part of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

75. The Registrar shall upon written request supply a copy of the standard by-laws and prepare such supplemental by-laws as may be required for the regulation, government and management of a proposed credit union.

(2) A certified copy of the memorandum of association or supplemental by-laws of any credit union incorporated under this Ordinance may be furnished at cost.

(3) Except with the consent of the Registrar, no other document or part thereof relating to any credit union incorporated or registered under this Ordinance shall be available for search.
77. (1) Any five or more credit unions may, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, organize a federation, with or without capital divided into shares, for the furtherance of their common interests and the benefit of their members and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, for the purpose of

(a) carrying on, encouraging and assisting educational and advisory work relating to credit unions;

(b) improving methods of management of credit unions and standardizing their bookkeeping, accounting and other procedure;

(g) making loans to credit unions that are members, subject to section 39;

(h) depositing or investing the savings of members in the manner mentioned in section 17; and

(i) rendering to its members any other services incidental to its objects.

(2) A memorandum of association, signed in duplicate by one member of each credit union affected who has been appointed by it for the purpose, shall be filed in the office of the Registrar.

(3) The memorandum shall be in such form as the Registrar may require and shall state the name of the federation, the par value of the shares, if any, or the membership fee, if any, the objects of the federation, the place at which its registered office will be situated, the names and addresses of the subscribers to the memorandum and the names of the credit unions which they respectively represent, and shall be accompanied by a copy of the by-laws by which the federation is to be governed and such other documentary evidence as the Registrar may require.

(4) Upon the filing of the memorandum of association and other documents the Registrar may, if satisfied that the registration is economically advisable and that it is otherwise expedient to do so, register the federation and upon registration shall issue a certificate of registration in Form D in the Schedule and publish a notice of registration in the Yukon Gazette.

(5) Upon the issue of a certificate of registration the credit unions mentioned in the memorandum of association and such other credit unions as may thereafter become members of the federation shall thereupon become and be a body corporate and politic under the registered name of the federation, and the provisions of this Ordinance shall in so far as applicable apply mutatis mutandis to the federation.

(6) A federation incorporated under this section may pass such by-laws as it deems advisable for its purposes and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, may pass by-laws providing;

(a) that the territory in which the federation has members shall be divided into districts and that such number of directors of the federation as may be designated in the by-law shall be elected by delegates representing the members in such districts in such manner as to provide representation for each district on the board of directors and that the other directors in such number as may be designated in the by-law shall be elected by the delegates to represent the members at large;

(b) that if a vacancy occurs in the board of directors the remaining directors may appoint a member of a member credit union to fill the vacancy until the next annual meeting of the federation when a successor shall be appointed for the unexpired term, if any; and

CHAPTER 26.

AN ORDINANCE FOR THE RELIEF OF EXECUTION CREDITORS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Creditors Relief Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance, "sheriff" includes duly appointed bailiffs, coroners and any person discharging the duties of sheriff in the particular case for the time being.

PRIORITIES ABOLISHED.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance there is no priority among execution creditors.

DISTRIBUTION OF MONEYS LEVIED.

4. When a sheriff levies money upon an execution against the property of a debtor, he shall forthwith enter in a book to be kept in his office, a note or memorandum in a form approved by the Commissioner, the date and the amount of each levy and the date upon which the entry was made; such book shall be open to public inspection, without charge, during office hours.

5. Moneys realized by the sheriff as the result of attachment of personal property shall be distributed under the provisions of this Ordinance, and shall be deemed to be moneys levied under execution.

6. Subject to section 9, the money levied by a sheriff upon execution against the property of a debtor shall at the expiration of two months from the levy, unless otherwise ordered by a judge, be distributed rateably among all execution creditors and other creditors whose executions or certificates given under this Ordinance were in the sheriff's hands at the time of the levy, or who have delivered executions or certificates to the sheriff within the said two months or within such further time as may be ordered by a judge; but where money is realized by sale of land for which a certificate of title has been granted under the Land Titles Act, the period of two months shall be computed from the date of confirmation of the sheriff's sale under the said Act.
7. (1) Where the sheriff, subsequently to the entry of the note or memorandum but within two months thereof, levies a further amount upon the property of the debtor, the same shall be dealt with as if such amount had been levied prior to the entry of such note or memorandum, pursuant to section 4.

(2) Where, after the two months, a further amount is levied a new note or memorandum shall be entered and the distribution to be made of the amount so levied, and of any further amount levied within two months of such last mentioned entry, shall be governed by the entry thereof in accordance with section 6 and subsection (1) of this section, and so on from time to time but a judge may, on application to be made ex parte or upon notice, as the judge may determine, delay any of such distributions or any part thereof to give reasonable time for obtaining judgment or a certificate in Form A, and may fix a date for such distribution.

8. In the distribution of moneys under this Ordinance creditors who have executions against goods and lands, or against goods only or lands only, shall be entitled to share rateably with all others any moneys realized under execution either against goods or lands or against both.

9. When the amount levied by the sheriff is not sufficient to pay the executions and certificates with costs in full, the moneys shall be applied to the payment rateably of the debts and costs after retaining the sheriff's fees and after payment in full of the taxed costs of execution, or of obtaining and delivering a certificate and extra costs of seizure and sale incurred by the creditor whose writ of execution or certificate was placed in the sheriff's hands first among those under whose executions or certificates the levy was made.

10. No creditor is entitled to share in the distribution of money levied from the property of a debtor unless by the delivery of a writ of execution, or otherwise under this Ordinance, he has established a claim against the debtor either alone or jointly with some other creditor.

INTERPLEADER PROCEEDINGS.

11. Where proceedings are taken by the sheriff for relief under any provisions relating to interpleader, those creditors only who are parties thereto and who agree to contribute pro rata, in proportion to the amount of their executions or certificates, to the expense of contesting any adverse claim, are entitled to share in any benefit that may be derived from the contestation of such claims so far as may be necessary to satisfy their executions or certificates.

12. A judge may direct that one creditor shall bear the carriage of the interpleader proceedings on behalf of all creditors interested.
Creditors Relief.

13. The costs of interpleader proceedings shall, as between solicitor and client, be a first charge upon the moneys or goods that may be found by the proceedings to be applicable upon the executions or certificates.

CLAIMS FOR WAGES.

14. (1) All persons employed by an execution debtor at the time of the seizure under which money has been levied upon any execution and of which a note of the levy has been made as prescribed in section 4, or within one month before such seizure, who, prior to the expiration of the time fixed for the distribution of their claims for wages or salary with the particulars thereof proved by affidavit in Form B, are, subject to this Ordinance, entitled to be paid out of the money so levied the amount of wages or salary due to them respectively by the execution debtor, not exceeding wages or salary for three months, in priority to the claims of the other creditors of the execution debtor, and are entitled to share pro rata with such other creditors as to the residue, if any, of their claims; such wages or salary shall be for arrears only then owing or accrued, and not for any unearned portion.

(2) On receipt of any claim mentioned in subsection (1) the sheriff shall forthwith give notice thereof in writing, with particulars, to the execution debtor, either personally or by registered mail, and the sheriff has the same right to interplead in respect thereof as he would have in case of any adverse claim to moneys levied by him under execution.

(3) This section applies to wages or salary, whether the employment in respect of which the same may be payable is by the hour, day, week, month or year.

EXEMPTIONS.

15. (1) Where money levied is the proceeds of the sale of an article under execution upon a judgment rendered in an action for the price of the article, and such article would otherwise be exempt from seizure under the Exemptions Ordinance, such money shall not be subject to distribution under the terms of section 6 or 7, but shall be applied upon the execution under which it was levied.

(2) In case the amount levied as mentioned in subsection (1) is more than sufficient to pay the execution debt with costs in full, the balance in the sheriff's hands shall be paid over to the execution debtor.

(3) In case such amount is insufficient to pay the execution debt with costs in full, the execution creditor shall be entitled to share in any money of the execution debtor which may be in the sheriff's hands for distribution under the terms of section 6 or 7 to the extent of the unpaid balance.
CERTIFICATE OF PROOF OF CLAIM PROCEDURE.

16. When the sheriff has seized goods and chattels under a writ of execution, or a debtor allows an execution against his lands to remain unsatisfied for nine months after it has been placed in the sheriff's hands, the creditors or claimants in respect of such overdue debts may take the following proceedings:

(a) an affidavit in Form C of the debt and the particulars thereof may be made in duplicate by the creditor, or by one of the creditors in case of a joint debt, or by a person cognizant of the facts;

(b) the claimant shall serve on the debtor one of the duplicates and a notice in Form D;

(c) where the affidavit and notice are to be served out of the Territory, a judge shall, by order, fix the time after which the next step may be taken by the claimant as hereinafter provided;

(d) where no notice is given under paragraph (g), the affidavit and notice may be personally served upon him, if in the Territory, by forwarding to him by registered mail a duplicate original of the affidavit and a true copy of the notice, and such service shall be deemed sufficient if a receipt from the postmaster for the letter containing such original copy, and a post office receipt for such letter, purporting to be signed by the debtor, are produced as exhibits to the affidavit of service and the affidavit and notice shall be deemed to be served on the day of the date of the receipt which purports to be signed by the debtor, but notwithstanding anything herein contained, a judge may order substitutional or other service, or may direct some act to be done which shall be deemed sufficient service;

(e) the claimant shall file with the Clerk of the Court one of the duplicate affidavits of claim and a copy of the notice with an affidavit of service thereof in Form E;

(f) prior to or simultaneously with the filing with the Clerk of the Court of the affidavit there shall be filed with him a certificate of the sheriff or an affidavit showing that such proceedings have been had against the debtor as entitle the creditor to proceed under this Ordinance;

(g) an execution debtor may give notice in writing to the sheriff that any claims may be served upon a solicitor in the Territory whose name and address shall be given, or by mailing the same to an address stated in the notice;

(h) the sheriff shall thereupon enter the notice in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, and, so long as any execution that was in the sheriff's hand at the time the notice was given remains in his hands, shall repeat such entry immediately below any entry made in respect of the execution, unless the notice is revoked in writing, in which case the entry thereof shall be marked "revoked";
(i) so long as the notice is not revoked the affidavit of claim and notice may, where a solicitor is named, be served upon an execution debtor by serving the same upon the solicitor, or if mailing is required then by mailing the same by registered post to the address in the notice given by the execution debtor; and

(j) where the notice served on a debtor does not state some place within three miles of the office of the Clerk of the Court at which service may be made upon the claimant, or does not give the name and address of some solicitor in the Territory who may be served on the claimant's behalf, service of any notice, paper or document may be made upon the claimant by filing the same in the office of the Clerk of the Court and in such case shall be deemed good service.

ISSUE, EFFECT AND DURATION OF CERTIFICATE.

17. When the claim is not contested as provided in this Ordinance, the Clerk of the Court, after ten days from the day of service, or after the time mentioned in the order provided for by paragraph (c) of section 16, on the application of the claimant and his filing proof of due service of the affidavit and notice, or where the claim is contested, upon the determination of the dispute in favour of the claimant either in whole or in part, shall deliver to the creditor a certificate in Form A; and, where the claim is disputed as to a part only, the claimant may elect by a writing filed with the Clerk to abandon such part and shall be entitled to a certificate as to the residue.

18. (1) Upon delivery of the certificate to the sheriff, the claimant shall be deemed to be an execution creditor within the meaning of this Ordinance and is entitled to share in any distribution as if he had delivered an execution to the sheriff, and the certificate binds the lands and goods of the debtor in the same manner and to the same extent as an execution, subject to the debt being afterwards disputed by a creditor as hereinafter provided.

(2) For the purpose of interpleader proceedings the certificate shall be deemed to be an execution.

(3) Where the certificate is obtained by a solicitor his name and address shall be indorsed thereon; and, if obtained by the claimant in person, there shall be indorsed thereon a statement of some place within three miles of the office of the Clerk of the Court, at which service may be made upon him, and in default thereof service of any notice, paper or document may be made upon the claimant by filing the same in the office of the Clerk of the Court and in such case shall be deemed good service.
(4) On receiving the certificate the sheriff shall make a further seizure of the property of the debtor to the amount of the debt so claimed, and the sheriff’s fees; and so from time to time in case further certificates are received.

19. (1) A certificate shall remain in force for six years from the date thereof but may from time to time be renewed in the same manner as an execution.

CONTESTATION OF CLAIM.

20. (1) The claim may be contested by the debtor or by any creditor of the debtor.

(2) Where the debtor contests the claim he shall file with the Clerk of the Court an affidavit stating that he has a good defence to the claim or to a specified part of it on the merits, but a judge may dispense with the affidavit on terms or otherwise.

(10) Where the contestant is a creditor and there is reason to believe that the contestation is not being carried on in good faith any other creditor may apply for an order permitting him to intervene in the contestation.

21. Where a claim is contested by a creditor after a certificate has been placed in the sheriff's hands the sheriff, unless a judge otherwise orders, shall levy as if such contestation had not been made, and shall until the determination of the contestation retain in a bank the amount that would be apportionable to the claim if valid, and shall as soon after the expiry of the two months as is practicable distribute the residue of the money made amongst those entitled.

TRIAL OF CONTESTED CLAIMS.

22. A judge may determine any question in dispute in a summary manner, or may direct an action to be brought or an issue to be tried for the determination thereof and may make such order as to the costs of the proceedings as he deems just.

23. The same proceedings may be had for the production of documents and for the examination of parties or others, either before or at the trial, as may be taken in an ordinary action, and such proceedings may also be taken before the application to a judge and as a foundation therefor.

(4) Where the original papers are lost or destroyed, a copy of the entry shall be evidence of the matters therein set forth.

25. (1) Where the debtor, without any seizure by the sheriff, pays the full amount owing in respect of the executions and claims in the sheriff's hands at the time of such payment, no note or memorandum shall be entered as required by section 4 and no further proceedings shall be taken under this Ordinance against the debtor by virtue of the executions having been in the sheriff's hands.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1), after an execution has been filed with the sheriff or a certificate has been delivered to him, the withdrawal or expiry of the execution upon which the proceedings are founded or any stay upon the writ or the satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim thereon, or the setting aside or return of the writ, shall not affect the proceedings to be taken under this Ordinance, and, except so far as the action taken in regard to the writ may affect the amount to be levied, the sheriff shall proceed and levy upon the goods or lands of the debtor or both as he would have proceeded had the writ remained in his hands in full force to be executed, and may also take the like proceedings as he would have been entitled to take had the writ been a writ of venditioni exponas.

(3) Where a debtor, without any seizure by the sheriff, pays to the sheriff part of the amount owing in respect of an execution or certificate in the sheriff's hands and there is at the time no other execution or certificate in the sheriff's hands the sheriff shall apply the same on the execution or certificate so in his hands and sections 4 and 6 shall not apply to the money so received by the sheriff.

26. Where there is in any court a fund belonging to an execution debtor or to which he is entitled, the same or a sufficient part thereof to pay the executions and certificates in the sheriff's hands may, on application of the sheriff or any party interested, be paid over to the sheriff and the same shall be deemed to be money levied under execution within the meaning of this Ordinance.
Creditors Relief.

27. (2) The list shall be so arranged as to show the amount payable to each creditor and the total amount to be distributed; and the sheriff shall deliver, or send by registered post to the debtor and to each creditor or his solicitor, a copy of the list.

(3) Where within ten days after all the copies have been delivered or posted, or within such further time as a judge may allow, no objection is made as provided by this Ordinance, the sheriff shall make distribution forthwith pursuant to such list.

(4) Where objection is made the sheriff shall forthwith distribute rateably so much of the money, and among such persons, as will not interfere with the effect of the objection in case the same should be allowed.

(5) Any person affected by the proposed scheme of distribution may contest the same by giving, within the time mentioned in subsection (3), a notice in writing to the sheriff, stating his objection to the scheme and the grounds thereof.

(6) The contestant shall, within ten days thereafter, apply to a judge for an order adjudicating upon the matter in dispute, otherwise the contestation shall be taken to be abandoned.

(9) A judge may determine any question in dispute in a summary manner, or may direct an action to be brought or an issue to be tried with or without a jury for the determination thereof, and may make such order as to the costs of the proceedings as he deems just.

(10) Where a claimant is held to be not entitled, or to be entitled to part only of his claim, the money retained pending the contestation, or the portion as to which the claimant failed, shall be distributed among the creditors who would have been entitled thereto, as the same would have been distributed had the claim in respect thereof not been made.

30. When money is made under an execution, the same shall be taken for the purposes of the sheriff's return and otherwise to be made upon all the executions and certificates entitled to the benefits thereof, and the sheriff shall, upon payment being made to the person entitled upon such execution or certificate, indorse thereon a memorandum of the amount so paid, but he shall not, except on the request of the party who issued the writ or by direction of a judge, return the writ until the same has been fully satisfied, or unless the same has expired by effluxion of time in which case the sheriff shall make a formal return of the amount paid thereon.

34. Where a sheriff has money in his hands that by reason of this Ordinance or otherwise he cannot immediately pay over, he shall deposit the money in a bank to be designated by the Commissioner and the deposit shall be made in the name of the sheriff in trust.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

35. One seizure by the sheriff of the goods and lands of the debtor shall be deemed sufficient and shall be deemed a seizure on behalf of all creditors sharing under such seizure as provided in this Ordinance.

36. (1) A judge may direct the sheriff to levy for an amount sufficient to cover a claim that is in dispute or part thereof, or, if it appears to him that it is improbable that the debtor has other sufficient property, he may direct the sheriff to retain in his hands during the contestation the share that, if the claim is sustained, will be apportionable to it, or a part thereof.

(2) An order to levy under this section confers on the sheriff the same authority as he would have under an execution.

37. The decision of a judge binds the debtor and all his creditors, unless it appears that the decision was obtained by fraud or collusion.

38. Upon any proceedings before a judge the evidence may be taken orally or by affidavit as the judge may direct.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE DEVOLUTION OF REAL PROPERTY.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Devolution of Real Property Ordinance.

2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) "lunatic" includes an idiot and a person of unsound mind; and
   (b) "personal representative" means the executor, original or by representation, or administrator for the time being of a deceased person.

3. (1) Real property to which a deceased person was entitled for an interest not ceasing on his death shall on his death, notwithstanding any testamentary disposition, devolve upon and become vested in his personal representative as if it were personal property.
   (2) A testator shall be deemed to have been entitled at his death to any interest in real property passing under any gift contained in his will which operates as an appointment under a general power to appoint by will.
   (3) The personal representative is the representative of the deceased in regard to his real property to which he was entitled for an interest not ceasing on his death as well as in regard to his personal property.
   (4) Probate and letters of administration may be granted in respect of real property only, although there is no personal property.

4. Except as provided in this Ordinance, the personal representative of a deceased person holds the real property as trustee for the persons by law beneficially entitled thereto, and those persons have the same right to require a transfer of real property as persons beneficially entitled to personal property to have to require a transfer of such personal property.

5. Except as provided in this Ordinance, all enactments and rules of law, and any jurisdiction of the Court with respect to the appointment of administrators or to probate or letters of administration, or dealings before probate in the case of personal property, and with respect to costs and other matters in the administration of personal property in force before the 1st day of April, 1955, and all powers, duties, rights, equities, obligations and liabilities of a personal representative in force on the 1st day of April, 1955 with respect to personal property, apply and attach to the personal representative and have effect with respect to real property vested in him.

6. Without prejudice to the rights and powers of a personal representative, the appointment of a personal representative in regard to real property does not, except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, affect

(a) any rule as to the marshalling or administration of assets,
(b) the beneficial interest in real property under any testamentary disposition,
(c) any mode of dealing with any beneficial interest in real property or the proceeds of the sale thereof, or
(d) the right of any person claiming to be interested in the real property to take proceedings for the protection or recovery thereof against any person other than the personal representative.

7. In the administration of the assets of a deceased person, his real property shall be administered in the same manner, subject to the same liabilities for debts, costs and expenses and with the same incidents, as if it were personal property, but nothing in this Ordinance alters or affects the order in which real and personal assets respectively are now applicable, as between different beneficiaries, in or toward the payment of funeral and testamentary expenses, debts or legacies, or the liability of real property to be charged with payment of legacies.

8. When any part of the real property of a deceased person vests in his personal representative under this Ordinance, the personal representative, in the interpretation of any Ordinance or in the construction of any instrument to which the deceased was a party or under which he was interested, shall, while the estate remains in the personal representative be deemed in law the heir of the deceased, as respects such part, unless a contrary intention appears, but nothing in this section shall affect the beneficial right to any property or the construction of words of limitation of any estate in or by any deed, will or other instrument.

9. (1) At any time after the date of probate or letters of administration, the personal representative may convey the real property to any person entitled thereto, and may make the conveyance either subject to a charge for the payment of any money which the personal representative is liable to pay, or without any such charge, and on the conveyance being made subject to a charge for all moneys, if any, which the personal representative is liable to pay, all liabilities of the personal representative in respect of the real property shall cease, except as to any acts done or contracts entered into by him before such conveyance.
(2) At any time after the expiration of one year from the date of probate or of letters of administration if the personal representative has failed, on the request of the person entitled to any real property, to convey the real property to that person, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of that person and after notice to the personal representative, order that the conveyance be made, and in default may make an order vesting the real property in such person as fully and completely as might have been done by a conveyance thereof from the personal representative.

(3) If, after the expiration of one year, the personal representative has failed, either to convey the real property or any portion thereof to the person entitled thereto or to sell and dispose of it, the Court may, on the application of any person beneficially interested, order that the real property or portion be sold on such terms and within such period as may appear reasonable, and, on the failure of the personal representative to comply with such order, may direct a sale of the real property or portion upon such terms as to cash or credit, or partly one and partly the other, as may be deemed advisable.

10. The personal representative may sell the real property for the purpose not only of paying debts but also of distributing the estate among the persons beneficially entitled thereto, whether there are or are not debts, and it shall not be necessary that the persons beneficially entitled shall concur in any such sale except where it is made for the purpose of distribution only.

11. (1) Except as provided in this Ordinance, no sale of real property for the purpose of distribution only is valid as respects any person beneficially interested unless he consents therein.

(2) Where, in the case of such a sale, a lunatic is beneficially interested or adult beneficiaries do not concur in the sale, or where under a will there are contingent interests or interests not yet vested or the persons who may be beneficiaries are not yet ascertained, the Court may, upon proof satisfactory to it that such sale is in the interest and to the advantage of the estate of the deceased and the persons beneficially interested therein, approve such sale, and any sale so approved is valid as respects such contingent interests and interests not yet vested and is binding upon such lunatic, non-concurring persons and beneficiaries not yet ascertained.

(3) If an adult accepts a share of the purchase money, knowing it to be such, he is deemed to have concurred in the sale.

12. No sale, where an infant is interested, shall be valid without the written consent or approval of the Public Administrator or, in the absence of such consent or approval, without an order of the Court.
13. The personal representative may, with the concurrence of the adult persons beneficially interested, with the approval of the Public Administrator on behalf of infants or lunatics if any infants or lunatics are interested, divide or partition and convey the real property of the deceased person, or any part thereof, to or among the persons beneficially interested.

14. (1) The personal representative may, subject to the provisions of any will affecting the property,
   (a) lease the real property or any part thereof for any term not exceeding one year;
   (b) lease the real property or any part thereof, with the approval of the Court, for a longer term; and
   (c) raise money by way of mortgage of the real property or any part thereof for the payment of debts, or for payment of taxes on the real property to be mortgaged, and, with the approval of the Court, for payment of other taxes, the erection, repair, improvement or completion of buildings, or the improvement of lands, or for any other purpose beneficial to the estate.

   (2) Where infants or lunatics are interested, the approvals or order required by sections 12 and 13 in case of a sale is required in the case of a mortgage, under paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, for payment of debts or payment of taxes on the real property to be mortgaged.

15. (1) A person who purchases real property in good faith and for value from the personal representative, or from a person beneficially entitled thereto to whom it has been conveyed by the personal representative, holds it freed and discharged from any debts or liabilities of the deceased owner except such as are specifically charged thereon otherwise than by his will, and, where the purchase is from the personal representative, freed and discharged from all claims of the persons beneficially interested.

   (2) Real property which has been conveyed by the personal representative to a person beneficially entitled thereto continues to be liable to answer the debts of the deceased owner so long as it remains vested in such person, or in any person claiming under him not being a purchaser in good faith and for value, as it would have been if it had remained vested in the personal representative, and in the event of a sale or mortgage thereof in good faith and for value by a person beneficially entitled he shall be personally liable for such debts to the extent to which the real property was liable when vested in the personal representative but not beyond the value thereof.

16. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where there are two or more personal representatives, a conveyance, mortgage, lease or other disposition of real property devolving under this Ordinance shall not be made without the concurrence therein of all such representatives or an order of the Court.
Devolution of Real Property.

(2) Where probate is granted to one or some of two or more persons named as executors, whether or not power is reserved to the other or others to prove, any conveyance, mortgage, lease or other disposition of the real property may be made by the proving executor or executors for the time being, without an order of the Court, and shall be as effectual as if all the persons named as executors had concurred therein.

17. The rights and immunities conferred by this Ordinance upon personal representatives are in addition to, and not in derogation of, the powers conferred by any other Ordinance or by the will.

18. Nothing in this Ordinance shall alter any duty payable in respect of real property or impose any new duty thereon.

without producing the books or other writings on which the report or finding is based, if, in the opinion of the court, no substantial injustice will be done the opposite party.

12. A person who has furnished information on which a report or finding referred to in section 11 is based, may be cross-examined by the adverse party, but the fact that his testimony is not obtainable does not render the report or finding inadmissible unless the court finds that substantial injustice would be done to the adverse party by its admission.

13. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a report or finding referred to in section 11 is not admissible unless the party offering it gives notice to the adverse party a reasonable time before trial of his intention to offer it together with a copy of the report or finding or so much thereof as may relate to the controversy and also affords him a reasonable opportunity to inspect and copy any records or other documents in the offering party’s possession or control on which the report or finding was based and also the names of all persons furnishing facts upon which the report or finding was based.

22. Where an oath has been administered and taken, the fact that the person to whom it was administered and by whom it was taken did not at the time of taking the oath believe in the binding effect of the oath does not, for any purpose, affect the validity of the oath.

23. In any action where a child of tender years is tendered as a witness, and the child does not, in the opinion of the court, understand the nature of an oath, the evidence of the child may

26. Where a witness, upon cross-examination as to a former statement made by him relative to the matter in question, and inconsistent with his previous evidence, does not distinctly admit that he did make the statement, proof may be given that he did in fact make it; but before the proof is given the circumstances of the supposed statement sufficient to designate the particular occasion shall be mentioned to the witness, and he shall be asked whether or not he did make the statement.

27. (1) A witness may be asked whether he has been convicted of any offence, and upon being so asked, if he either denies the fact or refuses to answer, the conviction may be proved.

(2) A certificate containing the substance and effect only, omitting the formal part, of the charge and of the conviction, purporting to be signed by the officer having the custody of the records of the court in which the offender was convicted, or by the deputy of the officer, is, upon proof of the identity of the witness as the offender, sufficient evidence of the conviction, without proof of the signature or of the official character of the person appearing to have signed the certificate.

28. A party producing a witness shall not be allowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of bad character, but he may contradict him by other evidence, or if the witness in the opinion of the court proves adverse, the party may by leave of the court cross-examine him and may prove that the witness made at some other time a statement inconsistent with his present testimony; before such proof is given the circumstances of the statement sufficient to designate the particular occasion shall be mentioned to the witness and he shall be asked whether or not he did make the statement.

(2) A copy certified pursuant to this section is sufficient evidence of the original document and of its validity and contents, without proof of the signature or seal of office of the registrar, and without proof that the document was so deposited, filed, kept or registered, unless the party receiving the notice, within four days after its receipt, gives notice that he disputes the validity or contents of the original document.

(2) The copy referred to in subsection (1) may, after the giving of the notice referred to in that subsection, be inspected by the opposite party, and shall without further proof be accepted and taken in lieu of the original as proof of the contents of the original unless the party receiving the notice within four days after the time mentioned for such inspection gives notice that he intends to dispute the correctness or genuineness of the copy at the trial or proceeding, and to require proof of the original and the cost attending any production or proof of the original are in the discretion of the court.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS AS TO DOCUMENTS AND EVIDENCE.

The production of a printed copy of a newspaper in any action is prima facie evidence that any notice or advertisement contained therein was inserted, advertised and published in that newspaper by the person by whom, or in whose behalf, or in whose name, the notice or advertisement purports or appears to be inserted, advertised or published.

50. It is not necessary to prove, by the attesting witness, an instrument to the validity of which attestation is not requisite.

51. Comparison of a disputed writing with any writing proved to the satisfaction of the court to be genuine shall be permitted to be made by a witness; and the writing and the evidence of witnesses respecting the same may be submitted to the court or jury as evidence of the genuineness or otherwise of the writing in dispute.

52. Where a document is received in evidence, the court admitting the same may direct that it be impounded and kept in such custody for such period and subject to such conditions as may seem proper or until the further order of the courts.

HEARSAY EVIDENCE CONTAINED IN DOCUMENTS.

54. (1) Subject to subsection (2) in an action where direct oral evidence of a fact would be admissible, a statement made by a person in a document and tending to establish that fact is, on production of the original document, admissible as evidence of that fact if the following conditions are satisfied:
Evidence.

(a) if the maker of the statement either
   (i) had personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement, or
   (ii) where the document in question is or forms part of a record purporting to be a continuous record, made the statement (in so far as the matters dealt with thereby are not within his personal knowledge) in the performance of a duty to record information supplied to him by a person who had, or might reasonably be supposed to have, personal knowledge of those matters; and

(b) if the maker of the statement is called as a witness in the action.

(2) The condition that the maker of the statement shall be called as a witness need not be satisfied if he is dead or unfit by reason of his bodily or mental condition to attend as a witness, or if it is not reasonably practicable to secure his attendance, or if all reasonable efforts to find him have been made without success.

(3) In an action, the court may at any stage of the action, if having regard to all the circumstances of the case it is satisfied that undue delay or expense would otherwise be caused, order that the statement mentioned in subsection (1) shall be admissible as evidence or may, without any such order having been made, admit such a statement in evidence

(a) notwithstanding that the maker of the statement is available but is not called as a witness; and

(b) notwithstanding that the original document is not produced, if in lieu thereof there is produced a copy of the original document or of the material part thereof certified to be a true copy in such manner as may be specified in the order or as the court may approve, as the case may be.

(4) Nothing in this section renders admissible as evidence a statement made by a person interested at a time when proceedings were pending or anticipated involving a dispute as to any fact that the statement might tend to establish.

(5) for the purpose of this section, a statement in a document shall not be deemed to have been made by a person unless the document or the material part thereof was written, made or produced by him with his own hand, or was signed or initialled by him or otherwise recognized by him in writing as one for the accuracy of which he is responsible.

(6) For the purpose of deciding whether or not a statement is admissible as evidence by virtue of this section, the court may draw any reasonable inference from the form or contents of the document in which the statement is contained, or from any other circumstances, and may, in deciding whether or not a person is fit to attend as a witness, act on a certificate purporting to be the certificate of a qualified medical practitioner, and where the action is with a jury, the court may in its discretion reject the statement notwithstanding that the requirements of this section are satisfied with respect thereto, if for any reason it appears to it to be inexpedient in the interests of justice that the statement should be admitted.

55. (1) In estimating the weight, if any, to be attached to a statement rendered admissible as evidence by section 54, regard shall be had to all the circumstances from which any inference can reasonably be drawn as to the accuracy or otherwise of the statement, and in particular to the question whether or not the statement was made contemporaneously with the occurrence or existence of the facts stated, and to the question whether or not the maker of the statement had any incentive to conceal or misrepresent facts.

(2) For the purpose of any rule of law or practice requiring evidence to be corroborated or regulating the manner in which uncorroborated evidence is to be treated, a statement rendered admissible as evidence by section 54 shall not be treated as corroborative of evidence given by the maker of the statement.

56. In any action, an instrument to the validity of which attestation is requisite may, instead of being proved by an attesting witness, be proved in the manner in which it might be proved if no attesting witness were alive; but nothing in this section applies to the proof of wills or other testamentary documents.

57. In any action there shall, in the case of a document proved or purporting to be not less than twenty years old, be made any presumption that immediately before the 2nd day of April, 1955, would have been made in the case of a document of like character proved or purporting to be not less than thirty years old.

6. The consideration necessary for the validity of a sale, pledge or other disposition of goods in pursuance of this Ordinance may be either a payment in cash or the delivery or transfer of other goods or of a document of title to goods or of a negotiable security or any other valuable consideration; but where goods are pledged by a mercantile agent in consideration of the delivery or transfer of other goods or of a document of title to goods or of a negotiable security the pledgee acquires no right or interest in the goods so pledged in excess of the value of the goods, documents or security when so delivered or transferred in exchange.

11. Where a document of title to goods has been lawfully transferred to a person as buyer or owner of the goods and that person transfers the document to a person who takes the document in good faith and for valuable consideration the last-mentioned transfer has the same effect for defeating any vendor's lien or right of stoppage in transitu as the transfer of a bill of lading has for defeating the right of stoppage in transitu.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

12. For the purposes of this Ordinance the transfer of a document may be by endorsement or where the document is by custom or by its express terms transferable by delivery or makes the goods deliverable to the bearer then by delivery.

13. (1) Nothing in this Ordinance authorizes an agent to exceed or depart from his authority as between himself and his principal or exempt him from any liability civil or criminal for so doing.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent the owner of goods from recovering the goods from an agent or assignee under an assignment for the benefit of creditors at any time before the sale or pledge thereof or to prevent the owner of goods pledged by an agent from having the right to redeem the goods at any time before the sale thereof on satisfying the claim for which the goods were pledged and paying to the agent, if by him required, any money in respect of which the agent would by law be entitled to retain the goods or the documents of title thereto or any of them by way of lien as against the owner or from recovering from any person with whom the goods have been pledged any balance of money remaining in his hands as the produce of the sale of the goods after deducting the amount of his lien.

(3) Nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to prevent the owner of goods sold by an agent from recovering from the buyer the price agreed to be paid for the same or any part of that price subject to any right of set-off on the part of the buyer against the agent.

4. (1) An action brought under this Ordinance shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent or child of the person whose death was so caused, and subject to section 8, shall be brought by and in the name of the executor or administrator of the deceased, and in every such action such damages may be awarded as proportioned to the injury resulting from the death to the persons respectively for whom and for whose benefit the action is brought; and the amount so recovered, after deducting the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided among the before mentioned persons in such shares as may be determined at the trial.

   (2) In an action brought under this Ordinance damages may also be awarded in respect of
      (a) any medical or hospital expenses of the person injured, which would have been recoverable as damages by the person injured if death had not ensued, and
      (b) the funeral expenses of the deceased person where such expenses have been incurred by any of the parties for whom and for whose benefit the action is brought.
Fatal Accidents.

(3) The judge before whom the action is brought may, if he is of opinion that there is sufficient reason for doing so, dispense with the filing of the affidavit.

8. (1) Where there is no executor or administrator of the deceased, or, there being an executor or administrator, no action is, within six months after the death of the deceased, brought by the executor or administrator, the action may be brought by all or any of the persons for whose benefit the action would have been if it had been brought by such executor or administrator.

(2) Every action brought pursuant to this section shall be for the benefit of the same persons, and shall be subject to the same regulations and procedure, as nearly as may be, as if it were brought by such executor or administrator.

9. Where the compensation has not been otherwise apportioned, a judge may apportion the same among the persons entitled, and may provide for the costs of the application.

10. Where actions are brought by or for the benefit of two or more persons claiming to be entitled, as wife, husband, parent or child of the deceased, the judge before whom the actions or either of them are pending may make such order as he may deem just for the determination not only of the question of the liability of the defendant but of all questions as to the persons entitled under the provisions of this Ordinance to the damages, if any, that may be recovered.

(2) The judge may on the application confirm or disallow the settlement, but, if the settlement is confirmed by him, the party against whom the claim is made or action brought shall be discharged from all further claims.

(3) The judge may also on the application order the money or a portion thereof to be paid into court or otherwise apportioned and distributed as he may deem best in the interests of those entitled thereto.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING GARAGE KEEPERS.

SHORT TITLE.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,

(a) "garage" means any building or part of a building in or in connection with which services are rendered upon motor vehicles in the ordinary course of business;

(b) "garage keeper" means any person who, in the ordinary course of business and as his principal employment or one of his principal employments, renders services upon motor vehicles in a garage for a charge, price or consideration;

(c) "motor vehicle" means a vehicle propelled by any power other than muscular power, but does not include an airplane or a vehicle that runs only on tracks or rails; and

(d) "services" means repairs to a motor vehicle by labour or by supplying parts thereof or accessories thereto.

CREATION, EFFECT AND REGISTRATION OF LIEN.

3. (1) In addition to any other remedy that a garage keeper has for recovering money for services rendered by him, he has a lien on every motor vehicle and on any part, accessory or equipment pertaining thereto for services for the amount of the charge, price or consideration therefor.

(2) Subject to section 4, actual and continued possession of the motor vehicle or part, accessory or equipment is essential to the existence of a lien under this Ordinance.

(3) Section 31 of the Mechanics Lien Ordinance does not apply to a lienholder under this Ordinance.

4. (1) In lieu of remaining in actual and continued possession as provided by subsection (2) of section 3, a garage keeper may, by himself or his agent, within fifteen days of the day on which the service for which a lien exists was completed, file in the office of the registration clerk of the registration district established under the Bills of Sale Ordinance in which the service was performed a claim of lien, in Form A, and an affidavit verifying the claim, in Form B.
(2) A garage keeper or his agent may file a copy of the claim and affidavit filed under subsection (1) in the office of the registration clerk of any other registration district established under the Bills of Sale Ordinance.

(3) If a claim is filed pursuant to subsection (1) within fifteen days after the date upon which the services were completed, the garage keeper has a lien for services on the motor vehicle for a period of one hundred and eighty days from the date of filing; on the expiration of that period the lien ceases to exist unless within that period proceedings have been commenced under this Ordinance to enforce it.

5. (1) Where the charge, price or consideration for services to a motor vehicle by a garage keeper exceeds one hundred dollars in value and the vendor of the motor vehicle or his assignee has a lien upon the motor vehicle for all or part of the purchase price, the lien has priority over a lien filed under section 4, unless such vendor or assignee gives the garage keeper written authority to supply the services.

(2) Where a garage keeper has lost his lien under section 3 because the motor vehicle in respect of which he has the lien has gone out of his possession and before he files a claim of lien under section 4 another person in good faith and without notice acquires an interest in, or a charge, lien or other encumbrance on the motor vehicle, such interest, charge, lien or other encumbrance has priority over a lien under section 4.

(3) Where more than one person has a lien under this Ordinance upon the same motor vehicle, the lien of the person whose claim of lien is filed earlier in time has priority over that of a person whose claim of lien is filed later in time.

6. (1) At any time during the continuance of a lien on a motor vehicle created by section 4, the garage keeper may authorize the sheriff in writing to seize the motor vehicle and return it to the garage keeper.

(2) After receiving the authorization mentioned in subsection (1), the sheriff shall seize or cause to be seized the motor vehicle, if he finds it within one hundred and eighty days, and deliver it to the garage keeper or his agent upon receiving the amount of the fees payable in respect of the authorization and seizure.

(3) A judge may prescribe fees that may be charged in respect of an authorization under this section and any seizure thereunder or any matter or thing incidental thereto.

(4) Where one of several lienholders under this Ordinance causes a seizure to be made of a motor vehicle, he shall be deemed to have made the seizure on behalf of all persons who have a subsisting lien on the motor vehicle.

7. Upon a motor vehicle being delivered to him after seizure pursuant to section 6, a garage keeper has the same rights and remedies for enforcing his lien against the motor vehicle as if he then had a possessory lien for the same amount, and may enforce the lien in the manner provided in this Ordinance.

ENFORCEMENT.

8. Where the amount payable to the garage keeper for services on a motor vehicle has not been paid

(a) upon the expiration of one hundred and eighty days from the date upon which the services were completed where the garage keeper retains possession of the motor vehicle, or

(b) upon the expiration of the period of one hundred and eighty days mentioned in subsection (3) of section 4, or on the expiration of sixty days from the date of delivery of the motor vehicle to the garage keeper under section 6, whichever is later, the garage keeper may sell the motor vehicle or any part thereof at public auction.

9. Before a sale is held under section 8, a garage keeper shall publish in the Yukon Gazette and post and keep posted during a period of at least two weeks, on the outside of a front door of his garage a notice of such intended sale that sets out

(a) the name so far as known of the owner of the motor vehicle to be sold;

(d) the amount payable to the garage keeper for services; and

(e) the claim of any other lienholder; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid on application to the person entitled thereto.

(2) If a person entitled to the surplus of a sale under section 8 does not apply for it within one month of the day of the sale, such surplus shall be paid to the Territorial Treasurer who shall keep it in a special trust account for one year, after which, if such person does not claim it, it shall be paid into and form part of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

GENERAL.

3. Every district registrar of vital statistics shall notify the Superintendent of the birth of every child born to a mother of an illegitimate child registered in his office under the Vital Statistics Ordinance and of every birth so registered in such a manner as to suggest that the parents are unmarried or unknown, and with such notification he shall give such particulars as the Superintendent may require.

4. The Superintendent shall make enquiries to obtain all possible information with respect to every child born to a mother of an illegitimate child and may take any proceedings or do any other act permitted or required under this Ordinance as he deems advisable in the interest of the child.
5. A mother of an illegitimate child may apply to the Superintendent for advice in any matter connected with the child or its birth, and the Superintendent shall take such action as may seem to him advisable in the interests of the mother and child.

6. No agreement entered into between the mother of an illegitimate child and the putative father of the child relating to any matter within the scope of this Ordinance shall be deemed a bar to any proceedings under this Ordinance.

7. Where a putative father admits the paternity of a child, he may enter into an agreement with the Superintendent to provide for the adequate maintenance and education of the child, and upon failure on the part of the putative father to comply with the terms of the agreement the Superintendent may lay an information before a justice under section 9, and for the purposes of this Ordinance the agreement constitutes sufficient proof of paternity.

8. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to take away or abridge any right of action or remedy that might have been maintained against the putative father if this Ordinance had not been passed.

INFORMATION, EXAMINATION AND ORDER.

9. (1) Upon information on oath laid before a justice by any person mentioned in subsection (2) stating
(a) that any woman is the mother of an illegitimate child,
(b) whether or not the child has been born, and
(c) the name of the putative father of the child, the justice may issue a summons requiring the putative father to appear at a time and place mentioned in the summons, or, if he sees fit, he may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the putative father to answer to the information.

(2) An information under subsection (1) may be laid by
(a) the mother of an illegitimate child, her next friend or guardian,
(b) the guardian of the illegitimate child, or
(c) the Superintendent.

(3) Where an information is laid under this section by any person other than the Superintendent, the person instituting the proceedings shall notify the Superintendent thereof, who may appear and intervene in person or by counsel in the proceedings arising out of the information.

(4) The fact that a summons has been issued does not prevent any justice from issuing a warrant at any time before or after the time mentioned in the summons for the appearance of the putative father.
(5) A warrant issued under this section need not be returnable at any specified time and such warrant remains in force until it is executed.

10. (1) Where a putative father

(a) appears at the time and place mentioned in a summons;

(b) does not appear at the time and place mentioned in a summons and proof is furnished to the satisfaction of the justice present at the hearing of the service of the summons a reasonable time before the time appointed for the appearance; or

(c) is brought before the justice present at the hearing by virtue of a warrant;

the justice may inquire into the matter of the information, and may make an order declaring the putative father to be the father of the child and requiring him to pay either to the Superintendent or to the mother, as the justice considers advisable,

(d) the reasonable expenses for the maintenance and care, medical and otherwise, of the mother during the three months last preceding the birth of the child, at the birth and during such period after the birth as may in the opinion of the justice have been or be necessary in connection with or as a consequence of the birth of the child, taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case and the evidence, if available, of any medical practitioner who has personal knowledge of the matter;

(e) the expenses of the burial of the mother if she dies in consequence of giving birth to the child;

(f) a sum of money weekly towards the maintenance and education of the child until the child attains the age of sixteen years according to the probable standard of living the child would have enjoyed if he had been born to his parents in lawful wedlock; and

(g) the expenses in connection with the burial of the child, if the child dies before the order is made.

(2) The justice may, by the order or by a subsequent order varying it, require the mother to contribute a sum of money weekly towards the maintenance of the child until the child attains the age of sixteen years.

(3) Where a putative father fails to appear at the time and place mentioned in a summons and proof is furnished to the satisfaction of the justice of the due service of the summons a reasonable time before the time appointed for the appearance, the justice may, if he considers it advisable, instead of proceeding ex parte to hear and determine the information in the absence of the putative father, issue his warrant as the justice before whom the information was laid might have done in the first instance for the apprehension of the putative father and adjourn the hearing of the complaint until the putative father is apprehended, but nothing done under this subsection shall be deemed to prevent the justice from proceeding \textit{ex parte} at any time he thinks fit if the putative father is not apprehended.

11. (1) Subject to subsection (3), paternity may, for the purposes of this Ordinance, be established upon such evidence as the justice considers sufficient.

(2) Notwithstanding any Ordinance or other law, in all proceedings under this Ordinance a married woman who is the mother of the child in respect of whom the proceedings are taken is a competent and compellable witness to testify as to the paternity of the child.

(3) Where a mother gives evidence as to the paternity of a child, no order shall be made unless such evidence is corroborated by some other material evidence.

12. No order shall be made upon an information unless the information is laid in the lifetime of the putative father and within one year after

(a) the birth of the child,

(b) the doing of any act on the part of the putative father that constitutes evidence of acknowledgment of paternity, or

(c) the return to the Territory of the putative father if he was absent from the Territory at the expiration of the period of one year from the birth of the child.

13. Where an order has been made, then upon application by the child or any person who is entitled to lay an information under section 9 and upon proof that the means of either parent or the needs of the child have altered since the order or the latest subsequent order varying it was made, any justice may vary the original or subsequent order so made.

14. Where an order is made or varied the justice may require the putative father against whom the order is made to furnish such security for the performance of the order in such manner as the justice directs, and if the putative father fails to furnish the security required, the justice may order that he be imprisoned for a term not exceeding twelve months, or until he furnishes the security and pays the costs and charges of his commitment and conveyance to jail.

PROCEDURE AND ENFORCEMENT.

15. (1) Except as provided in this Ordinance, proceedings under this Ordinance shall be on summary conviction.

(2) Subject to section 12, an information or any other proceedings under this Ordinance, other than an appeal, may be commenced at any time.

16. The room or place in which a justice sits to hear a matter arising out of an information is not an open or public court, and all persons other than the officers of the court, the parties interested and their witnesses and counsel shall be excluded therefrom.

17. The Superintendent shall not be debarred from instituting or continuing proceedings under this Ordinance by the death of the mother of the illegitimate child for whom relief is sought.

18. The Superintendent shall
   (a) see that all payments directed to be made by a putative father under an order are duly made;
   (b) where a putative father defaults in any payment directed to be made under an order, take all necessary proceedings for the enforcement of the order, including the enforcement of any security given by the putative father; and
   (c) see that all monies collected under any order are paid and applied forthwith, without any deduction, to or for the persons entitled to relief in accordance with the terms of the order and the provisions of this Ordinance.

19. A copy of every order shall be filed by the Superintendent with the Clerk of the Territorial Court, and thereupon the order becomes a judgment of the Territorial Court and may, subject to this Ordinance, be enforced in the same manner as any other judgment of that Court in a civil matter.

20. Every order binds the estate of the putative father and every sum payable thereunder is a debt due from and chargeable upon the estate of the putative father; but every such order is, as to any payment falling due either before or after the putative father's death, subject to review under section 13, and no action or other proceedings shall be taken thereon after the death of the father without the leave of a justice, and the justice before granting leave shall direct that notice be given to the widow and legitimate children of the putative father.

APPEAL.

21. (1) Subject to this section, an appeal may be taken from an order in the same manner and times as an appeal from a judgment of a police magistrate in a civil action may be taken.
   (2) Where a putative father appeals from an order, proceedings on the order shall not be stayed pending the appeal, and the putative father shall pay all costs of the appeal.
   (3) Where a mother of an illegitimate child appeals from an order or other decision of a justice, she need not give any bond or security for the costs of the appeal.

(5) No contract shall contain, have endorsed thereon or be made subject to any terms, conditions, stipulation, warranty or proviso

(a) providing that the contract shall be avoided by reason of any statement in the application therefor, or

(b) inducing the entering into the contract by the insurer, unless the term, condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso is limited to cases in which the statement is material to the contract, and no contract shall be avoided by reason of the inaccurancy of any such statement unless it is material to the contract.

(6) The question of materiality in any contract is a question of fact, and no admission, term, condition, stipulation, warranty or proviso to the contrary contained in the application or proposal for insurance, in the contract or in any agreement or document relating thereto has any force or validity.

(7) Nothing in this section impairs the effect of any statutory condition required by this Ordinance to be inserted in any contract of insurance, or of any express provision of this Ordinance.

23. (1) Where a contract of insurance other than life insurance has been delivered, it is as binding on the insurer as if the premium had been paid, although it has not in fact been paid and although delivered by an officer or agent of the insurer who had not authority to deliver it.

(2) This section applies notwithstanding any agreement, condition or stipulation to the contrary.

(3) Where a premium is paid by a cheque or a promissory note and the cheque is not paid on presentation or the promissory note at maturity, the contract shall at the option of the insurer be void.
(4) An insurer may deduct from money payable under any contract any indebtedness of the insured on the contract for premium due whether evidenced by note or otherwise given either to the insurer or its agent and held either by the insurer or any other party.

(5) In making the deduction mentioned in subsection (4), the insurer shall allow to the insured the same discount upon any unpaid premium as he would be entitled to if the unpaid premium were paid in cash at the date of the loss.

(6) Subsection (3) applies in respect of a contract of life insurance unless otherwise provided in the contract.

(7) Subsection (4) applies in respect of contracts of life insurance.

24. (1) Every insurer shall, immediately upon receipt of notice of any claim under a contract, forward to the insured or person to whom the insurance money is payable forms upon which to make the proof of loss required under the contract.

(2) Every insurer who neglects or refuses to comply with subsection (1) is guilty of an offence.

(3) Where an insurer has, within thirty days after notification of loss, adjusted the claim acceptably to the claimant and the adjustment has been duly signed by the claimant or his agent, or where the amount of loss has been determined by arbitration or appraisal pursuant to this Ordinance, the insurer shall be deemed to have complied with this section.

25. No action shall be brought for the recovery of money payable under a contract until the expiration of sixty days after proof, in accordance with the provisions of the contract, of the loss or the happening of the event upon which the insurance money is to become payable, or such shorter period as may be prescribed by any enactment regulating the contracts of the insurer, or as may be fixed by the contract of insurance or otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

26. After the time referred to in section 25 that is applicable in the circumstances, any person who is entitled as beneficiary or by assignment or other derivative title to the insurance money and has the right to receive the same and to give an effectual discharge therefor, may sue for the same in his own name, any rule, stipulation or condition to the contrary notwithstanding.

27. Where the person entitled to receive money due and payable under any contract is domiciled or resides in a foreign jurisdiction and payment, valid according to the law of that jurisdiction, is made to the person, such payment is valid and effectual for all purposes.
28. (1) Subject to any statutory condition, where the mode of giving any notice by an insurer to an insured for any purpose herein is not expressly provided, the notice may be given by mailing it to the address of the insured given in his application for insurance or by delivering it otherwise in writing to the insured.

(2) Subject to any statutory condition, where the mode of giving any written notice to an insurer for any purpose herein is not expressly provided, the notice may be given by letter delivered to an authorized agent of the insurer.

29. Every insurer shall furnish to the insured upon request a true copy of his application or proposal for insurance.

30. No insurer shall make a contract that is inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance.

31. Any act or omission of the insurer that results in imperfect compliance with any provisions of this Ordinance does not render a contract invalid as against the insured.

32. An insurer may contract to indemnify an insured against financial loss occasioned by reason of liability to a third person whether or not the loss has been caused by the insured through negligence or while violating any Ordinance or municipal by-law.

33. Where a person insured against liability for injury or damage to persons or property of others has failed to satisfy a judgment obtained by a claimant for such injury or damage and an execution against the insured in respect thereof is returned unsatisfied, the execution creditor has a right of action against the insurer to recover an amount not exceeding the amount of the judgment and not exceeding, in any event, the face amount of the policy in the same manner and subject to the same equities as the insured would have if the judgment had been satisfied.

34. (1) No insurer shall undertake any contract of fire or automobile insurance upon real or personal property situate in the Territory or described in any contract as situate in the Territory, except after the contract has been signed or countersigned by a licensed agent who is a resident of the Territory and who is to receive the commission or some part thereof when the premium stipulated in the contract is paid.

(2) Where subsection (1) is complied with, nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any insurer from issuing policies of fire and automobile insurance at its principal or branch office or general agency covering any matter or thing, real or personal, situate in the Territory.
(3) Where an insurer issues any policy of fire or automobile insurance upon any matter or thing, real or personal, situate in the Territory, he shall forthwith file a certified copy of the policy with the countersigning agent or with the insured within the Territory.

(4) This section does not apply in respect of direct insurance covering property in transit that is in the possession and custody of common carriers, or movable property of such common carriers used or employed by them in their business as common carriers.

(5) Any insurer that issues a contract of fire or automobile insurance save as in the manner provided in this section is guilty of an offence.

(6) In any prosecution under this Ordinance for any contravention of this section, the burden of proving that this section has been complied with is upon the person charged.

35. No agent shall sign any contract in blank.

INSURANCE AS COLLATERAL SECURITY.

36. (1) A mortgagee shall not accept or be entitled to receive either directly or through his agent or employee, and no officer or employee of a mortgagee shall accept or receive any commission or other remuneration or benefit in consideration of effecting a contract or renewal thereof under which loss, if any, is payable to him as mortgagee.

(2) No insurer or agent shall pay, allow or give any commission, other remuneration or benefit to a mortgagee or any person in his employ or on his behalf, in consideration of effecting a contract or renewal thereof under which loss, if any, is payable to him as mortgagee.

(3) No person who engages in the business of lending money and has an insurance agency or any interest in or connection with an insurance agency, shall require as a condition of the making of any loan that the borrower shall cancel any subsisting policy of insurance and take out other insurance through the lender or through any agency with which he has any interest or connection.

(4) No trust company shall cancel any subsisting policy of insurance issued by an insurer in respect of any property for which the trust company is a trustee unless there is no necessity for the continuation of the insurance and no other insurance of a similar description is taken out in respect of the property during the original term of the cancelled policy.

(5) Every
(a) person who contravenes subsection (3),
(b) trust company that contravenes subsection (4),
(c) agent who knowingly accepts any proposal for any insurance taken out in contravention of subsection (3) or subsection (4), and

37. (1) Where an insurer cannot obtain sufficient discharge for insurance money for which it admits liability, the insurer may apply to the Court ex parte for an order for the payment thereof into Court, and the Court may order such payment to be made upon such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court directs, and may provide to what fund or name the money shall be credited.

(2) The receipt of the Clerk of the Court is a sufficient discharge to the insurer for the insurance money paid into Court, and the insurance money shall be dealt with according to the orders of the Court.

38. (1) The Commissioner may require an insurer to file with him a copy of any form of policy, any form of application for a policy, or any endorsement, rider or advertising material issued or used by the insurer.

(2) Where an insurer issues any policy or uses an application, or endorsement or rider or advertising material that in the opinion of the Commissioner is unfair, fraudulent, unduly restrictive or not in the public interest, he may prohibit the insurer from issuing or using that form of policy, application, endorsement, rider or advertising material.

(3) Any insurer that, after being prohibited pursuant to subsection (2), uses any prohibited policy, application, endorsement, rider or advertising material, is guilty of an offence.

Chapter 57.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

40. This Part applies in respect of fire insurance and to any insurer carrying on the business of fire insurance.

41. Every insurer may insure or reinsure any property in which the insured has an insurable interest against damage or loss by fire, lightning or explosion, whether the same happens by accident or by any other means except that of design on the part of the insured.

42. (1) No contract shall be made for a term exceeding three years, but any contract may be renewed from time to time for a further period not exceeding three years by the delivery of a renewal receipt identifying the policy by number, date or otherwise, or by a new premium note.

(2) No insurer shall make a contract covering property situate outside the limits of a municipal district for a term exceeding twelve months without a written application therefor, signed by the applicant, or, in case of the absence of the applicant or his inability to make the application, by his agent or by a person having an insurable interest in the property.

(3) Every application referred to in subsection (2) shall set forth:
(a) the name, address and occupation of the applicant,
(b) the description, location and occupancy of the property to be insured,
(c) the value of the property,
(d) particulars of any mortgage, lien or other incumbrance thereon,

43. Every policy shall contain:
(a) the names of the insurer, the insured and every person to whom the insurance money is payable,
(b) the premium or other consideration for the insurance,
(c) the subject matter of the insurance,
(d) the indemnity for which the insurer may become liable,
(e) the event on the happening of which the liability is to accrue, and
(f) the term of the insurance.

44. (1) Subject to this section and sections 45, 46 and 51, the statutory conditions set forth in Part I of the Schedule shall be deemed to be part of every contract and shall be printed on every policy with the heading "Statutory Conditions", and no variation or omission of any statutory condition is binding on the insured, nor is anything contained in the description of the subject matter of the insurance effective in so far as it is inconsistent with, varies, modifies or avoids any such condition.

(2) Where the subject matter of the insurance is exclusively rents, charges or loss of profits, the conditions referred to in this section are not required to be part of any such contract or to be printed therein.

45. (1) A policy may contain a co-insurance clause in which case it shall have printed or stamped upon its face in conspicuous type and in red ink the words: "This policy contains a co-insurance clause", and unless such words so appear the clause is not binding upon the insured.

(2) A co-insurance clause shall not be deemed to be a variation of or addition to any statutory condition referred to in section 44.

46. (1) A policy may contain one or more limitation of liability clauses to the following effect:

(a) that the insurer shall be liable only for a specified proportion of any loss sustained to any of the property covered by the policy;

(b) that the insurer shall not be liable for more than a specified percentage of the value of any of the said property at the time of the loss;

(c) where there is any other insurance covering any of the property,

(i) that the insurer shall be liable for a rateable proportion of a specified percentage or proportion of any loss to any of the property, or

(ii) that the insurer shall not be liable for more than a rateable proportion of a specified percentage of the value of any of the property at the time of the loss; or

(d) that the insurer shall be liable only for a specified percentage of any loss, or, where there is other insurance covering any of the property, for a specified percentage of its rateable proportion of any loss, but upon the fulfilment by the assured of certain specified stipulation or agreements, shall be liable for a further specified percentage of the loss, or where there is other insurance covering any of the property, for a further specified percentage of its rateable percentage of the loss, but no such stipulation or agreement is binding upon the insured unless it is clearly set forth in a written application for the insurance signed by the applicant; and every policy that contains any such clause shall have printed or stamped on the face of it, in conspicuous type and in red ink, the words: "This policy contains a limitation of liability clause (or clauses)."

(2) No clause mentioned in subsection (1) shall be deemed to be a variation of any statutory condition.

47. (1) Where at the time of the happening of any loss or damage by fire to property insured there is in force more than one policy taken by and in the name of the insured insuring the property against loss or damage caused by the peril of fire, no term of any such policy that excludes the insurer from contributing a rateable proportion of the loss with an insurer under any such other policy is valid unless the insurer under such other policy has expressly assented in writing to such term.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a policy shall be deemed to be in force notwithstanding any term thereof that the policy will not cover, come into force, attach or become effective with respect to the property until after full or partial payment of any loss under any other policy.

(3) Nothing in subsection (1) affects
(a) the validity of any division of the sum insured into separate items,
(b) any limits of insurance on specified property,
(c) a co-insurance clause,
(d) a limitation of liability clause mentioned in section 46, or
(e) the provisions of condition 8 of the statutory conditions referred to in section 44, respecting undisclosed insurance.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), insurance on identified articles is a first loss insurance as against all other insurance.

(5) This section, in respect of the peril of fire, applies to all policies of all classes of insurance except aircraft, automobile, boiler and machinery insurance.

48. No red ink shall be used on the face of a policy except for the name, address and emblem of the insurer, the policy number and the purposes mentioned in this Ordinance.

49. Where there has been imperfect compliance with statutory condition as to the proof of loss to be given by the insured and a consequent forfeiture or avoidance of the insurance, in whole or in part, and the Court deems it inequitable that the insurance should be forfeited or avoided on that ground, the Court may relieve against the forfeiture or avoidance on such terms as may seem just.

50. A proof of loss form, furnished by an insurer pursuant to section 24 shall, for the purposes of this Part, be in Form A loss.
51. (1) Where the rate of premium is affected or modified by the user, condition, location or maintenance of the insured property, the policy may contain a clause not inconsistent with any statutory condition setting forth any stipulation in respect of such user, condition, location or maintenance, and such clause

(a) shall not be deemed a variation of any statutory condition, and

(b) is binding on the insured only in so far as it is held by the Court before which a question relating thereto is tried to be just and reasonable.

(2) The insurer and insured, instead of proceeding by arbitration under condition 17 of the statutory conditions referred to in section 44, may at any time after the loss or damage make a joint survey, examination, estimate or appraisal of the loss or damage, in which case the insurer shall be deemed to have waived all right to make a separate survey, examination, estimate or appraisal thereof.

52. (1) On every contract issued by a fire insurance company at its principal or branch office on application procured and submitted to it by a licensed agent shall be printed, stamped or written the words: "Issued on application submitted by ................................ authorized resident agent at ................................ .......").

(2) Subject to section 55, this Part applies to every contract made in the Territory before the 1st day of May, 1956, where the maturity of the contract had not occurred before that date.
(3) Subject to section 55, where this Part applies to any contract, the rights and status of beneficiaries and the powers of the insured with regard to the designation or appointment of beneficiaries and the apportionment of the insurance money are governed by the provisions of this Part, whether or not the insured or any of the beneficiaries is domiciled in the Territory at the time when the contract is made, or at any time subsequent thereto.

55. In the case of a contract of group life insurance, whether made before or after the 1st day of May, 1956,

(a) the law of the place where the contract was made applies between the insurer and the insured, and

(b) the law of the place where the person whose life is insured was resident at the time his life became insured applies in determining the rights and status of beneficiaries and the rights and obligations of the person whose life is insured.

THE CONTRACT OF INSURANCE.

56. Every contract shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing called, in this Part, a policy.

57. (1) A contract shall be deemed to be made in the Territory,

(a) where the place of residence of the insured is stated in the application or the policy to be in the Territory, or

(b) where neither the application nor the policy contains a statement as to the place of residence of the insured, but the actual place of residence of the insured is within the Territory at the time of the making of the contract.

(2) This section does not apply in respect of a contract of group life insurance.

58. (1) Every policy other than a group life insurance policy shall state

(b) the name or sufficient designation of the person whose life is insured and the beneficiary;

(c) the insurance money payable;

(ii) the amount of the premium.

(3) Where the amount of insurance money, exclusive of dividends and bonus, does not exceed two thousand dollars, the policy, notwithstanding that it is expressed to be payable to a named or designated beneficiary, may provide that the insurance money may be paid to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the person whose life is insured or any other person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled to the same by reason of having incurred expense for the maintenance, medical attendance or burial of the person whose life is insured or to have a claim against the estate of the person whose life is insured in relation thereto.

(4) Every policy shall
(a) identifies the policy;
be paid and the terms and conditions upon which the policy may, if it lapses, be reinstated, and value and any options of the insured as to paid up or extended insurance, respectively, provided by the policy.

(5) Every policy shall indicate whether or not it participates in any surplus or profits declared.

(6) Where a contract of group life insurance is made, the insurer shall issue, for delivery by the insured to each person whose life is insured under the policy, a certificate that
(a) identifies the policy;
(b) states the name or sufficient designation of the person whose life is insured, his beneficiary, the insurer and the insured;
(c) states the amount or the method of determining the amount of insurance; and
(d) indicates any right of the person whose life is insured upon termination of insurance on his life under the policy.

(7) Every policy that includes disability insurance shall state what notice of disability shall be given to the insurer.

(8) This section does not apply in respect of a contract made by a fraternal society.

59. (1) Subject to subsection (2), in the case of group life insurance, the employer or other person making the contract with the insurer is the insured for the purposes of this Part.

(2) In the case of group life insurance and for the purposes of the provisions of this Part relating to the designation or appointment of beneficiaries and the rights and status of beneficiaries, the term "insured" means the person whose life is insured.

60. (1) Except in the case of a contract made with a fraternal society, no term or condition of a contract that is not set out in full in the policy or in any one or more documents attached to it when issued is valid or admissible in evidence to the prejudice of the insured or a beneficiary.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an alteration or modification of the contract agreed upon in writing by the insurer and the insured after the issue of the policy.

(3) In the case of a contract made by a fraternal society, the policy, the Ordinance or other instrument of incorporation of the society, its constitution, by-laws and rules, and the amendments validly made thereto, and the application for the contract and medical examination of the applicant as signed by him, constitute the contract between the society and its member.

61. (1) The applicant for a contract and the person whose life is to be insured shall each disclose to the insurer in the application for the contract, on the medical examination, if any, or in any statements or answers furnished in lieu of a medical examination every fact within his knowledge that is material to the contract, and failure to disclose or the misrepresentation of any such fact by either person renders the contract voidable at the option of the insurer.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the statements made by the insured or the person whose life is insured in the application, on the medical examination, if any, or in any statements or answers furnished in lieu of a medical examination, other than fraudulent statements or statements erroneous as to age, shall be deemed to be true and incontestable after the insurance on the person whose life is insured has been in force for two years during his lifetime.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply with respect to disability insurance or double indemnity insurance.

62. A failure to disclose or the misrepresentation of a fact material to the contract by the insurer renders the contract voidable at the option of the insured, but in the absence of fraud the contract is not by reason of such failure or misrepresentation voidable after the contract has been in force for two years during the lifetime of the person whose life is insured.

63. The question of materiality is one of fact.

64. (1) Where the age of the person whose life is insured is understated in the application, the insurance money shall be reduced to the amount that would have been payable in respect of the premium stated in the policy at the correct age, according to the tables of rates of premium of the insurer in force at the time of the issue of the policy.

(2) Where the tables of rates of premium of the insurer do not extend to or include the rates for the correct age of the person whose life is insured, the insurance money shall be reduced in the proportion that the premium at the age stated in the application bears to the premium at the correct age, both premiums for this purpose being

(a) the net premium shown in or deduced from the British Officers' Life Table, 1893, OM(5), the rate of interest being three and one-half per cent per annum, or, at the option of the insurer,

(b) calculated on the same principles as govern the calculation of premiums for ages mentioned in the table of rates of premiums of the insurer in force at the time of the issue of the policy.

(3) Where the age of the person whose life is insured is overstated in the application, and the policy does not provide that in that event the insurance money shall be increased, the insurer shall repay the amount by which the premium paid exceeds the premium that would have been payable in respect of the correct age, but if the policy so provides, the insurance money shall be increased to the amount that would have been payable in respect of the premium stated in the policy at the correct age according to the tables of rates of premium of the insurer in force at the time of the issue of the policy.

(4) Where, by the terms or for the purposes of the contract, an addition is made to the age stated in the application, and the age is understated in the application, then for the purpose of the calculation, the correct age and the stated age shall respectively be deemed to be the correct age and the stated age increased by such addition.

(5) Where the application or contract expressly limits the insurable age and the correct age at the date of the application exceeds the age so limited, the contract shall during the lifetime of the person whose life is insured, but not later than five years from the date of the policy, be voidable at the option of the insurer within thirty days after the error comes to his knowledge.

(6) This section does not apply in respect of a contract of group life insurance.

65. Where a contract of group life insurance provides that the age of a person whose life is insured affects the commencement or the termination of the insurance, the amount thereof or any other right or benefit under the contract, the true age governs.
When contract takes effect.

66. (1) Unless a contract or an application otherwise expressly provides, the contract does not take effect or bind either party until

(a) the policy is delivered to the insured, his assign or agent, or the beneficiary named therein, and

(b) payment of the first premium is made to the insurer or its duly authorized agent, no change having taken place in the insurability of the life about to be insured subsequent to the completion of the application.

(2) Subject to section 67, where a cheque, bill of exchange or promissory note payable to the insurer, or other written promise to pay the insurer, is given, whether originally or by way of renewal, for the whole or part of any premium and such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note or other written promise to pay is not paid according to its tenor, the contract is, unless otherwise provided in the policy, void.

Payment of premiums.

67. (1) Where any premium other than the initial premium under any contract is unpaid, the insured, his assign or agent, or any beneficiary may, within a period of grace of thirty days or, in the case of an industrial contract, four weeks from and excluding the day on which the premium is due, pay, deliver or tender the sum in default to the insurer at its head office or at its chief agency in the Territory or to its collector or authorized agent.

(2) The payment, delivery or tender referred to in subsection (1) may be made by sending a post office order, postal note or a cheque payable at par and certified by a bank chartered under the laws of Canada or a draft of such bank, in a registered letter addressed to the insurer, and the payment, delivery or tender shall be deemed to have been made at the time of the delivery and registration of the letter at any post office.

(3) Payment, delivery or tender pursuant to subsection (2) has the same effect as if made at the due date of the premium.

(4) The periods of grace mentioned in subsection (1) run concurrently with the period of grace, if any, allowed by the contract for the payment of a premium, or of an instalment of a premium.

(5) Upon the maturity of a contract during the period of grace and before the overdue premium is paid, the contract shall be deemed to be in as full force and effect as if the premium had been paid at its due date, but the amount of the premium with interest not exceeding six per cent per annum and any balance of the current year's premium may be deducted by the insurer from the insurance money.

(6) Nothing in this section deprives the insured of the benefit of any period of grace allowed by the contract in excess of the period of grace allowed by this section.

Maturity of contract before period expires.

Saving.
Insurance.

68. (1) Where a contract has lapsed and
(a) its cash value has not been paid,
(b) any options respecting paid up or extended insurance have not been exercised,
(c) payment of all overdue premiums and other indebtedness to the insurer under the contract, with interest at such rate not exceeding six per cent per annum compounded annually as the contract provides, is made, and
(d) no change has occurred in the good health and insurability of the person whose life is insured subsequent to the date of application and before the contract is reinstated, the insured is entitled to have the contract reinstated within two years or, in the case of an industrial contract, within one year from the date of lapse upon production of evidence satisfactory to the insurer of the good health and insurability of the person whose life was insured, at the time of application for reinstatement.

(2) Where an application is made to reinstate a contract and the contract is reinstated, section 61 applies mutatis mutandis, and the period of two years referred to in subsection (2) of that section runs from the date of reinstatement.

(3) Where a contract that has lapsed provided that in the event of the suicide of the person whose life was insured within a period of time stated in the contract it should be void or that the amount payable thereunder should be reduced and, after the contract is reinstated, such person commits suicide within a period of time commencing on the date of reinstatement and of the same duration as the period of time fixed by the contract, the reinstated contract shall likewise be void, or the amount payable thereunder shall likewise be reduced.

(4) This section does not apply in respect of a contract made by a fraternal society or a contract of group life insurance.

69. The insurer shall, upon request, furnish to the insured a true copy of the application for the insurance.

70. Where by a contract or declaration the insured appoints as beneficiaries, or appoints or apportions insurance money to, his "heirs", "legal heirs", "lawful heirs" or "next-of-kin" the appointment or apportionment shall be deemed to be for the benefit of the estate of the insured.

71. No officer, agent, employee or servant of the insurer or any person soliciting insurance, whether or not an agent of the insurer shall be deemed to be to the prejudice of the insured, for any purpose whatsoever the agent of the insured in respect of any question arising out of a contract.

(7) A declaration contained in an instrument purporting to be a will that has not been revoked otherwise than by operation of law is effective as a declaration, notwithstanding that the instrument is invalid as a testamentary instrument.

(2) The contract may provide or the insured may at any time direct by declaration that a preferred beneficiary is entitled only to the income from insurance money for life or a period of time, or subject to any limitation or contingency stated in the declaration.

(3) The provisions of this section are subject to any vested rights of beneficiaries for value and assignees for value, to the provisions hereinafter contained relating to preferred beneficiaries, and to any contingency or limitation stated in the instrument by which the insured designates a preferred beneficiary, but no provision in any instrument reserving to the insured the right to revoke or abridge the interest of a preferred beneficiary is effective to enable the insured to revoke or abridge that interest in favor of a person not in the class of preferred beneficiaries.

86. Notwithstanding the designation of any preferred beneficiary, the insured may subsequently exercise the powers conferred by section 82 to restrict, limit, extend or transfer the benefits of the contract to any one or more of the class of preferred beneficiaries to the exclusion of any or all other of the class, or wholly or partly to one or more for life or any other period of time or subject to any limitation or contingency, with remainder to any other or others of the class.

89. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the contract may provide or the insured may at any time direct by declaration that where a preferred beneficiary dies before the maturity of the contract, the insurance money or any part thereof appointed to the preferred beneficiary shall be payable to the insured, his estate or any other person whether or not that person is within the class of preferred beneficiaries.

(2) Where the contract provides or the insured by a declaration directs that insurance money goes to a preferred beneficiary and in the event of the death of the preferred beneficiary to some other person in the class of preferred beneficiaries, and the first named beneficiary dies, the insured may before the maturity of the contract exercise only the powers referred to in section 86.

(3) In case of the death of a preferred beneficiary before the maturity of the contract and in the absence of any provision in the contract or a declaration by which some other person in the class of preferred beneficiaries is to become entitled to the insurance money or any part thereof appointed to the deceased beneficiary in the event of his death or upon the happening of any other event, the insured may deal under section 82 with the insurance money or part thereof in the same manner and to the same extent as if the deceased beneficiary had not been a preferred beneficiary.

(4) Subject to this section, the share of a preferred beneficiary who dies before the maturity of the contract is payable as follows:

able to the insured or his estate.

90. (1) Where the spouse of the person whose life is insured is designated as a beneficiary and is subsequently divorced, all interest of such beneficiary under the policy passes to the insured or his estate, unless the beneficiary is a beneficiary for value or an assignee for value.

(2) For the purposes of this section, where a divorce has been granted on the application of a beneficiary, the beneficiary is estopped from denying the validity of the divorce.

(3) Until the insurer receives at its head or principal office in Canada notice in writing of the Act of Parliament, judgment, decree or order granting a divorce, it may deal with the insurance money in the same manner and with the same effect as if no divorce had been granted, and before paying the insurance money, the insurer is entitled to receive the original judgment, decree or order or a duly verified copy thereof, or a duly veri-ified copy of the Act of Parliament, or a copy thereof printed by the Queen's Printer, as the case may be.

(4) Nothing in subsection (3) affects the right of any person entitled to payment of insurance money by reason of a divorce to recover from any person to whom payment is made by the insurer.

91. Where the spouse of the person whose life is insured is designated as beneficiary and it appears

(a) in the case of the wife, that she is living apart from her husband in circumstances disentitling her to alimony,

(b) in the case of the husband, that he is living apart from his wife in circumstances disentitling him to an order for restitution of conjugal rights, and

(c) that there is no other member of the class of preferred beneficiaries whom the insured may designate as beneficiary in place of the designated beneficiary, the Court may, on the application of the insured and on such terms as may seem fit, declare the designated beneficiary dis-entitled to claim the benefit of the provisions of this Part relating to preferred beneficiaries and the insured may then deal with the policy as provided by section 82.

92. Where a preferred beneficiary is designated, the insured may

(a) surrender the contract to the insurer and accept in lieu thereof any paid-up or extended insurance provided by the contract in favour of the preferred beneficiary, and Insurance.

(4) The insurer may apply for the purpose of keeping the contract in force any surplus or profits declared on the contract and held by the insurer to the credit of the insured or of the insured, or held for accumulation, and not otherwise applied or dealt with pursuant to subsection (1).

(5) The insurer is not obliged to pay or apply any surplus or profits in a manner contrary to the terms of the contract or of any subsequent agreement.

94. (1) Where all the designated preferred beneficiaries are of full age, they and the insured may surrender the contract or may assign or dispose of it either absolutely or by way of security, to the insurer, the insured or any other person.

(2) Where the beneficiaries, whether designated by name or not, include the wife or children or grandchildren of the insured, it is sufficient, so far as their interests are concerned, if all then living are of full age and join in the surrender, assignment or disposal.

(3) Where insurance money is made payable to a minor or other person under disability or to a trustee on behalf of a minor or person under disability and the insurance money or a part thereof is required for the maintenance or education of the minor or person under disability, the Court may, upon the application of the insured and upon at least ten days' notice to the insurer, make an order on such terms as it may deem just permitting the insured to surrender the contract to the insurer or to borrow from the insurer on the security thereof, and payment by the insurer in accordance with the order discharges it from liability in respect of the payment.

(4) Where a contract has been assigned as security for any loan or debt, the rights of any beneficiary, whether ordinary or preferred, are affected only to the extent necessary to give effect to the rights of the assignee, and when the loan or debt is discharged the assignee shall furnish a certificate in writing to that effect and to the effect that the assignee has no further right, title or interest in that contract.

95. Where by a contract or any instrument in writing a person is entitled to insurance money only in the event of the death of another person named as a beneficiary, it is not necessary for the first mentioned person to join in any surrender, assignment or disposal of the contract.

96. (1) Subject to this section, where insurance money is payable in instalments and the contract, or an instrument in writing signed by the insured and delivered to the insurer, expressly provides that the beneficiary has not the right to commute the instalments or to alienate or assign his interest therein, the insurer shall not commute the instalments or pay them to any person other than the beneficiary, and the instalments are not, in the hands of the insurer, subject to any legal process except an action to recover the value of necessaries supplied to the beneficiary or his infant children.

(2) The insured may, by an instrument in writing signed by him and delivered to the insurer, declare that the beneficiary has the right to commute instalments of insurance money or alienate or assign his interest therein.

(3) The Court may, upon the application of the insurer or the beneficiary and upon at least ten days' notice, declare that in view of special circumstances the beneficiary has the right to commute instalments of insurance money or to alienate or assign his interest therein.

(4) After the death of the beneficiary, his personal representatives may commute any instalments of insurance money payable to them.

(5) In this section, "instalments" includes insurance money or any part thereof held by the insurer under section 97.

97. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part relating to preferred beneficiaries, where it is expressly provided in the contract or by an agreement in writing with the insurer or by a declaration, the insurer may hold the insurance money or any part thereof after maturity of the contract subject to the order of the beneficiary, or upon such trusts or other agreements for the benefit of the beneficiary as are provided in the contract.

agreement or declaration, allowing and paying for the term during which the insurer retains the insurance money or any part thereof, interest thereon at a rate not less than that specified in the contract, agreement or declaration, or, where no rate is agreed upon, at the rate declared from time to time by the insurer in respect to insurance money so held by it.

(2) An insurer is not bound to carry out the terms of any declaration to which it has not agreed in writing.

98. (1) Until the insurer receives at its head or principal office in Canada notice in writing of the making of an order declaring a beneficiary disentitled to insurance money, or of any instrument in writing affecting the insurance money or any part thereof or of the appointment or revocation of the appointment of a trustee, it may make any payment that is lawful and valid except for the order, instrument in writing, appointment or revocation of appointment, and before making any payment pursuant to or under the authority of the order, instrument in writing, appointment or revocation of appointment, it is entitled to receive the original or a true copy thereof.

(2) Nothing in this section affects the right of any person entitled to payment by virtue of an order, instrument in writing, appointment or revocation of appointment referred to in subsection (1) to recover from any person to whom payment has been made by the insurer.

99. An insurer does not incur any liability for any default, error or omission in giving or withholding information as to notices of payment, or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the insurer is entitled to reasonably sufficient proof of the name and age of the beneficiary.

Proof of claim.

100. (1) An insurer is entitled to reasonably sufficient proof in writing verified by affidavit or statutory declaration of the maturity of the contract, the age of the person whose life is insured and the right of the claimant to receive payment of the insurance money.

(2) Where the insurance money or part thereof is payable to or for the benefit of a beneficiary, the insurer is entitled to reasonably sufficient proof of the name and age of the beneficiary.

101. (1) Insurance money that is expressed to be payable at the maturity of the contract is payable thirty days after reasonably sufficient proof has been furnished to the insurer of the maturity of the contract, the age of the person whose life is insured and the right of the claimant to receive payment.

(2) Except in the case of a contract of group life insurance, insurance money is payable in the place in Canada where the insured was domiciled when the money became payable, or...

(4) Every amount to be paid to or by an insurer under a contract is payable in lawful money of Canada, unless the contract expressly provides for payment in another currency.

(5) In every contract, whether the contract by its terms provides for payment in Canada or elsewhere, amounts expressed in dollars mean lawful dollars of Canadian currency, unless some other currency is specifically provided for in the contract.

102. Where insurance money is payable in respect of a policy on the life of a person who is at the date of his death domiciled elsewhere than in Canada to another person domiciled elsewhere than in Canada, and there is no person in Canada entitled to receive it, the insurer may pay it to the person to whom it is payable or to any other person entitled to receive it on his behalf by the law of the domicile of the payee.

103. (1) Where the insurer admits the validity of the contract but does not admit the sufficiency of the proof furnished by the claimant of the maturity of the contract, the age of the person whose life is insured or the right of the claimant to receive payment of the insurance money and there is no other question in issue except a question under subsection (2), the insurer or the claimant may, before or after the action brought and upon at least thirty days' notice, apply to the Court for a declaration as to the sufficiency of the proof furnished, and the Court may direct what further proof shall be furnished or, in special circumstances, may dispense with further proof.

(2) Where the claimant alleges that the person whose life is insured is presumed to be dead by reason of his not having been heard of for seven years, and there is not other question in issue except a question under subsection (1), the insurer or the claimant may, before or after action brought and upon at least thirty days' notice, apply to the Court for a declaration as to the presumption of death.
Insurance.

(3) Where the Court
(a) finds that the proof of the maturity of the contract, the age of the person whose life is insured or the right of the claimant to receive payment is sufficient,
(b) finds that a presumption of death has been established, or
(c) makes an order directing what further proof shall be furnished or, in special circumstances, dispensing with further proof, the finding or order of the Court is, subject to appeal, conclusive and binding upon the applicant and all parties notified of the application and the Court may make such order respecting the payment of the insurance money and respecting costs as it may deem just.

(4) Payment by an insurer in accordance with an order made pursuant to this section discharges the insurer from liability in respect of the payment.

(5) Where the Court does not
(a) find that the proof of the maturity of the contract, the age of the person whose life is insured or the right of the claimant to receive payment is sufficient, or
(b) find that the presumption of death is established, the Court may order that the matters in issue be decided in an action brought or to be brought, or may make such other order as it deems just respecting further proof to be furnished by the claimant, publication of advertisements, further inquiry and costs or otherwise.

(6) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, an application made pursuant to subsection (1) operates as a stay of any pending action with respect to the insurance money.

104. Where the person whose life is insured and one or more of the beneficiaries perish in the same disaster, it is prima facie presumed that the beneficiary or beneficiaries died first.

105. An agreement, express or implied, contained in a contract of life insurance for the payment of insurance money in the event that the person whose life is insured commits suicide is lawful and enforceable.

LIMITATION OF ACTIONS.

106. (1) Subject to this section, no action or proceeding against the insurer for the recovery of insurance money shall be commenced more than one year after the furnishing of reasonably sufficient proof of the maturity of the contract and of the right of the claimant to receive payment, or more than six years after the maturity of the contract, whichever period first expires.
TRUSTEES, GUARDIANS, ETC.

107. (1) The powers conferred upon the insured by this Part with regard to the designation or appointment of any one or more beneficiaries, the alteration or revocation of such designation or appointment, and the apportionment or reapportionment of insurance money between or among beneficiaries include the power from time to time to appoint one or more trustees for any beneficiary, to revoke any such appointment or alter its terms to appoint one or more new trustees or to make provisions for the appointment of one or more new trustees.

(2) The appointment of a trustee or trustees for any beneficiary does not take away from the Court or the insured any power of depriving the beneficiary of the benefit of the insurance money that the Court or the insured has under this Ordinance where the beneficiary has been designated as beneficiary without the appointment of a trustee.

(3) Payment made to the trustee or trustees appointed pursuant to this section discharges the insurer.

108. (1) Where no trustee is appointed to receive the share to which a minor or other person under disability is entitled, or where a trustee is named but refuses or neglects to act or dies or otherwise becomes incapable of acting, the share of the minor or other person under disability may be paid to a guardian, tutor or trustee of the minor or to a curator, committee or trustee of the other person under disability appointed under the law of the Territory.

(2) Where insurance money not exceeding two thousand dollars is payable to the spouse and children or to the children of the person whose life is insured, and one or more of the children are minors, the Court may, if the spouse is a parent of the minors, appoint him their guardian, with or without security, and the insurance money may be paid to such spouse as guardian.
Insurance.

(3) Where it appears that a guardian, tutor, curator, committee or trustee of a minor or other beneficiary under disability has been appointed in a foreign jurisdiction, and that the minor or other beneficiary is resident within that jurisdiction, the Court may authorize payment of the insurance money to the guardian, tutor, curator, committee or trustee with or without security in the Territory.

PAYMENT INTO COURT.

109. (1) Where the insurer admits liability for the insurance money or any part thereof and it appears to the insurer (a) that there are adverse claimants,
(b) that the place of abode of a person entitled is unknown, or
(c) that there is no person capable of giving or authorized to give a valid discharge, the insurer may, at any time after the expiration of one month from the maturity of the contract, apply to the Court for an order for payment of the money into Court, and the Court may upon such notice, if any, as it thinks necessary make an order accordingly, and the application may in the first instance be made ex parte.

(2) Where the insurer admits liability for the insurance money or any part thereof payable to a minor and there is no person capable of giving a valid discharge therefor, the insurer may at any time after the expiration of one month from the maturity of the contract pay the money, less the costs mentioned in subsection (3), into Court to the credit of the minor.

(3) The insurer may retain out of the insurance money for costs incurred upon payment into Court pursuant to subsection (2) the sum of ten dollars where the amount does not exceed one thousand dollars, and the sum of fifteen dollars in other cases, and payment of the remainder of the money into Court discharges the insurer.

(4) No order is necessary for payment into Court under subsection (2), but the Clerk of the Court shall receive the money upon the insurer filing with him an affidavit showing the amount payable and the name, date of birth and residence of the minor, and upon such payment being made the insurer shall forthwith notify the Public Administrator and deliver to him a copy of such affidavit.

110. Where the insurer does not within two months after due proof of the claim pay the insurance money to some person competent to receive it under this Part or into Court, the Court may, upon application of any person, order that the insurance money or any part thereof, be paid into Court or may make such other order as to the distribution of the money as it may deem just, and payment made in accordance with the order is a sufficient discharge to the insurer.
111. The Court may fix and ascertain without taxation the costs incurred upon or in connection with any application or order made under subsection (1) of section 109 or under section 110, and may order such costs to be paid out of the insurance money or by the insurer or the applicant or otherwise as seems just.

(6) Upon every written application and policy there shall be printed or stamped in conspicuous type, not less in size than ten point and in red ink, a copy of subsection (1) of section 121.

(7) Where a contract is renewed without change or only the amount of the insurance, the rate of premium or the method of rating is changed, the renewal may be effected without a written application.

116. Where it is proposed to change the subject matter of a contract by substitution or addition of one or more automobiles, the insurer may so amend the contract by an endorsement of the policy, but in such case the insurer shall obtain a written application signed in accordance with section 115 and containing such particulars required by that section as relate to the new subject matter.

from the application, and, in that event, the insured shall be from the receipt of the notification he informs the insurer in writing that he rejects the policy.

thereof and every endorsement or amendment of the policy

(b) no variation or omission of a statutory condition is valid nor is anything contained in any addition to a statutory condition or in the description of the subject matter of the insurance effective in so far as it varies, avoids or is inconsistent with any such condition.

(2) Where the automobile insurance is neither insurance under a motor vehicle liability policy nor insurance against loss of or damage to an automobile designated in the policy, the Commissioner may prescribe appropriate conditions or may omit, vary or add to the statutory conditions referred to in this section.

(3) The Commissioner may approve a form of motor vehicle liability policy appropriate to insure a limited or restricted use of the automobile and in that case the statutory conditions such form of policy or endorsement is not approved.

(2) The Commissioner shall upon request specify the reasons for not approving or for disapproving of a form of policy or endorsement.

   (b) the insured violates a term or condition of the policy or commits a fraud, or

   (2) Where a written application for a contract is made, no statement of the applicant shall be used in defence of a claim under the policy unless it is contained in the written application.

122. Where there has been imperfect compliance with a statutory condition as to the proof of loss to be given by the insured or other matter or thing required to be done or omitted by the insured with respect to the loss, and a consequent forfeiture or avoidance of the insurance in whole or in part, and the Court deems it inequitable that the insurance should be forfeited or avoided on that ground, the Court may relieve against the forfeiture or avoidance on such terms as it may deem just.

123. Insurance money is payable in lawful money of Canada.

124. No term or condition of a contract shall be deemed to be waived by the insurer in whole or in part unless the waiver is stated in writing and signed by an agent of the insurer.

126. No red ink shall be used in printing a policy, except for the name, address and emblem of the insurer, the policy number and the purposes mentioned in this Part.

127. Any act or omission of the insurer resulting in non-compliance or imperfect compliance with any provision of this Part does not render a contract invalid as against the insured.

128. (1) Every owner's policy insures the person named therein and every other person who, with his consent, personally drives any automobile specifically described in the policy, against the liability imposed by law upon the insured named therein or any such other person for loss or damage

(a) arising from the ownership, use or operation of any such automobile within Canada, the continental United States of America or Alaska, or upon a vessel plying between ports thereof, and

(3) Any person insured by but not named in a policy may recover indemnity in the same manner and to the same extent as if named therein as the insured, and for that purpose shall be deemed to be a party to the contract and to have given consideration therefor.

129. Every driver's policy insures the person named therein against the liability imposed by law upon the insured for loss or damage,

(a) arising from the operation or use by him of any automobile, other than an automobile owned by him or registered in his name, while he is personally in control as driver or occupant of the automobile within Canada, the continental United States of America or Alaska, or upon a vessel plying between ports thereof, and

(2) Where a person is insured under more than one motor vehicle liability policy, whether the insurance is first loss insurance or excess, and a question arises under paragraph (b) of subsection (1) between an insurer and the insured or between the insurers as to which insurer shall undertake the obligation to defend in the name and on behalf of the insured, whether or not any insurer denies liability under its policy, the insured or any insurer may apply to the Court and the Court shall give such directions as may appear proper with respect to the performance of the obligation.

(3) On an application under subsection (2), the only parties entitled to notice thereof and to be heard theron are the insured and his insurers, and no material or evidence used or taken upon such an application is admissible upon the trial of an action brought against the insured for loss or damage to persons or property arising out of the use of the automobile in respect of which the insurance is provided.

(4) An order under subsection (2) does not affect the rights and obligations of the insurers with respect to payment of any indemnity under their respective policies.

(5) Where the insured has indemnity under two or more policies and any one or more are excess insurance by virtue of section 135, the insurers shall, as between themselves, contribute to the payment of the expenses, costs and reimbursement provided for in subsection (1) in accordance with their respective liabilities for damages against the insured.

132. Every owner's and driver's policy shall insure,

(b) in case of property damage, to the limit of at least two thousand dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, for damage to property resulting from any one accident.

133. (1) In the case of an owner's or driver's policy, the insurer may, in consideration of an additional stated premium and not otherwise, extend the coverage in whole or in part
(a) to any or all of the matters mentioned in paragraphs (c), (e) and (f) of section 131, by an endorsement on the policy, and

(b) to the matter mentioned in paragraph (d) of section 131, by a provision in the policy or an endorsement on it.

(2) The insurer may, in the case of an owner's policy extend the coverage in whole or in part in respect of the operation or use of automobiles not owned by or registered in the name of the insured.

(3) The insurer may, in the case of an owner's policy or a driver's policy, extend the coverage to such other matters as the Commissioner may approve.

(4) No insurer shall extend the coverage under subsection (2) or (3) without the approval of the Commissioner of the form of the extended coverage, the method of providing therefor and of the necessity or otherwise of an additional stated premium for the coverage.

134. (1) An insurer issuing an owner's or a driver's policy may, in consideration of an additional stated premium, in addition to the other insuring agreements therein, agree to pay for each person who sustains bodily injury caused by an accident while driving, being carried in or upon, or entering or getting on to or alighting from the automobile specifically described in the policy or within the definition thereof appearing in the policy within Canada, the continental United States of America, or Alaska, or upon a vessel plying between ports thereof, if the automobile is being used by the insured named in the policy or with his consent, all reasonable expenses incurred, within one year from the date of the accident as a result of the injury, for necessary medical, surgical, dental, ambulance, hospital, professional nursing and funeral services.

(2) No insurer shall give insurance mentioned in subsection (1) without the approval of the Commissioner of the terms and conditions thereof.

135. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the insured named in a policy has or places any additional or other valid insurance of his interest in the subject matter of the contract, or any part thereof, the insurer shall be liable only for its ratable proportion of any loss or damage.

(2) Insurance under a valid owner's policy shall, as respects the liability arising from the ownership, use or operation of the automobile specifically described in the policy, be a first loss insurance, and insurance attaching under any other valid motor vehicle policy shall be excess insurance only.

(3) A copy of subsections (1) and (2) shall be printed or stamped in conspicuous type, not less in size that ten point, upon every automobile insurance policy and those subsections constitute terms of the contract between the insurer and the insured.

(4) Subsection (2) has effect as between insurers.
136. Where any provision of sections 128 to 135 is inapplicable by reason of the requirements of any Act or Ordinance or, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is unsuitable to any special form of contract, he may approve a form of motor vehicle liability policy sufficient or appropriate to insure the risks required or proposed to be insured and in that case those sections do not apply.

137. (1) Any person who has a claim against an insured, for which indemnity is provided by a motor vehicle liability policy, notwithstanding that such person is not a party to the contract, is entitled, upon recovering a judgment therefor against the insured, to have the insurance money payable under the policy applied in or towards satisfaction of his judgment and of any other judgments or claims against the insured covered by the indemnity and may, on behalf of himself and all persons having such judgments or claims, maintain an action against the insurer to have the insurance money so applied.

(2) No creditor of the insured is entitled to share in the insurance money payable under any such policy in respect of any claim for which indemnity is not provided by the policy.

(3) No assignment, waiver, surrender, cancellation or discharge of the policy, or of any interest therein, or if the proceeds thereof, made by the insured after the happening of the event giving rise to a claim under the policy, act or default of the insured before or after such event in violation of any provision of this Part or of the terms of the contract, and violation of the Criminal Code or of any law or statute of any province or the Territory, state or country, by the owner or driver of an automobile, prejudices the right of any person, entitled under subsection (1), to have the insurance money applied upon his judgment or claim, nor shall anything referred to in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) be available to the insurer as a defence to the action.

(4) It is not a defence to an action under this section that an instrument issued as a motor vehicle liability policy by a person engaged in the business of an insurer and alleged by a party to the action to be such a policy, is not a motor vehicle liability policy; and the provisions of this section apply, mutatis mutandis, to the instrument.

(5) The insurer may require any other insurers liable to indemnify the insured in whole or in part in respect of judgments or claims referred to in subsection (1) to be made parties to an action under this section and to contribute according to their respective liabilities, whether this be ratably or by way of first loss or excess insurance, as the case may be, and the insured shall, on demand, furnish the insurer with particulars of all other insurance covering the subject matter of the contract.
(6) Subject to subsection (7), where one or more policies provide for coverage in excess of the limits mentioned in section 132 or for extended coverage pursuant to subsections (1) and (3) of section 133, nothing in this section with respect to such excess coverage or extended coverage prevents any insurer from availing itself, as against a claimant, of any defence that the insurer is entitled to set up against the insured.

(7) Where a policy provides for extended coverage in respect of loss or damage resulting from bodily injury to, or the death of, any person being carried in or upon, or entering, or getting on to or alighting from an automobile operated in the business of carrying passengers for compensation or hire, subsection (6) applies only to that part of such extended coverage,

(a) that exceeds any minimum coverage required by this Ordinance, or

(b) where a greater minimum coverage is required by or pursuant to any other Ordinance, exceeds such greater minimum coverage.

(8) The insured is liable to pay or reimburse the insurer, upon demand, any amount that the insurer has paid by reason of this section that it would not otherwise be liable to pay.

(9) Where an insurer denies liability under a motor vehicle liability policy, it has the right upon application to the Court to be made a third party in any action to which the insured is a party and in which a claim is made against the insured by any party to the action in which it is or might be asserted that indemnity is provided by the said policy, whether or not the insured files a defence or a demand of notice of proceedings, and upon being made a third party such insurer has the right to contest the liability of the insured to any party claiming against the insured, and to contest the amount of any claim made against the insured to the same extent as if a defendant in the action, including for such purposes the right to deliver a statement of defence to the claim of any party against the insured and to deliver other pleadings and to have production and discovery from any party adverse in interest and the right to examine and cross-examine witnesses at the trial.

(10) An insurer is entitled to avail itself of subsection (9) notwithstanding that another insurer is defending in the name and on behalf of the insured an action to which its insured is a party.

138. A policy, other than a motor vehicle liability policy, may contain a clause to the effect that the insurer in the event of loss shall pay only an agreed portion of any loss that may be sustained or the amount of the loss after deduction of a sum specified in the policy, in either case not exceeding the amount of the insurance, in which case there shall be printed upon the face of the policy in conspicuous type, in red ink, the words: "This policy contains a partial payment of loss clause."
139. Where a claim is made under any policy other than a motor vehicle liability policy, the insurer shall, notwithstanding any agreement, adjust the amount of the claim with the insured named in the policy as well as with any person having an interest indicated in the policy.

140. (1) Every person who fails to comply with or violates any provision of this Part is guilty of an offence.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a contract of group accident insurance or of group sickness insurance or of both is valid if it provides benefits solely for the persons insured under the contract.

152. Where the insured has at the time at which the contract takes effect an insurable interest in the person insured, it is not necessary for the validity of the contract or an assignment thereof that a beneficiary, or a person claiming under an assignment, or by will or by succession, have an insurable interest.

Insurance. Chap. 57.

154. The statements made by the insured in his application for the contract are, in the absence of fraud, representations and not warranties.

155. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), after a contract, including renewals thereof, has been in force for two years with respect to a person insured, every statement made in the written application in respect of that person, other than a fraudulent statement or a statement erroneous as to age, shall be deemed to be true and is incontestable.

(2) Where a claim arises from a loss incurred or a disability beginning before a contract, including renewals thereof, has been in force for two years with respect to the person in respect of whom the claim is made, subsection (1) does not apply to that claim.

156. Where a person insured suffers or has suffered from a disease or physical condition that existed prior to the date the contract came into force with respect to that person and the disease or physical condition is not specifically excluded from the insurance,

(a) the prior existence of the disease or physical condition is not, except in the case of fraud, available as a defence against liability, in whole or in part, for a loss incurred or a disability beginning after the contract, including renewals thereof, has been in force for two years with respect to that person, and

(b) the existence of the disease or physical condition is not, except in the case of fraud, available as a defence against liability, in whole or in part, if the disease or physical condition was disclosed in the written application for the contract.

BENEFICIARIES.

157. (1) Where insurance money is payable upon death by designation of beneficiary, the insured, or in the case of group accident insurance, the person insured, may designate in writing a beneficiary to receive the insurance money or part thereof and may alter or revoke in writing any prior designation.

159. Where a contract provides for the payment of money upon the death by accident of the person insured and the person insured and the beneficiary perish in the same disaster, it shall be prima facie presumed that the beneficiary died first.

160. (1) Where the insurer admits liability for the insurance money or any part thereof, and it appears to the insurer that
(a) there are adverse claimants,
(b) the place of abode of a person entitled is unknown, or
(c) there is no person capable of giving and authorized to give a valid discharge, who is willing to do so, the insurer may apply ex parte to the Court for an order for payment of the money into Court, and the Court may upon such notice, if any, as it thinks necessary make an order accordingly.

(2) The Court may fix and ascertain without taxation the costs incurred upon or in connection with any application or order made under subsection (1) and may order the costs to be paid out of the insurance money or by the insurer or otherwise as seems just.

(3) A payment made pursuant to an order under subsection (1) discharges the insurer to the extent of the payment.

161. Where insurance money is payable to a beneficiary or to the estate of the insured or of the person insured, the insurer may, if the contract so provides, pay an amount not exceeding two thousand dollars to
(a) a relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or of the person insured, or
(b) any person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto by reason of having incurred expense for the maintenance, medical attendance or burial of the insured or person insured or to have a claim against the estate of the insured or of the person insured in relation thereto.

162. The insurer shall not, in the policy, give undue prominence to any provision or statutory condition as compared to other provisions or statutory conditions, unless the effect of that provision or statutory condition is to increase the premium or decrease the benefits otherwise provided for in the policy.
163. Where there has been imperfect compliance with a statutory condition as to the proof of loss to be given by the claimant or as to any matter or thing to be done or omitted by the insured or claimant with respect to the loss insured against, and a consequent forfeiture or avoidance of the insurance in whole or in part, and a Court before which a question relating thereto is tried deems it inequitable that the insurance should be forfeited or avoided on that ground, the Court may relieve against the forfeiture or avoidance on such terms as it deems just.

164. No officer, agent, employee or servant of the insurer or any person soliciting accident insurance or sickness insurance or both, whether an agent of the insurer or not, shall, to the prejudice of the insured or of the person insured, be deemed to be for any purpose whatever the agent of the insured or of the person insured in respect of any question arising out of the contract.

PART VII.
FRATERNAL SOCIETIES.

(2) Section 176 does not apply to a society the membership of which is limited by its constitution or laws to municipal or government employees.

167. The following shall not be deemed societies within the meaning of this Part:

(a) a corporation not otherwise provided for in this Ordinance that has, by or under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of Canada, created a fund for paying a gratuity on the happening of death, sickness, infirmity, casualty, accident, disability or any change of physical or mental condition;

(c) a corporation that undertakes or offers to undertake contracts of insurance other than with its own members exclusively, or for more than five thousand dollars payable on the death of any one member other than a funeral benefit, or any contracts of insurance with its members other than,
    (i) life insurance,
    (ii) contracts for the payment of mortuary or funeral benefits, or
    (iii) old age insurance;

(d) a corporation in which the insurance fund is used for the purposes of a mercantile or business enterprise, or for mercantile profit, or a society formed on the lodge system, the insurance fund of which is held other than as a trust fund for the members insured;

(e) a society in which the persons insured do not exercise, either directly or through representatives elected for a term not exceeding four years, effective control over the insurance fund of the society, or in which the officers or other persons having the disposition, control or possession of the insurance fund are elected or appointed for a longer period than four years; and

(f) any corporation that undertakes contracts of insurance but is not formed exclusively for that purpose and does not for the purposes of such contracts keep distinct and separate funds, securities, books and vouchers.

168. (1) A copy of the constitution, by-laws and rules of a society relating to its insurance contracts and to the management and application of its insurance funds shall be delivered by the society to any person requiring the same on payment of twenty-five cents.

(2) If an officer or agent of a society, with intent to mislead or defraud, gives to any person a copy of the constitution, by-laws and rules other than those then in force on the pretence that they are the constitution, by-laws and rules then in force, he is guilty of an offence.

169. No unmatured policy or contract creates any claim or liability against the society while a going society, or against the estate of the society in a winding-up or liquidation, but in a winding-up or liquidation the insured or beneficiary for value under the unmatured policy or contract is entitled to share in the surplus assets of the society.
170. (1) The liabilities of a member under his contract shall at any time be limited to the assessments, fees and dues that became payable within the preceding twelve months and of which at that time notice had been given in accordance with the constitution, by-laws and rules of the society.

(2) A member may at any time withdraw from the society by delivering or sending by registered post to the society notice in writing of his intention to withdraw, and paying or tendering the assessments, fees and dues mentioned in sub-section (1).

(3) Upon his withdrawal the member shall become thereby released from all further liability under his contract.

(4) This section shall be subject to the provisions of any rules to the contrary certified by the Commissioner.

171. No forfeiture or suspension is incurred by a member by reason of any default in paying any contribution or assessment, except such as are payable in fixed sums and at fixed times, until

(a) after notice to the member

(i) stating the amount due by him, and

(ii) stating that in case of default of payment within a reasonable time, being not less than thirty days, to the proper officer, who shall be named in the notice, the member's interest or benefit will be forfeited or suspended, and

(b) default has been made by the member in paying his contribution or assessment in accordance with such notice.

172. Where under the constitution, by-laws or rules of a society a defaulting member is entitled to be reinstated on payment of arrears after a stated number of days' default, section 171 does not prejudice the rights of the member.

173. Where it is stipulated that the benefit of a contract shall be suspended, reduced or forfeited for any other reason than for non-payment of money, the stipulation is not valid unless it is held to be just and reasonable under the circumstances of the case.

174. In any contract in which total abstinence from intoxicating liquors is made an express condition, such condition shall be deemed to be just and reasonable.

175. (1) Subject to subsection (2), any notice required to be given to a member for any purpose of this Ordinance or of the constitution, by-laws or rules of the society may be effectually given by written or printed notice delivered or sent by registered post to the member or left at his last known place of abode or business.
(2) A notice of the reduction of any benefit payable under a contract or of the increase of the premium payable thereunder shall be sent by registered post to the member at his last known place of abode or of business.

176. A society may by amendment of its constitution, by-laws or rules

(a) reduce the benefits payable under any of its contracts, or

(b) increase the rates of contribution payable by any of its members, as a whole or as a class, and the amendment when adopted by a majority of the votes cast by the members of the supreme legislative body of the society at a regular or special meeting of the supreme legislative body of the society duly called is binding upon the members of the society, their beneficiaries or legal representatives and all persons deriving legal rights from any member or beneficiary, notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of the constitution, by-laws and rules before the amendments, or in the Ordinance or other instrument of incorporation of the society or in any contract, policy or certificate of insurance heretofore or hereafter issued by the Society.

PART VIII.

GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO INSURERS.

177. (1) Subject to subsection (2), payments in cash in whole or in part to an agent of an insurer of the amount of a premium or an assessment due in respect of a contract issued by the insurer, shall be deemed a payment to the insurer, notwithstanding any condition or stipulation to the contrary.

(2) This section does not apply in respect of life insurance.

178. An agent who acts in negotiating, renewing or continuing a contract with an insurer and receives any money or substitute for money as a premium for such a contract from the insured, shall be deemed to hold the premium in trust for the insurer, and, if he fails to pay it over to the insurer within thirty days after written demand made upon him therefor, less his commission and any deductions to which, by the written consent of the insurer, he may be entitled, his failure to do so is prima facie evidence that he has used or applied the said premiums for a purpose other than paying the same over to the insurer.

179. Any person, other than an insurer or its duly authorized agent,

(a) who advertises or holds himself out as a purchaser of life insurance policies or of benefits thereunder, or

(b) who traffics or trades in life insurance policies for the purpose of procuring the sale, surrender, transfer, assignment, pledge or hypothecation thereof to himself or any other person, is guilty of an offence.

180. Any information, document, record, statement or thing, made or disclosed to the Commissioner concerning any person licensed or applying for a licence under this Ordinance is absolutely privileged and shall not be used as evidence in any action or proceeding in any Court brought by or on behalf of such person.

181. (1) Subject to subsection (2), unless the contract otherwise provides, a violation of any criminal or other law in force in the Territory or elsewhere shall not, ipso facto, render unenforceable a claim for indemnity under a contract of insurance except where the violation is committed by the insured, or by another person with the consent of the insured, with intent to bring about loss or damage.

(2) In the case of a contract of life insurance, subsection (1) applies only in respect of disability insurance undertaken as part of the contract.

PART IX.

PENALTIES.

182. (1) Every person who fails to comply with or violates any provision of this Ordinance is guilty of an offence.

(2) Every person who is guilty of an offence under this Ordinance, for which no other penalty is provided by the Ordinance, is liable upon summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

183. Every prosecution for any contravention of this Ordinance shall be commenced within two years of such contravention.
SCHEDULE.

PART I.
(Section 44)

STATUTORY CONDITIONS.

FIRE.

1. If any person applying for insurance falsely describes the property to the prejudice of the insurer, or misrepresents or fraudulently omits to communicate any circumstance which is material to be made known to the insurer in order to enable it to judge of the risk to be undertaken, the contract shall be void as to the property in respect of which the misrepresentation or omission is made.

FORM OF CONTRACT.

2. After application for insurance, if the same is in writing it shall be deemed that any policy sent to the insured is intended to be in accordance with the terms of the application, unless the insurer points out in writing the particulars wherein it differs from the application, in which case the insured may, within two weeks from the receipt of the notification, reject the policy.

(c) for loss due to the want, within the knowledge of the insured, of good and substantial chimneys; or caused by ashes or embers being deposited, with the knowledge and consent of the insured, in wooden vessels; or by stoves or stove-pipes being, to the knowledge of the insured, in an unsafe condition or improperly secured; or

(d) for loss of or damage to goods while undergoing any process in or by which the application of fire heat is necessary.

EXPLOSION AND LIGHTNING.

6. The insurer will make good loss or damage caused by lightning or by the explosion of coal or natural gas in a building not forming part of gas works, whether fire ensues therefrom or not; and loss or damage by fire caused by any other explosion; but, if electrical appliances or devices are insured, any loss or damage to them caused by lightning or other electrical currents is excluded and the insurer shall be liable only for such loss or damage to them as may occur from fire originating outside the article itself.

MATERIAL CHANGE.

7. Any change material to the risk and within the control and knowledge of the insured shall avoid the policy as to the part affected thereby unless the insurer or its local agent is promptly notified in writing of the change; and the insurer when so notified may return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid and cancel the policy, or may notify the insured in writing that, if he desires the policy to continue in force, he must within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice pay to the insurer an additional premium, and in default of such payment the policy shall no longer be in force and the insurer shall return the unearned portion, if any, of the premium paid.

OTHER INSURANCE.

8. (1) If the insured has at the date of this policy any other insurance on property covered thereby which is not disclosed to the insurer, or hereafter effects any other insurance thereon without the written assent of the insurer, he shall not be entitled to recover more than sixty per cent of the loss in respect of such property; but if for any fraudulent purpose the insured does not disclose such other insurance, this policy shall be void.

(2) The insurer shall be deemed to have assented to such other insurance unless it dissents by notice in writing within two weeks after notice thereof.

(3) In the event of there being any other insurance on property herein described at the time of the happening of a loss in respect thereof, the insurer shall be liable only for payment of a ratable proportion of the loss or a ratable proportion of such amounts as the insured shall be entitled to recover under clause (1) of this condition.

MORTGAGEES AND OTHER PAYEES.

9. Where the loss, if any, under a policy has, with the consent of the insurer, been made payable to some person other than the insured, the policy shall not be cancelled or altered by the insurer to the prejudice of such person without reasonable notice to him.

10. (1) The insurance may be terminated,

(a) subject to the provisions of condition 9, by the insurer giving to the insured at any time fifteen days’ notice of cancellation by registered mail, or five days’ notice of cancellation personally delivered, and, if the insurance is on the cash plan, refunding the excess of premium actually paid by the insured beyond the pro rata premium for the expired time;

(2) Repayment of the excess premium may be made by money, post office order or postal note or by cheque payable at par and certified by a chartered bank doing business in the Territory. If the notice is given by registered letter, such repayment shall accompany the notice, and in such case the fifteen days mentioned in clause (a) of this condition shall commence to run from the day following the receipt of the registered letter at the post office to which it is addressed.

SALVAGE.

11. After any loss or damage to insured property, it shall be the duty of the insured, when and as soon as practicable, to secure the insured property from further damage, and to separate as far as reasonably may be the damaged from the undamaged property, and to notify the insurer of the separation.

INSURANCE ON GOODS MOVED.

12. If any of the insured property is necessarily removed to prevent damage or further damage thereto, that part of the insurance under this policy which exceeds the amount of the insurer's liability for any loss already incurred shall for seven days only, or for the unexpired term if less than seven days, cover the property removed and any property remaining in the original location in the proportions which the value of the property in the respective locations bears to the value of the property in them all; and the insurer will contribute pro rata towards any loss or expense connected with such act of salvage, according to the respective interests of the parties.

ENTRY, CONTROL, ABANDONMENT.

13. After any loss or damage to insured property, the insurer shall have an immediate right of access and entry by accredited agents sufficient to enable them to survey and examine the property, and to make an estimate of the loss or damage, and, after the insured has secured the property, a further right of access and entry sufficient to enable them to make appraisalment or particular estimate of the loss or damage, but the insurer shall not be entitled to the control or possession of the insured property, or the remains or salvage thereof, unless it accepts a part thereof at its agreed value or its value as ascertained according to condition 17 or undertakes replacement under condition 19, and without the consent of the insurer there can be no abandonment to it of insured property.
WHO TO MAKE PROOF OF LOSS.

14. Proof of loss must be made by the insured, although the loss is payable to a third person, except that, in the case of the absence of the insured or his inability to make the same, proof may be made by his agent, such absence or inability being satisfactorily accounted for or in the like case or if the insured refuse to do so, by a person to whom any part of the insurance money is payable.

REQUIREMENTS AFTER LOSS.

15. Any person entitled to claim under this policy shall,
(a) forthwith after loss give notice in writing to the insurer;
(b) deliver, as soon thereafter as practicable, a particular account of the loss;
(c) furnish therewith a statutory declaration declaring,
   (i) that the account is just and true,
   (ii) when and how the loss occurred, and if caused by fire, how the fire originated, so far as the declarant knows or believes,

   (v) all liens and encumbrances on the property insured, and
   (vi) the place where the property insured, if moveable, was deposited at the time of the fire; and
(d) if required and if practicable, produce books of account, warehouse receipts and stocks lists, and furnish invoices and other vouchers verified by statutory declaration, and furnish a copy of the written portion of any other policy. The evidence furnished under this clause shall not be considered proofs of loss within the meaning of conditions 18 and 19.

FRAUD.

16. Any fraud or wilfully false statement in a statutory declaration, in relation to any of the above particulars, shall vitiate the claim of the person making the declaration.

ARBITRATION.

17. If any difference arises as to the value of the property insured, the property saved or the amount of the loss, such value and amount and the proportion thereof, if any, to be paid by the insurer, shall whether the right to recover on the policy is disputed or not, and independently of all other questions, be submitted to the arbitration of some person to be chosen by both parties, or if they cannot agree on one person, then to two persons, one to be chosen by the insured and the other by the insurer, and a third to be appointed by the persons so chosen, or on their failing to agree, then by a judge of the Court; and such reference shall be subject to the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance; and the award shall, if the insurer is in other respects liable, be conclusive as to the amount of the loss and the proportion to be paid by the insurer; where the full amount of the claim is awarded the costs shall follow the event; and in other cases all questions of costs shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

WHEN LOSS PAYABLE.

18. The loss shall be payable within sixty days after completion of the proofs of loss, unless the contract provides for a shorter period.

REPLACEMENT.

19. The insurer, instead of making payment, may repair, rebuild or replace the property damaged or lost, giving written notice of its intention so to do within fifteen days after receipt of the proofs of loss. In such event the insurer shall commence to so repair, rebuild or replace the property within thirty days after receipt of the proofs of loss and shall thereafter proceed with all due diligence to the completion thereof.

ACTION.

20. Every action or proceeding against the insurer for the recovery of any claim under or by virtue of this policy shall be absolutely barred unless commenced within one year next after the loss or damage occurs.

AGENCY.

21. Any officer or agent of the insurer who assumes on behalf of the insurer to enter into a written agreement relating to any matter connected with the insurance shall be deemed prima facie to be the agent of the insurer for the purpose.

WAIVER OF CONDITION.

22. No condition of this policy shall be deemed to have been waived by the insurer, either in whole or in part, unless the waiver is clearly expressed in writing signed by an agent of the insurer.

NOTICE.

23. Any written notice to the insurer may be delivered at or sent by registered post to the chief agency or head office of the insurer in Canada or delivered or sent to any authorized agent of the insurer therein. Written notice may be given to the insured by letter personally delivered to him or by registered letter addressed to him at his last post office address notified to the insurer, or, where no address is notified and the address is not known, addressed to him at the post office of the agency, if any, from which the application was received.
24. The insurer may require from the insured an assignment of all right of recovery against any other party for loss or damage to the extent that payment therefor is made by the insurer.

A Commissioner for Oaths for the Yukon Territory.
In these statutory conditions, unless the context otherwise requires, the word “insured” means a person insured by the policy, whether named or not.

1. (1) The insured named in the policy shall promptly notify the insurer, or its local agent, in writing, of any change in the risk material to the contract and within his knowledge.

(2) Without restricting the generality of the foregoing the words “change in the risk material to the contract” shall include

(a) any change in the insurable interest of the insured named in the policy in the automobile, by sale, assignment or otherwise, except through change of title by succession, death or proceedings under the Bankruptcy Act; and in cases other than motor vehicle liability policies;

(b) any mortgage, lien or encumbrance affecting the automobile after the application for the policy; and

(c) any other insurance of the same interest, whether valid or not, covering loss or damage insured by the policy or any portion thereof.

2. (1) The insured shall not drive or operate the automobile,

(a) whilst under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs to such an extent as to be for the time being incapable of the proper control of the automobile;

(b) unless he is for the time being either authorized by law or qualified to drive or operate the automobile, or while he is under the age of sixteen years or under such other age as is prescribed by the law of the province or Territory where he resides at the time the policy is issued;

(c) for any illicit or prohibited trade or transportation; or

(d) in any race or speed test.

(2) The insured shall not permit, suffer, allow or connive at the use of the automobile,

(a) by any person under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs to such an extent as to be for the time being incapable of the proper control of the automobile;
Insurance.

(b) by any person, unless such person is for the time being either authorized by law or qualified to drive or operate the automobile, or while such person is under the age of sixteen years or under such other age as is prescribed by law;
(c) for any illicit or prohibited trade or transportation; or
(d) in any race or speed test.

USES PROHIBITED WITHOUT PERMISSION.

3. Unless permission is expressly given by an endorsement of the policy and in consideration of an additional stated premium, the automobile shall not be rented or leased nor shall it be used,
(a) to carry explosives; or
(b) as a taxicab, public omnibus, livery, jitney or sightseeing conveyance or for carrying passengers for compensation or hire.

4. In the case of indemnity afforded by motor vehicle liability policies, the automobile shall not be used for the towing of a trailer owned or hired by the insured that is not covered by like indemnity by the insurer; nor shall a trailer so covered by the policy be towed by an automobile owned or hired by the insured that is not covered by like indemnity by the insurer.

5. In cases other than motor vehicle liability policies the insurer shall not be liable for loss or damage that is caused directly or indirectly by bombardment, invasion, civil war, insurrection, rebellion, revolution, military or usurped power, or by operations of armed forces while engaged in hostilities, whether war be declared or not, or by civil commotion arising from any of the foregoing, unless the policy or an endorsement thereon expressly provides otherwise.

INSURED TO GIVE NOTICE OF ACCIDENT AND CLAIM.

6. (1) The insured shall promptly give to the insurer written notice, with all available particulars, of any accident involving loss or damage to persons or property, and of any claim made on account of accident; shall verify by affidavit or statutory declaration, if required by the insurer, that the claim arises out of the operation or use of the automobile and that the person operating or responsible for the operation of the automobile at the time of the accident is a person insured by the policy; and shall forward immediately to the insurer every writ, letter, document or advice received by him from or on behalf of the claimant.

CO-OPERATION OF INSURED AND INSURER IN CLAIM SETTLEMENT.

(2) The insured shall not voluntarily assume any liability or settle any claim except at his own cost. The insured shall not interfere in any negotiations for settlement or in any legal proceeding, but, whenever requested by the insurer, shall aid in securing information and evidence and the attendance of any witness, and shall co-operate with the insurer, except in a pecuniary way, in the defence of any action or proceeding or in the prosecution of any appeal.

LOSS OR DAMAGE TO THE AUTOMOBILE.

7. (1) Upon the occurrence of loss of or damage to the automobile, the insured shall, if the loss or damage is covered by this policy,

(a) forthwith give notice thereof, in writing, to the insurer, with fullest information obtainable at the time and shall, at the expense of the insurer, and as far as reasonably possible, protect the automobile from further loss or damage, and any such further loss or damage accruing directly or indirectly from a failure to protect shall not be recoverable hereunder. No repairs shall be undertaken or any physical evidence of the loss or damage removed without the written consent of the insurer, except such repairs as are immediately necessary for the protection of the automobile from further loss or damage; or until the insurer has had a reasonable time to make the examination provided for in statutory condition 9;

(b) deliver to the insurer, within ninety days of the date of the loss or damage, a statutory declaration stating so far as the insured knows or believes, the place, time, cause and amount of the loss or damage, the interest of the insured and of all others therein, the encumbrances thereon, all other insurance, whether valid or not, covering the automobile, and that the loss or damage did not occur through any wilful act or neglect, procurement, means or connivance of the insured.

EXAMINATION OF INSURED.

(2) The insured shall submit to examination under oath, and shall produce for examination, at such reasonable place as is designated by the insurer or its representative, all documents in his possession or control which relate to the matters in question, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made.

INSURER LIABLE FOR CASH VALUE OF AUTOMOBILE.

(3) The insurer shall not be liable beyond the actual cash value of the automobile at the time any loss or damage occurs, and the loss or damage shall be ascertained or estimated according to the actual cash value with proper deduction for depreciation, however caused, and shall in no event exceed what it would cost to repair or replace the automobile or any part thereof with material of like kind and quality; provided that in the event of any part of the automobile being obsolete and out of stock, the liability of the insurer in respect thereof shall be limited to the value of the part at the time of loss or damage not exceeding the maker's last list price.

(4) Except where an appraisal has been had, the insurer instead of making payment may, within a reasonable time, repair, rebuild or replace the property damaged or lost with other of like kind and quality, giving written notice of its intention so to do within seven days after the receipt of the proofs of loss; but there can be no abandonment of the automobile to the insurer without its consent; in the event of the insurer exercising such option, the salvage, if any, shall revert to it.

(2) This policy may be cancelled at any time by the insurer giving to the insured named in the policy fifteen days' notice in writing of cancellation by registered post, whether registered within or without Canada, or five days' notice of cancellation personally delivered, and refunding the excess of paid premium beyond the pro rata premium for the expired time. Repayment of excess premiums may be made by money, post office order, postal note or cheque. Such repayment shall accompany the notice, and in such case the fifteen days above mentioned shall commence to run from the day following the receipt of the registered letter at the post office to which it is addressed.

(3) In this condition the expression "paid premium" means premium actually paid by the insured to the insurer or its agent, and does not include any premium or part thereof paid to the insurer by an agent unless actually paid to the agent by the insured.

(2) If the person insured changes his occupation from that stated in this policy to an occupation classified by the insurer as less hazardous and so advises the insurer in writing, the insurer shall either

(c) the Court may grant to a defendant, in respect of any equitable estate or right or other matter of equity and also in respect of any legal estate, right or title claimed or asserted by him, all such relief against any plaintiff or petitioner as the defendant has properly claimed by his pleadings; and also all such relief relating to or connected with the original subject of the cause or matter, and in like manner claimed against any other person, whether already a party to the same cause or matter or not, who has been duly served with notice in writing of the claim pursuant to this Ordinance, or any order of the Court as might properly have been granted against such person if he had been made a defendant to a cause duly instituted by the same defendant for the like purpose, and every person served with such notice shall thenceforth be deemed a party to the cause or matter with the same rights in respect of the defence against the claim as if he had been duly sued in the ordinary way by the defendant;

(d) the Court shall recognize and take notice of all equitable estates, titles and rights and all equitable duties and liabilities appearing incidentally in the course of any cause or matter, in the same manner in which the High Court of Justice in England would recognize and take notice of the same in any suit or proceeding duly instituted therein; be restrained under any color of title, and whether the estates claimed by both or by either of the parties are legal or equitable;

INTEREST.

11. In addition to the cases in which interest is by law payable, or may by law be allowed, the Court may in all cases where in the opinion of the Court the payment of a just debt has been improperly withheld, and it seems to the Court fair and equitable that the party in default should make compensation by the payment of interest, allow interest for such time and at such rate as the Court may think right.

12. (1) On the trial of an issue, or on an assessment of damages upon a debt or sum certain,

(3) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a verdict or judgment bears interest from the time of the rendering of the verdict or of giving the judgment, as the case may be, notwithstanding that the entry of judgment has been suspended by any proceeding in the action including an appeal.

TENDER OF AMENDS IN CASE OF TORTS.

13. A person who has committed a wrong giving a cause of action for the recovery of damages to the person wronged may at any time before action tender amends, and the tender has the same effect as a tender in an action for the recovery of a debt.

CHAPTER 61.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING JURORS AND JURIES.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Jury Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) “action” means a civil proceeding as defined in the Judicature Ordinance; and
   (b) “Clerk” means the Clerk of the Court.

RIGHT TO JURY IN CIVIL MATTERS.

3. (1) Where, in any action of libel, slander, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, seduction or breach of promise of marriage, or in any action founded upon a tort or contract in which the amount claimed exceeds one thousand dollars, or in any action for the recovery of real property, either party to the action applies to the Court, not less than two weeks prior to the time fixed for the trial of the action before a jury, the action shall, subject to subsection (2) and to section 4, be tried before a jury, but in no other case shall an action be tried before a jury.

   (2) Where, in any action of a class specified in subsection (1), application is made for the trial of that action before a jury and it appears to a judge, either before or after the commencement of the trial, that the trial will involve any prolonged examination of documents or accounts or any scientific investigation that, in the opinion of the judge, cannot conveniently be made by a jury, the judge may direct that the action be tried without a jury or that the jury be dismissed, in which case the action shall be tried or the trial continued, as the case may be, without a jury.

JURY COSTS.

4. (1) Where, in accordance with subsection (1) of section 3, application is made for the trial of an action before a jury, the party making the application shall deposit with the Clerk such sum by way of security for payment of the cost of the jury as to the Clerk appears sufficient under the circumstances.

   (2) Upon the conclusion of the sittings at which the action is tried the party making the application shall pay to the Clerk any amount by which the cost of the jury exceeds the amount of the security deposited by him in accordance with subsection
(1), and is entitled to have returned to him any amount by which the amount of the security so deposited exceeds the cost of the jury.

(3) If the party making the application obtains judgment in his favour, he shall, unless the judge otherwise orders, be allowed and may tax against the unsuccessful party to the action the cost of the jury.

(4) In this section, “cost of the jury” means (a) the total cost of the jury for the sittings of the Court at which the action is tried, including the cost of summoning the panel, jurors' fees and allowances, and all other lawful expenses in connection therewith, as certified by the Clerk; or (b) in any case where a jury is used for the trial of more than one action or proceeding at the same sittings of the Court, a portion of the total cost specified in paragraph (a), the said portion to be determined at the conclusion of the sittings in accordance with the rules of Court, or, if there are no such rules applicable, in accordance with an order to be made by the presiding judge.

PERSONS QUALIFIED TO SERVE AS JURORS.

5. Subject to this Ordinance, every person who (a) is twenty-one or more years of age, (b) is a Canadian citizen or British subject, and (c) is able to speak and understand the English language, is qualified to serve as a juror in any action or proceeding that may be tried by a jury in the Territory.

6. No person is qualified to serve as a juror who (a) has been convicted of an offence for which he was sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding one year, not having been subsequently granted a free pardon, or (b) is afflicted with blindness or deafness, or is a lunatic, idiot or imbecile, or possesses any other physical or mental infirmity incompatible with the discharge of the duties of a juror.

   (iii) water distribution systems distributing water for public consumption.

8. No person is required to serve as a juror more than once in any two-year period, unless the service of that person as a juror is necessary by reason of there being an insufficient number of persons qualified to serve as jurors within a distance of twenty miles from the place of trial.

Women jurors.

9. No woman shall be empanelled as a juror for the trial of a criminal proceeding.

Compilation of jury list.

10. (1) The Sheriff shall, prior to the first day of November in each year or as nearly as possible thereafter, compile a list in Form A of persons who are qualified to serve as jurors and who are not, to his knowledge, exempt from service, for each place fixed for the sittings of the Court in the following year.

   (2) The list shall contain, if possible, not less than forty-eight names, and shall give the addresses and occupations of the persons whose names are listed.

   (3) The name of any person whose place of dwelling is more than twenty miles from the place fixed for the sittings of the Court shall not be entered upon the list, unless the number of persons who live within a distance of twenty miles from the place so fixed and who are qualified to serve as jurors is, in the opinion of the Sheriff, insufficient, having regard to the provisions of subsection (2).

11. For the purpose of compiling the list referred to in section 10, the Sheriff shall have access to the voters lists, assessment rolls and other public documents under the control of any officer of a municipality situated within, or partly within, a distance of twenty miles from the place fixed for the sittings, and the said officer shall furnish to the Sheriff upon request any available information as to the qualifications and suitability of persons for service as jurors.
Jury.

12. As soon as possible after the first day of November in each year, the Sheriff shall certify the lists prepared by him and shall forward them to the Clerk.

13. (1) If, after the lists hereinbefore referred to have been forwarded to the Clerk, a place other than one for which a list has been prepared is fixed for the sittings of the Court, or if for any other reason a judge considers it necessary, the judge may order the Sheriff to prepare, certify and return to him a supplementary list; the order shall state the time within which the return is to be made, and may contain such other directions as to the judge seems necessary.

(2) Upon receipt by the Sheriff of the order referred to in subsection (1) the Sheriff shall proceed according to the tenor thereof.

(3) Each supplementary list shall be substantially in accordance with Form A, and shall be marked “Supplementary List”.

Selection of Jury Panel.

14. (1) Upon receipt of notice that a jury will be required for a sittings of the Court, the Clerk shall, within a reasonable time before the day fixed for the commencement of the sittings, certify over his hand the number of jurors that, in his opinion, and having regard to the provisions of section 9, will be required for the sittings and shall forthwith forward the certificate to a judge and apply to him for an appointment to select the panel.

(2) Upon receipt of the application for an appointment the judge shall appoint a time and place for the selection of the panel, and if unable to attend at the time and place appointed he shall appoint some other person to act in his behalf.

(3) The Clerk shall notify the Sheriff in writing of the time and place fixed for the selection of the panel, at least twenty-four hours prior to the time so fixed.

(4) Prior to the time fixed for the selection of the panel, the Clerk shall write the name of each person named in the list or supplementary list returned to him by the Sheriff, together with the person’s address and occupation, upon a card or piece of paper, each of uniform size, and shall place each card or piece of paper in a separate envelope and seal it, each such envelope being of uniform size and shape and without markings of any kind.

(5) Where no civil proceeding is scheduled to be tried at the sittings the Clerk shall not, in complying with the requirements of subsection (4), include the name of any woman, notwithstanding that her name appears on the list or supplementary list.

(6) At the time appointed for the selection of the panel the judge or the person appointed to act in his behalf and the Sheriff shall attend at the place appointed, whereupon the Clerk shall cause all the envelopes containing the names of the persons named on the list to be placed in a suitable container and thoroughly mixed in the presence of the judge or his appointee and in the presence of the Sheriff, and the Sheriff shall draw from the container a number of envelopes corresponding to the number of jurors required, as certified by the Clerk; the envelopes so drawn shall be opened by the Sheriff and the names contained therein shall be placed on the panel list.

(7) If, at the time the panel is selected or at any time thereafter, the Clerk is of the opinion that the number of jurors so selected will not be sufficient, by reason of the selection of names of persons who are exempt from service as jurors or are entitled to be excused therefrom, he shall so certify, and shall further certify to the additional number that, in his opinion is necessary, and shall in accordance with the requirements of this section make a second drawing and add the names contained in the envelopes so drawn to the panel list.

(8) A third drawing or as many as are required may be made in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(9) Where the same person performs the duties of Sheriff and Clerk or where the Sheriff or Clerk is not available by reason of illness or other cause, the judge shall appoint a person employed in the office of the Sheriff or Clerk, or, if such person is not available, a magistrate or justice of the peace, to perform the duties of Sheriff or Clerk as the case may be.

(10) The judge or his appointee shall certify as to his attendance at the selection of the panel and as to the regularity of the proceedings thereat.

(11) All certificates required in accordance with this section shall be retained in the custody of the Clerk.

15. Upon completion of the panel list, the Clerk shall submit the same to the judge, who may remove from the list the names of any persons who, in his opinion, would suffer undue hardship or serious inconvenience were they to be called upon to serve as jurors, and immediately thereafter shall certify the list as revised by him and return the same to the Clerk, who shall forthwith issue to the Sheriff a precept, in Form B, requiring the Sheriff to summon the persons named on the panel list to attend the Court at the time and place fixed for the commencement of the sittings, and shall deliver the same to the Sheriff at least ten days prior to the time so fixed.

16. (1) Upon receipt of the precept referred to in section 15, the Sheriff shall summon each person named on the panel list by serving upon him or leaving with a responsible member of his household a written summons in Form C.

(2) When serving a summons upon any person the Sheriff shall ascertain or attempt to ascertain whether that person's service as a juror will inflict upon him undue hardship or serious inconvenience, and if in the opinion of the Sheriff such hardship or inconvenience is likely to result he shall report the same to the Clerk.

(3) The Sheriff is not guilty of a breach of duty by reason only that he fails to serve with a summons any person whose name appears on the panel list, if his failure to serve that person is due to a cause over which he has no control.

17. The Sheriff shall, on or before the commencement of the sittings of the Court, deliver to the Clerk the precept referred to in section 15, together with a return showing his action thereon and listing the names of persons requesting to be excused from service.

SELECTION OF JURORS FROM THE PANEL.

18. The Sheriff shall write the name, address and occupation of each person who has been summoned by him and who is not excused from serving as a juror on a separate card or piece of paper, each of which shall be of uniform size, and shall place the cards in a suitable container and deliver it to the Clerk.

19. (1) Immediately prior to the commencement of each trial for which a jury is required, the Clerk shall, in open court, cause the container to be shaken and the cards or pieces of paper therein thoroughly mixed, and shall then draw out the cards or pieces of paper one at a time, shaking the container after each drawing, and shall continue to draw out such cards or pieces of paper so long as it is necessary to do so in order to obtain a complete jury.

(2) If, in selecting the jurors for the trial of any criminal proceeding, a card bearing the name of a woman is drawn, the card shall be returned to the container.

(3) The cards selected bearing the names of persons subsequently sworn as jurors shall be kept apart until the verdict is given or the jury is dismissed or discharged and shall then be returned to the container, unless no other action or proceeding remains to be tried by a jury at the sittings of the Court.

CHALLENGE IN CIVIL MATTERS.

20. (1) A party to a civil action may, at any time before a person whose name has been selected pursuant to section 19 is sworn, challenge that person for cause.

(2) Where a challenge is exercised pursuant to subsection (1), the judge may, in his discretion, allow the challenge or direct that the person so challenged be sworn.

(3) Each side prosecuting or defending an action may exercise not more than three peremptory challenges which, when exercised, may not be withdrawn.
Chap. 61.

Jury.

SWEARING OF JURORS.

21. Where a person whose name is selected pursuant to section 19 is not challenged or is challenged but the challenge is disallowed, as the case may be, the Clerk shall swear that person and when sworn that person shall be a juror for the trial of the action.

GENERAL.

22. The judge may for a good cause excuse from service as a juror any person who has been summoned but has not been sworn.

Tales de circum­stantibus.

23. Where at the trial of any action the number of jurors in attendance is less than the number required, or if so reduced for any reason that a full jury cannot be sworn, the judge may, upon application by any party to the action, direct the Sheriff to summon such other qualified persons as are needed and can be found and to add their names to the panel.

24. If at any time during the sittings of the Court it appears to the judge that the services of any person as a juror will not be needed, he may order that person to be discharged.

INSPECTION BY JURY.

25. Where, during the trial of an action before a jury, it appears to the judge that a view by the jury of any place or any real or personal property in question is necessary or desirable in order that the jury may better understand the evidence, the judge may, at any time before a verdict is returned, order such view by the jury, on such terms as to costs as to him seems just, and the order so made shall contain directions to the Sheriff as to the manner in which and the persons by whom the place or property in question shall be shown to the jury, and shall contain any other direction to the Sheriff that the judge sees fit to make.

VERDICT.

26. (1) The jury for the trial of an action shall consist of six persons, any five of whom may return a verdict or answer questions submitted to them by the judge.

(2) Where more than one question is submitted to the jury in any action, it is not necessary for the same five jurors to agree upon each answer.

27. Subject to subsection (1) of section 7 of the Defamation Ordinance, in the absence of any direction by the judge the jury may return a general or special verdict, but shall return a special verdict if the judge so directs and shall not return a general verdict if the judge directs them not to do so; the judge may direct the jury to answer any questions of fact submitted by him, in which case the jury shall answer any such questions and the answers thereto shall constitute a special verdict.

28. Subject to section 20, failure to observe any direction in this Ordinance respecting the qualification, exception or excusal of jurors, the compilation and preparations of lists for the purpose of this Ordinance, the form of such lists or any other requirements with respect thereto, the summoning of jurors or the selection or formation of the panel is not a ground for impeaching the verdict or answers given by a jury in any action.

ATTENDANCE OF JURORS.

29. If during the trial of an action a member of the jury becomes ill, the judge may, in his discretion, direct that the trial shall proceed without him and the verdict of the remaining five jurors, if unanimous, shall be valid.

30. (1) No jury shall be kept without meat, drink or other reasonable comfort while it is considering its verdict.

(2) Where, during the trial of an action, the judge directs that the jury shall not be allowed to separate, the sheriff shall provide such food and lodgings as he considers proper, the cost thereof as certified by him to be included as part of the costs of the jury.

31. Where a person who is summoned to appear for service as a juror fails to obey the summons or fails to answer to his or her name when called by the Clerk, the judge may impose a fine not less than twenty-five dollars and not exceeding two hundred dollars.

32. Every person shall, in respect of the trial of any action or proceeding in which he serves or has served as a juror, well and truly keep secret the Queen's counsel, his own and that of his fellow jurors, and any juror who divulges any such secret is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months, or to both fine and imprisonment.

REGULATIONS.

33. The Commissioner may make regulations respecting the fees and allowances payable to jurors, and in the absence of such regulations the fees and allowances payable are those specified in the Rules of Court.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this section, with the consent of representatives elected by employees who work in shifts in mining operations, an employer engaged in mining operations may, in order to facilitate the arrangement or rotation of shifts, require or permit any such employees to work or to be at his disposal for more than eight hours in any day or forty-eight hours in any week without paying such employee at the rate provided by subsection (3) unless the average number of hours worked by any such employee over a period of four weeks exceeds eight hours per day or forty-eight hours per week.

CHAPTER 63.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING LANDLORDS AND TENANTS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Landlord and Tenant Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) "crops" means the products of the soil, and includes all sorts of grain, grass, hay, hops, fruits, vegetables and other products of the soil;
   (b) "land" includes land of any tenure, and mines and minerals, whether or not held apart from the surface, buildings or parts of buildings, whether the division is horizontal, vertical or made in any other way, also a rent charged upon or payable in respect of any land, and an easement, right, privilege or benefit in, over or derived from land, but not an undivided share in land;
   (c) "landlord" includes every lessor, owner or person giving or permitting the occupation of land and their respective successors in title; and
   (d) "mines and minerals" include any strata or seam of minerals or substances in or under any land and powers of working and getting the same, but not an undivided share thereof.

PART I.

COVENANTS AND CONDITIONS.

COVENANTS RUNNING WITH THE LAND AND THE REVERSION.

3. (1) Rent reserved by a lease, and the benefit of every covenant or provision therein contained, relating to the leased premises and on the tenant's part to be observed or performed, and every condition of re-entry and other condition therein contained, is annexed and incident to and goes with the reversionary estate in the land, or in any part thereof, immediately expec-tant on the term granted by the lease, notwithstanding severence of that reversionary estate.

   (2) Any rent, covenant or provision is capable of being recovered, received, enforced and taken advantage of, by the person from time to time entitled, subject to the term, to the income of the whole or any part, as the case may require, of the land leased.
(3) Where a person becomes entitled by conveyance or otherwise, he may recover, receive, enforce or take advantage of the rent, covenant or provision notwithstanding that he becomes so entitled after the condition of re-entry or forfeiture has become enforceable, but this subsection does not render enforceable any condition of re-entry or other condition waived or released before a person becomes so entitled.

(4) This section applies to leases made before or after the 20th day of November, 1954, but does not affect the operation of

(a) any severance of the reversionary estate, or
(b) any acquisition by conveyance or otherwise of the right to receive or enforce any rent, covenant or provision effected before the 20th day of November, 1954.

4. (1) The obligation under a condition or of a covenant entered into by a landlord relating to his leased premises shall, if and as far as the landlord had power to bind the reversionary estate immediately expectant on the term granted by the lease, be annexed and incident to and shall go with that reversionary estate, or the several parts thereof, notwithstanding severance of that reversionary estate, and may be taken advantage of and enforced by the person in whom the term is for the time being vested by conveyance, devolution in law or otherwise; and, if and as far as the landlord has power to bind the person from time to time entitled to that reversionary estate, the obligation may be taken advantage of and enforced against any person so entitled.

(2) This section applies to leases made before or after the 20th day of November 1954, whether the severance of the reversionary estate was effected before or after such date.

(3) This section takes effect without prejudice to any liability affecting a covenantor or his estate.

APPORTIONMENT OF CONDITION OF RE-ENTRY.

5. Notwithstanding the severance by conveyance, surrender or otherwise, of the reversionary estate in any land comprised in a lease, and notwithstanding the avoidance or cesser in any other manner of the term granted by a lease as to part only of the land comprised therein, every condition or right of re-entry, and every other condition contained in the lease, shall be apportioned, and shall remain annexed to the severed parts of the reversionary estate as severed, and shall be in force with respect to the term whereon each severed part is reversionary, or the term in any land which has not been surrendered or as to which the term has not been avoided or has not otherwise ceased, in like manner as if the land comprised in each severed part, or the land as to which the term remains subsisting, as the case may be, had alone originally been comprised in the lease.
6. Where a reversion expectant on a lease of land is surrendered or merged the estate or interest which, as against the tenant for the time being, confers the next vested right to the land shall be deemed the reversion for the purpose of preserving the same incidents and obligations as would have affected the original reversion if there had been no surrender or merger thereof.

7. (1) Subject to the express terms of any lease, or of any valid and subsisting covenant, agreement or stipulation affecting the tenancy,

(a) every tenant for years and every tenant for life is liable to his landlord and to every other person for the time being having a reversionary interest in the leased premises for voluntary waste and for permissive waste in respect of the premises to the extent by which the interest of the landlord and other persons, if any, having a reversionary interest in the premises is detrimentally affected thereby; and

(b) every tenant at will is liable to his landlord and every other person having a reversionary interest in the leased premises for voluntary waste in respect of the premises to the extent by which the interest of the landlord and other persons, if any, having a reversionary interest in the premises is detrimentally affected thereby.

(2) Every landlord and every person having a reversionary interest in any leased premises may in respect of any waste by a tenant in respect of the premises in an action brought in any court obtain damages or an injunction, or both.

8. (1) Where in the intended exercise of any power of leasing whether conferred by a statute, Ordinance or by any other instrument, a lease is granted, which by reason of any failure to comply with the terms of the power is invalid, the lease, if it was made in good faith and the lessee has entered thereunder, shall

(a) as against the person entitled after the determination of the interest of the grantor to the reversion, or

(b) as against any other person, who, subject to any lease properly granted under the power, would have been entitled to the land comprised in the lease, take effect as a contract for the grant, at the request of the lessee, of a valid lease under the power, of like effect as the invalid lease, subject to such variations as may be necessary in order to comply with the terms of the powers; but a lessee under an invalid lease is not, by virtue of any such implied contract, entitled to obtain a variation of the lease if the other persons who would have been bound by the contract are willing and able to confirm the lease without variation.
(2) Where a lease granted in the intended exercise of a power of leasing conferred by a statute, Ordinance or other instrument is invalid by reason of the grantor not having power to grant the lease at the date thereof, but the grantor's interest in the land comprised therein continues after the time when he might, in the exercise of the power, have properly granted a lease in the like terms, the lease takes effect as a valid lease in like manner as if it had been granted at that date.

(3) Where during the continuance of the possession taken under an invalid lease the person for the time being entitled subject to such possession, to the land comprised therein or to the rents and profits thereof, is able to confirm the lease without variation, the lessee, or other person who would have been bound by the lease had it been valid, is, at the request of the person so able to confirm the lease, bound to accept a confirmation thereof, and thereupon the lease has effect and is deemed to have had effect as a valid lease from the grant thereof.

(4) Confirmation under subsection (3) may be by a memorandum in writing signed by or on behalf of the persons respectively confirming and accepting the confirmation of the lease.

(5) Where a receipt or a memorandum in writing confirming the invalid lease is, upon or before the acceptance of rent thereunder, signed by or on behalf of the person accepting the rent, that acceptance is, as against that person, deemed to be a confirmation of the lease.

(6) This section does not affect prejudicially any right of action or other right or remedy to which, but for this section, the lessee named in an invalid lease would or might have been entitled under any covenant on the part of the grantor for title or quiet enjoyment contained therein or implied thereby; or

(b) any right of re-entry or other right or remedy to which, but for this section, the grantor or other person for the time being entitled to the reversion expectant on the termination of the lease, would or might have been entitled by reason of any breach of the covenants, conditions or provisions contained in the lease and binding on the lessee.

(7) Where a valid power of leasing is vested in or may be exercised by a person who grants a lease that, by reason of the determination of the interest of the grantor or otherwise cannot have effect and continuance according to the terms thereof independently of the power, the lease shall for the purposes of this section be deemed to have been granted in the intended exercise of the power although the power is not referred to in the lease.

(8) This section takes effect without prejudice to the provision of this Ordinance for the grant of leases in the name and on behalf of the estate owner of the land affected.
9. In every lease, unless a different intention appears therein, there shall be implied powers in the lessor

(a) that, by himself or his agents, he may enter upon the demised land and view the state of repair thereof, and may serve upon the lessee, or leave at his last or usual place of abode, or upon the demised land, a notice in writing of any defect, requiring him within a reasonable time, to be therein mentioned, to repair the same, in so far as the tenant is bound so to do; and

(b) that in case the rent or any part thereof is in arrears for the space of two calendar months, or in case default is made in the fulfilment of any covenant in such lease on the part of the lessee, whether express or implied, and is continued for the space of two calendar months, or in case the repairs required by such notice as aforesaid are not completed within the time therein specified, the lessor may enter upon and take possession of the demised land.

10. In every lease whenever made there is implied an agreement that if the tenant or any other person is convicted of keeping a common bawdy house, within the meaning of the Criminal Code, on the demised premises, or any part thereof, the landlord may at any time thereafter, into the demised premises, or any part thereof, re-enter and the same have again, re-possess and enjoy as of his former estate.

11. (1) Where a licence is granted to a tenant to do any act, the licence, unless otherwise expressed, extends only

(a) to the permission actually given,

(b) to the specific breach of any provision or covenant referred to, or

(c) to any other matter specifically authorized to be done, and the licence does not prevent any proceeding for any subsequent breach unless otherwise specified in the licence.

(2) Notwithstanding any licence,

(a) all rights under covenants and powers of re-entry contained in the lease remain in full force and are available as against any subsequent breach of covenant, condition or other matter not specifically authorized or waived, in the same manner as if no licence had been granted; and

(b) the condition or right of entry remains in force in all respects as if the licence had not been granted, save in respect of the particular matter authorized to be done.

(3) Where in any lease there is power or condition of re-entry on the tenant assigning, subletting or doing any other specified act without a licence, and a licence is granted
(a) to any one of two or more tenants to do any act, or to deal with his equitable share or interest, or

(b) to any tenant, or to any one of two or more tenants to assign or underlet part only of the property, or to do any act in respect of part only of the property, the licence does not operate to extinguish the right of entry in case of any breach of covenant or condition by the co-lessees of the other shares or interests in the property, or by the tenant or tenants of the rest of the property, as the case may be, in respect of such shares or interest or remaining property, but the right of entry remains in force in respect of the shares, interests or property not subject to the licence.

(4) Subsection (3) does not authorize the grant after the 20th day of November, 1954, of a licence to create an undivided share in a legal estate.

LICENCES TO ASSIGN, SUBLET, ETC.

12. (1) In every lease containing a covenant, condition or agreement against assigning, subletting or parting with the possession, or disposing of the land leased without licence or consent, such covenant, condition or agreement shall, unless the lease contains an express provision to the contrary, be deemed to be subject

(a) to a proviso to the effect that such licence or consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and

(b) to a proviso to the effect that no fine or sum of money in the nature of a fine shall be payable for or in respect of such licence or consent, but this proviso does not preclude the right to require the payment of a reasonable sum in respect of any legal or other expense incurred in relation to such licence or consent.

(2) Where the landlord refuses or neglects to give a licence or consent to assign or sublet, a judge, upon the application of the tenant or assignee or subtenant, may make an order determining whether or not such licence or consent is unreasonably withheld, and where it is so withheld, permitting the assignment or sublease to be made, and such order shall be the equivalent of the licence or consent of the landlord within the meaning of any covenant or condition requiring the same, and such assignment or sublease shall not be a breach thereof.

NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS.

13. A tenant to whom there is delivered any process of any court for the recovery of premises demised to or held by him, or to whose knowledge any such process comes, shall forthwith give notice thereof to his landlord or his agent, and if he fails so to do, he shall be answerable for all damages sustained by the landlord by reason of the failure to give the notice.
14. Where a landlord is proceeding by action to enforce a right of re-entry or forfeiture under any covenant, proviso or stipulation in a lease, every person claiming any right, title or interest in the demised premises under the lease, if it be known to the landlord that he claims such right or interest or if the instrument under which he claims is registered in the Land Titles Office shall be made a party to the action.

15. Where the actual waiver by a lessor or the persons deriving title under him of the benefit of any covenant or condition in any lease is proved to have taken place in any particular instance, such waiver shall not, unless a contrary intention appears, be deemed to extend to any instance, or to any breach of covenant or condition save that to which such waiver specially relates, nor operate as a general waiver of the benefit of any such covenant or condition.

IMPLIED COVENANTS.

16. In every lease, unless a contrary intention appears therein, there shall be implied covenants by the lessee

(a) that he will pay the rent thereby reserved at the times therein mentioned, and all rates and taxes which may be payable in respect of the demised land during the continuance of the lease;

(b) that he will, at all times during the continuance of the lease, keep and, at the termination thereof, yield up the demised land in good and tenantable repair, accidents and damage to buildings from fire, storm and tempest or other casualty and reasonable wear and tear excepted.

NOTICE TO TERMINATE TENANCIES.

17. (1) Subject to any express agreement to the contrary, sufficient notice to quit shall be deemed to have been given where there is given,

(a) in the case of a weekly tenancy, a week's notice ending with the week;

(b) in the case of a monthly tenancy, a month's notice ending with the month; and

(c) in the case of a tenancy from year to year, three months' notice ending, in the case of a tenancy originally from year to year, with an anniversary of the last day of the first year thereof, and in the case of all other tenancies from year to year, with an anniversary of the last day of the original tenancy.

(2) Where a tenant, upon the determination of his lease, whether created by writing or by parol, remains in possession with the consent, express or implied, of the landlord, he is deemed to be holding subject to the terms of the lease, so far as they are applicable.
(3) Where the tenancy created by the lease was neither a weekly nor monthly tenancy nor a tenancy from year to year, the overholding tenant is deemed to be holding as a tenant from year to year.

18. Where any rent is payable or reserved by virtue of any deed, transfer or other assurance, or by will, and there exists no express right of distress for the recovery thereof, the person entitled to receive the rent has the same right of distress for the recovery thereof as if the same were rent reserved upon lease.

DISTRESS FOR RENT.

19. Upon the determination of any lease the person entitled as landlord to receive any rent made payable thereby may at any time

(a) within six months next after the determination of the lease,
(b) within such six months during the continuance of the landlord's interest, and
(c) within such six months during the possession of the tenant from whom the rent became due, distrain for any rent due and in arrears in the same manner as he might have done if the lease were not determined.

20. A person entitled to any rent or land for the life of another may recover by action or distress the rent due and owing at the time of the death of the person for whose life such rent or land depended as he might have done if the person by whose death the estate in such rent or land determined had continued in life.

21. (1) No person shall take under distress more goods than are reasonably sufficient to satisfy the rent in arrear and the costs of the distress.

(2) Where chattels are distrained for rent due, the person making the distress is not liable to any action for excessive of chattels. When rent is distrained for, the person making the distress is not liable to any action for excessive of chattels. He abandons the excess and thereafter holds under the distress no more chattels than are reasonably necessary to satisfy the rent due with the costs of the distress.

22. No distress for rent shall be made at any time in the Time interval between five o'clock in the afternoon and eight o'clock in the following morning.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO DISTRESS.

23. Subject to this Ordinance, goods or chattels that are not at the time of the distress upon the premises in respect of which the rent distrained for is due shall not be distrained for rent.
Landlord and Tenant.

Exemptions.

24. The following goods and chattels are not liable to seizure by a distress by a landlord for rent, namely:

(a) the beds, bedding and bedsteads, including perambulators or cradles, in ordinary use by the debtor and his family;

(b) the necessary and ordinary wearing apparel of the debtor and his family;

(c) one cooking stove with pipes and furnishings, one other heating stove with pipes, two towels, one wash-basin, one kitchen table, one tea kettle, one teapot, one saucepan, one frying pan and for each member of the family the following, namely: one chair, one cup and saucer, one plate, one knife, one fork and one spoon;

(d) all necessary fuel, meat, fish, flour and vegetables for the ordinary consumption of the debtor and his family for thirty days;

(e) the tools, agricultural implements and necessaries used by the debtor in the practice of his trade, profession or occupation to the value of six hundred dollars; and

(f) one axe and one saw.

25. The landlord may take under a distress for rent any horses, cattle, sheep, swine, poultry, fowl, livestock and other domestic animals which are grazing, pasturing or feeding upon any highway or road allowance or upon any way belonging or appertaining to the premises in respect of which the rent distrained for is payable.

26. Where a tenant of land under any kind of tenancy under which rent is payable, fraudulently or clandestinely removes or causes to be removed from the land so held by him at a time when there are any arrears of rent payable in respect thereof that are recoverable by distress any goods or chattels liable to such distress with intent to prevent the landlord from distraining the same for arrears of rent so payable, the landlord or any person by him duly authorized may, within thirty days next after such removal, take and seize as a distress for such arrears any goods and chattels so removed, wherever the same are found, except any such goods and chattels which have been sold or mortgaged for valuable consideration before the seizure to a person not having notice of the fraudulent or clandestine removal, and may sell or otherwise dispose of the goods and chattels so taken in such manner as if the same had actually been distrained by the landlord for arrears of rent upon the premises from which the same had been so removed.

27. (1) Every person lawfully charged with the duty of executing a warrant of distress for rent who has reason to believe that any goods or chattels have been fraudulently or clandestinely removed for the purpose of preventing the landlord from distraining the same, and that the said goods are in any building, yard, enclosure or place in such circumstances as to prevent them from being taken or seized as a distress for arrears of rent, may at any time between eight o'clock in the morning and five o'clock in the afternoon enter into and upon the building, yard, enclosure or place and every part thereof for the purpose of searching for any goods and chattels so removed and seize any such goods and chattels there found for arrears of rent as he might have done if they were in an open field or place upon the premises from which they were removed, and for that purpose may obtain entry upon and access to the premises by breaking or removing any doors or any locks or other fastenings whereby such entry and access is hindered.

(2) Where a person encounters any resistance in doing any of the acts and things that he is authorized to do by subsection (1), he may call upon any peace officer to assist him in overcoming that resistance, and such person in the presence of a peace officer and the peace officer may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of overcoming that resistance.

28. Every tenant who fraudulently or clandestinely removes any goods and chattels for the purpose of preventing the landlord from distraining the same for arrears of rent, and every person who wilfully and knowingly aids or assists him in so doing or in concealing any goods or chattels so removed, is liable to the landlord for double value of the said goods, which amount is recoverable by action in any court.

29. No goods and chattels may be taken under a distress for rent excepting the goods and chattels of the tenant and (a) goods and chattels that are claimed by a person other than the tenant
   (i) by virtue of any execution against the tenant,
   (ii) by virtue of any purchase, gift, transfer or assignment from the tenant whether absolute or in trust or by way of mortgage or otherwise, and
   (iii) being the wife, husband, daughter, son, daughter-in-law or son-in-law of the tenant or by any other relative of the tenant who lives upon the premises in respect of which the rent distrained for is payable as a member of the household of the tenant;
(b) the interest of the tenant in any goods and chattels under a contract for the purchase thereof or under a contract whereby the tenant may become the owner thereof upon the performance of any condition; and
(c) goods and chattels that have been exchanged between the tenant and another person, or that have been borrowed by the one from the other, for the purpose of defeating the claim of or the right of distress by the landlord.
IMPOUNDING, APPRAISEMENT AND SALE.

30. (1) Any goods or chattels taken in distress for rent may be impounded or otherwise secured either upon the premises chargeable with the rent or some part thereof, or in some other suitable and convenient place situate within ten miles of the premises chargeable with the rent and the same may be appraised, sold and disposed of upon the premises in which they are so impounded or secured.

(2) Any person may come and go, to and from the place at which any distress for rent is so impounded and secured, to view, appraise and buy and to carry off or remove the same on account of the purchaser thereof.

31. (1) Where any goods or chattels are distrained for rent and the tenant does not replevy the same within five days next after notice in writing of the distress, setting out the cause of the taking, has been posted upon a conspicuous place on the premises in respect of which the rent is payable and, where the distress is impounded elsewhere, at the place of impoundment, then after the expiration of the said five days, the person distraining shall cause the goods and chattels so distrained to be appraised by two appraisers.

(2) Before making any appraisement the appraisers shall each be sworn to appraise the goods taken in distress truly, according to the best of their understanding, and a memorandum of the said oath shall be endorsed on the inventory.

32. After the appraisement has been made the person distraining may sell the goods and chattels distrained for the best price that can be got for the same towards satisfaction of the rent for which the same were distrained and of the costs of such distress, appraisement and sale, and shall hold the overplus, if any, for use of the person lawfully entitled thereto and pay the same over to him on demand.

SET-OFF AGAINST RENT.

33. (1) A tenant may set-off against rent a debt due to him by the landlord, in which case he shall give notice in writing of the claim of set-off in Form A, which notice may be given before or after seizure.

(2) Upon the giving of a notice under subsection (1) the landlord may distrain or proceed with the distress, as the case may be, for the balance of the rent due after deducting the amount of the debt mentioned in the notice that is due and owing by the landlord to the tenant.

(3) The notice mentioned in subsection (1) may be served either personally upon the landlord or upon any other person authorized to receive rent on his behalf or by leaving it with a grown-up person in and apparently residing on the premises occupied by the landlord.

(4) No notice given under this section is rendered invalid for any want of form.
DISTAINABLE GOODS TAKEN IN EXECUTION.

34. (1) Goods or chattels lying or being in or upon any land or premises leased for life or lives, or term of years, at will or otherwise are not liable to be taken by virtue of any execution on any pretence whatsoever, unless the party at whose suit the execution is sued out before the removal of such goods or chattels from the land or premises by virtue of such execution pays to the landlord or his bailiff all money due for rent of the land or premises at the time of the taking of such goods or chattels by virtue of such execution if the arrears of rent do not amount to more than one year's rent.

(2) Where arrears of rent exceed one year's rent the party at whose suit such execution is sued out, on paying the landlord or his bailiff one year's rent, may proceed to execute his judgment.

(3) The sheriff or other officer shall levy and pay to the execution creditor as well the money paid for rent under sub-section (2) as the execution money.

35. Where a distress is made for any kind of rent due, and any irregularity is afterwards done by the person distraining, or by his agent, or if there has been an omission to make the appraisement under oath, the distress itself is not on that account deemed to be unlawful, nor is the person making it on that account deemed a trespasser ab initio, but the person aggrieved by such irregularity may recover by action full satisfaction for the special damage sustained thereby.

36. (1) Subject to section 21, a distrainor who makes an excessive distress, or makes a distress wrongfully, is liable in damages to the owner of the goods or chattels distrained.

(2) Where a distress and sale are made for rent pretended to be in arrears and due when, in truth, no rent is in arrears or due to the person distraining, or to the person in whose name or right such distress is made, the owner of the goods or chattels distrained and sold, his executors or administrators may, by action to be brought against the person so distraining, recover full satisfaction for the damage sustained by the distress and sale.

RIGHTS OF LANDLORD ON TENANT'S BANKRUPTCY.

37. (1) Where an assignment for the general benefit of creditors, or where an order for the winding-up of an incorporated company, or where a receiving order in bankruptcy or authorized assignment is made against or by a tenant, the right of the landlord to distrain or realize his rent by distress ceases from and after the date of the assignment or order and the assignee, trustee or liquidator may take immediate possession of the property of the tenant; but in the distribution of the property of the tenant the assignee, trustee or liquidator shall pay to the landlord, in priority to all other debts, an amount not exceeding the value of the distrainable assets and restricted to the arrears of rent due during the period of three months next preceding and the costs of distress, if any, and the rent for the three months following the date of the assignment or order, and from thence so long as the assignee, trustee or liquidator retains possession of the premises, but any payment to be made to the landlord in respect of accelerated rent shall be credited against the amount payable by the assignee, trustee or liquidator for the period of his occupation.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision, stipulation or agreement in any lease or agreement or the legal effect thereof, where an assignment for the general benefit of creditors, or where an order for the winding-up of an incorporated company, or where a receiving order in bankruptcy or authorized assignment has been made against or by a tenant, the assignee, trustee or liquidator may at any time within three months after the date of the assignment or order for the purposes of the trust estate and before he has given notice of intention to surrender possession or disclaim, by notice in writing elect to retain the leased premises for the whole or any portion of the unexpired term and any renewal thereof, upon the terms of the lease and subject to the payment of the rent as provided by such lease or agreement, and he may upon payment to the landlord of all arrears of rent, assign the lease with rights of renewal, if any, to any person who will covenant to observe and perform its terms and agree to conduct upon the demised premises a trade or business that is not reasonably of a more objectionable or hazardous nature than that which was thereon conducted by the debtor, and who shall on application of the assignee, trustee or liquidator be approved by a judge as a person fit and proper to be put in possession of the leased premises.

38. (1) The assignee, trustee or liquidator shall have the right at any time before electing by notice in writing to the landlord under section 37 to surrender possession or disclaim any such lease, and his entry into possession of the leased premises and their occupation by him, while required for the purpose of the trust estate, shall be deemed not to be evidence of an intention on his part to elect to retain possession pursuant to this section.

(2) Where the assignor or person against whom a receiving order in bankruptcy or a winding-up order has been made, being a lessee, has, before the making of the assignment or order demised by way of under-lease, approved or consented to in writing by the landlord, any premises and the assignee, trustee or liquidator surrenders, disclaims or elects to assign the lease the under-lessee shall, if he so elects in writing within three months of the assignment or order stand in the same position with the landlord as though he were a direct lessee from the landlord but subject, except as to rental payable, to the same liabilities and obligations as the assignor, bankrupt or insolvent was subject to under the lease at the date of the assignment or order, but the under-lessee shall in such event covenant to pay to the landlord a rental not less than that payable by the under-lessee to the debtor, and if such last mentioned rental was greater than that payable by the debtor to the landlord the under-lessee shall covenant to pay to the landlord the like greater rental.

(3) Any dispute arising under this section shall be disposed of upon summary application by a judge.

ATTORNMENT.

39. (1) An attornment of a tenant of any land to a stranger claiming title to the estate of his landlord is null and void, and the possession of his landlord is deemed not to be changed, altered or affected by the attornment, but nothing in this section vacates or affects an attornment made
(a) pursuant to and in consequence of a judgment or order of a judge; or
(b) with the privity and consent of the landlord.
(2) Nothing in this section shall alter, prejudice or affect any rights that vendor, mortgagee or incumbrance on the 20th day of November, 1954, has under any law or Ordinance.

40. (1) A grant or conveyance of any rent or of the reversion or remainder of any land is good and effectual without any attornment of the tenant of the land out of which such rent issues, or of the particular tenant upon whose particular estate any such reversion or remainder is expectant or depending.
(2) A tenant is not prejudiced or damaged by the payment of rent to any grantor or by breach of any condition for non-payment of rent before notice to him of such grant by the grantee.

RENEWAL OF LEASES.

41. (1) Where a lease is duly surrendered in order to be renewed, and a new lease is made and executed by the chief landlord, the new lease is, without a surrender of all or any of the under-leases, as good and valid as if all the under-leases derived thereout had been likewise surrendered at or before the time of taking of the new lease.
(2) A person in whom any estate for life or lives, or for years, is from time to time vested by virtue of a new lease, is entitled to the rents, covenants and duties, and has like remedy for recovery thereof, and the under-lessees shall hold and enjoy the land in the respective under-leases comprised as if the original lease had been kept on foot and continued, and the chief landlord has and is entitled to the same remedy by distress or entry in and upon the land comprised in any under-lease for the rents and duties reserved by the new lease, so far as the same do not exceed the rents and duties reserved in the lease out of which such sub-lease was derived, as he would have had if the respective under-leases had been renewed under the new principal lease.
42. (1) Where a person who, in pursuance of any covenant or agreement in writing, if within the Territory and amenable to legal process, might be compelled to execute any lease by way of renewal, is not within the Territory or is not amenable to legal process, a judge upon the application of any person entitled to such renewal, whether such person is or is not under any disability, may direct such person as he thinks proper to appoint for that purpose to accept a surrender of the subsisting lease, and to make and execute a new lease in the name of the person who ought to have renewed the same.

(2) A new lease executed by the person appointed under subsection (1) is as valid as if the person in whose name the lease was made was alive and not under any disability and had himself executed it.

(3) A judge may direct an action to be brought to establish the right of the person seeking renewal under this section, but he may not make the order for such new leases unless by the judgment to be made in such action, or until after it has been entered.

(4) A renewed lease shall not be executed by virtue of this section in pursuance of any covenant or agreement, unless the sum of money, if any, that ought to be paid on such renewal and the things, if any, that ought to be performed in pursuance of such covenant or agreement by the tenant are first paid and performed, and counterparts of every such renewed lease shall be duly executed by the tenant.

(5) All sums of money that are had, received or paid for or on account of, the renewal of any lease by any person out of the Territory or not amenable to legal process after a deduction of all necessary incidental charges and expenses, shall be paid to such person or in such manner or into Court to such account and be applied and disposed of as a judge directs.

(6) The judge may order the costs and expenses of and relating to the application, orders, directions, conveyances and transfers, or any of them, to be paid and raised out of or from the land, or the rents in respect of which the same are respectively made, in such manner as he deems proper.

PART II.

44. Where a tenant gives notice of his intention to quit the premises by him holden at a time mentioned in the notice, and does not then deliver up the possession of the premises the tenant shall from thenceforward pay to the landlord double the rent or sum that he should otherwise have paid, to be levied, sued for and recovered at the same times and in the same manner as the single rent or sum before the giving of such notice could be levied, sued for or recovered, and such double rent or sum shall continue to be while such tenant continues in possession.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST OVERHOLDING TENANTS.

45. In sections 45 to 51, “tenant” includes every lessee, occupant, subtenant and their assigns and legal representatives.

46. (1) When a tenant, upon the determination of his lease or right of occupation, whether created by writing or by parol, wrongfully refuses or neglects upon demand made in writing to go out of possession of the land demised to him or which he has been permitted to occupy, the landlord may apply, upon affidavit, to a judge, to make the inquiry provided for in sections 45 to 52.

(2) The landlord shall
(a) set forth on an affidavit the terms of the demise or right of occupation, if verbal;
(b) annex a copy of the instrument creating or containing the lease or right of occupation, if in writing, or if for any cause a copy cannot be so annexed, make a statement setting forth the terms of the demise or occupation and the reason why such copy cannot be annexed;
(c) annex a copy of the demand;
(d) state the refusal of the tenant to go out of possession, and the reasons given for such refusal, if any were given; and
(e) add such explanation in regard to the ground of such refusal as the truth of the case may require.

(3) The judge shall, in writing, appoint a time and place at which he will inquire and determine whether the tenant holds possession against the right of the landlord, and whether the tenant, having no right to continue in possession, wrongfully refuses to go out of possession.

(4) A copy of the appointment of the judge and of the affidavit on which it was obtained, and copies of the documents to be used upon the application other than of the instrument creating or containing the lease or right of occupation, shall be served upon the tenant or left at his place of abode at least three days before the day appointed, if the place appointed is not more than twenty miles from the tenant's place of abode, and one day in addition to every twenty miles above the first twenty, reckoning any broken number above the first twenty as twenty miles.

47. The judge may, upon an application being made to him under section 46, or at any time thereafter pending the proceedings, having regard to the convenience of the parties, the costs of the proceedings and other considerations, and subject to such conditions as may to him seem just, direct that the case stand over to be heard and disposed of.

48. Except as otherwise varied by this Part, the provisions of the Judicature Ordinance apply to applications made and proceedings had under this Part.

49. The proceedings under this Part shall be styled: “In the matter of , landlord, against , tenant”.

50. (1) Where, at the time and place appointed the tenant fails to appear, the judge, where it appears to him that the tenant wrongfully holds against the right of the landlord, may order a writ of possession in Form B, directed to the sheriff, commanding him forthwith to place the landlord in possession of the land.

(2) Where the tenant appears the judge shall, in a summary manner, hear the parties and their witnesses and examine into the matter and may take evidence orally or by affidavit as he thinks fit, and if it appears to the judge that the tenant wrongfully holds against the right of the landlord he may order the issue of a writ of possession in Form B in the Schedule.

(3) Upon an application under section 46 the judge may by order award costs according to the tariff of costs from time to time in force under the Judicature Ordinance, or may order payment of a lump sum by way of costs.

(4) An order for the payment of costs by the judge may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court and shall thereupon become a judgment of the Court.

(5) No order under subsection (4) shall be made if it appears to the judge that, in the circumstances of the case, the right to possession should not be determined by proceedings under this Part and in such case the taking of proceedings under this Part does not affect or detract from any other remedy which a landlord may have against his tenant.
Landlord and Tenant.

51. The judge has the same power to amend or excuse irregularities in the proceedings as he has in an action.

52. The decision of the judge respecting the order granting or refusing a writ of possession is final.

53. Nothing in this Part shall require a landlord to proceed under this Part instead of by bringing an action.

PART III.
SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS FOR NON-PAYMENT OF RENT.

54. (1) Where a tenant fails to pay his rent within seven days of the time agreed on, and wrongfully refuses or neglects upon demand made in writing, to pay the rent or deliver up the premises demised, which demand shall be served upon the tenant or upon some grown-up person upon the premises, or if the premises be vacant, be affixed to the dwelling or other building or otherwise posted up upon the premises, the landlord or his agent may file with the Clerk of the Court an affidavit setting forth the terms of the lease or occupancy, the amount of rent in arrears and the time for which it is so in arrears, producing the demand made for the payment or rent or delivery of the possession and stating the refusal of the tenant to pay the rent or to deliver up possession, and the answer of said tenant, if any answer were made, and that the tenant has no right of set-off or reason for withholding possession.

(2) Upon filing the documents mentioned in subsection (1) the Clerk shall cause to be issued a summons in Form C, calling upon the tenant, three days after service, to show cause why an order should not be made for delivering up possession of the premises to the landlord, and the summons shall be served in the same manner as the demand.

(3) Upon the return of the summons mentioned in subsection (2) a judge shall hear the evidence adduced upon oath, either orally or by affidavit as he may deem proper, and make such order, either to confirm the tenant in possession or to deliver up possession to the landlord, as the facts of the case may warrant, and such order for delivery of possession may be in Form D.

(4) Where the order mentioned in subsection (3) recites that the tenant shall deliver up possession and he refuses, the sheriff or any of his officers shall, with such assistance as he may require, forthwith proceed under the order to eject and remove the tenant together with all goods and chattels that he may have on or about the premises, and make the rent in arrears and place the landlord in possession of the premises.
Stay of proceedings.

(5) Where any tenant before the execution of the order mentioned in subsection (3) pays the rent in arrears and all costs, the proceedings shall be stayed and the tenant may continue in possession as of his former tenancy.

Entry of premises.

(6) Where the premises in question are vacant, or the tenant is not found in possession, or if in possession he refuses on demand made in the presence of a witness to admit the sheriff or any of his officers, the latter, after a reasonable time has been allowed to the tenant or person in possession to comply with the demand for admittance, may force open any outer door in order to gain an entrance, and may also force any inner door for the purpose of ejecting the tenant or occupant and giving proper possession of the premises to the landlord or his agent.

Costs.

55. (1) The judge may by order award costs according to the tariff of costs from time to time in force under the Judicature Ordinance, or may order payment of a lump sum by way of costs.

(2) Where the landlord is awarded costs against the tenant, the costs so awarded may be added to the cost of the levy for rent, if such levy is or is to be made.

Order for costs.

(3) An order for the payment of costs by the judge may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court and shall thereupon become a judgment of the Court.

(3) Upon receipt of the order of interdiction under subsection (1), the Commissioner shall forthwith notify the interdicted person and all vendors and licensees of the order of interdiction so made and filed, prohibiting the sale of liquor to the interdicted person; and such notice may be given by sending it by registered mail to the last known address of the interdicted person and to said vendors and licensees.

57. Upon order of interdiction being made, the interdicted person shall forthwith deliver to the Commissioner all liquor then in his possession or under his control, to be purchased by the Territory in its discretion at a price to be fixed by the Commissioner, if lawfully in the possession of the interdicted person; and if the person receiving the notice does not deliver up the liquor then in his possession, the Commissioner or person authorized by him may seize the said liquor and dispose of it as the Commissioner directs.

58. Every person against whom an order of interdiction has been made who keeps or has any liquor in his possession or under his control is guilty of an offence against this Ordinance and, on convicting him thereof, and in addition to any other penalty that he may impose hereunder, the justice making the conviction may, in and by the conviction, declare the liquor and all packages in which the liquor is contained to be forfeited to the Territory to be disposed of as the Commissioner shall direct.

60. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance, any person may, for medicinal or sacramental purposes, consume liquor or supply or administer it to any person.

(2) The burden of proof that the consumption, supplying and administering of liquor was for medicinal purposes, is upon the person who consumed, supplied or administered it, and a justice who tries a case may draw inferences of fact from the frequency with which the liquor is consumed, supplied or administered, and from the amount of liquor so used, and from the circumstances under which it is used.

61. Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance, any person may sell, purchase, have in possession or consume

(a) any pharmaceutical preparation containing liquor that is prepared by a druggist according to a formula of the British Pharmacopoeia, the Codex Medicamentarius of France, the Pharmacopoeia of the United States or the Canadian Formulary; or

ARREST, SEARCHES AND SEIZURES.

63. Any peace officer may arrest without warrant any person whom he finds committing, or whom he on reasonable grounds suspects of committing any offence against this Ordinance or the regulations.

without warrant, stop such vehicle by any necessary means, and search for liquor therein wherever he suspects it to be, and if need be by force, and may in addition search any person in or in charge of the vehicle and seize any liquor he finds and any package in which it is contained.

65. (1) Where a justice is satisfied by the oath of a peace officer that there is reasonable grounds for believing that liquor is unlawfully possessed, or possessed for an unlawful purpose, he may issue a warrant under his hand authorizing the peace officer therein named, at any time within ten days from the date thereof, to enter, if need be by force, the place named in the warrant and any premises connected therewith, and search for liquor thereon wherever he suspects it to be; and the peace officer may, in addition, search any person found in the place at the time he enters it, and seize any liquor that he finds and any package in which it is contained.

(2) For the purposes of making a search of the place under this section a peace officer may, if necessary, with such assistance as he deems expedient, break down any door, lock or fastening of such place, or any closet, cupboard, box or other article in the place suspected of containing liquor.

66. (1) Any peace officer who is authorized in writing for the purpose by the Commissioner, if he believes or suspects upon reasonable grounds that liquor is unlawfully sold or kept for sale in any residence, building or premises, may, without warrant, either alone or accompanied by other officers, at any time in the day or night, enter and search the residence, building or premises and every part thereof, and for that purpose may break open any door, lock or fastening of the residence, building or premises or any part thereof, or any closet, cupboard, box or other receptacle thereon which might contain liquor and seize such liquor if found.

(2) Any authorization given by the Commissioner under subsection (1) may be given generally or specially, and is effective, according to its terms, until revoked by the Commissioner; and any authorization so given in writing shall be received in evidence as proof of the authority of the peace officer to or in respect of whom it is given without proof of the authenticity of any signature thereto.

67. (1) Where liquor is found by any peace officer on any premises or in any place or in any vehicle and in such quantities as to satisfy the peace officer that the liquor is being had or kept contrary to this Ordinance or the regulations, the peace officer may forthwith seize and remove by force, if necessary, any liquor so found and the packages in which the liquor was had or kept.

(2) Where liquor has been seized by a peace officer under this Ordinance, under such circumstances that the peace officer is satisfied that the liquor was had or kept contrary to this Ordinance or the regulations, he shall retain the liquor and packages in which the liquor was had or kept.

(3) If, within thirty days from the date of the seizure, no person by notice in writing filed with the Commissioner claims to be owner of the liquor, the liquor and all packages containing the liquor are forfeited to the Territory and shall forthwith be delivered to the Commissioner.

(4) If, within thirty days from the date of the seizure any claimant appears, it is incumbent upon him within that time and after three days’ notice in writing filed with the Commissioner stating the time and place fixed for the hearing, to prove his claim and his right under this Ordinance and the regulations to the possession of the liquor and packages to the satisfaction of any justice, and on failure within that time to prove and establish his claim and right, the liquor and packages are forfeited to the Territory and shall forthwith be delivered to the Commissioner.

(5) In every case in which any claimant to the liquor under this section fails to establish his claim and right thereto, the liquor in question and the packages in which the liquor is kept shall forthwith be delivered to the Commissioner.

68. Where a female is suspected of an offence under this Ordinance or the regulations, a peace officer shall, if he thinks it advisable to search such female, employ a woman to make such search, and the woman so employed has all the powers, privileges and immunities of a peace officer for that purpose.

EVIDENCE.

69. The burden of proving the right to possess, sell, give, purchase or consume liquor is on the person accused of improperly or unlawfully possessing, selling, giving, purchasing or consuming liquor.

70. A certificate purporting to be signed by any person appointed or designated by the Commissioner in writing as an analyst for the purposes of this Ordinance, as to the percentage of alcohol contained in any liquid, drink, liquor or combination of liquors, when produced in any court or before any justice, is prima facie proof of the percentage of alcohol contained therein, without proof of signature or official position of the analyst by whom the certificate is made.

71. A justice trying a case shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be at liberty to infer that the liquor in question is intoxicating from the fact that a witness describes it as intoxicating or describes it by a name that is commonly applied to an intoxicating liquor.
72. (1) In proving the purchase, sale or gratuitous or other disposal or consumption of liquor for the purpose of any proceeding relative to an offence under this Ordinance, it is not necessary to show that money passed or the liquor was consumed, if the justice hearing the case is satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale or other disposal took place or that any consumption of liquor was about to take place.

(2) In any prosecution for the sale or other disposal of liquor in contravention of this Ordinance, it is not necessary that any witness depose directly to the precise description of the liquor sold or disposed of or the precise consideration therefor.

73. In describing offences respecting the sale or other disposal of liquor or the keeping or the consumption of liquor in any information, summons, conviction, warrant or proceeding under this Ordinance, it is sufficient to state the sale, disposal, keeping or consumption of liquor simply, without stating the name of liquor or the price thereof or the name of any person to whom it was sold or disposed of or by whom it was consumed; and it is not necessary to state the quantity of liquor sold, disposed of, kept or consumed, except in the case of offences where the quantity is essential, and then it is sufficient to allege the sale or disposal of more or less than such quantity as the case requires.

74. (1) In any proceeding under this Ordinance against a corporation it is not necessary for the prosecutor to prove the fact of incorporation.

(2) In a prosecution against a corporation, every summons, writ, warrant or order or other proceeding may, in addition to any other manner of service that may be proved, provided or authorized by law, be served on a corporation by delivering it to an officer, attorney, agent or representative in the Territory of the corporation by whatever names the representative may be known, or by leaving it at any place where it carries on business; but service in any other way may be deemed sufficient if the justice or judge, by or before whom the summons, writ, warrant, order or other proceeding was issued or is returnable, or by or before whom any proceeding is to be had or taken, is of the opinion that the service has been such as to bring the summons, warrant, writ, order or other proceeding to the notice of the corporation.

75. In any proceeding under this Ordinance proof of one unlawful sale of liquor is sufficient to establish the intent or purpose of unlawfully keeping liquor for sale in violation of this Ordinance, and where the sale is by an agent or employee, it shall be deemed, unless the contrary is proved, that such agent or employee was acting within the scope of his authority or employment.
76. (1) Every person, other than a corporation, who violates section 44, 47 or 51 is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction,

(a) subject to paragraphs (b) and (c), to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to both such fine and imprisonment;

(b) for a second offence, to a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding four months, or to both such fine and imprisonment; and

(c) for a subsequent offence, to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Every corporation that violates section 44, 47 or 51 is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction,

(a) subject to paragraph (b), to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and

(b) for a second or subsequent offence, to a fine not exceeding three thousand dollars.

77. (1) Every person, other than a corporation, who violates any provision of this Ordinance or the regulations for which no other penalty is provided in this Ordinance is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two months, or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) Every corporation that violates any provision of this Ordinance or the regulations for which no other penalty is provided in this Ordinance is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

78. Where an offence against this Ordinance is committed by a corporation, the officer or agent of the corporation in charge, or apparently in charge, of the premises in which the offence is committed shall, unless the contrary is established, be deemed to be a party to the offence so committed, and is personally liable to the penalties prescribed for the offence as a principal offender; but nothing in this section relieves the corporation, or the person who actually committed the offence, from liability therefor; and in the case of any such offence, the corporation, the officer or agent and the person who actually committed the offence, may all or each be found guilty of the offence.

79. Upon proof that an offence against this Ordinance has been committed by a person in the employ of the occupant of any house, shop, hotel, restaurant, room or other premises in which the offence is committed, or by any person who is suffered by the occupant to be or remain in or upon the house, shop, hotel, restaurant, room or premises, or to act in any way for the occupant, the occupant shall, unless the contrary is established, be deemed to be a party to the offence so committed, and on conviction is liable to the penalties prescribed for the offence as a principal offender, notwithstanding the fact that the offence was committed by a person who is not proved to have committed it under or by the direction of the occupant, but nothing in this section relieves the person actually committing the offence from liability therefor; and in the case of any such offence, the occupant and the person who actually committed the offence may be each or both found guilty of the offence.

80. 44. (1) A party to an intended marriage who is under the age of twenty-one years is a minor within the meaning of this Ordinance.

(2) Before the publication of banns or the issue of a licence, a minor shall deposit with the clergyman who is to proclaim the banns or with the issuer a consent to the marriage in Form I.

(3) A consent required under subsection (2) shall be executed

(a) by both parents of the minor where both his parents are living and are not legally separated;

the minor or has supported him for at least three years preceding the intended marriage where both his parents are dead or where both parents are patients in a mental institution or the surviving parent is a patient in a mental institution.

(4) The consent required by this section is a condition precedent to a valid marriage, unless the marriage has been consummated or the contracting parties have, after the ceremony, cohabited and lived together as man and wife.

45. (1) The consent mentioned in section 44 shall not be required when a minor is at least eighteen years of age and deposits with the clergyman who is to proclaim the banns or with the issuer a statutory declaration in Form J made by the minor and sworn before a justice of the peace, commissioner for oaths or a notary public.

(c) that the father and mother of the minor are patients in a mental institution or that the surviving parent is a patient in a mental institution and that there is no guardian of the minor, or
(d) that the minor has, for not less than six months immediately preceding the date of the statutory declaration, been living apart from his parents or guardian and has not received financial aid or support from his parents or guardian within that period.

46. (1) Where the parents or guardian of a minor refuse or neglect to execute the consent required under section 44, the minor may apply to a judge and the judge may, in his discretion, grant an order dispensing with such consent.

(2) Where an order has been granted under subsection (1) the minor shall deposit the order or a certified copy thereof with the clergyman who is to proclaim the banns or with the issuer before banns are published or a licence is issued, as the case may be.

47. Where the clergyman who is to proclaim the banns or the issuer, as the case may be, is not satisfied that a minor is over the age of fifteen years he may require the minor to furnish a birth certificate or, in lieu thereof, an affidavit showing the age of the minor and made by a credible adult who has knowledge of the date of the birth of the minor.

(b) after the marriage the parties lived together and cohabited as husband and wife; and

(c) the validity of the marriage has not been questioned by action in any court;

the Commissioner may in writing declare that the requirements of this Ordinance as to registration are waived in respect of that marriage and that the marriage has been lawful and valid from the date of solemnization.

49. (1) Where a form of marriage is gone through between persons either of whom is a minor, without the consent required by this Ordinance, and the marriage has not been consummated and the parties thereto have not, after the ceremony, cohabited and lived together as husband and wife, a judge has jurisdiction to entertain an action by the contracting party who was at the time of the ceremony a minor and to declare and adjudge that a valid marriage was not effected or entered into.

(2) A judge shall not declare a marriage void under subsection (1) where he is satisfied from evidence adduced to him that carnal intercourse has taken place between the parties before their marriage was solemnized.

(3) A judge shall not declare a marriage void upon consent of the parties or in default of appearance or of pleading otherwise than after a trial.

(4) At every trial under subsection (1) the evidence shall be taken viva voce but the judge may permit the use of depositions of witnesses residing out of the Territory or of witnesses examined de bene esse.

   (3) An instrument executed after the 1st day of April, 1955, in so far as it purports to attach to the enjoyment of property by a married woman a restriction upon anticipation or alienation that could not be attached to the enjoyment of that party by a man, is void.

CHAPTER 72.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING LIENS IN FAVOUR OF MECHANICS AND OTHERS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Mechanics Lien Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,

(a) "contractor" means a person contracting with or employed directly by the owner for the doing of work or placing or furnishing of machinery or materials for any of the purposes mentioned in this Ordinance;

(b) "sub-contractor" means a person not contracting with or employed directly by the owner for the purposes aforesaid but contracting with or employed by the contractor or under him by another sub-contractor; and

(c) "owner" includes a person having any estate or interest in the lands upon or in respect of which the work is done or materials or machinery are placed or furnished, at whose request and upon whose credit or on whose behalf or consent or for whose direct benefit any such work is done or materials or machinery placed or furnished, and all persons claiming under him whose rights are acquired after the work in respect of which the lien is claimed is commenced or the materials or machinery furnished have been commenced to be furnished.

LIEN FOR WORK OR MATERIALS.

3. No agreement shall be held to deprive anyone otherwise entitled to a lien under this Ordinance, and not a party to the agreement, of the benefit of the lien but the lien shall attach notwithstanding such agreement.

4. Unless he signs an express agreement to the contrary, every mechanic, machinist, builder, miner, labourer, contractor or other person doing work upon or furnishing materials to be used in the construction, alteration or repair of any building or erection, or erecting, furnishing or placing machinery of any kind in, upon or in connection with any building, erection or mine, shall, by virtue of being so employed or furnishing, have a lien for the price of the work, machinery or materials, upon the building, erection or mine, and the lands occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith, limited in amount to the sum justly due to the person entitled to the lien.
5. (1) The lien shall attach upon the estate and interest of the owner in the building, erection or mine, in respect of which the work is done or the materials or machinery placed or furnished and the land occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith.

(2) In cases where the estate or interest charged by the lien is a leasehold, the land itself may also, with the consent of the owner thereof, be subject to the lien if such consent is testified by the signature of such owner upon the claim of lien at the time of the registering thereof and duly verified.

(3) In case the land upon or in respect of which any work as aforesaid is executed or labour performed or upon which materials or machinery are placed is encumbered by a prior mortgage or other charge and the selling value of the land is increased by the construction, alteration or materials or machinery, the lien under this Ordinance shall be entitled to rank upon the increased value in priority to the mortgage or other charge.

6. (1) Without prejudice to any lien that he may have under the preceding sections, every mechanic, labourer or other person who performs labour for wages upon the construction, alteration or repairs of any building or erection or in erecting or placing machinery of any kind in, upon or in connection with any building, erection or mine shall to the extent of the interest of the owner have upon the building, erection or mine and the land occupied thereby or enjoyed therewith a lien for such wages, not exceeding the wages of thirty days or a balance equal to his wages for thirty days.

(2) The lien for wages given by this section shall attach when the labour is in respect of a building, erection or mine on property belonging to the wife of the person at whose instance the work is done, upon the estate or interest of the wife and her husband.

7. In all cases the owner shall in the absence of a stipulation to the contrary be entitled to retain for a period of thirty days after the completion of the contract ten per cent of the price to be paid to the contractor.

8. In case the lien is claimed by a sub-contractor the amount that may be claimed in respect thereof shall be limited to the amount payable to the contractor or sub-contractor, as the case may be, for whom the work has been done or the materials or machinery have been furnished or placed.

9. (1) All payments up to ninety per cent of the price to be paid for the work, machinery or materials mentioned in section 4, made in good faith by the owner to the contractor, or by the contractor to the sub-contractor, or by one sub-contractor to another sub-contractor, before notice in writing by the person claiming the lien has been given to such owner, contractor or sub-contractor, as the case may be, of the claim of such person, shall operate as a discharge pro tanto of the lien created by this Ordinance, but this section does not apply to any payment made for the purpose of defeating or impairing a claim to a lien existing or arising under this Ordinance.

(2) A lien shall, in addition to all other rights or remedies given by this Ordinance, also operate as a charge to the extent of ten per cent of the price to be paid by the owner for the work, machinery or materials mentioned in section 4, up to ten days after the completion of the work or of the delivery of the materials in respect of which such lien exists and no longer, unless notice in writing be given as herein provided.

(3) A lien for wages for thirty days or for a balance equal to the wages for thirty days, shall, to the extent of ten per cent of the price to be paid to the contractor, have priority over all other liens under this Ordinance and over any claim by the owner against the contractor for, or in consequence of the failure of the latter to complete his contract.

10. Except as herein provided, the lien shall not attach so as to make the owner liable to a greater sum than the sum payable by the owner to the contractor.

11. All persons furnishing material to or doing labour for the person having a lien under this Ordinance in respect of the subject of such lien, who notify the owner of the premises sought to be affected thereby, within thirty days after such material is furnished or labour performed, of an unpaid account or demand against such lienholder for such material or labour, shall be entitled, subject to sections 6 and 9, to a charge therefor pro rata upon any amount payable by such owner under said lien; and if the owner thereupon pays the amount of such charge to the person furnishing material and doing labour as aforesaid, such payment shall be deemed a satisfaction pro tanto of such lien.

12. In case of a dispute as to the validity or amount of an unpaid account or demand, of which notice is given to the owner under section 11, the same shall be first determined by action in the Territorial Court in that behalf, or by arbitration in manner mentioned in section 14, at the option of the person having the unpaid account or demand against the lien holder; and pending the proceedings to determine the dispute, so much of the amount of the lien as is in question therein may be withheld from the person claiming the lien.

13. Where the person primarily liable to the person giving notice as mentioned in section 11 fails to pay the amount awarded within ten days after the award is made or judgment given, the owner, contractor or sub-contractor may pay the same out of any moneys due by him to the person primarily liable as aforesaid, on account of the work done or materials or machinery furnished or placed in respect of which the debt
Mechanics Liens.

14. (1) Where a claim is made by a sub-contractor in respect of a lien on which he is entitled, and a dispute arises as to the amount due or payable in respect thereof, the same shall be settled by arbitration.

(2) One arbitrator shall be appointed by the person making the claim, one by the person by whom he was employed and the third arbitrator by the two so chosen.

(3) The decision of the arbitrators or a majority of them shall be final and conclusive.

(b) the maximum rate designated by signs erected along the highway under sections 151 and 155.

(3) A person, when driving on a highway where there are no signs designating a maximum speed is deemed to be driving without reasonable consideration for other persons when he is driving a truck at a greater rate of speed than fifty miles an hour or when driving any other motor vehicle at a greater rate of speed than sixty miles an hour.

77. (1) No person shall drive a motor vehicle at such a slow speed as to impede or block the normal and reasonable flow of traffic, except when it is necessary to do so for safe operation or to comply with this Part.

(2) Where the driver of a motor vehicle is driving at such a slow speed that he is impeding or blocking the normal and reasonable movement of traffic, a traffic officer may require him to increase his rate of speed or to remove the vehicle from the highway.

DRIVING ON RIGHT SIDE OF ROADWAY. OVERTAKING AND PASSING.

78. (1) A driver shall drive a vehicle upon the right-hand half of the travelled portion of the highway, if the highway is of sufficient width and it is practicable to do so, except

(a) when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction;

(b) when the right-hand half of the highway is closed to traffic while under construction or repair; or

(c) upon a highway designated and marked by signs for one-way traffic.
(2) A driver who is proceeding at less than the normal speed of traffic at the time and place and under the conditions then existing shall drive in the right-hand lane then available for traffic, or as close as practicable to the right-hand curb or edge of the roadway, except when overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when preparing for a left-hand turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway.

(3) A driver, when passing around a rotary traffic island, shall drive to the right of the island.

79. The following provisions apply to a driver who is driving a vehicle on a laned roadway, namely,

(b) except as provided in paragraph (c), he shall not drive from one lane to another where such action necessitates the crossing of a solid line;

(c) when a solid line and a broken line exist together, he may, with extra caution, cross the solid line from the lane in which the broken line is located, and re-cross;

(d) he shall not drive from one lane to another on the same side of the centre line of the roadway, without first signalling his intention to do so by hand and arm or approved mechanical device, in the manner prescribed by sections 93 and 94;

(e) when approaching an intersection intending to turn left he shall travel in the centre lane or in the lane nearest the centre of the roadway on the right-hand half of the highway;

(g) he shall not use the centre lane of a three-lane roadway except when passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction or when approaching an intersection where he intends to turn to the left;

(h) when overtaking another vehicle that is travelling in the same direction in a place where there are two lanes on the same side of the centre line for vehicles travelling in that direction, he shall in passing keep to the left of the other vehicle and to the right of the centre line;

(i) where a traffic control device directs slow-moving traffic to use a designated lane, when driving slowly he shall use that lane only; and

(j) when being overtaken by another vehicle travelling in the same direction he shall allow that vehicle to pass and shall travel in the lane nearest to the right-hand side of the roadway or in a manner that allows the overtaking vehicle free passage in the centre lane or in the lane nearest to the centre of the roadway.
Duty to keep to right on meeting a moving vehicle.

Overtaking.

80. (1) The driver of a vehicle shall keep to his right when he is meeting another vehicle that is moving.

(2) The driver of a vehicle upon a highway that has a width for only one line of traffic in each direction shall, when meeting another vehicle that is moving, give to the other vehicle at least one-half of the main-travelled portion of the highway as nearly as possible.

81. (1) Except as provided in section 82, a driver overtaking another vehicle,

(a) shall sound an audible signal;
(b) shall pass to its left at a safe distance; and
(c) shall not return to the right side of the highway until safely clear of the overtaken vehicle.

(2) Except when overtaking and passing on the right is permitted, a driver of an overtaken vehicle,

(a) upon hearing the audible signal, shall give way to the right in favour of the overtaking vehicle; and
(b) shall not increase the speed of his vehicle until completely passed by the overtaking vehicle.

Passing and overtaking.

82. (1) A driver shall not overtake and pass upon the right of another vehicle except

(a) when the vehicle overtaken is making a left turn or its driver has signalled his intention to make a left turn;
(b) when on a laned roadway there are two or more unobstructed lanes on the side of the roadway on which he is permitted to drive; or
(c) upon a one-way street, or upon a highway on which traffic is restricted to one direction of movement, where the roadway is free from obstructions and is of sufficient width for three or more lines of moving vehicles.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), no driver shall overtake and pass another vehicle upon the right,

(a) when the movement cannot be made safely; or
(b) by driving off the roadway.

83. No driver shall drive to the left side in overtaking and passing another vehicle unless the left side of the highway is clearly visible and free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit overtaking and passing to be completely made without interfering with the safe operation of another vehicle.

84. No driver shall drive to or upon the left side of the highway, other than a one-way highway, when he has not a clear view of the highway for a safe distance having regard for all the circumstances.
85. (1) Where all or a portion of a highway has been marked by a sign as a zone in which passing is prohibited or a zone limited to driving on the right-hand side of the roadway, a driver shall obey the instructions on the sign.

(2) Where the Commissioner or a traffic authority has designated and marked by signs a highway for one-way traffic, a driver on that highway shall drive only in the direction designated.

86. (1) No driver shall follow another vehicle more closely than is reasonable and prudent, having due regard for the speed of the vehicles, and the amount and nature of traffic upon and the condition of the highway.

(2) Where a truck or a motor vehicle that is drawing another vehicle (in this subsection called the "following vehicle") is following a truck or a motor vehicle drawing another vehicle (in this subsection called the "leading vehicle") outside a business or residence district, the driver of the following vehicle, unless he intends to overtake and pass the leading vehicle, shall, if conditions permit, leave sufficient space (in any event not less than two hundred feet) between his vehicle and the leading vehicle so that a vehicle overtaking the following vehicle may enter and occupy that space without danger.

(3) The driver of a motor vehicle in a caravan or motorcade, other than a funeral procession, outside a business or residence district, shall leave sufficient space between his vehicle and another vehicle or combination of vehicles to enable a vehicle to enter and occupy that space without danger.

87. Where a highway has been divided into two roadways by an intervening space or a physical barrier or clearly indicated dividing section constructed so that it impedes vehicular traffic, no driver shall drive a vehicle over, across or within the intervening space, barrier or dividing section, except at a crossover of intersection established by a traffic authority.

88. (1) Where on a controlled access highway there is a sign indicating a location at which vehicles are permitted to enter, no person shall drive a vehicle onto the highway except at that location.

(2) Where on a controlled access highway there is a sign indicating a location at which vehicles are permitted to leave, no person shall drive from the highway except at that location.

(a) approach the intersection in the portion of the right half of the highway that is nearest its centre line;
(b) keep to the right of the centre line at the place where it enters the intersection;
(c) after entering the intersection, make a left turn so as to leave the intersection at a point to the right of the centre of the highway being entered; and
(d) when practicable make the left turn in the portion of the intersection to the left of the centre of the intersection.

(3) When a driver intends to turn left at an intersection where traffic is restricted to one direction on one or more of the highways, he shall approach the intersection in the extreme left-hand lane available to traffic moving in the direction of travel of the vehicle, and after entering the intersection he shall make the left turn so as to leave the intersection as nearly as practicable in the left-hand lane available to traffic moving in its permitted direction upon the highway being entered.

(4) Where at an intersection there is a traffic control device indicating the course to be travelled by drivers turning at the intersection, no driver shall turn a vehicle at the intersection in a manner other than as directed by the traffic control device.

90. No driver shall turn a vehicle so as to proceed in the opposite direction
(a) unless he can do so without interfering with other traffic; or
(b) when he is driving
(i) upon a curve,
(ii) upon an approach to or near the crest of a grade where the vehicle cannot be seen by the driver of another vehicle approaching from either direction within five hundred feet, or
(iii) at a place where a sign prohibits making a U-turn.

91. No person shall cause a vehicle to move unless and until the movement can be made with reasonable safety.

92. (1) No person shall turn a vehicle at an intersection unless the vehicle is in the position upon the highway required by section 89.

(3) Where traffic may be affected by turning a vehicle no person shall turn a vehicle without giving the appropriate signal under sections 93 and 94.

(4) Where a signal of intention to turn right or left is required, a driver shall give the signal continuously for sufficient distance before making the turn to warn traffic.
(5) When there is an opportunity to give a signal, no driver shall stop or suddenly decrease the speed of a vehicle without first giving the appropriate signal under sections 93 and 94.

93. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a signal is required a driver shall give it by means of
(a) his hand and arm,
(b) a signal lamp of a type that has been approved by the Commissioner, or

96. When a driver is within an intersection and intends to turn left he shall yield the right of way to traffic that is approaching from the opposite direction and is within the intersection or so close that it constitutes an immediate hazard, but having yielded and given a signal as required by sections 93 and 94, the driver may make a left turn and traffic approaching the intersection from the opposite direction shall yield the right of way to the vehicle making the left turn.
97. (1) Where a driver who is about to enter a through-highway has stopped in compliance with section 109, he shall yield the right of way to traffic that has entered the intersection upon the through-highway or is approaching so closely thereon that it constitutes an immediate hazard; and

(b) having yielded he may proceed with caution.

(2) Where a driver is entering a through-highway in compliance with subsection (1), traffic approaching the intersection on the highway shall yield the right of way to the entering vehicle while it is proceeding into or across the highway.

(2) No pedestrian shall leave a curb or other place of safety and walk or run into the path of a vehicle that is so close that it is impracticable for the driver to yield.

Notwithstanding anything in this Ordinance, no owner of a motor vehicle or the owner of any surety for the owner is liable for injury, loss or damage caused by the negligent operation of the motor vehicle if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that at the time the injury, loss or damage was caused the motor vehicle was operated by or under the control or in the charge of a person who had stolen the motor vehicle.

139. (1) Where a motor vehicle that is owned by a person who is not resident in the Territory is operated on a highway by the owner or by a person who has possession of the motor vehicle with the consent of the owner or where a person who is not a resident of the Territory operates a motor vehicle on a highway in the Territory, the Commissioner is deemed to be the agent of the owner or operator who is not so resident for the service of notice or process in an action in the Territory for injury, loss or damage arising out of the presence, use or operation of the motor vehicle in the Territory.

(2) Service of notice or process on the Commissioner as such agent may be made by leaving a copy of it with him or at his office, together with a bond in form and with sureties approved by the Commissioner in the sum of two hundred dollars conditioned that on the failure of the plaintiff to succeed in the action the defendant will be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by him in defending the action in the Territory.

Motor Vehicles.

(2) Any person claiming to be the owner or having an interest in the motor vehicle may enter an appearance in the action and the provisions of the Judicature Ordinance and the rules of Court apply to him as if he had been made a party defendant.

141. (1) Where injury, loss or damage is incurred or sustained by a person by reason of the negligent operation of a motor vehicle upon a highway, the person incurring or sustaining the injury, loss or damage may, at or after the commencement of an action to recover damages for the injury, loss or damage, obtain from the Clerk of the Court a writ of attachment directed to the Sheriff commanding him to attach, seize, take and safely keep the motor vehicle causing the injury, loss or damage to secure the amount of damages that may be recovered in the action and the costs and to return the writ forthwith to the court out of which the writ is issued.

142. The Sheriff to whom a writ of attachment is directed shall immediately attach, seize, take and safely keep the motor vehicle to secure the amount of damages that may be recovered in the action and the costs of the action and those damages and costs constitute a first and paramount lien on the motor vehicle regardless of whether the defendant is the owner of the motor vehicle or has any interest therein.

(2) The Sheriff shall pay over to the plaintiff the money so recovered for a sufficient sum to discharge the amount directed to be levied, less the Sheriff's fees, commission and poundage expenses.

(3) If, after satisfaction of the amount together with Sheriff’s fees, commission and poundage expenses, a surplus remains in the hands of the Sheriff, he shall pay the surplus to the person entitled thereto.

(4) Where money is levied upon execution, the provisions of the Creditors Relief Ordinance do not apply to such portion of such money as is obtained by the levying on and selling of the motor vehicle under the execution.

145. Except as herein expressly provided, no right of any person to bring or prosecute an action for damages for injury, loss or damage to person or property is affected.

192. No application to quash or annul any by-law, order or resolution of a municipal council, in whole or in part, shall be entertained by any judge unless such application is made within two months from the final passing of the by-law, order or resolution in question.

194. (1) Before determining any application for the quashing of a by-law upon the ground that the passing of the same has been procured by means of any corrupt practices as defined by this Ordinance and if it is made to appear to the judge that probable grounds exist for a motion to quash such by-law, the judge thereupon may make an order for an inquiry to be held, upon such notice to the parties affected as the judge may direct, concerning the said grounds, before himself as the Inspector of Municipalities or whom he may appoint to conduct such inquiry and may require that upon such inquiry all witnesses, both in support and against such by-law, be orally examined and cross-examined upon oath.

195. After an order has been made by a judge under section 194 directing an inquiry and after a copy of such order has been left with the municipal clerk, all further proceedings upon the by-law shall be stayed until after the disposal of the application in respect of which the inquiry has been directed but, if the matter is not prosecuted to the satisfaction of the judge, he may remove the stay of proceedings.

196. In case a by-law, order or resolution is illegal, in whole or in part, and in case anything has been done under it which, by reason of such illegality, gives any person a right of action, no such action shall be brought until one month has elapsed after the by-law, order or resolution has been quashed or repealed, nor until one month’s notice in writing of the intention to bring action has been given to the municipality, and every such action shall be brought against the municipality alone and not against any persons acting under the by-law, order or resolution.

197. In case the municipality tenders amends to the plaintiff or his solicitor, if such tender is pleaded and, if traversed, proved, and if no more than the amount so tendered is recovered the plaintiff shall have no costs, but costs shall be taxed to the defendant and set off against the verdict, and the balance due to either party shall be recovered as in ordinary cases.

(3) The award of the arbitrators, or of any two of them, shall be final and conclusive and binding upon all the parties interested.

204. (1) If the amount of the compensation awarded appears to the municipal council to be excessive when compared with the utility of the work contemplated, the municipal council may suspend or abandon such work at any time, and, if the lands concerned have not been entered upon, the municipal council, within one month after the making of the award, may notify the owner of such suspension or abandonment and in such case the municipality shall not be bound to accept such land or pay the amount of the compensation awarded.

(2) If the municipal council decides to proceed with such work, within six months after the arbitrator's award has been filed with the municipal clerk, it shall pay to the owner the amount of compensation awarded to him.
Chap. 79. Municipal.

205. (1) The municipal council may pay the amount awarded by the arbitrators into the office of the Clerk of the Territorial Court and deliver to said Clerk a copy of the award, in the following cases:

(a) if there are any claims or encumbrances on the lands taken or entered upon;
(b) if the owner of the land is unknown;

(2) The person or persons entitled to the amount paid under subsection (1), on establishing his or their right, on a summary application made to the Territorial Court or a judge thereof, shall be entitled to have the same paid over to him or them on order of the said Court or judge.

206. 207. If the owner of the land which it is proposed to enter upon or take, or of the building, projection, wall, fence or other thing which it is proposed to remove, is not known, or if there is a dispute as to the ownership thereof, the notices required to be given to such owner may be given by advertisement in a public newspaper published in the municipality, or, if there be no such newspaper, then in a public newspaper published in the Territory and circulating in the municipality.

208. 215. (1) Where an action may be brought against the municipality by any person who has suffered damages by reason of the default of the municipality in keeping in proper repair any public road, street, bridge, highway, square, alley or other public place, no action shall be brought in respect of such damage against any member of the municipal council or officer or employee thereof personally, but the remedy therefor shall be wholly against the municipal corporation.

(2) This section does not affect the liability of a mere contractor with the municipality, nor of any officer or employee of such contractor, by reason of whose act or neglect the damage was caused.

216. Where an action is brought to recover damages sustained by reason of any obstruction, excavation or opening in or near to a highway, street, bridge, alley, square or other public place, placed, made, left or maintained by any person other than a servant or agent of the municipality, or by reason of any negligent or wrongful act or omission of any person other than a servant or agent of the municipality, the municipality shall have a remedy over against the other person for, and may enforce payment accordingly of, the damages and costs, if any, which the plaintiff in the action may recover against the municipality.

217. The municipality shall be entitled to the remedy over described in section 218 in the same action if the other party is a party to the action and if it is established in the action against him that the damages were sustained by reason of an obstruction, excavation or opening placed, made, left or maintained by him.

218. In an action brought to which section 216 applies, the municipality may have the other person added as a party defendant or third party, if he is not already a defendant, for the purposes of the remedy over, and the other person may defend such action as well against the plaintiff's claim as against the claim of the municipality to a remedy over and, upon the trial of the action, the judge may order costs to be paid by or to any of the parties thereto or in respect of any claim set up therein as in other cases.

219. If the person, against whom the municipality claims to have a remedy over, is not a party defendant or is not added as a party defendant or third party, or if the municipality has paid the damages before an action is brought to recover the same or before recovery in an action against the municipality, the municipality shall have a remedy over by action against such person.

220. The person, against whom the municipality claims to have a remedy over, shall be deemed to admit the validity of the judgment, if any, obtained against the municipality only where a notice has been served on him pursuant to the Judicature Ordinance or of any rules of Court made thereunder, or where he has admitted or is estopped from denying the validity of such judgment.

221. Where such notice has been served and there has been no such admission or estoppel as described in section 220, and the other person has not been made a party defendant or third party to the action against the municipality, or when damages have been paid without action or without recovery of judgment against the municipality, the liability of the municipality for such damages, and the fact that the damages were sustained under such circumstances as to entitle the municipality to the remedy over, must be established in the action against such person to entitle the municipality to recover in the action.

222. Except as herein otherwise provided, no action ex delicto shall be brought against the municipality, or against the municipal council or any member thereof, or against any committee thereof or any member thereof, or against any person acting under the authority of any such committee or member thereof, unless within six months next after the cause of action has accrued, and upon one month's previous notice thereof in writing served upon the defendant, or, in the case of an action against the municipality, upon the municipal clerk, in which notice the cause of action and the Court in which it is to be brought shall be explicitly stated and upon the back of the notice shall be endorsed the name and place of abode of the person intending to sue.

223. When duties, obligations or liabilities are imposed by law upon any person in favour of a municipal corporation as the inhabitants or some of the inhabitants of the municipality, or where contracts or agreements are or have heretofore been entered into imposing such duties, obligations or liabilities, the municipality shall have the right by action to impose the same and to obtain as complete and full relief and remedy as could have been obtained in an action by such inhabitants or one or more of them on his or their own behalf or on behalf of himself or themselves and of such inhabitants.

224. In cases not otherwise provided for, no action shall be brought against the municipality for the recovery of damages after the expiration of three months from the time the damages were sustained, unless upon application to a judge of the TERRITORIAL COURT made not later than one year from such date, and after seven days' notice to the municipality, the judge allows the claim to be made.

(b) if the amount with interest thereon from the day mentioned in the statement is not paid to the sheriff within thirty days after such delivery, the sheriff shall examine the assessment roll of the municipality and shall, in like manner as rates are struck for general municipal purposes, strike a rate sufficient in the dollar to cover the amount claimed as aforesaid with such addition to the same as the sheriff deems sufficient to cover the interest and his own fees up to the time when such rate will probably be available;

(c) the sheriff shall thereupon issue a precept under his hand and seal of office directed to municipal treasurer and shall annex thereto the roll of such rate, and shall by precept, after reciting the writ and that the municipality has neglected to satisfy the same and referring to the roll annexed to the precept, command the treasurer to levy such rate at the time and in the manner by law required in respect of the general annual rates;

(d) at the time for levying the annual rates next after the receipt of such precept, the collector shall add a column to the tax roll headed: "Execution rate in ............. versus the municipality of ...............," as the case may be, adding a similar column if there are more executions than one, and shall insert therein the amount by such precept to be levied upon each person respectively, and shall levy the amount of such execution rate as aforesaid, and shall, within the time that he is required to make the return of the general annual rate, return to the sheriff the precept with the amount levied thereon; and

(e) the sheriff shall, after satisfying the execution and all fees thereon, return any surplus within ten days after receiving the same to the municipal treasurer for the general purposes of the municipality.
226. The municipal clerk, treasurer, assessor and collector shall, for the purpose of carrying into effect or permitting or assisting the sheriff to carry into effect the provisions of this Ordinance with respect to such execution, be deemed to be officers of the Territorial Court and as such may be proceeded against by attachment, mandamus or otherwise to compel them to perform the duties hereby imposed on them.

(b) for assessing, by way of a special frontage assessment, the cost, or a portion of the cost, of any local improvement upon the lands fronting upon the street or place wherein or whereon the local improvement is to be made, and for levying such cost, or portion thereof, by a special rate upon such lands;
(c) for regulating the time or times and manner in which the rates for such improvements are to be paid; and

304. The request of the petition may be acceded to by the council, either in respect to the whole or a part of the street or place proposed to be improved.

305. After the council has resolved to grant the request of any such petition, in whole or in part as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said council, in the same or the succeeding year, to carry on the proposed improvement or service to completion before making the assessment therefor, and such petition so presented shall stand good as authority for undertaking any such improvement, and making such assessment or assessments, and passing all necessary by-laws, whether the improvements shall have been or shall be undertaken and completed by the council to whom such petition is presented or by the council in the succeeding year.

306. (1) A municipal council may by resolution direct that the cost of the construction of any sidewalk or portion thereof, which is hereafter constructed at the cost and expense of the municipality, shall by special frontage assessment be charged against the several lots of land opposite which the sidewalk or portion thereof is constructed as aforesaid, notwithstanding that the council has not been petitioned to do so.
(2) At the time for levying the annual rates and taxes next after the passing of any such resolution the collector shall add a column to the collector's roll headed, "Sidewalk Improvements" and shall insert therein opposite the respective lots of land directed to be charged as aforesaid, the respective amounts by such resolution directed to be charged against such lots of land, which amounts shall be a lien and tax against said lots of land; and shall levy the said amounts in the same manner and with the like penalties and remedies that other rates or taxes against land may be levied under Division I of this Part.

(3) The word "land" wherever used in sections 305 and 306 shall be construed to mean land adjoining the same side of the street as that on which the sidewalk or portion thereof is so constructed.

307. There shall be a right of appeal against every assessment and rating made under the authority of any by-law passed under the provisions of the sections of this Division to the Court of Revision appointed under section 249.

(a) the probable lifetime of the proposed improvement as being the period over which the cost will be spread;

(b) the probable or actual cost of the improvement;

(c) the portion, if any, of the costs to be borne by the municipality at large;

(d) the portion of the cost to be borne by special frontage assessment;

(e) the frontage of the property upon which the special frontage assessment is to be levied stated in lineal feet;

(h) the value of the land chargeable with the special frontage rate, exclusive of all improvements thereon; and

(i) the time fixed for sittings of the Court of Revision for the hearing of appeals in respect of the assessment and proposed special rate; such sittings to be not earlier than fifteen days from the date of mailing of the notices.
309. A memorandum by the assessor in any proper book or roll kept for that purpose of the mailing of such notices and the date thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the mailing of such notices in accordance with section 308 on the date mentioned in the memorandum.

310. The decision of the Court of Revision shall be final and conclusive upon all matters respecting the assessment and special rate made and levied under this Division, and the Court of Revision shall have power, in the event of the special frontage assessment of any party being decreased or increased on appeal, to raise or lower proportionately the special frontage assessment of the other parties so assessed without further notice.

311. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) no by-law passed under the provisions of this Division shall require the assent of the electors.

(2) If the council in any case of local improvements provides that more than one-third of the total cost of improvements shall be paid by the municipality at large and such sum shall be greater than can be properly paid out of the current revenues of the year during which the improvement is made, then, and in every case, the council shall pass a separate by-law for the portion of money to be provided by the municipality at large, and said by-law shall, before being finally passed, receive the assent of the electors in the manner prescribed by Part VIII.

CHAPTER 84.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING PARTNERSHIPS.

SHORT TITLE.
1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Partnership Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.
2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) "business" includes every trade, occupation or profession;
   (b) "registration clerk" means a registration clerk under the Bills of Sale Ordinance; and
   (c) "registration district" means a registration district under the Bills of Sale Ordinance.

PARTNERSHIPS GENERALLY.

NATURE OF PARTNERSHIP.
3. (1) Partnership is the relation that subsists between persons carrying on a business in common with a view of profit.
   (2) The relation between members of any company or association who constitute a body corporate under any law in force in the Territory is not a partnership within the meaning of this Ordinance.

4. In determining whether a partnership does or does not exist, regard shall be had to the following rules:
   (a) joint tenancy, tenancy in common, joint property, common property or part ownership does not of itself create a partnership as to any thing so held or owned, whether the tenants or owners do or do not share any profits made by the use thereof;
   (b) the sharing of gross returns does not of itself create a partnership, whether the persons sharing such returns have or have not a joint or common right or interest in any property from which or from the use of which the returns are derived;
   (c) the receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he is a partner in the business, but the receipt of such a share, or of a payment contingent on or varying with the profits of a business, does not of itself make him a partner in the business; and in particular
      (i) the receipt by a person of a debt or other liquidated amount by instalments or otherwise out of the accruing profits of a business does not of itself make him a partner in the business or liable as such;
(ii) a contract for the remuneration of a servant or agent of a person engaged in a business by a share of the profits of the business does not of itself make the servant or agent a partner in the business or liable as such;

(iii) a person being the widow or child of a deceased partner, and receiving by way of annuity a portion of the profits made in the business in which the deceased person was a partner, is not by reason only of such receipt a partner in the business or liable as such;

(iv) the advance of money by way of loan to a person engaged or about to engage in any business on a contract with that person that the lender shall receive a rate of interest varying with the profits, or shall receive a share of the profits arising from carrying on the business, does not of itself make the lender a partner with the person or persons carrying on the business or liable as such, if the contract is in writing, and signed by or on behalf of all the parties thereto; and

(v) a person receiving by way of annuity or otherwise a portion of the profits of a business in consideration of the sale by him of the goodwill of the business is not by reason only of such receipt a partner in the business or liable as such.

5. Where a person to whom money has been advanced by way of loan upon a contract mentioned in section 4, or any buyer of a goodwill in consideration of a share of the profits of the business makes an assignment for the benefit of his creditors, enters into an arrangement to pay his creditors less than one hundred cents in the dollar, or dies in insolvent circumstances, the lender of the loan is not entitled to recover anything in respect of his loan, and the seller of the goodwill is not entitled to recover anything in respect of the share of profits contracted for, until the claims of the other creditors of the borrower or buyer for valuable consideration in money or money’s worth have been satisfied.

6. Persons who have entered into partnership with one another are for the purposes of this Ordinance called collectively a firm, and the name under which their business is carried on is called the firm name.

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH THEM.

7. Every partner is an agent of the firm and his other partners for the purpose of the business of the partnership; and the acts of every partner who does any act for carrying on in the usual way business of the kind carried on by the firm of which he is a member, bind the firm and his partners, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the firm in the particular matter, and the person with whom he is dealing either knows that he has no authority, or does not know or believe him to be a partner.

8. (1) An act or instrument relating to the business of the firm and done or executed in the firm name, or in any other manner showing an intention to bind the firm, by any person thereto authorized, whether a partner or not is binding on the firm and all the partners.

(2) This section does not affect any general rule of law relating to the execution of deeds, instruments or documents affecting land or negotiable instruments.

9. Where one partner pledges the credit of the firm for a purpose apparently not connected with the firm's ordinary course of business, the firm is not bound, unless he is in fact specially authorized by the other partner or partners; but this section does not affect any personal liability incurred by an individual partner.

10. Where it has been agreed between the partners that any restriction shall be placed on the power of any one or more of them to bind the firm, no act done in contravention of the agreement is binding on the firm with respect to persons having notice of the agreement.

11. Every partner in a firm is liable jointly with the other partners, for all debts and obligations of the firm incurred while he is the partner; and after his death his estate is also severally liable, in the due course of administration, for such debts and obligations, so far as they remain unsatisfied but subject to the prior payment of his separate debts.

12. Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the firm or with the authority of his co-partners, loss or injury is caused to any person not being a partner in the firm, or any penalty is incurred, the firm is liable therefor to the same extent as the partner so acting or omitting to act.

13. In the following cases, namely,

(a) where one partner acting within the scope of his apparent authority received the money or property of a third person and misapplies it, and

(b) where a firm in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person, and the money or property so received is misapplied by one or more of the partners while it is in the custody of the firm, the firm is liable to make good the loss.
Partnership.

14. Every partner is liable jointly with his co-partners and also severally for everything for which the firm while he is a partner therein becomes liable under either section 12 or 13.

15. (1) Where a partner, being a trustee, improperly employs trust property in the business or on the account of the partnership, no other partner is liable for the trust property to the persons beneficially interested therein.

   (2) This section does not affect any liability incurred by any partner by reason of his having notice of a breach of trust.

   (3) Nothing in this section prevents trust money from being followed and recovered from the firm if still in its possession or under its control.

16. (1) Subject to subsection (2) every one who by words spoken or written or by conduct represents himself, or who knowingly suffers himself to be represented, as a partner in a particular firm, is liable as a partner to any one who has on the faith of any such representation given credit to the firm, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or suffering it to be made.

   (2) Where after a partner's death the partnership business is continued in the old firm name, the continued use of that name or the deceased partner's name as part thereof does not itself make his executors or administrators, estate or effects liable for any partnership debts contracted after his death.

17. An admission or representation made by any partner concerning the partnership affairs, and in the ordinary course of its business, is evidence against the firm.

18. Notice to any partner who habitually acts in the partnership business, of any matter relating to partnership affairs operates as notice to the firm, except in the case of a fraud on the firm committed by or with the consent of that partner.

19. (1) A person who is admitted as a partner into an existing firm does not thereby become liable to the creditors of the firm for anything done before he became a partner.

   (2) A partner who retires from a firm does not thereby cease to be liable for partnership debts or obligations incurred before his retirement.

   (3) A retiring partner may be discharged from any existing liabilities by an agreement to that effect between himself and the members of the firm as newly constituted and the creditors, and this agreement may be either expressed or inferred as a fact from the course of dealing between the creditors and the firm as newly constituted.
Revocation of continuing guaranty by change in firm.

20. A continuing guaranty given either to a firm or to a third person in respect of the transactions of a firm is, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, revoked as to future transactions by any change in the constitution of the firm to which, or of the firm in respect of the transactions of which, the guaranty was given.

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO ONE ANOTHER.

21. The mutual rights and duties of partners, whether ascertained by agreement or defined by this Ordinance, may be varied by the consent of all the partners, and such consent may be either express or inferred from a course of dealing.

22. (1) All property and rights and interests in property originally brought into the partnership stock or acquired, whether by purchase or otherwise, on account of the firm, or for the purposes and in the course of the partnership business are called in this Ordinance partnership property and must be held and applied by the partners exclusively for the purposes of the partnership and in accordance with the partnership agreement.

(2) The legal estate or interest in any land that belongs to the partnership shall devolve according to the nature and tenure thereof, and the general rules of law thereto applicable, but in trust, so far as necessary, for the persons beneficially interested in the land under this section.

(3) Where co-owners of an estate or interest in any land, not being itself partnership property, are partners as to profits made by the use of that land or estate, and purchase other land or estate out of the profits, to be used in like manner, the land or estate so purchased belongs to them in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, not as partners, but as co-owners, for the same respective estates and interests as are held by them in the land or estate first mentioned at the date of the purchase.

23. Unless the contrary intention appears, property bought with money belonging to the firm is deemed to have been bought on account of the firm.

24. Where land or any interest therein has become partnership property, it shall, unless the contrary intention appears, be treated as between the partners, including the representatives of a deceased partner, as personal or movable and not real estate.

25. (1) A writ of execution shall not issue against any partnership property except on a judgment against the firm.

(2) The Court may on application by summons by any judgment creditor of a partner, make an order charging that partner's interest in the partnership property and profits with payment of the amount of the judgment debt and interest thereon, and may by the same or a subsequent order appoint a receiver of that partner's share of profits, whether already declared or accruing, and of any other money that may be coming to him in respect of the partnership, and direct all accounts and inquiries, and give all other orders and directions that might have been directed or given if the charge had been made in favour of the judgment creditor by the partner, or that the circumstances of the case may require.

(3) The other partner or partners are at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged, or in case of a sale being directed, to purchase the same.

26. The interests of partners in the partnership property and their rights and duties in relation to the partnership shall be determined, subject to any agreement express or implied between the partners by the following rules:

(a) all the partners are entitled to share equally in the capital and profits of the business, and must contribute equally towards the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the firm;

(b) the firm is bound to indemnify every partner in respect of payments made and personal liabilities incurred by him
(i) in the ordinary and proper conduct of the business of the firm, or
(ii) in or about anything necessarily done for the preservation of the business or property of the firm;

(c) a partner making, for the purpose of the partnership, any actual payment or advance beyond the amount of capital that he has agreed to subscribe, is entitled to interest from the date of the payment or advance;

(d) a partner is not entitled, before the ascertainment of profits, to interest on the capital subscribed by him;

(e) every partner may take part in the management of the partnership business;

(f) no partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business;

(g) no person may be introduced as a partner without the consent of all existing partners;

(h) any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners, but no change may be made in the nature of the partnership business without the consent of all existing partners; and

(i) the partnership books are to be kept at the place of business of the partnership, or the principal place, if there is more than one, and every partner may when he thinks fit, have access to and inspect and copy any of them.

27. No majority of the partners can expel any partner unless a power to do so has been conferred by express agreement between the partners.
28. Where no fixed term has been agreed upon for the duration of the partnership or where a partnership is continued after a fixed term has expired, any partner may determine the partnership at any time on giving notice of his intention so to do to all the other partners, and where the partnership has originally been constituted by deed, a notice in writing, signed by the partner giving it, is sufficient for this purpose.

29. (1) Where a partnership entered into for a fixed term is continued after the term has expired and without any express new agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration of the term so far as is consistent with the incidents of a partnership at will.

(2) A continuance of the business by the partners or such of them as habitually acted therein during the term, without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership affairs, is presumed to be a continuance of the partnership.

30. Partners are bound to render true accounts and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or his legal representatives.

31. (1) Every partner is bound to account to the firm for any benefit derived by him without the consent of the other partners from any transaction concerning the partnership, or from any use by him of the partnership property, name or business connection.

(2) This section applies also to transactions undertaken after a partnership has been dissolved by the death of a partner, and before the affairs thereof have been completely wound up, either by any surviving partner or by the representatives of the deceased partner.

32. Where a partner, without the consent of the other partners, carries on any business of the same nature as and competing with that of the firm, he is bound to account for and pay over to the firm all profits made by him in that business.

33. (1) An assignment by any partner of his share in the partnership, either absolute or by way of mortgage, encumbrance or redeemable charge, does not, as against the other partners, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, or to require any accounts of the partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership books, but entitles the assignee only to receive the share of profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled, and the assignee is bound to accept the account of profits agreed to by the partners.

(2) Where a partnership is dissolved, whether as respects all the partners or as respects the assigning partner, the assignee is entitled to receive the share of the partnership assets to which he is bound to account for and pay over.
the assigning partner is entitled as between himself and the other partners, and, for the purpose of ascertaining that share, to an account as from the date of the dissolution.

(3) In this section "assignee" includes "mortgagee" or "encumbrancee".

Dissolution of Partnership, and its Consequences.

34. Subject to any agreement between the partners, a partnership is dissolved:

(a) where it was entered into for a fixed term, by the expiration of that term,

(b) where it was entered into for a single adventure or undertaking, by the termination of that adventure or undertaking, and

(c) where it was entered into for an undefined time, by any partner giving notice to the other or others of his intention to dissolve the partnership; and in such case the partnership is dissolved as from the date mentioned in the notice as the date of dissolution, or, if no date is so mentioned, as from the date of the communication of the notice.

35. (1) Subject to any agreement between the partners, every partnership is dissolved as regards all the partners by the death of any partner, or by his assignment of his property in trust for the benefit of his creditors.

(2) A partnership may, at the option of the other partners, be dissolved when any partner suffers his share of the partnership property to be charged under this Ordinance for his separate debt.

36. A partnership is in every case dissolved by the happening of any event that makes it unlawful for the business of the firm to be carried on or for the members of the firm to carry it on in partnership.

37. On application by a partner the Court may decree a dissolution of the partnership in any of the following cases:

(a) when a partner is shown to the satisfaction of the Court to be of permanently unsound mind, in which case the application may be made as well on behalf of that partner by his guardian or next friend or person having title to intervene as by any other partner;

(b) when a partner, other than the partner suing, becomes in any other way permanently incapable of performing his part of the partnership contract;

(c) when a partner, other than the partner suing, has been guilty of such conduct as, in the opinion of the Court, regard being had to the nature of the business, is calculated prejudicially to affect the carrying on of the business;
Rights of persons dealing with firm against apparent members of firm.

38. (1) Where a person deals with a firm after a change in its constitution he is entitled to treat all apparent members of the old firm as still being members of the firm until he has notice of the change.

(2) The filing of a declaration under section 58 and the publication of the same once in each week for two consecutive weeks in the Yukon Gazette is notice of dissolution to persons who had not dealings with the firm before the date of filing such declaration and publication.

(3) The estate of a partner who dies or who assigns for the benefit of his creditors, or of a partner who, not having been known to the person dealing with the firm to be a partner, retires from the firm, is not liable for partnership debts contracted after the date of the death, assignment or retirement respectively.

Rights of partner to give notice of dissolution.

39. On the dissolution of a partnership or retirement of a partner any partner may publicly give notice of the same, and may require the other partner or partners to concur for that purpose in all necessary or proper acts, if any, which cannot be done without his or their concurrence.

Continuing authority of partners for purposes of winding up.

40. After the dissolution of a partnership the authority of each partner to bind the firm, and the other rights and obligations of the partners, continue notwithstanding the dissolution so far as may be necessary to wind up the affairs of the partnership, and to complete transactions begun but unfinished at the time of the dissolution, but not otherwise.

Rights of partners as to application of partnership property.

41. On the dissolution of a partnership every partner is entitled, as against the other partners in the firm, and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests as partners, to have the property of the partnership applied in payment of the debts and liabilities of the firm, and to have the surplus assets after such payment applied in payment of what may be due to the partners respectively after deducting what may be due from them as partners to the firm; and for that purpose any partner or his representatives may on the termination of the partnership apply to the Court to wind up the business and affairs of the firm.
42. Where one partner has paid a premium to another on entering into a partnership for a fixed term, and the partnership is dissolved before the expiration of that term otherwise than by the death of a partner, the Court may order the repayment of the premium, or of such part thereof as it thinks just, having regard to the terms of the partnership contract and to the length of time during which the partnership has continued, unless

(a) the dissolution is, in the judgment of the Court, wholly or chiefly due to the misconduct of the partner who paid the premium; or

(b) the partnership has been dissolved by an agreement containing no provision for a return of any part of the premium.

43. Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties thereto, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled

(a) to a lien on, or right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership assets, after satisfying the partnership liabilities, for any sum of money paid by him for the purchase of a share in the partnership and for any capital contributed by him;

(b) to stand in the place of the creditors of the firm for any payments made by him in respect of the partnership liabilities; and

(c) to be indemnified by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation, against all the debts and liabilities of the firm.

44. (1) Subject to subsection (2) where any member of a firm has died or otherwise ceased to be a partner, and the surviving or continuing partners carry on the business of the firm with its capital or assets without any final settlement of accounts as between the firm and the outgoing partner or his estate, then in the absence of any agreement to the contrary, the outgoing partner or his estate is entitled at the option of himself or his representatives to such share of the profits made since the dissolution as the Court may find to be attributable to the use of his share of the partnership assets, or to interest on the amount of his share of the partnership assets.

(2) Where by the partnership contract an option is given to surviving or continuing partners to purchase the interest of a deceased or outgoing partner, and that option is duly exercised, the estate of the deceased partner, or the outgoing partner or his estate as the case may be, is not entitled to any further or other share or profits; but where any partner assuming to act in exercise of the option does not in all material respects comply with the terms thereof, he is liable to account under this section.
Chap. 34.

Partnership.

45. Subject to any agreement between the partners, the amount due from surviving or continuing partners to an outgoing partner or the representatives of a deceased partner in respect of the outgoing or deceased partner's share is a debt accruing at the date of the dissolution or death.

46. In settling accounts between the partners after a dissolution of partnership, the following rules shall, subject to any agreement, be observed:

(a) losses, including losses and deficiencies of capital, shall be paid first out of profits, next out of capital, and lastly, if necessary, by the partners individually in the proportion in which they were entitled to share profits; and

(b) the assets of the firm including the sums, if any, contributed by the partners to make up losses or deficiencies of capital, shall be applied in the following manner and order:

(i) in paying the debts and liabilities of the firm to persons who are not partners therein;

(ii) in paying to each partner rateably what is due from the firm to him for advances as distinguished from capital;

(iii) in paying to each partner rateably what is due from the firm to him in respect of capital; and

(iv) the ultimate residue, if any, shall be divided among the partners in the proportion in which profits are divisible.

REGISTRATION.

47. (1) All persons associated in partnership for trading, manufacturing or mining purposes in the Territory shall cause to be filed in the office of the registration clerk of the registration district in which they carry on or intend to carry on business a declaration in writing signed by the several members of such partnership.

(2) When any of the members are absent from the place where they carry on or intend to carry on business at the time of making such declaration then such declaration shall be signed by the members present, in their own names and also for their absent co-members under their special authority to that effect; such special authority to be at the same time filed with the said registration clerk and annexed to such declaration.

48. The declaration required to be filed under section 47 shall be in Form A and shall contain the names, surnames, additions and residence of each and every partner or associate and the name, style or firm under which they carry on or intend to carry on such business and stating also the time during which the partnership has existed and is to exist also declaring that the persons therein named are the only members of such co-partnership or association.
49. The declaration required to be filed under section 47 shall be filed within two months next after the formation of any partnership and a similar declaration shall in like manner be filed when and so often as any change or alteration of partnership takes place in the membership of such partnership or in the name, style or firm under which they intend to carry on business or in the place of residence of each member of said firm and every new declaration shall state the alteration in the partnership.

50. Every person engaged in business for trading, manufacturing or mining purposes and who is not associated in partnership with any other person or persons but who uses as his business style some name or designation other than his own name or who in such business uses his own name with the addition of “and company” or some other word or phrase indicating a plurality of members in the firm shall cause to be filed as provided in section 47 a declaration of the fact in writing signed by such person.

51. The declaration referred to in section 50 shall contain the name, surname, addition and residence of the person making the same and the name, style or firm under which he carries on or intends to carry on business and shall also state that no other person is associated with him in partnership and the same shall be filed within six months of the time when such style is first used.

REGISTRATION BOOKS.

52. The registration clerk shall keep two alphabetical index books of all declarations of co-partnership filed in his office in pursuance of this Ordinance.

53. In one of such books, hereinafter called the “firm index book”, the registration clerk shall enter in alphabetical order the style of the respective firms in respect of which declarations have been filed in his office, and shall place opposite each entry the names of the persons composing such firm, and the date of the receipt by him of the declaration in the manner shown in Form B.

54. In the second of such books, hereinafter called the “individual index book”, the registration clerk shall enter in alphabetical order the names of the respective members of each of such firms and shall place opposite such entry the style of the firm of which such person is a member and the date of the receipt of the declaration in the manner shown in Form C.

PENALTY FOR NON-REGISTRATION.

55. Every member of any partnership or other person required to register a declaration under the provisions of this Ordinance who fails to do so is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.
EFFECT OF DECLARATION.

56. The allegations made in a declaration required under this Ordinance cannot be controverted by any person who has signed the same nor can they be controverted as against any party not being a partner by a person who has not signed the same but who was really a member of the partnership therein mentioned at the time such declaration was made.

57. Until a new declaration is made and filed by him or by his co-partners or any of them a person who has signed a declaration shall be deemed not to have ceased to be a partner; but nothing in this section exempts from liability any person who being a partner fails to declare the same and such person may, notwithstanding such omission, be sued jointly with the partners mentioned in the declaration or they may be sued alone and if judgment is recovered against them any other partner may be sued jointly or severally in an action on the original cause of action upon which such judgment was rendered; and nothing in this Ordinance shall be construed to affect the rights of any partners with regard to each other except that no declaration shall be controverted by any person who signed it.

DECLARATION OF DISSOLUTION.

58. Upon the dissolution of any partnership any or all of the persons who compose such partnership may sign and file a declaration certifying the dissolution of the partnership in Form D.

LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS.

59. Limited partnerships for the transaction of any mercantile, mechanical, manufacturing or other business within the Territory may be formed by two or more persons, upon the terms, with the rights and powers, and subject to the conditions and liabilities hereinafter mentioned.

60. Limited partnerships may consist of one or more persons, who shall be called general partners, and of one or more persons who contribute in actual cash payments a specific sum as capital to the common stock, who shall be called special partners.

61. General partners are jointly and severally responsible as general partners are by law, but a special partner is not liable for the debts of the partnership except in respect of the amounts by him contributed to the capital.

62. The general partners only may transact business and sign for the partnership and bind the same.

63. The persons desirous of forming a limited partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate, which shall contain

(a) the name or firm under which the partnership is to be conducted;
(b) the general nature of the business intended to be transacted;
(c) the names of all the general and special partners interested therein, distinguishing which are general and which are special partners, and their usual place of residence;
(d) the amount of capital that each special partner has contributed; and
(e) the period at which the partnership is to commence and the period at which it is to terminate.

64. The certificate shall be in Form E and shall be signed by the several persons forming the partnership before a notary public, who shall duly certify the same.

65. The certificate so signed and certified shall be filed in the office of the registration clerk of the registration district in which the principal place of business is or is to be situate, and the certificate shall be recorded by such clerk at full length in a book to be kept for that purpose and open to public inspection.

66. A limited partnership is deemed not to have been formed until a certificate has been made, certified, filed and recorded as provided in this Ordinance; and where any false statement is made in such certificate, all the persons interested in the partnership are liable for all the engagements thereof as general partners.

67. Every renewal or continuance of a limited partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration shall be certified, filed and recorded in the manner required by this Ordinance for its original formation; and every such partnership otherwise renewed or continued is deemed a general partnership.

68. Every alteration made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership, and every such partnership in any manner carried on after such alteration has been made, shall be deemed a general partnership, unless renewed as a special partnership.

69. The business of a limited partnership shall be conducted under a firm name in which the names of the general partners or some one of them only shall be used; and where the name of a special partner is used in such firm name with his privity he is deemed a general partner.

70. Actions in relation to the business of a limited partnership may be brought and conducted by and against the general partners in the same manner as if there were no special partners.
71. No part of the sum that a special partner has contributed to the capital shall be withdrawn by him or paid or transferred to him in the shape of dividends, profits or otherwise, at any time during the continuance of the partnership; but any partner may annually receive lawful interest on the sum so contributed by him, if the payment of such interest does not reduce the original amount of the capital; and if after the payment of such interest any profits remain to be divided, he may also receive his portion of such profits.

72. Where it appears that by the payment of interest or profits to a special partner the original capital has been reduced, the partner receiving the same is bound to restore the amount necessary to make good his share of the deficient capital, with interest.

73. A special partner may from time to time examine into the state and progress of the partnership concerns, and may advise as to their management; but he shall not transact any business on account of the partnership, nor be employed for that purpose as agent, attorney or otherwise; and if he interferes contrary to these provisions, he is deemed a general partner.

74. The general partners are liable to account to each other and to the special partners for their management of the concern in like manner as other partners.

75. In case of the insolvency of a limited partnership, no special partner shall under any circumstances be allowed to claim as creditor until the claims of all the other creditors of the partnership have been satisfied.

76. No dissolution of a limited partnership by the acts of the parties shall take place previous to the time specified in the certificate of its formation or the certificate of its renewal until a notice of such dissolution has been filed in the office in which the original certificate was recorded and has been published once in each week for two consecutive weeks in the Yukon Gazette.

77. Sections 2 to 46 are subject to the special provisions of this Ordinance regarding limited partnerships.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

78. The rules of equity and of common law applicable to partnership continue in force except so far as they are inconsistent with the express provisions of this Ordinance.

No child apparently under the age of eighteen years who is held or brought before a justice for inquiry under any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be placed, allowed to remain or confine with any adult prisoner in any lock-up or police cell used for ordinary criminals or persons charged with crime, nor, subject to section 46, shall any inquiry respecting such child be made or his case disposed of in any place ordinarily used as a police court room.

46. A justice shall, in making an inquiry under this Ordinance respecting a child brought before him for that purpose, dispose of the case where practicable in premises other than the ordinary police court premises, or, where such disposition is not practicable, in the private office of the justice if he has one, or some other room in a public building of the municipality, otherwise in the ordinary police court room, but in the last mentioned case only after the other business of the court for the day has been disposed of.

47. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be held to take away or affect the right of any parent, teacher or other person having the lawful control or charge of a child to administer punishment to a child.

48. Except as provided in this Ordinance, no person shall retain or receive for hire or reward more than one infant, or, in the case of twins, more than two infants, under the age of one year, for the purpose of nursing or maintaining such infants apart from their parents for a longer period than twenty-four hours.

50. Nothing in this Ordinance relieves the child itself or any other person liable for the child's maintenance from liability to contribute towards the maintenance of such child, and the fact of such contribution being made does not deprive a society of any power or right conferred on it by this Ordinance.
51. (1) Where a parent of a child applies to any court having jurisdiction in that behalf for a writ or an order for the production of the child, and the court finds that the parent or guardian has

(a) abandoned or deserted the child;

(b) allowed the child to be brought up by another person at the other person's expense, or by any children's aid society or other public or private institution, for such time and under such circumstances as to satisfy the court that the parent or guardian was unmindful of his duties;

(c) surrendered, by instrument in writing, the custody of the child to another person, or to a children's aid society or other public or private institution; or

(d) otherwise so conducted himself that the court should refuse to enforce his rights to the custody of the child;

(2) If at the time of the application for a writ or order for the production of the child the child is being cared for by another person, or is boarded out by a society duly authorized in that behalf, the court may, in its discretion, if it orders the child to be given up to the parent, further order that the parent shall pay to such person or such society the whole of the costs properly incurred in caring for the child, or such portion thereof as may seem to the court to be just and reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

(2) A cash gratuity shall consist of salary at the rate in effect on the employee's last day of active duty for the period indicated.
Chap. 94.

Public Service.

(3) A cash gratuity shall be based on continuous service uninterrupted by any period of retiring leave.

(4) A cash gratuity, under this section, shall not be granted to an employee whose service is terminated because of inefficiency or misconduct, or to a female employee who resigns for the purpose of getting married or is laid off in order that she may get married.

27. (1) An employee retired for any reason except age or ill health or permitted to resign by the Commissioner is entitled to receive as a gratuity the unexpired portion of his accrued sick leave and special leave at the rate in effect on his last day on active duty but such gratuity shall not be greater than one-half of the cash gratuity he may be granted if he retired or is laid off under the provisions of subsection (1) of section 26.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a cash gratuity shall not be paid to an employee with less than five years continuous service on the date his retirement or resignation becomes effective.

Promotions.

28. (1) Promotion is a change from one class to another with a higher maximum compensation; vacancies shall be filled, as far as is consistent with the best interests of the Public Service, by promotion.

(2) Promotion shall be made for merit by the Commissioner upon such examination, reports, tests, records, ratings or recommendation as he prescribes.

Transfers.

29. The Commissioner may transfer employees within any Department or any position of the Public Service but where such transfer requires a change of residence the concurrence of the head of the household of the employee shall be obtained before such transfer is made.

Suspension and Dismissal.

30. (1) The Head of a Department, and in respect of officers, clerks or other employees employed in a remote district, any officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner, may,

(a) suspend from the performance of his duty any officer, clerk or other employee guilty of misconduct or negligence in the performance of his duties, and

(b) remove such suspension, but no person shall be paid any salary or pay for the time or any part of the time during which he was under suspension, unless the Commissioner is of the opinion that the suspension was unjust or made in error or that the punishment inflicted was too severe.
(2) All cases of suspension, with the reasons therefor, shall be forthwith reported in writing by the person ordering same, to the Commissioner.

31. (1) The Commissioner may dismiss or suspend any Head of a Department, officer, clerk or other employee of the Public Service.

(2) Where a Head of a Department is dismissed or suspended from office, the Commissioner shall report the matter to the Council at its next session.

Abolition of Position.

32. An employee holding a permanent position that is to be abolished or that is no longer required may be laid off and his salary discontinued or reduced to the requirements of another and vacant position for which he is qualified, but his name shall be placed on the list of persons eligible for the class of position from which he was laid off or for any other position for which he may have qualified.

Political Partisanship.

33. (1) No Head of Department, officer, clerk or other employee of the Public Service shall be debarred from voting at any Territorial election, if under the laws governing the said election he has the right to vote; but no such Head of Department, officer, clerk or employee shall engage in partisan work in connection with any such election, or contribute, receive or in any way deal with any money for any party or candidate funds.

(2) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be dismissed from the Public Service.

Gratuity on Death.

34. When a person dies while in the Public Service, after having been at least two continuous years therein, an amount equal to one month's salary shall be paid to his widow or to such person as the Commissioner determines, in addition to any payment for accumulative annual leave in excess of the amount payable for the balance of the month following the date of the employee's death.

SCHEDULE A.

OATH OF OFFICE AND SECRECY.

I, (A.B.) solemnly and sincerely swear that I will faithfully and honestly fulfil the duties that devolve upon me by reason of my employment in the Public Service and that I will not, without due authority in that behalf, disclose or make known any matter that comes to my knowledge by reason of such employment. So help me God.
CHAPTER 95.

AN ORDINANCE TO FACILITATE THE RECIPROCAL ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Ordinance.

2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) "judgment" means a judgment or an order of a court in a civil proceeding whereby a sum of money is made payable, and includes an award in an arbitration proceeding if the award, under the law in force in the jurisdiction where it is made has become enforceable in the same manner as a judgment given by a court therein, but does not include a maintenance order within the meaning of the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Ordinance;
   (b) "judgment creditor" means the person by whom the judgment was obtained, and includes his executors, administrators, successors and assigns;
   (c) "judgment debtor" means the person against whom the judgment was given, and includes any person against whom the judgment is enforceable in the jurisdiction in which it was given;
   (d) "original court" in relation to a judgment means the court by which the judgment was given; and
   (e) "registering court" in relation to a judgment means the court in which the judgment is registered under this Ordinance.

3. (1) Where a judgment has been given in a court in a reciprocating jurisdiction, the judgment creditor may apply to the Territorial Court within six years after the date of the judgment to have the judgment registered in that Court, and on any such application the Court may order the judgment to be registered accordingly.
   (2) An order for registration under this Ordinance may be made ex parte in all cases in which the judgment debtor was personally served with process in the original action, or in which, though not personally served, he appeared or defended or otherwise submitted to the jurisdiction of the original court, but in all other cases reasonable notice of the application for the order shall be given to the judgment debtor.
Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments.

(3) No order for registration shall be made if it is shown to the court to which the application for registration is made that
(a) the original court acted without jurisdiction;
(b) the judgment debtor being a person who was neither carrying on business nor ordinarily resident within the jurisdiction of the original court, did not voluntarily appear or otherwise submit during the proceedings to the jurisdiction of that court;
(c) the judgment debtor, being the defendant in the proceedings, was not duly served with the process of the original court and did not appear, notwithstanding that he was ordinarily resident or was carrying on business within the jurisdiction of that court or agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of that court;
(d) the judgment was obtained by fraud;
(e) an appeal is pending or the time within which an appeal may be taken has not expired;
(f) the judgment was in respect of a cause of action that for reasons of public policy or for some similar reason would not have been entertained by the registering court; or
(g) the judgment debtor would have a good defence if an action were brought on the original judgment.

(4) Registration may be effected by filing the order and an exemplification or a certified copy of the judgment with the clerk of the court in which the order was made, whereupon the judgment shall be entered as a judgment of that court.

4. Where a judgment sought to be registered under this Ordinance is in a language other than the English language, the judgment or the exemplification or certified copy thereof, as the case may be, shall have attached thereto for all purposes of this Ordinance a translation in the English language approved by the Court, and upon such approval being given the judgment shall be deemed to be in the English language.

5. Where a judgment is registered under this Ordinance,
(a) the judgment, from the date of the registration, is of the same force and effect as if it had been a judgment given originally in the registering court on the date of the registration and proceedings may be taken thereon accordingly, except that where the registration is made pursuant to an ex parte order, no sale or other disposition of any property of the judgment debtor shall be made under the judgment before the expiration of the period fixed by paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 6 or such further period as the registering court may order;
(b) the registering court has the same control and jurisdiction over the judgment as it has over judgments given by itself; and
(c) the reasonable costs of and incidental to the registration of the judgment, including the costs of obtaining an ex-
6. (1) Where a judgment is registered pursuant to an ex parte order,

(a) within one month after the registration or within such further period as the registering court may order, notice of the registration shall be served upon the judgment debtor in the same manner as provided by the rules of the registering court for service of statements of claim; and

(b) the judgment debtor, within one month after he has had notice of the registration, may apply to the registering court to have the registration set aside.

(2) On any application referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) the court may set aside the registration upon any of the grounds mentioned in subsection (3) of section 3 and upon such terms as the court thinks fit.

7. The Commissioner may make rules respecting the practice and procedure including costs in proceedings under this Ordinance and until rules are so made, the rules made under the Reciprocal Enforcement of Judgments Act of the Province of British Columbia shall mutatis mutandis be followed.

8. (1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that reciprocal provisions have been or will be made by a province of Canada for the enforcement therein of judgments given in the Territory, he may by order declare it to be a reciprocating jurisdiction for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) The Commissioner may revoke any order made under subsection (1) and thereupon the jurisdiction with respect to which the order was made ceases to be a reciprocating jurisdiction for the purposes of this Ordinance.

9. Nothing in this Ordinance deprives a judgment creditor of the right to bring an action on his judgment instead of proceeding under this Ordinance.
CHAPTER 96.

AN ORDINANCE TO FACILITATE THE ENFORCEMENT OF MAINTENANCE ORDERS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,

(a) "certified copy", in relation to an order of a court, means a copy of the order certified by the proper officer of the court to be a true copy;

(b) "court" means an authority having statutory jurisdiction to make maintenance orders;

(c) "dependants" means the persons that a person against whom a maintenance order has been made is liable to maintain according to the law in force in the place where the maintenance order was made;

(d) "maintenance order" means an order other than an order of affiliation, for the periodical payment of money towards the maintenance of the wife or other dependants of the person against whom the order was made; and

(e) "reciprocating state" means a jurisdiction declared under section 14 to be a reciprocating state.

ENFORCEMENT OF MAINTENANCE ORDERS MADE IN RECIPROCATING STATES.

3. (1) Where either before or after the 2nd day of April, 1955, a maintenance order has been made against a person by a court in a reciprocating state and a certified copy of the order has been transmitted by the proper officer of the reciprocating state to the Commissioner, the Commissioner shall send a certified copy of the order for registration to the proper officer of a court in the Territory designated by the Commissioner as a court for the purposes of this section, and on receipt thereof the order shall be registered.

(2) An order registered under subsection (1) has, from the date of its registration, the same force and effect, and, subject to this Ordinance, all proceedings may be taken thereon, as if it had been an order originally obtained in the court in which it is so registered, and that court has power to enforce the order accordingly.
(3) A maintenance order that makes payable a sum of money expressed in a currency other than the currency of Canada shall not be registered until the court in which it is sought to register the order has determined the equivalent of that sum in the currency of Canada, and upon its registration the order shall be deemed to be an order for the payment of the sum so determined.

MAINTENANCE ORDERS AGAINST NON-RESIDENTS.

4. Where either before or after the 2nd day of April, 1955, a court in the Territory has made a maintenance order against a person and it is proved to the court that the person against whom the order was made is resident in a reciprocating state, the court shall, on the request of the person in whose favour the order was made, send a certified copy of the order to the Commissioner for transmission to the proper officer of the reciprocating state.

5. (1) Where an application is made to a court in the Territory for a maintenance order against a person and it is proved that that person is resident in a reciprocating state, the court may, in the absence of that person and without service of notice on him, if after hearing the evidence it is satisfied of the justice of the application, make any maintenance order that it might have made if a summons had been duly served on that person and he had failed to appear at the hearing; but an order so made is provisional only and has no effect until it is confirmed by a competent court in the reciprocating state.

(2) Where the evidence of a witness who is examined on an application mentioned in subsection (1) is not taken in shorthand, the evidence shall be put into the form of a deposition, and the deposition shall be read over and signed by the witness and also by the judge or other person presiding at the hearing.

(3) Where an order has been made pursuant to subsection (1),

(a) the court shall prepare,

(i) a statement showing the grounds on which the making of the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order was made had been duly served with a summons and had appeared at the hearing, and

(ii) a statement showing the information that the court possesses for facilitating the identification of the person against whom the order was made and ascertaining his whereabouts; and

(b) the court shall send to the Commissioner for transmission to the proper officer of the reciprocating state.

(i) a certified copy of the order,

(ii) the depositions or a certified copy of the transcript of the evidence, and

(iii) the statements referred to in paragraph (a).
Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders.

(4) Where a provisional order made under this section has come before a court in a reciprocating state for confirmation and the order has by that court been remitted to the court in the Territory that made the order for the purpose of taking further evidence, the court in the Territory shall, after giving the notice prescribed by the rules, proceed to take the evidence in like manner and subject to the like conditions as the evidence in support of the original application.

(5) Where upon the hearing of the evidence taken under subsection (4) it appears to the court in the Territory that the order ought not to have been made, the court may rescind the order, but in any other case the depositions or a certified copy of the transcript of the evidence, if it was taken in shorthand, shall be sent to the Commissioner and dealt with in like manner as the depositions or transcript of the original evidence.

(6) The confirmation of an order made under this section does not affect any power of the court that originally made the order to vary or rescind the order, but an order varying an original order has no effect until it is confirmed in like manner as the original order.

(7) Where, after an order made under this section is confirmed, the court that originally made the order makes a varying or rescinding order, that court shall send a certified copy thereof, together with the depositions or a certified copy of the transcript of any new evidence adduced before the court, to the Commissioner for transmission to the proper officer of the reciprocating state in which the original order was confirmed.

(8) An applicant for a provisional order under this section has the same right of appeal, if any, against a refusal to make the order as he would have had against a refusal to make the order if a summons had been duly served on the person against whom the order is sought to be made.

CONFIRMATION OF MAINTENANCE ORDERS MADE IN RECIPROCATING STATES.

6. (1) Where

(a) a maintenance order has been made by a court in a reciprocating state and the order is provisional only and has no effect until confirmed by a court in the Territory;

(b) a certified copy of the order, together with the depositions of witnesses and a statement of the grounds on which the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order was made had been a party to the proceedings is received by the Commissioner; and

(c) it appears to the Commissioner that the person against whom the order was made is resident in the Territory; the Commissioner may send the documents to a court designated by him as a court for the purposes of this section, and upon receipt of the documents the court shall issue a summons calling upon the person against whom the order was made to show cause why the order should not be confirmed, and cause it to be served upon such person.

(2) At a hearing under this section the person on whom the summons was served may raise any defence that he might have raised in the original proceedings if he had been a party thereto, but no other defence; and the statement from the court that made the provisional order stating the grounds on which the making of the order might have been opposed if the person against whom the order was made had been a party to the proceedings is conclusive evidence that those grounds are grounds on which objection may be taken.

(3) Where, at a hearing under this section, the person who was served with the summons does not appear or, having appeared, fails to satisfy the court that the order ought not to be confirmed, the court may confirm the order either without modification or with such modifications as the court after hearing the evidence considers just.

(4) Where the person against whom a summons was issued under this section appears at the hearing and satisfies the court that for the purpose of any defence it is necessary to remit the case to the court that made the provisional order for the taking of any further evidence, the court may so remit the case and adjourn the proceedings for the purpose.

(5) Where a provisional order has been confirmed under this section, it may be varied or rescinded in like manner as if it had originally been made by the confirming court, and where on an application for rescission or variation the court is satisfied that it is necessary to remit the case to the court that made the order for the purpose of taking further evidence, the court may so remit the case and adjourn the proceedings for the purpose.

(6) Where an order has been confirmed under this section, the person bound thereby has the same right of appeal, if any, against the confirmation of the order as he would have had against the making of the order if the order had been an order made by the court confirming the order.

(7) An order confirmed under this section has, from the date of its confirmation, the same force and effect, and, subject to this Ordinance, all proceedings may be taken thereon, as if it had been an order originally obtained in the court in which it is so confirmed, and that court has power to enforce the order accordingly.

GENERAL.

7. A court in which an order has been registered under this Ordinance or by which an order has been confirmed under this Ordinance and the officers of the court shall take all proper steps for enforcing the order.
Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders.

8. Where under this Ordinance a document is sent to the Commissioner for transmission to the proper officer of a reciprocating state, the Commissioner shall transmit the document accordingly.

9. The Commissioner may make rules prescribing the practice and procedure, including costs, under this Ordinance.

10. A document purporting to be signed by a judge or officer of a court in a reciprocating state shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been so signed without proof of the signature or judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed it, and the officer of a court by whom a document is signed shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have been the proper officer of the court to sign the document.

11. Depositions or transcripts from shorthand of evidence taken in a reciprocating state, for the purposes of this Ordinance, may be received in evidence before the court in the Territory under this Ordinance.

12. Where a maintenance order sought to be registered or confirmed under this Ordinance is in a language other than the English language, the maintenance order or a certified copy thereof shall have attached thereto for all purposes of this Ordinance a translation in the English language approved by the court, and upon such approval being given the maintenance order shall be deemed to be in the English language.

13. Nothing in this Ordinance deprives a person of the right to obtain a maintenance order instead of proceeding under this Ordinance.

14. (1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that reciprocal provisions will be made by a jurisdiction in or outside Canada reciprocating for the enforcement therein of maintenance orders made within the Territory, the Commissioner may by order declare it to be a reciprocating state for the purposes of this Ordinance.

(2) The Commissioner may revoke any order made under subsection (1) and thereupon the jurisdiction with respect to which the order was made ceases to be a reciprocating state for the purposes of this Ordinance.
AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE SALE OF GOODS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Sale of Goods Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. (1) In this Ordinance,

(a) “action” includes counterclaim and set off;

(b) “buyer” means a person who buys or agrees to buy goods;

(c) “contract of sale” includes an agreement to sell as well as the sale;

(d) “delivery” means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another;

(e) “document of title to goods” has the same meaning as it has in the Factors Ordinance;

(f) “fault” means wrongful act or default;

(g) “future goods” means goods to be manufactured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract of sale;

(h) “goods” includes all chattels personal, other than things in action or money, and includes emblements, industrial growing crops and things attached to or forming part of the land that are agreed to be severed before sale or under the contract of sale;

(i) “property” means the general property in goods and not merely a special property;

(j) “quality of goods” includes their state or condition;

(k) “sale” includes a bargain and sale as well as a sale and delivery;

(l) “seller” means a person who sells or agrees to sell goods;

(m) “specific goods” means goods identified and agreed upon at the time a contract of sale is made;

(n) “warranty” means an agreement with reference to goods that are the subject of a contract of sale but collateral to the main purpose of such contract, the breach of which gives rise to a claim for damages but not to a right to reject the goods and treat the contract as repudiated.

(2) A thing is deemed to be done “in good faith” within the meaning of this Ordinance when it is in fact done honestly, whether it is done negligently or not.
(3) A person is deemed to be insolvent within the meaning of this Ordinance who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due.

(4) Goods are in a “deliverable state” within the meaning of this Ordinance when they are in such a state that the buyer would under the contract be bound to take delivery of them.

PART I.

FORMATION OF THE CONTRACT.

CONTRACT OF SALE.

3. (1) A contract of sale of goods is a contract whereby the seller transfers or agrees to transfer the property in goods to the buyer for a money consideration called the price; there may be a contract of sale between one part owner and another.

(2) A contract of sale may be absolute or conditional.

(3) Where under a contract of sale the property in the goods is transferred from the seller to the buyer the contract is called a sale; but where the transfer of the property in the goods is to take place at a future time or subject to some condition thereafter to be fulfilled the contract is called an agreement to sell.

(4) An agreement to sell becomes a sale when the time elapses or the conditions are fulfilled subject to which the property in the goods is to be transferred.

4. (1) Subject to subsection (2), capacity to buy and sell is regulated by the general law concerning capacity to contract and to transfer and acquire property.

(2) Where necessaries are sold and delivered to an infant or minor or to a person who by reason of mental incapacity or drunkenness is incompetent to contract he is bound to pay a reasonable price therefor.

(3) The expression “necessaries” in subsection (2) means goods suitable to the condition in life of the infant, minor or other person and to his actual requirements at the time of the sale and delivery.

FORMALITIES OF THE CONTRACT.

5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and of any Ordinance in that behalf a contract of sale may be made in writing, either with or without seal, or by word of mouth or partly in writing and partly by word of mouth or may be implied from the conduct of the parties.

(2) Nothing in this section affects the law relating to corporations.
6. (1) A contract for the sale of goods of the value of fifty dollars or upwards is not enforceable by action unless the buyer accepts part of the goods so sold and actually receives the same or gives something in earnest to bind the contract or in part payment or unless some note or memorandum in writing of the contract is made and signed by the party to be charged or his agent in that behalf.

(2) This section applies to every contract for the sale of goods of the value of fifty dollars or upwards notwithstanding that the goods may be intended to be delivered at some future time or may not at the time of the contract be actually made, procured or provided or fit or ready for delivery or some act may be requisite for the making or completing thereof or rendering them fit for delivery.

(3) There is an acceptance of goods within the meaning of this section when the buyer does any act in relation to the goods that recognizes a pre-existing contract of sale whether there be an acceptance in performance of the contract or not.

SUBJECT MATTER OF CONTRACT.

7. (1) The goods that form the subject of a contract of sale may be either existing goods owned or possessed by the seller or goods to be manufactured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract of sale, in this Ordinance called “future goods”.

(2) There may be a contract for the sale of goods the acquisition of which by the seller depends upon a contingency that may or may not happen.

(3) Where by a contract of sale the seller purports to effect a present sale of future goods the contract operates as an agreement to sell the goods.

8. Where there is a contract for the sale of specific goods and the goods without the knowledge of the seller have perished at the time when the contract is made, the contract is void.

9. Where there is an agreement to sell specific goods and subsequently the goods without any fault on the part of the seller or buyer perish before the risk passes to the buyer the agreement is thereby avoided.

THE PRICE.

10. (1) The price in a contract of sale may be fixed by the contract or may be left to be fixed in manner thereby agreed or may be determined by the course of dealing between the parties.

(2) Where the price is not determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions the buyer is bound to pay a reasonable price; what is a reasonable price is a question of fact dependent on the circumstances of each particular case.
11. (1) Where there is an agreement to sell goods on the terms that the price is to be fixed by the valuation of a third party and the third party cannot or does not make such valuation the agreement is avoided; but where the goods or any part thereof have been delivered to and appropriated by the buyer he is bound to pay a reasonable price therefor.

(2) Where the third party is prevented from making the valuation by the fault of the seller or buyer, the party not in fault may maintain an action for damages against the party in fault.

CONDITIONS AND WARRANTIES.

12. (1) Unless a different intention appears from the terms of the contract, stipulations as to time of payment are deemed not to be of the essence of a contract of sale; whether any other stipulation as to time is of the essence of the contract or not depends on the terms of the contract.

(2) In a contract for sale “month” means prima facie calendar month.

13. (1) Where a contract of sale is subject to a condition to be fulfilled by the seller, the buyer may waive the condition or may elect to treat the breach of the condition as a breach of warranty, and not as a ground for treating the contract as repudiated.

(2) Whether a stipulation in a contract of sale is a condition the breach of which may give rise to a right to treat the contract as repudiated or a warranty the breach of which may give rise to a claim for damages but not to a right to reject the goods and treat the contract as repudiated, depends in each case on the construction of the contract; a stipulation may be a condition though called a warranty in the contract.

(3) Where a contract of sale is not severable and the buyer has accepted the goods or part thereof or where the contract is for specific goods the property in which has passed to the buyer, the breach of a condition to be fulfilled by the seller can only be treated as a breach of warranty and not as a ground for rejecting the goods and treating the contract as repudiated unless there is a term of the contract expressed or implied to that effect.

(4) Nothing in this section affects a condition or warranty fulfilment of which is excused by law by reason of impossibility or otherwise.

14. In a contract of sale unless the circumstances of the contract are such as to show a different intention there is

(a) an implied condition on the part of the seller that in the case of a sale he has a right to sell the goods and that in the case of an agreement to sell he will have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;
(b) an implied warranty that the buyer shall have and enjoy quiet possession of the goods; and

(c) an implied warranty that the goods shall be free from any charge or encumbrance in favour of any third party not declared or known to the buyer before or at the time when the contract is made.

15. When there is a contract for the sale of goods by description, there is an implied condition that the goods shall correspond with the description; and if the sale is by sample as well as by description, it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

16. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and of any Ordinance in that behalf there is no implied warranty or condition as to the quality or fitness for any particular purpose of goods supplied under a contract of sale except as follows:

(a) where the buyer expressly or by implication makes known to the seller the particular purpose for which the goods are required so as to show that the buyer relies on the seller’s skill or judgment and the goods are of a description that it is in the course of the seller’s business to supply, whether he is the manufacturer or not, there is an implied condition that the goods shall be reasonably fit for such purpose;

(b) where goods are bought by description from a seller who deals in goods of that description, whether he is the manufacturer or not, there is an implied condition that the goods shall be of merchantable quality; except that if the buyer has examined the goods there is no implied condition as regards defects that such examination ought to have revealed;

(c) an implied warranty or condition as to quality or fitness for a particular purpose may be annexed by the usage of trade; and

(d) an express warranty or condition does not negative a warranty or condition implied by this Ordinance unless inconsistent therewith.

SALE BY SAMPLE.

17. (1) A contract of sale is a contract for sale by sample where there is a term in the contract express or implied to that effect.

(2) In the case of a contract for sale by sample,

(a) there is an implied condition that the bulk shall correspond with the sample in quality;

(b) there is an implied condition that the buyer shall have a reasonable opportunity of comparing the bulk with the sample; and
(c) there is an implied condition that the goods shall be free from any defect rendering them unmerchantable that would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample.

PART II.

EFFECTS OF THE CONTRACT.

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AS BETWEEN SELLER AND BUYER.

18. Where there is a contract for the sale of unascertained goods no property in the goods is transferred to the buyer unless and until the goods are ascertained.

19. (1) Where there is a contract for the sale of specific or ascertained goods the property in them is transferred to the buyer at such time as the parties to the contract intend it to be transferred.

(2) For the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the parties regard shall be had to the terms of the contract, the conduct of the parties and the circumstances of the case.

20. Unless a different intention appears the following are rules for ascertaining the intention of the parties as to the time at which the property in the goods is to pass to the buyer:

Rule I.—Where there is an unconditional contract for the sale of specific goods in a deliverable state the property in the goods passes to the buyer when the contract is made and it is immaterial whether the time of payment or the time of delivery or both is postponed.

Rule II.—Where there is a contract for the sale of specific goods and the seller is bound to do something to the goods for the purpose of putting them into a deliverable state the property does not pass until such thing is done and the buyer has notice thereof.

Rule III.—Where there is a contract for the sale of specific goods in a deliverable state but the seller is bound to weigh, measure, test or do some other act or thing with reference to the goods for the purpose of ascertaining the price, the property does not pass until such act or thing is done and the buyer has notice thereof.

Rule IV.—When goods are delivered to the buyer on approval or “on sale or return” or other similar terms the property therein passes to the buyer

(a) when he signifies his approval or acceptance to the seller or does any other act adopting the transaction, or

(b) where he does not signify his approval or acceptance to the seller but retains the goods without giving notice of rejection and a time has been fixed for the return of the goods, on the expiration of such time; and where no time has been fixed, on the expiration of a reasonable time; what is a reasonable time is a question of fact.

Chap. 97.

Sale of Goods.

Rule V.—(1) Where there is a contract for the sale of unascertained or future goods by description and goods of that description and in a deliverable state are unconditionally appropriated to the contract either by the seller with the assent of the buyer or by the buyer with the assent of the seller the property in the goods thereupon passes to the buyer; such assent may be expressed or implied and may be given either before or after the appropriation is made;

(2) Where in pursuance of the contract the seller delivers the goods to the buyer or to a carrier or other bailee, whether named by the buyer or not, for the purpose of transmission to the buyer and does not reserve the right of disposal he is deemed to have unconditionally appropriated the goods to the contract.

21. (1) Where there is a contract for the sale of specific goods or where goods are subsequently appropriated to the contract the seller may by the terms of the contract or appropriation reserve the right of disposal of the goods until certain conditions are fulfilled; in such case, notwithstanding the delivery of the goods to the buyer or to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer, the property in the goods does not pass to the buyer until the conditions imposed by the seller are fulfilled.

(2) Where goods are shipped and by the bill of lading the goods are deliverable to the order of the seller or his agent the seller is prima facie deemed to have the right of disposal.

(3) Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price and transmits the bill of exchange and bill of lading to the buyer together to secure acceptance or payment of the bill of exchange, the buyer is bound to return the bill of lading if he does not honour the bill of exchange and if he wrongfully retains the bill of lading the property in the goods does not pass to him.

22. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), unless otherwise agreed the goods remain at the seller's risk until the property therein is transferred to the buyer; but when the property therein is transferred to the buyer the goods are at the buyer's risk whether delivery has been made or not.

(2) Where delivery has been delayed through the fault of either buyer or seller, the goods are at the risk of the party in fault as regards any loss that might not have occurred but for such fault.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the duties or liabilities of either seller or buyer as a bailee or custodian of the goods of the other party.

TRANSFER OF TITLE.

23. (1) Subject to this Ordinance, where goods are sold by a person who is not the owner thereof and who does not sell them under the authority or with the consent of the owner, the buyer acquires no better title to the goods than the seller had unless the owner of the goods is by his conduct precluded from denying the seller's authority to sell.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance affects
(a) the provisions of the Factors Ordinance or any enactment enabling the apparent owner of goods to dispose of them as if he were the true owner thereof, or
(b) the validity of any contract or sale under any special common law or statutory power of sale or under the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

24. When the seller of goods has a voidable title thereto but his title has not been voided at the time of sale the buyer acquires a good title to the goods if he buys them in good faith and without notice of the seller's defect of title.

25. (1) When a person having sold goods continues or is in possession of the goods or of the document of title to the goods, the delivery or transfer by that person or by a mercantile agent acting for him of the goods or documents of title under any sale, pledge or other disposition thereof to any person receiving them in good faith and without notice of the previous sale has the same effect as if the person making the delivery or transfer was expressly authorized by the owner of the goods to make it.

(2) Where a person having bought or agreed to buy goods obtains with the consent of the seller possession of the goods or the documents of title to the goods, the delivery or transfer by that person or by a mercantile agent acting for him of the goods or documents of title under any sale, pledge or other disposition thereof to any person receiving them in good faith and without notice of any lien or other right of the original seller in respect of the goods has the same effect as if the person making the delivery or transfer were a mercantile agent in possession of the goods or documents of title with the consent of the owner.

(3) In this section the term "mercantile agent" has the same meaning as in the Factors Ordinance.

PART III.

PERFORMANCE OF THE CONTRACT.

26. It is the duty of the seller to deliver the goods and of the buyer to accept and pay for them in accordance with the terms of the contract of sale.

27. Unless otherwise agreed delivery of the goods and payment of the price of concurrent conditions, that is to say, the seller must be ready and willing to give possession of the goods to the buyer in exchange for the price and the buyer must be ready and willing to pay the price in exchange for possession of the goods.
Sale of Goods.

28. (1) Whether it is for the buyer to take possession of the goods or for the seller to send them to the buyer is a question depending in each case on the contract expressed or implied between the parties; apart from any such contract express or implied the place of delivery is the seller's place of business if he has one and, if not, his residence; but if the contract is for the sale of specific goods that to the knowledge of the parties when the contract is made are in some other place, then that place is the place of delivery.

(2) Where under the contract of sale the seller is bound to send the goods to the buyer but no time for sending them is fixed, the seller is bound to send them within a reasonable time.

(3) Where the goods at the time of the sale are in possession of a third person, there is no delivery by seller to buyer unless and until the third person acknowledges to the buyer that he holds the goods on his behalf.

(4) Nothing in this section affects the operation of the issue or transfer of any document of title to goods.

(5) Demand or tender of delivery may be treated as ineffectual unless made at a reasonable hour; what is a reasonable hour is a question of fact.

(6) Unless otherwise agreed the expenses of and incidental to putting the goods into a deliverable state shall be borne by the seller.

29. (1) Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods less than he contracted to sell the buyer may reject them; but if the buyer accepts the goods so delivered he is bound to pay for them at contract rate.

(2) Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods larger than he contracted to sell the buyer may accept the goods included in the contract and reject the rest or he may reject the whole; when the buyer accepts the whole of the goods so delivered he is bound to pay for them at the contract rate.

(3) Where the seller delivers to the buyer goods he contracted to sell mixed with goods of a different description not included in the contract, the buyer may accept the goods that are in accordance with the contract and reject the rest or he may reject the whole.

(4) The provisions of this section are subject to any usage of trade, special agreement or course of dealing between the parties.

30. (1) Unless otherwise agreed the buyer of goods is not bound to accept delivery thereof by instalments.

(2) Where there is a contract for the sale of goods to be delivered by stated instalments that are to be separately paid for and the seller makes defective deliveries in respect of one or more instalments or the buyer neglects or refuses to take delivery of or pay for one or more instalments, it is a question in each case depending on the terms of the contract and the Sale of Goods.

31. (1) Where in pursuance of a contract of sale the seller is authorized or required to send the goods to the buyer, delivery of the goods to a carrier, whether named by the buyer or not for the purpose of transmission to the buyer is prima facie deemed to be a delivery of the goods to the buyer.

(2) Unless otherwise authorized by the buyer, the seller is bound to make such contract with the carrier on behalf of the buyer as may be reasonable having regard to the nature of the goods and the other circumstances of the case; when the seller omits to do so and the goods are lost or damaged in course of transit the buyer may decline to treat the delivery to the carrier as a delivery to himself or may hold the seller responsible in damages.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed where goods are sent by the seller to the buyer by a route involving sea transit under circumstances in which it is usual to insure, the seller is bound to give such notice to the buyer as may enable him to insure them during their sea transit; and where the seller fails to do so the goods are deemed to be at his risk during such sea transit.

32. Where the seller of goods agrees to deliver them at his own risk at a place other than that where they are when sold the buyer is nevertheless bound, unless otherwise agreed, to take any risk of deterioration in the goods necessarily incident to the course of transit.

33. (1) Where goods are delivered to the buyer that he has not previously examined he is deemed not to have accepted them unless and until he has had a reasonable opportunity of examining them for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed when the seller tenders delivery of goods to the buyer he is bound on request to afford the buyer a reasonable opportunity of examining the goods for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

34. The buyer is deemed to have accepted the goods when he intimates to the seller that he has accepted them or when the goods have been delivered to him and he does any act in relation to them that is inconsistent with the ownership of the seller or when after the lapse of a reasonable time he retains the goods without intimating to the seller that he has rejected them.

35. Unless otherwise agreed where goods are delivered to the buyer and he refuses to accept them having the right so to do, he is not bound to return them to the seller but it is sufficient if he intimates to the seller that he refuses to accept them.
Liability of buyer for neglecting or refusing delivery of goods.

36. (1) When the seller is ready and willing to deliver the goods and requests the buyer to take delivery and the buyer does not within a reasonable time after such request take delivery of the goods, he is liable to the seller for any loss occasioned by his neglect or refusal to take delivery and also for a reasonable charge for the care and custody of the goods.

(2) Nothing in this section affects the rights of the seller where the neglect or refusal of the buyer to take delivery amounts to a repudiation of the contract.

PART IV.

RIGHTS OF UNPAID SELLER AGAINST THE GOODS.

37. (1) The seller of the goods is deemed to be an “unpaid seller” within the meaning of this Ordinance
   (a) when the whole of the contract price has not been paid or tendered; or
   (b) when a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument has been received as conditional payment and the condition on which it was received has not been fulfilled by reason of the dishonour of the instrument or otherwise.

(2) In this Part the term “seller” includes a person who is in the position of a seller; for example, an agent of the seller to whom the bill of lading has been endorsed or a consignor or agent who has himself paid or is directly responsible for the price.

38. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance and of any Ordinance in that behalf, notwithstanding that the property in the goods may have passed to the buyer the unpaid seller of goods as such has by implication of law,
   (a) a lien on the goods or right to retain them for a price while he is in possession of them;
   (b) in the case of the insolvency of the buyer a right of stopping the goods in transit after he has parted with the possession of them; and
   (c) a right of re-sale as limited by this Ordinance.

(2) Where the property in goods has not passed to the buyer the unpaid seller has in addition to his other remedies a right of withholding delivery similar to and co-extensive with his rights of lien and stoppage in transit where the property has passed to the buyer.

UNPAID SELLER’S LIEN.

39. (1) Subject to this Ordinance the unpaid seller of goods who is in possession of them is entitled to retain possession of them until payment or tender of the price, in any of the following cases, namely,
   (a) where the goods have been sold without any stipulation as to credit;
Sale of Goods.

(b) where the goods have been sold on credit but the term of credit has expired; and
(c) where the buyer becomes insolvent.

(2) The seller may exercise his right of lien notwithstanding that he is in possession of the goods as agent or bailee for the buyer.

40. Where an unpaid seller has made part delivery of the goods he may exercise his right of lien or retention of the remainder unless such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an agreement to waive the lien or right of retention.

41. (1) The unpaid seller of goods loses his lien or right of retention thereon
(a) when he delivers the goods to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer without reserving the right of disposal of the goods;
(b) when the buyer or his agent lawfully obtains possession of the goods; or
(c) by waiver thereof.

(2) The unpaid seller of goods having a lien or right of retention thereon does not lose his lien or right of retention by reason only that he has obtained judgment or decree for the price of the goods.

STOPPAGE IN TRANSITU.

42. Subject to this Ordinance, when the buyer of goods becomes insolvent the unpaid seller who has parted with the possession of the goods has the right of stopping them in transit; that is to say, he may resume possession of the goods as long as they are in course of transit and may retain them until payment or tender of the price.

43. (1) Goods are deemed to be in course of transit from the time when they are delivered to a carrier, by land or water, or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer, until the buyer or his agent in that behalf takes delivery of them from such carrier or other bailee.

(2) When the buyer or his agent in that behalf obtains delivery of the goods before their arrival at the appointed destination the transit is at an end.

(3) Where, after the arrival of the goods at the appointed destination, the carrier or other bailee acknowledges to the buyer or his agent that he holds the goods on his behalf and continues in possession of them as bailee for the buyer or his agent the transit is at an end and it is immaterial that a further destination for the goods may have been indicated by the buyer.
(4) Where the goods are rejected by the buyer and the carrier or other bailee continues in possession of them the transit is deemed not to be at an end even if the seller has refused to receive them back.

(5) Where goods are delivered to a ship chartered by the buyer it is a question depending on the circumstances of the particular case whether they are in the possession of the master as a carrier or as agent to the buyer.

(6) Where the carrier or other bailee wrongfully refuses to deliver the goods to the buyer or his agent in that behalf the transit is deemed to be at an end.

(7) Where part delivery of the goods has been made to the buyer or his agent in that behalf the remainder of the goods may be stopped in transitu unless such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an agreement to give up possession of the whole of the goods.

44. (1) The unpaid seller may exercise his right of stoppage in transitu either by taking actual possession of the goods or by giving notice of his claim to the carrier or other bailee in whose possession the goods are; such notice may be given either to the person in actual possession of the goods or to his principal; in the latter case the notice to be effectual must be given at such time and under such circumstances that the principal by the exercise of reasonable diligence may communicate it to his servant or agent in time to prevent delivery to the buyer.

(2) When notice of stoppage in transitu is given by the seller to the carrier or other bailee in possession of the goods he must redeliver the goods to or according to the direction of the seller; the expenses of such redelivery are to be borne by the seller.

RESALE BY BUYER OR SELLER.

45. (1) Subject to this Ordinance the unpaid seller’s right of lien or retention or stoppage in transitu is not affected by any sale or other disposition of the goods which the buyer may have made unless the seller has assented thereto.

(2) Where a document of title of goods has been lawfully transferred to any person as buyer or owner of the goods and that person transfers the document to a person who takes the document in good faith and for valuable consideration then, if such last mentioned transfer was by way of sale, the unpaid seller’s right of lien or retention or stoppage in transitu is defeated and if such last mentioned transfer was by way of pledge or other disposition for value the unpaid seller’s right of lien or retention or stoppage in transitu can only be exercised subject to the rights of the transferee.

46. (1) Subject to this section a contract of sale is not rescinded by the mere exercise by an unpaid seller of his right of lien or retention or stoppage in transitu.
Sale of Goods.

(2) Where an unpaid seller who has exercised his rights of lien or retention or stoppage in transitu resells the goods the buyer acquires a good title thereto as against the original buyer.

(3) Where the goods are of a perishable nature or where the unpaid seller gives notice to the buyer of his intention to resell and the buyer does not within a reasonable time pay or tender the price, the unpaid seller may resell the goods and recover from the original buyer damages for any loss occasioned by his breach of contract.

(4) Where the seller expressly reserves a right of resale in case the buyer should make default and on the buyer making default resells the goods the original contract of sale is thereby rescinded but without prejudice to any claim the seller may have for damages.

PART V.

ACTIONS FOR BREACH OF THE CONTRACT.

REMEDIES OF THE SELLER.

47. (1) Where under a contract of sale the property in the goods has passed to the buyer and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay for the goods according to the terms of the contract the seller may maintain an action against him for the price of the goods.

(2) Where under a contract of sale the price is payable on a certain day, irrespective of delivery, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay such price, the seller may maintain an action for the price although the property in the goods has not passed and the goods have not been appropriated to the contract.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prejudice the right of the seller to recover interest on the price from the date of tender of the goods or from the date on which the price was payable, as the case may be.

48. (1) Where the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to accept and pay for the goods the seller may maintain an action against him for damages for non-acceptance.

(2) The measure of damages is the estimated loss directly and naturally resulting in the ordinary course of events from the buyer's breach of contract.

(3) Where there is an available market for the goods in question the measure of damages is prima facie to be ascertained by the difference between the contract price and the market or current price at the time or times when the goods ought to have been accepted or if no time was fixed for acceptance then at the time of the refusal to accept.

REMEDIES OF THE BUYER.

49. (1) Where the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods to the buyer the buyer may maintain an action against the seller for damages for non-delivery.
(2) The measure of damages is the estimated loss directly and naturally resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach of contract.

(3) Where there is an available market for the goods in question the measure of damages is prima facie to be ascertained by the difference between the contract price and the market or current price of the goods at the time or times when they ought to have been delivered or if no time was fixed then at the time of the refusal to deliver.

50. In any action for breach of contract to deliver specific or ascertained goods the court may if it thinks fit on the application of the plaintiff by its judgment or decree direct that the contract shall be performed specifically without giving the defendant the option of retaining the goods on payment of damages; the judgment or decree may be unconditional or upon such terms and conditions as to damages, payment of the price and otherwise as to the court may seem just and the application by the plaintiff may be made at any time before judgment or decree.

51. (1) Where there is a breach of warranty by the seller or where the buyer elects or is compelled to treat any breach of a condition on the part of the seller as a breach of warranty, the buyer is not by reason only of such breach of warranty entitled to reject the goods; but he may

(a) set up against the seller the breach of warranty in diminution or extinction of the price, or

(b) maintain an action against the seller for damages for the breach of warranty.

(2) The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the estimated loss directly and naturally resulting in the ordinary course of events from the breach of warranty.

(3) In the case of breach of warranty of quality such loss is prima facie the difference between the value of the goods at the time of delivery to the buyer and the value they would have had if they had answered to the warranty.

(4) The fact that the buyer has set up the breach of warranty in diminution or extinction of the price does not prevent him from maintaining an action for the same breach of warranty if he has suffered further damage.

52. Nothing in this Ordinance affects the right of the buyer or the seller to recover interest or special damages in any case where by law interest or special damages may be recoverable or to recover money paid where the consideration for the payment of it has failed.
PART VI.

SUPPLEMENTARY.

53. Where any right, duty or liability would arise under a contract of sale by implication of law it may be negatived or varied by express agreement or by the course of dealing between the parties or by usage if the usage is such as to bind both parties to the contract.

54. Where by this Ordinance any reference is made to a reasonable time the question as to what is a reasonable time is a question of fact.

55. Where any right, duty or liability is declared by this Ordinance it may unless otherwise by this Ordinance provided be enforced by action.

56. (1) Where goods are put up for sale by auction in lots each lot is prima facie deemed to be the subject of a separate contract of sale.

(2) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer announces its completion by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner; until such announcement is made any bidder may retract his bid.

(3) Where a sale by auction is not notified to be subject to a right to bid on behalf of the seller it is not lawful for the seller to bid himself or to employ any person to bid at such sale or for the auctioneer knowingly to take any bid from the seller or any such person; any sale contravening this rule may be treated as fraudulent by the buyer.

(4) A sale by auction may be notified to be subject to a reserve or upset price and the right to bid may also be reserved expressly by or on behalf of the seller; where a right to bid is expressly reserved, but not otherwise, the seller or any one person on his behalf may bid at the auction.

57. Where a buyer has elected to accept goods that he might have rejected and to treat a breach of contract as only giving rise to a claim for damages he may in an action by the seller for the price be required, in the discretion of the court before which the action depends, to consign or pay into court the price of the goods or part thereof or to give other reasonable security for the due payment thereof.
58. (1) The rules of the common law including the law merchant except in so far as they are inconsistent with the express provisions of this Ordinance and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake or other invalidating cause shall continue to apply to contracts for the sale of goods.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance affects an enactment relating to bills of sale or any enactment relating to the sale of goods except as expressly provided by this Ordinance.

(3) The provisions of this Ordinance relating to contracts of sale do not apply to any transaction in the form of a contract of sale that is intended to operate by way of mortgage, pledge, charge or other security.

break jams of such intermixed logs, and to clear them from the banks and shores with reasonable despatch, and to float, run and drive them in, upon and down the water, and the costs and expenses thereof shall be borne by the parties in such proportions as they may agree upon, and in default of agreement as may be determined by arbitration.

on the men for a fair proportion of the charges and expenses of making the separation, and for the reasonable charges and expenses of booming and keeping possession, and such person as may be reasonably necessary to satisfy the amount of such fair proportion of charges and expenses, pending a decision by arbitration.

5, 8 or 11 shall use all reasonable care not to take such logs beyond the place of their original destination, if known, but may securely boom and keep possession of them at or above such place.

forthwith notify the owner or the person who controls the logs, if known, of the whereabouts of the logs and if satisfactory security be given in accordance with subsection (3), for the amount of charges and expenses, or a proper proportion thereof, due by such owner or person, possession of the logs shall be given up to him.

(3) The security referred to in subsection (2) may be by bond in Form A or by deposit of money or in such other way as the parties may agree upon.

Ordinance and without just cause takes possession of or detains logs of another person on banks or shores, or has taken logs of another person beyond the place of their original destination, he is liable to damages as determined by arbitration.

of any person for tolls or dues, for the use of any works or improvements made use of in running or driving logs.

Ordinance shall be determined by arbitration and not by action.

sions of this Ordinance,

(3) The two arbitrators appointed under this section shall, within ten days after the appointment of the second arbitrator, appoint a third, and if they do not do so either party may apply to a judge to appoint the third arbitrator, and the judge shall appoint such arbitrator.

17. The parties may agree that the arbitration shall be by one arbitrator instead of by three, and they may either agree upon the arbitrator or may apply to a judge to appoint one and such arbitrator shall have all the powers given under this Ordinance to arbitrators.

18. A person upon whom a notice is served under section 16 may at any time before arbitration, or with leave of the arbitrators, during the arbitration, give the claimant notice in writing by way of counterclaim, stating the substance of any claim arising under this Ordinance which such person may have against the claimant and such counterclaim shall be determined in the arbitration and an award made in respect of it.

19. (1) Where the award of the arbitrators is in favour of a person who has a lien on logs under this Ordinance such person may sell the logs in the manner, time and place determined by the arbitrators.

(2) Money received from a sale pursuant to subsection (1) shall be expended first in payment of the charges and expenses connected with the sale, then in satisfaction of the amount owing on the lien and costs of arbitration and the balance, if any, shall be transmitted to the owner of the logs.

Arrears. 52. (1) The taxes on lands and improvements together with the penalty provided in section 50 that are unpaid on the thirty-first day of March in every year shall be deemed taxes in arrears and shall bear interest from the said date at the rate of six per cent per annum and such interest shall be deemed to become part of the said arrears of taxes.

(2) Such total amount of arrears of taxes shall be deemed to be a charge upon the parcel of land or improvements in all respects as if the said penalty and interest had originally formed part of the taxes levied thereon.

53. (1) All taxes on lands and improvements remaining unpaid on the thirty-first day of March in the year following that taxation year in which the taxes are imposed shall be deemed to be delinquent on the said thirty-first day of March.

(2) All taxes that become delinquent at the date mentioned in subsection (1) shall thereafter bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum until paid or recovered.

(3) Such added interest shall be deemed to be part of the said delinquent taxes and a charge upon the parcel of land or improvements in all respects as if the said interest had originally formed part of the taxes levied thereon.

54. Except as in this Ordinance otherwise provided, no money received by the Territorial Collector in payment of taxes due upon any parcel of land or improvements shall be applied to the payment of taxes of the then current taxation year until all taxes which became due in the previous years have been fully paid.

55. (1) Any person whose name appears on the assessment roll of the Territorial Assessor in any year as the owner of any land or improvements or any taxable interest therein within the Territory is liable for all taxes imposed under this Ordinance.

(2) The liability imposed by this section shall be a debt recoverable by action brought on behalf of the Territorial Government in the Territorial Court by the Commissioner.
(3) Production of a copy of the Territorial Collector's roll or of so much of the said roll as refers to the taxes payable by such person, written or printed without any erasure or interlineation and certified as a true copy by the Territorial Assessor shall be prima facie evidence of the debt without proof of the signature of the Territorial Assessor or production of the original Territorial Collector's roll or of a part of which such certified copy purports to be a copy.

(4) The liability imposed by this section shall not be enforced by action against any person whose name appears on the assessment roll by reason of the fact that he is an executor, administrator or trustee of any estate except to the extent and value of the assets of such estate which shall have come into his hands.

56. (1) Where any person fails to pay the Territorial Collector the taxes due and payable by him within thirty days after the same have become due and payable notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any Ordinance, the Territorial Collector may by himself or his agent levy the same with the costs by distress of the goods and chattels of the person who ought to pay the same.

(2) The costs chargeable in such distress shall be those made payable in cases of distress for rents and penalties by the Distress Ordinance.

(3) Where any person fails to pay to the Territorial Collector the taxes due and payable to him within thirty days after the same have become due and payable, the Territorial Assessor or Collector may give notice to any person from whom any debt is due or accruing due to such first mentioned person and the person served with such notice shall at once or as soon as such debt accrues due pay such taxes to the Territorial Collector to the extent of such debt or to the full amount of such taxes whichever is the lesser and such payment shall be a discharge and release pro tanto of such debt to the extent of the amount of such payment to the Territorial Collector and after such notice has been given and such debt is due or has accrued due the Territorial Collector may levy distress of the goods of the person to the amount of such debt or so much as is sufficient to pay such taxes and such distress shall be a discharge and release as aforesaid.

(4) No warrant shall be necessary to enable the Territorial Collector or his agent to levy distress under this section or to justify him in so doing but it shall be sufficient for him to serve a notice personally or by prepaid registered letter on the person on whose goods, or on goods in whose possession he is about to make distress of the amount claimed by him for rates and taxes and of the fact that he is about to make such distress.

(5) Goods distrained under this section may be impounded on the premises or any part thereof on which they are found or may be removed for safe-keeping; in either case the Collector may leave any person or persons in charge of the same if he deems it necessary for their safe-keeping.
Sale of goods distrained.

57. The Territorial Collector or his agent after giving five days' notice of sale by hand bills posted in at least five conspicuous places in the district in which the sale is to take place shall sell such goods on the premises or at any other place in the Territory for the best price to be gotten therefor and shall apply the proceeds of such sale towards the satisfaction of the rates and taxes due and expenses incurred and shall pay the surplus, if any, to the owner of such goods if known or to the person in whose possession they were when the distress was levied.

58. Where a distress and sale of goods is made by the Territorial Collector or agent under section 57, the Territorial Collector may sue for any balance of rates and taxes due and unpaid after such sale in the manner provided by section 55.

59. (1) Where any person who is indebted for Territorial rates and taxes due, and who has been served with a notice requiring him to pay the same, is about to leave the Territory the Territorial Collector or any Territorial agent may make an affidavit before a judge of the Territorial Court or before any police magistrate or justice of the peace that such person is indebted to the Territorial Government for such rates and taxes and that he believes that such person is about to leave the Territory and that such rates and taxes will be lost unless the goods of such person are forthwith distrained or unless such person is forthwith arrested, and thereupon such judge, police magistrate or justice of the peace, notwithstanding that the time named in such notice has not expired, may by order direct the Territorial Collector or agent forthwith to levy distress of the goods of such person or may make an order that such person be arrested and held to bail for such sum not exceeding the amount of such rates and taxes and probable costs as to such judge, police magistrate and justice of the peace seems proper.

(2) It is not necessary for the Territorial Collector or agent to state in the affidavit mentioned in subsection (1) the grounds of his belief.

(3) Such order directing the Territorial Collector or agent to levy distress shall authorize and justify him in making any distress that he could have made if such rates and taxes were due and payable; any order that a person be arrested and held to bail shall be subject to the Rules of Court made pursuant to the Judicature Ordinance respecting the arrest of defendants, insofar as they relate to the execution of a special order and the imprisonment of any person thereunder.

60. In any action brought against any person for the recovery of rates and taxes owing to the Territorial Government where there is a defence pleaded, a certificate in writing purporting to be signed by the Territorial Assessor or Collector or a Territorial agent that the defendant's name appears on the Collector's roll for the sum claimed from him for rates and taxes and that the said sum has not been paid shall without proof of handwriting be prima facie evidence in any court of such rates and taxes being due and unpaid.

61. Any person absent or absconding from the Territory who is indebted for Territorial rates and taxes may be proceeded against for such rates and taxes under the Rules of Court made pursuant to the Judicature Ordinance respecting the attachment of personal property, notwithstanding that the amount of such rates and taxes is less than one hundred dollars.

62. The Territorial rates and taxes of any person who becomes insolvent or assigns his property constitute a lien upon his estate and shall be paid by the trustee or assignee of such property and in default of payment such rates and taxes may be collected from such trustee or assignee in the same manner and by the same proceedings as if such rates and taxes had been rated on such trustee or assignee personally, unless he satisfies the Territorial Assessor or Collector that sufficient money or property of such person to satisfy such rates and taxes has not come into his possession or under his control.

63. On the fifteenth day of July in each year at such place or places as the Commissioner may designate at the hour of three o'clock in the afternoon, the Territorial Assessor and the Territorial agents shall offer for sale by public auction all and every parcel of land and improvements, if any, thereon upon which the taxes are delinquent.

64. (1) The Territorial Collector shall prepare a list of the lands to be sold as authorized by this Ordinance showing the respective owners thereof and the amounts of taxes due thereon and shall include therein in a separate column a statement of the proportion of costs chargeable on each lot for advertising and the sum of fifty cents for each parcel to be sold and shall designate at what place the sale of each parcel shall be held.

(2) The Territorial Collector shall cause the said list to be posted in a conspicuous place in his office and in the office of every Territorial agent and in three other places within each municipality for four consecutive weeks before the day fixed for such sale and also, at least four weeks before the day fixed for such sale, he shall publish once a copy of said list in the Yukon Gazette and in any newspaper or newspapers published in the Territory which the Commissioner may designate.

(3) The list described in subsection (1) shall be headed as follows:

Yukon Territory will be offered for sale for delinquent

1183
Chap. 103. Taxation.

...taxes on the fifteenth day of July, 19......, at three o'clock in the afternoon at the places hereinafter designated."

(4) Such posting and publication shall constitute good and effective service of said notice upon all persons named therein and all persons having any interest in the lands described therein.

65. (1) At the time and places appointed for such sale the Territorial Collector or agents shall proceed to sell such lands and improvements at public auction to the highest bidder therefor.

(2) From the proceeds of such sale the Territorial Collector and agents shall be authorized to receive a price equal to or exceeding the sum of the following amounts:

(a) the total amount of delinquent taxes upon the land and upon the improvements thereon;
(b) the total amount of taxes in arrears upon such land and upon the improvements thereon;
(c) the total amount of the interest and penalty due to date;
(d) the amount of the current year's taxes upon such lands and upon the improvements thereon; and
(e) a sum equal to the costs and expenses in and to such sale; which said sum shall be the upset price and shall be the lowest amount for which the land may be sold.

(3) If the price realized at the sale exceeds the sum of the amounts provided in subsection (2), the Territorial Assessor shall pay the balance to the owner of such land and improvements, if he is known to the Territorial Assessor, unless the said land and improvements are subject to a lien or encumbrance.

(4) If the owner of such land and improvements is not known to or cannot be found by the Territorial Assessor, or if such land and improvements are subject to a lien or encumbrance, the Territorial Assessor shall pay such balance into the Territorial Court to abide the order of the judge thereof.

(5) Upon the sale of such land and improvements, the Territorial Collector or agent shall deliver to the purchaser a receipt for the price in Form B in the Schedule.

(6) Every purchaser at a Territorial tax sale, other than the Territorial Government, at the time of such sale and before he is given a receipt in Form B, shall by himself or his agent sign a statement setting out his full name, occupation and Post Office address.

(7) In the event of there being no bid for, or no bid equal to the upset price of any land and improvements, the Territorial Government shall be declared to be the purchaser thereof.

66. Any mortgagee, judgment creditor or other person having an encumbrance or lien upon or against the land or land and improvements advertised for sale under this Ordinance may pay the sum provided in subsection (2) of section 65 and obtain from... the Collector a certificate to that effect and thereupon shall be entitled to add the amount so paid to the amount due on such mortgage, judgment, encumbrance or lien.

67. (1) No error, informality or irregularity on the part of the Territorial Assessor, the Court of Revision, the Territorial Collector or of any Territorial Officer and no error or omission in giving any notice required by this Ordinance to be given shall affect or prejudice the validity of any general or individual assessment made or of any tax or rate levied, distrained for or collected.

(2) The invalidity, irregularity or illegality of any individual assessment, tax or rate shall not extend to affect the validity of any general assessment, tax or rate of any other assessment, tax or rate.

68. (1) No application for an order for confirmation for a sale of lands or improvements for taxes made under this Ordinance shall be heard by a judge until three months have elapsed since the date of the sale to be confirmed.

(2) With leave of the judge, notice of such application may be given by one publication in the Yukon Gazette, at such time in advance of the day on which the application is to be made as the judge shall direct.

(3) In such notice the names of all persons appearing by the records of the Land Registry Office on the date of the sale to be confirmed and of all persons appearing on the Territorial Collector's roll to have any interest in the lands and improvements sold shall be set forth.

(4) The notice shall be given by summons of the judge obtained ex parte returnable in such time as the judge directs after service thereof.

(5) Application to confirm a tax sale made under this Ordinance shall be made by the Territorial Collector.

69. Any person having an interest in lands or improvements sold for taxes under this Ordinance may redeem the same at any time before the time for hearing of the application for confirmation of the sale of such lands or improvements by paying to the purchaser or his assignee the amount of the purchase money paid therefor and any further sums charged against the said lands and improvements and lawfully paid together with twenty per cent of the said amount and sums and such costs as a judge may allow.

70. From the time of the payment to the purchaser or his assignee of the amount mentioned in section 69 all right and interest of the purchaser in said lands and improvements shall cease and determine and he shall give a receipt for such payment and the person making such payment shall advise the Territorial Collector of such redemption.
71. (1) Subject to the foregoing sections, on any application for an order for the confirmation of such sale the production of a receipt for the price paid for the land or lands and improvements signed by the Territorial Collector or a Territorial Agent shall be prima facie evidence that all conditions have existed and all acts been performed and all requirements of this Ordinance in that behalf have been complied with which are necessary to entitle the applicant to the order of confirmation.

(2) Where such application is not made until after the expiration of six months from the date of the receipt, such receipt is conclusive evidence that all conditions have existed and all costs have been performed and all requirements of this Ordinance in that behalf have been complied with which are necessary to entitle the applicant to the order of confirmation, except on proof of any one or more of the following:

(a) fraud or collusion;
(b) that all taxes have been paid previous to the sale; or
(c) that the land was not liable to assessment.

72. Upon the granting of an order of a judge confirming the sale, the Territorial Collector shall in his own name as Territorial Collector execute and deliver to the purchaser a transfer in Form C. which shall be as effectual to transfer and convey all the estate of the registered owner thereof in the land sold as if the same had been executed and delivered by such owner to such purchaser and as if such land was free of all liens and encumbrances.

73. No action shall be commenced for any thing done in pursuance of any provisions of this Ordinance after six months from the date of the act complained of.

74. (1) There shall be assessed upon and levied and collected from the owner or occupier of every mineral claim situate in the Territory, for which a Crown grant has been issued pursuant to regulations for the disposal of quartz mining claims, a tax of twenty cents for every acre and fractional part of an acre of land conveyed by the grant.

(2) The tax shall be payable on the first day of August in each year.

75. (1) Notwithstanding section 74, where the owner of such a mineral claim establishes to the satisfaction of the Collector that the sum of not less than two hundred dollars has been expended upon such claim in bona fide mining development work during the year preceding the date when the tax becomes payable, the tax shall not be levied in respect thereof for that year.

(2) Such work shall be valued by the Collector in accordance with the schedule of values in force from time to time required as assessment work on quartz mineral claims and any owner of adjoining mineral claims, whether Crown granted or not, not exceeding eight in number, shall be allowed to perform in mining development work during the year preceding the date when the tax became payable upon any one or more of such adjoining claims of the full value required at the rate of two hundred dollars on each claim to entitle all of such mineral claims to exemption from the payment of the tax.

(3) To secure the benefit of this section, the owner shall file with the Collector a statement showing
(a) in detail the nature of the work performed;
(b) the amount expended on the claim;
(c) the name and address of the owner or occupier; and
(d) if the owner or occupier is not a resident of the Territory, the name and Post Office address of his agent within the Territory;
duly verified by the affidavit of the owner, occupier or his agent on or before the first day of August in each and every year in which such exemption is claimed.

(4) Within thirty days after the receipt of any statement of expenditure, unless the Collector is satisfied as to the correctness and bona fides of the same, he shall give notice to the person who filed the same that he is not satisfied with his statement.

(5) The owner or occupier or his agent may within thirty days after the service of a notice under subsection (4) refer the statement questioned to the Commissioner, who shall enquire into and determine the matter and, for the purposes of such enquiry, may examine on oath or affirmation such witnesses as may be produced and such documents, books and instruments as he may deem necessary and shall have the same power to enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel them to give evidence as is vested in the Court in civil cases.

(6) The decision and determination of the Commissioner as to the correctness of such statement and the bona fides of the expenditure shall be final and conclusive and shall be reported to the Collector in writing.

76. (1) All notices required by this Ordinance to be given to or served upon any owner or occupier may be served personally on such owner or occupier or his agent or may be served by sending the same by prepaid post to such owner or occupier or agent at the address which he files in the office of the Collector, or sets out in a statement filed under section 75.

(2) When any notice required by this Ordinance is sent or served by post, service of such notice shall be deemed to have been effected by properly addressing, prepaying and mailing such notice and such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which the notice is mailed.

77. (1) On or before the first day of August in each year, the Collectors shall prepare a tax list upon which shall be entered alphabetically the names of the owners, the name and description of each claim subject to the tax, the acreage of each such Claim, the amount of the arrears of taxes and penalties, if any, and the amount of the current year's tax and the total of such amounts in respect of each claim and shall date and sign the list.

(2) On or before the first day of August in each year the Collector shall date and sign and deposit a copy of the tax list in the Office of the Mining Recorder for the districts in which the claims therein designated are situate and in the Land Titles Office for the District and in the Office of the Collector.

(3) The copies of the tax list shall be posted up in each of the offices in which they are deposited under the provisions of subsection (2) and be open to inspection, without fee, by any person during the hours when such offices are open to the public.

78. Where the tax imposed by this Ordinance remains unpaid on and after the first day of December in any year, there shall be added to the amount of such tax at the beginning of each month thereafter as a penalty an additional sum in the amount of three-fourths of one per cent of such tax until payment of the tax and the tax shall not be deemed to have been paid until the amount thereof with the penalty added shall have been fully paid to the Collector.

79. The tax is payable to the Collector in one sum upon the total acreage of the claim and the Collector shall not receive any portion of the tax from any person on account of alleged divided or undivided interests or shares in the claim, and unless the full amount of the tax on the total acreage of the claim, together with all penalties and charges made under this Ordinance, is tendered and paid, no receipt shall be issued.

80. The tax shall form a first charge upon the claim in respect to which the same is levied.

81. On or before the first day of January in each year, the Collector shall mail to the last known address of the owner of the claim in respect to which such tax is unpaid and to the address of his agent filed under section 74 a notice stating that the tax on the claim has become delinquent and that the penalty will be added thereto monthly until the tax and all penalties thereto added are paid, and that, if the tax and penalties are not paid, the claim will be advertised and offered for sale at public auction on the third Tuesday in the month of July occurring in the second year after the expiration of the year in which the tax became payable.

82. (1) The Collector shall give notice of every such sale by publication in three consecutive weekly issues of a newspaper published in the Territory nearest to the location of the lands to be sold, and once in the Yukon Gazette.

(2) The first publication of the notice of sale shall be made not less than sixty days before the date of the sale.
(3) Notice of sale published under this section shall state in respect to each claim
(a) the name of the owner of the claim;
(b) the name and description of the claim;
(c) the amount of the unpaid taxes and penalties due and that will accrue due on the day of the sale;
(d) the costs of advertising and other expenses;
(e) the total amount of the tax, penalties, costs of advertising and other expenses; and
(f) that if such total amount is not paid before the third Tuesday in the month of July, the claim will be offered for sale at public auction under the provisions of this Ordinance.

83. (1) On the day appointed for the sale of the claim, the Collector or his agent shall proceed to sell the claim at public auction to the highest bidder therefor.

(2) At such sale the Collector shall be authorized to receive a price equal to, or exceeding, the sum of the amounts due for taxes, penalties and costs in respect of the claim, which sum shall be the upset price and shall be the lowest amount for which the claim may be sold.

(3) Where the price realized at the sale exceeds the upset price, the Collector shall pay the balance to the owner of the claim, if he is known to the Collector, unless the claim sold is subject to a registered lien or encumbrance.

(4) If the owner of such claim is not known to or cannot be found by the Collector, or if such claim is subject to a registered lien or encumbrance, the Collector shall pay such balance into Court to abide the order of a judge.

(5) Upon the sale of a claim the Collector shall issue in triplicate an interim receipt in Form D to the purchaser for the full amount of the purchase price, and he shall deliver one of the interim receipts to the purchaser, and file one in the Land Registry Office, and retain and file one in his own office.

(6) Where the purchaser of any claim fails to pay immediately to the Collector the amount of the purchase price, the Collector forthwith shall put up again the claim for sale.

(7) Where there is no bid for, or no bid equal to the upset price of any claim, the Commissioner shall be declared to be the purchaser thereof.

84. Any mortgagee, judgment creditor or other person having an encumbrance or lien upon or against any claim advertised for sale under this Ordinance may pay the sum of the amounts due for taxes, penalties, costs of advertising and other expenses in respect of such claim to the Collector, and obtain a certificate to that effect from him, and thereupon shall be entitled to add the amount so paid to the principal sum due or owing on such mortgage, judgment, encumbrance or lien.
85. (1) The owner of any claim sold for taxes may redeem the same at any time before the expiration of twelve months from the day of the sale by paying to the Collector the full amount for which the claim was sold, together with the interest thereon at the rate of twenty per cent per annum from the date of the sale until the date of such payment, and also the amount of any taxes and penalties which have accrued due in respect of such claim since the date of the sale.

(2) Upon receipt of a payment made under the provisions of subsection (1), the Collector shall issue to the owner a certificate that the claim has been redeemed and shall file a copy of the said certificate in the Land Registry Office, and at once shall notify the purchaser of such redemption, and request him to return to the Collector the interim receipt issued to him at the time of the sale, or produce to the Collector satisfactory evidence of its loss.

(3) Upon receipt of the interim receipt, or satisfactory evidence of its loss from the purchaser, the Collector shall pay to the purchaser the amount of the purchase money and interest thereon received from the owner.

(4) From the time of the issue of the notice of redemption to the purchaser under this section, he shall have no further right or interest in the claim.

86. (1) During the twelve month period of redemption, the owner shall have the right of possession of the claim, as fully as before the sale and during such period, but not after, the owner may remove from the claim such mining plant and buildings thereon as he may remove without damage to any tunnel or other mining development work begun, done or constructed upon the claim, and he shall be liable to the purchaser for any damage done to any such tunnel or works in such removal.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the purchaser of the claim shall have the right to protect the claim from spoilation and waste during the period of redemption.

87. (1) No application for an order for confirmation of a sale of a claim or claims for taxes made under this Ordinance shall be heard by a judge until twelve months have elapsed since the date of the sale to be confirmed.

(2) Notice of such application shall be given by one publication in a newspaper published in the mining district where the claim or claims are situate, or, if there be no such newspaper, in a newspaper published in the Territory and circulating in that mining district, at least thirty days before the day on which the application will be made.

(3) In such notice, the name and description of the claim and the names of all persons appearing by the records of the Land Titles Office on the date of the sale to be confirmed, and of all persons appearing on the tax list to have any interest in the claim shall be set forth.
(4) Such publication shall constitute good and effective service of the notice upon any person having any interest in the claim sold.

88. (1) Application to confirm such sale may be made to the Court at any time after the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (2) of section 87 by the Collector.

(2) Upon such application the production of an interim receipt for the price paid for the claim, signed by the Collector or his agent, shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions have existed, and all acts have been performed, and all requirements of this Ordinance in that behalf complied with that are necessary to entitle the applicant to the order of confirmation, except on proof of any one or more of the following:

(a) fraud or collusion;
(b) that all taxes have been paid previous to the sale; or
(c) that the claim was not liable to assessment.

89. (1) Upon the granting of an order of a judge confirming the sale, the Collector shall notify the purchaser, other than the Commissioner, that such order has been granted, and that upon receipt of a payment of ten dollars, and the purchaser’s interim receipt he will issue to the purchaser a transfer of the claim in Form E.

(2) Upon receipt of the payment of ten dollars and the purchaser’s interim receipt, or, if the Commissioner is the purchaser, immediately after the granting of the order, the Collector shall issue and deliver to the purchaser a transfer in Form E, which shall be as effective to transfer and convey all the estate of the owner of the claim sold as if the same had been executed and delivered by such owner to such purchaser, and as if such claim were free of all liens and encumbrances.

90. All moneys received by the Collector under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be paid over to the Territorial Treasurer for the use of the Territory, and shall form a part of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

91. The Commissioner may transfer and convey to Her Majesty in the right of Canada any claims which have become vested in the Commissioner, or in Her Majesty in right of the Yukon Territory, by virtue of any tax sale proceedings heretofore taken, or which may become so vested by virtue of tax sale proceedings taken in future, without the payment of any consideration for such transfer to the Territorial Government.

Where by letters patent, transfer, conveyance, assurance, will or other assignment, land or an interest in land is granted, transferred, conveyed, assigned or devised to two or more persons other than executors or trustees in fee simple or for any less estate, legal or equitable, such persons shall take as tenants in common and not as joint tenants unless an intention sufficiently appears on the face of such letters patent, transfer, conveyance, assurance, will or other assignment that they are to take such land or interest in land as joint tenants.
CHAPTER 105.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING TRUSTEES AND EXECUTORS AND THE ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATES.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Trustee Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance, "trustee" includes an executor or administrator and a trustee whose trust arises by construction or implication of law as well as an express trustee, and includes several joint trustees.

INVESTMENTS.

3. (1) Trustees having in their hands trust money that it is in their discretion to invest at interest may, subject to the terms of the trust, invest trust money in

(a) securities that are a first charge upon land in the Territory or any province of Canada; and

(b) the debentures or securities of the Government of Canada, of the Territory or of any of the provinces of Canada or any debentures or securities the payment of which is guaranteed by the Government of Canada, by the Territory or by any province of Canada, if such investments are in other respects reasonable and proper.

(2) Trustees may at their discretion call in any trust funds invested in securities other than those mentioned in subsection (1) and invest the trust funds in any stock, debentures, or securities of a nature authorized by this Ordinance, and vary any such investments for others of the same nature.

(3) Money already invested in the manner authorized by subsection (1) shall be held and taken to have been lawfully and properly invested.

4. (1) A trustee may, unless expressly forbidden by the instrument, if any, creating the trust, deposit trust funds in his hands with or invest such funds in terminable debentures or debenture stock of a society or company mentioned in subsection (2), if such deposit or investment is in other respects reasonable and proper, the debentures are registered and are transferable only on the books of the society or company in his name as trustee for the particular trust estate for which they are held and the deposit account in the ledger of the company or society is in the name of the trustee for the particular trust estate for which it is held and the deposit, receipt or pass book is not transferable by indorsement or otherwise.
Chap. 105.

Trustees.

(2) An incorporated society or company authorized to lend money upon mortgages on real estate and having a capitalized, fixed paid up and permanent stock not liable to be withdrawn amounting to at least four hundred thousand dollars and a reserve fund of not less than twenty-five per cent of its paid up capital, and the stock of which has a market value of not less than seven per cent premium, is a society or company for the purposes of subsection (1).

(3) The trustees may from time to time vary any investments authorized by this section.

(4) No deposits or investments shall be made under the authority of this section with or in the debentures or debenture stock of any society or company that has not obtained an order of the Commissioner approving of the deposits or investments, and such approval shall not be granted to any society or company that does not appear to have kept strictly within its legal powers in relation to borrowing and investment.

(5) The Commissioner may at any time revoke an order approving of deposits with or investments in the debentures or debenture stock of any society or company, and such revocation does not affect the propriety of deposits or investments made before revocation.

5. The powers conferred by sections 3 and 4 are in addition to the powers conferred by the instrument, if any, creating the trust; but nothing in this Ordinance authorizes a trustee to do anything that he is in express terms forbidden to do or to omit anything that he is in express terms directed to do by the instrument creating the trust.

6. (1) No trustee lending money upon the security of property is chargeable with breach of trust, by reason only of the proportion borne by the amount of the loan to the value of the property at the time when the loan was made where it appears to the court that in making the loan the trustee was acting upon a report as to the value of the property made by a person whom the trustee reasonably believed to be an able practical surveyor or valuer instructed and employed independently of any owner of the property whether such surveyor or valuer carried on business in the locality where the property is situated or elsewhere and that the amount of the loan does not exceed two-thirds of the value of the property as stated in the report and that the loan was made under the advice of the surveyor or valuer expressed in the report.

(2) This section applies to a loan upon property upon the security of which the trustee can lawfully lend and to transfers of existing securities as well as to new securities and to investments made as well before as after the commencement of this Ordinance.
Trustees.

Chap. 105.

7. Where a trustee has improperly advanced trust money on mortgage security that would at the time of the investment have been a proper investment in all respects for a less sum than was actually advanced thereon the security shall be deemed an authorized investment for such less sum and the trustee is only liable to make good the sum advanced in excess thereof with interest.

8. No trustee is liable for breach of trust by reason only of his continuing to hold an investment that has ceased to be an investment authorized by the instrument of trust or by the general law.

Rights and Liabilities of Trustees.

9. Every deed, will or other document creating a trust either expressly or by implication shall without prejudice to the clauses actually contained therein be deemed to contain a clause in the words or to the effect following, that is to say:

"That the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said deed, will or other instrument shall be respectively chargeable only for such moneys, stocks, funds and securities as they shall respectively actually receive notwithstanding their respectively signing any receipt for the sake of conformity and shall be answerable and accountable only for their own acts, receipts, neglects or defaults and not for those of each other nor for any banker, broker or other person with whom any trust moneys or securities may be deposited; nor for the insufficiency or deficiency of any stocks, funds or securities nor for any other loss unless the same shall happen through their own wilful neglect or default respectively; and also that it shall be lawful for the trustees or trustee for the time being of the said deed, will or other instrument to reimburse themselves or himself or pay or discharge out of the trust premises all expenses incurred in or about the execution of the trusts or powers of the said deed, will or other instrument."

10. (1) Whenever it is expedient to appoint one or more trustees, and it is inexpedient, difficult or impracticable so to do without the assistance of the court, a judge may make an order for the appointment of a new trustee or new trustees, either in substitution for or in addition to any existing trustee or trustees, or although there is no existing trustee; and in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, the judge may make an order for the appointment of a new trustee in substitution for a trustee who is convicted of an indictable offence, or is insolvent.

(2) No order under subsection (1) or a consequential vesting order or conveyance shall operate further or otherwise as a discharge to any former or continuing trustee than an appointment of new trustees under a power for that purpose contained in an instrument would have operated.
Chap. 105.

Trustees.

(3) Nothing in this section gives power to appoint a personal representative.

II. (1) Where a trustee dies or desires to be discharged from the trust or refuses or becomes unfit to act or incapable of acting therein, the person nominated for that purpose by the deed, will or other instrument creating the trust, if any, or if there be no such person, or no such person able and willing to act, then the surviving or continuing trustees or the personal representative of the last surviving and continuing trustee, may appoint any other person or persons to be a trustee or trustees in place of the trustee or trustees dying, or desiring to be discharged, or refusing, or becoming unfit, or incapable of acting.

(2) So often as any new trustee or trustees is or are appointed under subsection (1) all the trust property that for the time being is vested in the surviving or continuing trustees or trustee or in the heirs, executors or administrators of any trustee or trustees shall with all convenient speed be assigned and transferred so that the same may be legally and effectually vested in such new trustee or trustees either solely or jointly with the surviving or continuing trustees or a surviving or continuing trustee as the case may require.

(3) Every new trustee, as well before as after a conveyance, assignment or transfer pursuant to subsection (2), and every trustee appointed by the judge, shall have the same powers, authorities and discretions, and shall in all respects act as if he had originally been nominated a trustee by the deed, will or other instrument creating the trust.

12. On the appointment of a new trustee for the whole or any part of trust property

(a) the number of trustees may be increased;

(b) a separate set of trustees may be appointed for any part of the trust property held on trusts distinct from those relating to any other part of the trust property notwithstanding that no new trustees or trustee are or is to be appointed for other parts of the trust property and any existing trustee may be appointed or remain one of such separate set of trustees; or, if only one trustee was originally appointed, then one separate trustee may be so appointed for any such part of the trust property;

(c) it is not obligatory to appoint more than one new trustee where only one trustee was originally appointed, or to fill up the original number of trustees where more than two trustees were originally appointed; but, except where only one trustee was originally appointed, a trustee is not discharged under section 11 from his trust unless there remain at least two trustees to perform the trust; and
(d) any assurance or thing requisite for vesting the trust property or any part thereof jointly in the persons who are the trustees shall be executed or done.

13. Every new trustee appointed has, as well before as after all the trust property becomes by law or by assurance or otherwise vested in him, the same powers, authorities and discretions and may in all respects act as if he had been originally appointed a trustee by the instrument, if any, creating the trust.

14. The provisions of this Ordinance relative to a trustee who has died include the case of a person nominated trustee in a will but dying before the testator, and those relative to a continuing trustee include a refusing or retiring trustee if willing to act in the execution of the provisions of section 11.

15. Sections 11 to 14 apply only if and as far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument, if any, creating the trust and shall have effect subject to the terms of that instrument.

16. (1) Where there are more than two trustees, if one of them by deed declares that he is desirous of being discharged from the trust, and if his co-trustees and such other person, if any, as is empowered to appoint trustees, consent by deed to the discharge and to the vesting of the trust property in the co-trustees alone, then the trustee desirous of being discharged shall be deemed to have retired from the trust and shall, by the deed, be discharged therefrom without any new trustee being appointed in his place.

(2) Any assurance or thing requisite for vesting the trust property in the continuing trustees alone shall be executed or done.

(3) This section applies only if and as far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument, if any, creating the trust and shall have effect subject to the terms of that instrument.

17. (1) Where an instrument by which a new trustee is appointed to perform any trust contains a declaration by the appointor to the effect that any estate or interest in any land subject to the trust, or in any chattel so subject, or the right to recover and receive any debt or other thing in action so subjected shall vest in the persons who by virtue of such instrument become and are the trustees for performing the trust, that declaration shall, without any conveyance or assignment but subject to the provisions of the Land Titles Act, operate to vest in these persons as joint tenants and for the purposes of the trust, that estate, interest or right.

(2) Where an instrument by which a retiring trustee is discharged under this Ordinance contains a declaration made under this section by the retiring and continuing trustees and by the other person, if any, empowered to appoint trustees, such declaration shall, without any conveyance or assignment but subject to the conditions in subsection (1), operate to vest in the continuing trustees alone as joint tenants and for the purposes of the trust, the estate, interest or right to which the declaration relates.

(3) This section does not extend to any share, stock, annuity or property transferable only in books kept by a company or other body, or in manner prescribed by or under any Ordinance.

(4) For the purposes of registration of an instrument the person or persons making the declaration shall be deemed the conveying party or parties and the conveyance shall be deemed to be made by him or them under a power conferred by this Ordinance.

18. Where an estate or interest of inheritance in real property is vested on an express trust in any person solely, the estate or interest shall on his death, notwithstanding any testamentary disposition, devolve to and become vested in his executor or administrator in like manner as if the same were personal estate vesting in him and, accordingly, all the like powers for one only of several joint executors or administrators as well as for a single executor or administrator and for all the executors and administrators together to dispose of and otherwise deal with the same shall belong to the deceased's executor or administrator with all obligations as if the same were personal estate vesting in him, and for the purposes of this section the executor or administrator of the deceased shall be deemed in law his heirs and assigns within the meaning of all trusts and powers.

PURCHASE AND SALE.

19. (1) Where a trust for sale or a power of sale of property is vested in a trustee he may sell or concur with any other person in selling all or any part of the property either subject to prior charges or not, and either together or in lots by public auction or by private contract subject to any such conditions respecting title or evidence of title or any other matter as the trustee thinks fit with power to vary any contract for sale and to buy in at any auction or to rescind any contract for sale and to resell without being answerable for any loss.

(2) This section applies only if and as far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument creating the trust or power and shall have effect subject to the terms of that instrument and to the provisions therein contained.

20. (1) No sale made by a trustee shall be impeached by any beneficiary upon the ground that any of the conditions subject to which the sale was made may have been unnecessarily depreciatory unless it also appears that the consideration for the sale was thereby rendered inadequate.
Trustees.

(2) No sale made by a trustee shall after the execution of the conveyance be impeached as against the purchaser upon the ground that any of the conditions subject to which the sale was made may have been unnecessarily depreciatory unless it appears that the purchaser was acting in collusion with the trustee at the time when the contract for sale was made.

(3) No purchaser upon any sale made by a trustee shall be at liberty to make any objection against the title upon the grounds in this section mentioned.

21. Upon the death of a bare trustee of any corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments of which such trustee was seized in fee simple the hereditaments shall vest in the legal personal representative, from time to time, of such trustee.

22. Where a freehold hereditament is vested in a married woman as bare trustee she may convey or surrender the same as if she were a feme sole and without her husband joining in the conveyance.

23. (1) Where in the management or administration of property vested in trustees, a sale, lease, mortgage, surrender, release or other disposition, or a purchase, investment, acquisition, expenditure or other transaction, is in the opinion of a judge expedient, but the same cannot be effected by reason of the absence of any power for that purpose vested in the trustees by the trust instrument, if any, or by law, the judge may by order confer upon the trustees, either generally or in any particular instance, the necessary power for the purpose, on such terms, and subject to such provisions and conditions, if any, as the judge may think fit and may direct in what manner any money authorized to be expended, and the costs of any transaction, are to be paid or borne as between capital and income.

(2) A judge may, from time to time, rescind or vary any order made under this section, or may make any new further order.

(3) An application to a judge under this section may be made by the trustees, or by any of them, or by any person beneficially interested under the trust.

24. The bona fide payment of any money to and the receipt thereof by any person to whom the same is payable upon any express or implied trust, or for any limited purpose, and such payment to and receipt by the survivors or survivor of two or more mortgagees or holders or the executors or administrators of such survivors or survivor on their or his assigns, effectually discharges the person paying the same from seeing to the application or being answerable for the misapplication thereof, unless the contrary is expressly declared by the instrument creating the trust or security.

25. (1) A trustee may appoint a solicitor to be his agent to receive and give a discharge for any money or any valuable consideration or property receivable by such trustee under the trust; and no trustee shall be chargable with breach of trust by reason only of his having made or concurred in making the appointment; but nothing in this section exempts a trustee from any liability that he would have incurred but for this section for permitting such money, valuable consideration or property to remain in the hands or under the control of the solicitor for a period longer than is reasonably necessary to enable the solicitor to pay or transfer the same to the trustee.

(2) A trustee may appoint a chartered bank or solicitor to be his agent to receive and give a discharge for any money payable to such trustee under or by virtue of a policy of assurance or otherwise; and no trustee shall be chargable with a breach of trust by reason only of his having made or concurred in making any such appointment; but nothing in this section exempts a trustee from any liability that he would have incurred but for this section for permitting such money to remain in the hands or under the control of the bank or solicitor for a period longer than is reasonably necessary to enable him to pay the same to the trustee.

26. (1) A trustee may insure against loss or damage by fire any building or other insurable property to any amount, including the amount of any insurance then in effect, not exceeding three-fourth parts of the full value of such building or property and to pay the premiums for such insurance out of the income thereof or out of the income of any other property subject to the same trusts without obtaining the consent of any person entitled wholly or partly to such income.

(2) This section does not apply to any building or property that a trustee is bound forthwith to convey absolutely to any cestui que trust upon being requested to do so.

27. Where a trustee has committed a breach of trust at the instigation or request or with the consent in writing of a beneficiary, a judge may, if he thinks fit, and notwithstanding that the beneficiary is a married woman entitled for her separate use, whether with or without a restraint upon anticipation, make such order as to the judge seems just for impounding all or any part of the interest of the beneficiary in the trust estate by way of indemnity to the trustee or person claiming through him.

28. The receipt in writing of any trustee for any money, securities or other personal property or effects payable, transferable or deliverable to him under any trust or power is a sufficient discharge for the same and effectually exonerates the person paying, transferring or delivering the same from seeing to the application or being answerable for any loss or misapplication thereof.
Trustees.

29. (1) An executor or administrator or two or more trustees acting together, or a sole acting trustee where by the instrument, if any, creating the trust a sole trustee is authorized to execute the trusts and powers thereof may, if and as he or they may think fit, accept any composition or any security real or personal for any debt or for any property real or personal claimed and may allow any time for payment for any debt and may compromise, compound, abandon, submit to arbitration or otherwise settle any debt, account, claim or thing whatever relating to the testator's or intestate's estate or to the trust, and for any of these purposes may enter into, give and execute such agreements, instruments of composition or arrangement and releases and do such other things as to him or them seem expedient without being responsible for any loss occasioned by any act or thing so done by him or them in good faith.

(2) This section applies only if and as far as a contrary intention is not expressed in the instrument, if any, creating the trust and shall have effect subject to the terms of that instrument.

30. Where a power or trust is given to or vested in two or more trustees jointly then unless the contrary is expressed in the instrument, if any, creating the power or trust the same may be exercised or performed by the survivor or survivors of them for the time being.

31. (1) A trustee acting or paying money in good faith under or in pursuance of any power of attorney is not liable for any such act or payment by reason of the fact that at the time of the payment or act the person who gave the power of attorney was dead or had done some act to avoid the power if this fact was not known to the trustee at the time of his so acting or paying.

(2) Nothing in this section affects the right of any person entitled to the money against the person to whom the payment is made and the person so entitled shall have the same remedy against the person to whom the payment is made as he would have had against the trustee.

MAINTENANCE OF INFANTS.

32. Where any property is held by trustees in trust for an infant, either absolutely or contingently on his attaining the age of twenty-one years or on the occurrence of any event previously to his attaining that age, the trustees may at their sole discretion pay to the guardians, if any, of such infant, or otherwise apply for or towards the maintenance of education of such infant, the whole or any part of the income to which such infant may be entitled in respect of such property whether there be any fund applicable to the same purpose or any other person bound by law to provide for such maintenance or education or not, and such trustees shall accumulate all the residue of such income by way of compound interest by investing the same and the resulting income thereof from time to time in proper securities for the benefit of the person who ultimately becomes entitled to the property from which such accumulation arose; but such trustees at any time if it appears to them expedient may apply the whole or any part of such accumulations as if the same were part of the income arising in the then current year.

33. Where any property either real or personal is held by trustees in trust for an infant either absolutely or contingently on his attaining the age of twenty-one years or on the occurrence of any event previously to his attaining that age and where the income arising from such property is insufficient for the maintenance and education of such infant the trustee by leave of a judge to be obtained in a summary manner, may sell and dispose of any portion of such real or personal property and pay the whole or any part of the money arising from the sale to the guardians, if any, of the infant or otherwise to be applied for or towards the maintenance or education of such infant; and in the event of the whole of the money arising from any sale of the real or personal property not being immediately required for the maintenance and education of such infant then the said trustees shall invest the surplus moneys and the resulting income therefrom from time to time in proper securities and shall apply such moneys and the proceeds thereof from time to time for the education and maintenance of such infant and shall hold all the residue of the moneys and interest thereon not required for the education and maintenance of such infant for the benefit of the person who ultimately becomes entitled to the property from which such moneys and interest have arisen.

PAYMENT INTO COURT—RELIEF.

34. (1) Trustees, or the majority of trustees, having in their hands or under their control money or securities belonging to a trust, or to the estate of a deceased person, may as provided in the Judicature Ordinance pay the same into Court; and the same shall subject to the Rules of Court be dealt with according to the order of a judge.

(2) The receipt or certificate of the Clerk of the Court shall be a sufficient discharge to trustees for the money or securities so paid into Court.

(3) Where any moneys or securities are vested in any persons as trustees and the majority are desirous of paying the same into Court but the concurrence of the other or others cannot be obtained a judge may order the payment into Court to be made by the majority without the concurrence of the other or others, and where any such moneys or securities are deposited with any banker, broker or other depositary, a judge may order payment or delivery of the moneys or securities to the majority of the trustees for the purpose of payment into Court and every transfer, payment and delivery made in pursuance of Trustees.

any such order is valid and takes effect as if the same had been made on the authority or by the act of all the persons entitled to the moneys and securities so transferred, paid or delivered.

35. Whenever in any proceeding affecting trustees or trust property it appears to the Court that a trustee whether appointed by the Court or by an instrument in writing otherwise, or that any person who in law may be held to be fiduciarily responsible as a trustee, is or may be personally liable for any breach whether the transaction alleged or found to be a breach of trust occurred before or after the passing of this Ordinance but has acted honestly and reasonably and ought fairly to be excused for the breach of trust and for omitting to obtain the directions of the Court in the matter in which he committed such breach then the Court may relieve the trustee either wholly or partly from personal liability for the same.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.

36. The executors or administrators of a deceased person may maintain an action for all torts or injuries to the person or to the real or personal estate of the deceased except in cases of libel and slander, in the same manner and with the same rights and remedies as the deceased would, if living, have been entitled to do; and the damages when recovered shall form part of the personal estate of the deceased; but such action shall be brought within one year after his decease.

37. Where any deceased person committed a wrong to another in respect of his person or of his real or personal property, except in cases of libel and slander, the person so wronged may maintain an action against the executors or administrators of the person who committed the wrong; but such action shall be brought within one year after the decease.

38. In estimating the damages in any action under section 36 or 37 the benefit, gain, profit or advantage that in consequence of or resulting from the wrong committed may have accrued to the estate of the person who committed the wrong shall be taken into consideration and shall form part or may constitute the whole of the damages to be recovered, whether or not any property or the proceeds of value of property belonging to the person bringing the action or to his estate has or have been appropriated by or added to the estate or moneys of the person who committed the wrong.

39. (1) The executors or administrators of a lessor may distrain upon the lands demised for any terms or at will for the arrears of rent due to the lessor in his lifetime in like manner as such lessor might have done if living.

(2) The arrears mentioned in this section may be distrained for at any time within six months after the determination of the term of lease and during the continuance of the possession of the tenant from whom the arrears became due; and the law relating to distress for rent is applicable to the distress so made.

40. Where one or more joint contractors, obligors or partners die, the person interested in the contract, obligation or promise entered into by such joint contractors, obligors or partners may proceed by action against the representatives of the deceased contractor, obligor or partner in the same manner as if the contract, obligation or promise had been joint and several, notwithstanding that there may be another person liable under the contract, obligation or promise still living, and an action pending against such person; but the property and effects of stockholders in chartered banks or the members of other incorporated companies are not liable to a greater extent than they would have been if this section had not been passed.

41. Where by any will a testate charges his real estate or any specific portion thereof with the payment of his debts or with the payment of any legacy or other specific sum of money and devises the estate so charged to any trustee or trustees for the whole of his estate or interest therein and does not make any express provision for the raising of such debts, legacy or sum of money out of such estate the said trustee or trustees notwithstanding any trusts actually declared by the testator may raise such debt, legacy or money by a sale and absolute disposition by public auction or private contract of the said real estate or any part thereof or by a mortgage of the same or partly in one mode and partly in the other and a mortgage so executed may reserve such rate of interest and fix such period of repayment as the person or persons executing the same think proper.

42. The powers conferred by section 41 extend to every person in whom the estate devised is for the time being vested by survivorship, descent or devise, or to any person appointed under any power in the will or by the Court to succeed to the trusts created by the will.

43. Purchasers or mortgagees are not bound to inquire whether the powers conferred by sections 41 and 42 or any of them have been duly and correctly exercised by the person or persons acting in virtue thereof.

44. Where there is in any will or codicil of a deceased person a direction, whether express or implied, to sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, encumber or lease any real estate and no person is by the said will, or some codicil thereto, or otherwise by the testator appointed to execute and carry the same into effect, the executors, if any, named in the will or codicil shall execute and carry into effect every such direction to sell, dispose of, appoint, encumber or lease such real estate, and any estate or interest therein in as full, large and ample a manner and with the same legal effect as if the executors were appointed by the testator to execute and carry the same into effect.

45. Where in a will or codicil thereto power is given to an executor or executors to sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, encumber or lease any real estate, or any estate or interest therein, whether such power is express or arises by implication, and where from any cause letters of administration with such will annexed have been committed by a court of competent jurisdiction to any person and such person has given the security required by this Ordinance such person shall exercise every such power and sell, dispose of, appoint, mortgage, encumber or lease such real estate and any estate or interest therein in as full, large and ample a manner and with the same legal effect as if such last named person had been appointed by the testator to execute such power.

46. Where a person has entered into a contract in writing for the sale and conveyance of real estate, or any estate or interest therein, and such person has died intestate, or without providing by will for the conveyance of such real estate, or estate or interest therein, to the person entitled or to become entitled to such conveyance under such contract then, if the deceased would be liable to execute a conveyance were he alive, the executor, administrator or administrator with the will annexed, as the case may be, of the deceased person, shall give to the person entitled to the same a good and sufficient conveyance as if such last named person had been appointed by the testator to execute such power.

47. Every executor, administrator and administrator with the will annexed shall, as respects the additional powers vested in him by this Ordinance and any money or assets by him received in consequence of the exercise of such powers, be subject to all the liabilities and compellable to discharge all the duties of whatsoever kind that as respects the acts to be done by him under such powers would have been imposed upon an executor or other person appointed by the testator to execute the same or in case of there being no such executor or person would have been imposed by law or by any court of competent jurisdiction.

48. (1) Where there are several executors, administrators or administrators with the will annexed and one or more of them die, the powers created by this Ordinance shall vest in the survivor or survivors.
(2) On the administration of the estate of a deceased person, in case of the deficiency of assets, debts due to the Crown and to the executor or administrator of the deceased person, and debts to others including therein respectively debts by judgment or order, and other debts of record, debts by speciality, simple contract debts, and such claims for damages as by any ordinance are payable in like order or administration as simple contract debts, shall be paid pari passu and without any preference or priority of debts of one rank or nature over those of another; but nothing in this section contained shall prejudice any lien existing during the lifetime of the debtor on any of his real or personal estate.

49. (1) Where the executor or administrator gives to any creditor or other person of whose claims against the estate he has notice, or to the solicitor or agent of such creditor or other person, notice in writing that he disputes the claim and that he intends to avail himself of this section, such creditor or other person shall commence his action in respect of the claim within six months after the notice is given in case the debt or some part thereof is due at the time of the notice or within three months from the time the debt or some part thereof falls due if no part thereof is due at the time of the notice, and in default the claim shall be forever barred.

(2) Unless the creditor or other person within ten days after the receipt of the notice notifies the executor or administrator that he withdraws his claim, such executor or administrator may, if he thinks fit, apply to a judge for an originating summons calling upon such creditor or other person to establish his claim and upon the return of such summons the judge may allow or bar the claim or make such other order as to him may seem meet with or without costs against either party.

50. (1) Where an executor or administrator liable as such to the rents, covenants or agreements contained in any lease or agreement for a lease granted or assigned to the testator or intestate whose estate is being administered, has satisfied all such liabilities under the said lease or agreement for a lease as have accrued due and been claimed up to the time of the assignment hereinafter mentioned and has set apart a sufficient fund to answer any future claim that may be made in respect of any fixed and ascertained sum covenanted or agreed to be laid out on the property demised, or agreed to be demised, although the period for laying out the same may not have arrived, and has assigned the lease or agreement to a purchaser thereof, he shall be at liberty to distribute the residuary estate of the deceased to and among the persons entitled thereto respectively without appropriating any part or any further part, as the case may be, of the estate of the deceased to meet any future liability under the said lease or agreement for a lease; and the executor or administrator shall not, after having assigned the lease or agreement and having, where necessary, set apart such sufficient fund, be personally liable in respect of any subsequent claim under the said lease or agreement.

(2) Nothing in this section prejudices the right of the lessor or those claiming under him to follow the assets of the deceased into the hands of the person or persons to or amongst whom the said assets may have been distributed.

51. 3. Subject to this Ordinance the Commissioner is authorized to enter into and execute on behalf of the Territory,

(iii) a grant for capital expenditures in the period between April 1, 1955, and March 31, 1956, equal to the amount paid by the Commissioner for such purposes but not exceeding the amount that is that proportion of $10,000,000 that the number of people in the Territory of the ages fifteen to nineteen inclusive, as shown in the latest decennial census of Canada, bears to the number of people in all provinces of the said ages as shown in the said census;

CHAPTER 108.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING WAREHOUSEMEN'S LIENS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Warehousemen's Lien Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,
   (a) "goods" includes personal property of every description that is deposited with a warehouseman as bailee; and
   (b) "warehouseman" means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods as a bailee for hire.

LIEN.

3. (1) Subject to section 4, every warehouseman has a lien on goods deposited with him for storage, whether deposited by the owner of the goods or by his authority, or by any person entrusted with the possession of the goods by the owner or by his authority.
   (2) The lien is for the amount of the following warehouseman's charges:
      (a) all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods;
      (b) all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labour, weighing, coopering and other expenses in relation to the goods; and
      (c) all reasonable charges for any notice required to be given under this Ordinance, and for notice and advertisement of sale, and for sale of the goods where default is made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien.

4. (1) Where the goods on which a lien exists were not deposited by the owner or by his authority, but by a person entrusted by the owner or by his authority with the possession of the goods, the warehouseman shall, within two months after the date of the deposit, give written notice of the lien
      (a) to the owner of the goods, including the person in whom the right of property therein is vested where a valid receipt note, hire receipt or other instrument evidencing a bailment or conditional sale of the goods is registered under the Conditional Sales Ordinance at the date of deposit of the goods; and
(b) to the grantee of the goods under any bill of sale or chattel mortgage registered under the Bills of Sale Ordinance, at the date of deposit of the goods.

(2) The notice shall contain

(a) a brief description of the goods;

(b) a statement showing the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored, the date of their deposit with the warehouseman, and the name of the person by whom they were deposited; and

(c) a statement that a lien is claimed by the warehouseman in respect of the goods under this Ordinance.

(3) Where the warehouseman fails to give the notice required by this section, his lien, as against the person to whom he has failed to give notice, is void as from the expiration of the period of two months from the date of the deposit of the goods.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIEN.

5. (1) In addition to all other remedies provided by law for the enforcement of liens or for the recovery of warehouseman’s charges, a warehouseman may sell by public auction, in the manner provided in this section any goods upon which he has a lien for charges which have become due.

(2) The warehouseman shall give written notice of his intention to sell

(a) to the person liable as debtor for the charges for which the lien exists;

(b) to the owner of the goods, including the person in whom the right of property therein is vested, where a valid receipt note, hire receipt or other instrument evidencing a bailment or conditional sale of the goods is registered under the Conditional Sales Ordinance at the date of deposit of the goods;

(c) to the grantee of the goods under any bill of sale or chattel mortgage registered under the Bills of Sale Ordinance, at the date of deposit of the goods; and

(d) to any other person known by the warehouseman to have or who claims an interest in the goods.

(3) The notice shall contain

(a) a brief description of the goods;

(b) a statement showing the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored, the date of their deposit with the warehouseman and the name of the person by whom they were deposited;

(c) an itemized statement of the warehouseman’s charges showing the sum due at the time of the notice;

(d) a demand that the amount of the charges as stated in the notice and such further charges as may accrue shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than twenty-one days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination according to the due course of mail if it is sent by mail; and \(e\) a statement that unless the charges are paid within the time mentioned the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by public auction at a time and place specified in the notice.

(4) Where the charges are not paid on or before the day mentioned in the notice, and advertisement of the sale, describing the goods to be sold, and stating the name of the person liable as debtor for the charges for which the lien exists, and the time and place of the sale, shall be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper circulating in the locality where the sale is to be held.

(5) The sale shall be held not less than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the advertisement.

6. Where a notice of lien under section 4, or a notice of intention to sell under section 5 has been given, but such provisions have not been strictly complied with, if the judge before whom any question respecting the notice is tried or inquired into considers that such provisions have been substantially complied with, or that it would be inequitable to hold that the lien or sale is void by reason of such non-compliance, no objection to the sufficiency of the notice shall in any such case be allowed to prevail so as to release or discharge the goods from the lien or vitiate the sale.

7. The warehouseman shall satisfy his lien from the proceeds of the sale and shall pay over the surplus, if any, to the person entitled thereto, and the warehouseman shall when paying over the surplus, deliver to the person to whom he pays it a statement of account showing how the amount has been computed.

8. (1) Where the surplus is not demanded by the person entitled thereto within ten days after the sale, or where there are different claimants or the rights thereto are uncertain, the warehouseman shall pay the surplus into court upon the order of a judge.

(2) The order may be made ex parte upon such terms and conditions as to costs and otherwise as the judge may direct, and may provide to what fund or name the amount shall be credited.

(3) The warehouseman at the time of paying the amount into court shall file in court a copy of the statement of account showing how the amount has been computed.
Warehousemen's Lien.

9. At any time before the goods are sold any person claiming an interest or right of possession in the goods may pay the warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien, including the expenses incurred in serving notices and advertisement and preparing for the sale up to the time of payment and the warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making the payment if he is the person entitled to the possession of the goods on payment of the warehouseman's charges thereon, but if he is not so entitled the warehouseman shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the contract of deposit.

10. Where by this Ordinance any notice in writing is required to be given, the notice shall be given by delivering it to the person to whom it is to be given, or by mailing it in the post office, postage paid and registered, addressed to the person to whom it is to be given at his last known address.
CHAPTER 109.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING WILLS.

SHORT TITLE.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Wills Ordinance.

INTERPRETATION.

2. In this Ordinance,

(a) "will" includes a testament, a codicil, an appointment by will or by writing in the nature of a will in exercise of a power and any other testamentary disposition;

(b) "immovable property" includes real property and any leasehold or other interest in land;

(c) "movable property" includes personal property other than a leasehold or other interest in land; and

(d) "writing" includes words printed, engraved, lithographed, typewritten or represented or reproduced by any mode of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

APPLICATION.

3. (1) This Ordinance applies only to wills made after the 1st day of April, 1955 and, for the purposes of this subsection, a will that is re-executed or revived by a codicil shall be deemed to be made at the time at which it is so re-executed or revived.

(2) The laws respecting wills and devolution by will in force in the Territory prior to the 1st day of April, 1955 shall continue in force as if unaffected by this Ordinance with respect to wills made before that date.

4. Any person may devise, bequeath or dispose of by will all real and personal property, whether acquired before or after the making of his will, to which at the time of his death he is entitled either at law or in equity for an interest not ceasing at his death, including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing

(a) estates pur autre vie, whether or not there is any special occupant thereof and whether they are corporeal or incorporeal hereditaments;

(b) contingent, executory or other future interests in any real or personal property, whether or not the testator is ascertained as the person or one of the persons in whom they may respectively become vested and whether he is entitled thereto under the instrument creating them or under disposition by deed or will; and

(c) rights of entry whether for breach of conditions or otherwise.
5. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a will made by a person who is under twenty-one years of age at the time it is made is not valid.

(2) A valid will may be made by a person who is under twenty-one years of age at the time it is made, if he is, at that time,

(a) in the Territory in connection with his duties as a member of any of the components of the Canadian Forces or of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police; or

(b) a mariner or seaman at sea or in the course of a voyage.

6. (1) Unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance, a will is not valid unless

(a) it is in writing;

(b) it is signed at the end or foot thereof by the testator or on his behalf by some other person in his presence and by his direction;

(c) the signature described in paragraph (b) is made or acknowledged by the testator in the presence of two or more witnesses present at the same time; and

(d) at least two of the witnesses attest and subscribe the will in the presence of the testator, with or without a form of attestation.

(2) A holograph will, wholly in the handwriting of the testator and signed by him, may be validly made, without any requirements as to the presence of or attestation by any witness.

(3) A will in writing and signed by the testator or on his behalf by some other person in his presence or by his direction may be validly made by or on behalf of a testator who is a person described in subsection (2) of section 5, without any requirements as to the presence of or attestation by any witness.

7. (1) In so far as the position of the signature of the testator or the person signing for him is concerned, a will is valid if that signature is so placed at, after, following, under, beside or opposite to the end of the will that it is apparent on the face of the will that the testator intended to give effect, by the signature, to the writing signed as his will.

(2) Without restricting the generality of subsection (1), a will is not affected by reason of the fact that

(a) the signature is not immediately after the foot or end of the will or a blank space intervenes between the concluding words of the will and the signature;

(b) the signature is placed among the words of a testimonium or attestation clause or follows or is after or under a clause of attestation, either with or without a blank space intervening, or follows, is after, under or opposite the name of a subscribing witness; or
(c) the signature is on a side, page or other portion of the papers containing the will on which no disposing part of the will is written above the signature, whether or not there appears to be sufficient space on or at the bottom of the preceding side, page or other portion of the same papers to contain the signature.

(3) No signature under this Ordinance is operative to give effect to any disposition or direction that is underneath it or that follows it or that has been inserted after the signature was made.

8. Every will made in accordance with this Ordinance is, in so far as the execution and attestation thereof are concerned, a valid execution of a power of appointment by will, notwithstanding that it has been expressly required that a will in exercise of the power shall be executed with some additional or other form of execution or solemnity.

9. A will made in accordance with this Ordinance is not invalid by reason only of the fact that there is no further publication thereof.

10. (1) A will is not invalid by reason only of the fact that a person who attests the execution of the will is at that time or becomes at any time afterwards incompetent as a witness to prove the execution of the will.

(2) Where a person attests the execution of a will and such person or his or her then wife or husband is by that will given any beneficial devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift or appointment, other than charges or directions for the payment of debts, such person is competent as a witness to prove the execution of the will or the validity or invalidity thereof, but, unless it is a will that is sufficiently attested without the attestation of such person or is one in which no attestation is necessary, the devise, legacy, estate, interest, gift or appointment is, so far only as concerns such person or the wife or husband of such person or persons claiming under either of them, null and void.

(3) Where by a will any real or personal property is charged with a debt or debts and a creditor or wife or husband of such creditor whose debt is so charged attests the execution of the will, the charging provision is not by reason only of such attestation invalid and the person so attesting is, notwithstanding such charge, competent as a witness to prove the execution of the will or the validity or invalidity thereof.

(4) No person is, by reason only of his being an executor of a will, incompetent as a witness to prove the execution of the will or the validity or invalidity thereof.
Wills.

Chap. 109.

REVOCATION.

11. (1) Alteration in circumstances since the making of a will does not in itself raise any presumption of an intention to revoke the will.

(2) No will or any part thereof is revoked otherwise than by
(a) marriage as provided in subsection (3);
(b) another will executed in accordance with this Ordinance;
(c) some writing declaring an intention to revoke the will or a part thereof and executed in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance respecting the execution of a will; or
(d) burning, tearing or otherwise destroying the will by the testator or by some person in his presence and by his direction with the intention of revoking it.

(3) A will is revoked by marriage of the testator after it is made, except where
(a) it is declared in the will that it is made in contemplation of such marriage; or
(b) the will is made in exercise of a power of appointment and the real or personal property thereby appointed would not, in default of such appointment, pass to the heir, executor or administrator of the testator or to the persons entitled to his estate if he died intestate.

ALTERATIONS.

12. (1) No obliteration, interlineation, cancellation by drawing lines across a will or any part thereof or other alteration made in a will after its execution is valid or has any effect, except in so far as the words or effect of the will before such alteration are not apparent or cannot be ascertained, unless such alteration is executed in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance respecting the execution of a will.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the will with such alteration as part thereof shall be held to be duly executed if the signatures or written initials of the testator and of the witnesses subscribing to the alteration are made in the margin or in some part of the will opposite or near to the alteration or at the foot, end of or opposite to a memorandum referring to such alteration and writing in some other part of the will or in a codicil thereto.

REVIVAL.

13. (1) A will or any part thereof that has been in any manner revoked shall not be revived otherwise than by its re-execution or by a codicil showing an intention to revive it and executed in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance respecting the execution of a will.

(2) Unless an intention to the contrary is shown, where a will that has been first partly revoked and then afterwards wholly revoked is subsequently revived, the revival does not extend to that part that was revoked prior to the will being wholly revoked.

Chap. 109.

Wills.

DEVISES AND BEQUESTS.

14. Where, after the execution of a will, there is a conveyance of or other alienation or act relating to any real or personal property comprised in a will, it shall not prevent the operation of the will with respect to such estate or interest in such property as the testator has power to dispose of by will at the time of his death.

15. Unless a contrary intention appears by it, every will shall, with reference to the real and personal property comprised in it, be construed to speak and take effect as if it had been executed immediately before the death of the testator.

16. Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, any real or personal property or interest therein that is comprised or intended to be comprised in any devise or bequest in the will and that fails or becomes void by reason of the death, within the lifetime of the testator, of the person to whom it is devised or bequeathed or by reason of the gift being contrary to law or otherwise incapable of taking effect shall be included in the residuary estate, if any, contained in the will.

17. Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, a devise of the land of the testator described in a general manner or as being in any particular place or in the occupation of any particular person mentioned in his will or any other general devise that would describe a leasehold estate if the testator had no freehold estate shall be construed to include the leasehold estates of the testator or any of them to which the description extends, as the case may be, as well as the freehold estates.

18. Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, a devise or bequest of the real or personal property of the testator described in a general manner or as being in any particular place or in the occupation of any particular person mentioned in his will shall be construed to include the real or personal property of the testator or any of it to which the description extends, as the case may be, over which he may have power to appoint in any manner he may think proper and shall operate as an execution of the power.

19. (1) Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, where real property is devised to any person without words of limitation, the devise shall be construed to pass the fee simple or other whole estate which the testator had power to dispose of by will in the real property.

(2) Any devise or limitation that would, heretofore, have created an estate tail, shall be construed to pass the fee simple or greatest estate the testator had in the land.
(3) Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, real property that is devised to the heir or heirs of the testator or of any other person shall pass to the person or persons to whom the beneficial interest in the real property would go in the case of intestacy.

20. In any devise or bequest of real or personal property, the words "die without issue" or "have no issue" or any other words which import a want or failure of issue of any person shall be construed to mean a want or failure of issue in the lifetime or at the time of the death of that person and not an indefinite failure of his issue, subject to any contrary intention appearing by the will or to any requirements as to age or otherwise therein contained for obtaining a vested estate.

21. Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, where a person

(a) is a child, other issue or the brother or sister of a testator to whom, either as an individual or as a member of a class, real or personal property is devised or bequeathed by the testator for an estate or interest not determinable at or before such person's death;

(b) dies in the lifetime of the testator, either before or after the making of the will; and

(c) leaves issue who are living at the time of the death of the testator;

the devise or bequest to such person shall not lapse but shall take effect as if it had been made directly to the persons amongst whom and in the shares in which the deceased person's estate would have been divisible if he had died intestate and without debts immediately after the death of the testator.

22. Unless a contrary intention appears by the will, the illegitimate child of a woman is entitled to take under a testamentary gift by or to her or to her children or issue the same benefit as he would have been entitled to take if he were a legitimate child.

23. Where no provision is made in the will of a father for his child born after his death, such child shall have the like interest in his father's estate as if the father had died intestate, and, in providing for the child's share, the devises and bequests in the will shall abate proportionately and the shares of the child shall be affixed and approved by the court so as to affect as little as possible the disposition the father made of his property by his will.

24. (1) Where any person dies after the 1st day of April, 1955 having by will appointed any person executor thereof, the executor shall be deemed a trustee of any residue not expressly disposed of for the person or persons, if any, who would be entitled to that residue in the event of intestacy, unless it appears by the will that the executor was intended to take the residue beneficially.

(2) Nothing in this section affects or prejudices any rights to which an executor would have been entitled, if this Ordinance had not been passed, in cases where there is no person who would be entitled to the residue.

(3) Where real property is devised to a trustee without any express limitation of the estate to be taken by the trustee and the beneficial interest in the real property or in the surplus rents or profits thereof is not given to any person for life or, if given to a person for life, the purposes of the trust may continue beyond his life, the devise shall be construed to vest in the trustee the fee simple or whole legal estate that the testator had power to dispose of by will and not an estate determinable when the purposes of the trust are satisfied.

(4) Unless a definite term of years absolute or determinable or an estate of freehold is thereby given to him expressly or by implication, a devise of real property to a trustee or executor shall be construed to pass the fee simple or whole estate or interest that the testator had power to dispose of by will.

25. (1) In this section, “mortgage” includes an equitable mortgage and any charge whatsoever whether equitable, statutory or of any other nature and any lien or claim upon freehold or leasehold property for unpaid purchase money.

(2) Where a testator has not by will, deed or other document signified a contrary intention and dies possessed of or entitled to or under a general power of appointment by his will disposes of any interest in freehold or leasehold property that at the time of his death is subject to a mortgage, that interest, as between the different persons claiming through the testator, is primarily liable for the payment or satisfaction of the mortgage debt, and every part of the said interest, according to its value, shall bear a proportionate part of the mortgage debt on the whole of such debt.

(3) A contrary intention shall not be deemed to be signified by

(a) a general direction for the payment of any or all the debts of the testator out of his personal estate or out of his residuary estate either real or personal or both; or

(b) a charge of debts upon such estate, unless there is further signification by words expressly or impliedly referring to all or some part of the mortgage debt.

(4) Nothing in this section affects any right of a person who is entitled to a mortgage debt to obtain payment or satisfaction thereof out of the other assets of the deceased or otherwise.

CONFlict OF LAWS.

26. The manner of making, the validity and the effect of a will, so far as it relates to immovable property, is governed by the law of the place where the property is situate.
27. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the manner of making, the validity and the effect of a will, so far as it relates to movable property, is governed by the law of the place where the testator was domiciled at the time of his death.

(2) A will made in the Territory, whatever was the domicile of the testator at the time of the making of the will or at the time of his death, shall, so far as it relates to movable property, be held to be well made and be admissible to probate under the laws in force in the Territory if it is made in accordance with this Ordinance or in accordance with the law, in force at the time of the making thereof,

(a) of the place where the testator was domiciled when the will was made; or

(b) of the place where the testator had his domicile of origin.

(3) A will made outside the Territory, whatever was the domicile of the testator at the time of making the will or at the time of his death, shall, so far as it relates to movable property, be held to be well made and be admissible to probate under the laws in force in the Territory if it is made in accordance with this Ordinance or in accordance with the law, in force at the time of the making thereof,

(a) of the place where the testator was domiciled when the will was made;

(b) of the place where the will was made; or

(c) of the place where the testator had his domicile of origin.

28. A subsequent change of domicile of a person who has made a will shall not, in itself, effect revocation of a will or invalidate it or alter its construction.
CHAPTER 110.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE LIENS OF WOODMEN.

INTERPRETATION.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Woodmen's Lien Ordinance.

2. In this Ordinance,

(a) "defendant" means the person liable or alleged to be liable to a claim for a lien under this Ordinance;

(b) "labour" includes cutting, skidding, felling, hauling, scaling, rossing, banking, piling, driving, running, rafting or booming logs or timber and any work done by cooks, blacksmiths, artisans and others usually employed in connection therewith; and

(c) "logs or timber" includes logs, timber, piles, telegraph poles, railway ties, pulpwood, shingle bolts, staves, fence posts and cordwood.

CREATE AND EFFECT OF LIEN.

3. (1) Every agreement entered into on the part of a workman, servant, labourer, mechanic or any other person employed in any kind of manual labour that this Ordinance shall not apply or that the remedies provided by it shall not be available for the benefit of any person entering into such agreement is null and void as against the workman, servant, labourer, mechanic or other person.

(2) This section does not apply to a manager, officer, foreman or other person whose wages are more than ten dollars a day exclusive of board and lodgings.

4. Every person who performs labour in connection with logs or timber has a lien thereon and on all lumber manufactured therefrom for the amount due for the labour, and such lien is a first charge on the logs or timber or lumber and has priority over all other claims or liens thereon except a lien or claim which a timber slide company, or owner of slides and booms may have thereon for or in respect of tolls.

REGISTRATION OF LIEN.

5. (1) The lien provided for in section 4 expires sixty days after the last day of labour in respect of which the lien exists is performed unless a statement of claim in writing verified by the affidavit of the person claiming the lien or someone duly authorized on his behalf is filed as provided in subsection (2).
Woodmen's Lien.

6. The statement of claim shall be in Form A and shall set out briefly
   (a) the nature of the debt, demand or claim;
   (b) the amount due to the claimant as near as may be, over and above any legal set-off or counterclaim; and
   (c) a description of the logs or timber or lumber upon or against which the lien is claimed.

7. No mortgage, sale or transfer of the logs or timber upon which a lien is claimed under this Ordinance during the time limited for the filing of the statement of claim and previous to the filing thereof, or after the filing thereof and during the time limited for the enforcement thereof, affects the lien, but it remains in force against the logs or timber or lumber in whosesoever possession the same may be found.

ENFORCEMENT OF LIEN.

8. (1) Any person who has a lien upon or against logs or timber or lumber under this Ordinance may enforce it by action in the Court.

   (2) Proceedings under this Ordinance may be commenced by writ of summons to enforce the lien if the amount claimed is due immediately after the statement of claim and affidavit have been filed in accordance with section 5, or, where credit was given, immediately after the expiry of the period of credit.

   (3) The lien expires unless proceedings to enforce it are commenced within thirty days after the date upon which the statement of claim and affidavit were filed or, where credit was given, within thirty days after the date upon which the period of credit expires.

9. Where proceedings have been commenced pursuant to section 8, there shall be attached to or endorsed upon the writ of summons a copy of the statement of claim, and no other statement of claim is necessary unless ordered by the judge before whom proceedings are taken.

10. (1) The judge before whom proceedings are taken to enforce a lien under this Ordinance may, upon such terms as to notice and otherwise as he deems fit, order that the proceedings be disposed of summarily by him in chambers without waiting for the regular sittings of the Court.

    (2) The judge before whom proceedings are taken may also entertain in chambers an application to set aside a writ of summons or attachment to release logs or timber or lumber seized, and may summarily dispose of the application.
11. Upon the filing of a copy of the statement of claim and an affidavit verifying such statement, and an affidavit made and sworn to by the claimant of the amount of the claim due and owing, showing that the statement of claim and affidavit verifying it have been filed as provided by this Ordinance and stating
(a) that he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that the logs or timber are about to be removed out of the Territory, or
(b) that the person indebted for the amount of the lien has absconded or is about to abscond from the Territory with intent to defraud or defeat his creditors, or
(c) that the logs or timber are about to be cut into lumber or timber or otherwise dealt with so that the same cannot be identified, and
(d) that he is in danger of losing his claim if an attachment does not issue, and an affidavit corroborating the affidavit of the plaintiff in respect of paragraph (a), (b) or (c) is also filed, the Clerk of the Court shall issue a writ of attachment directed to the sheriff commanding him to attach, seize and safely keep the logs or timber, or such portion of them as may be necessary to satisfy the amount claimed and the costs of the suit and of proceedings to enforce the lien and to return the writ forthwith to the Court.

12. Where additional claims are made or the amount of claim is increased or a sufficient seizure has not been made, a subsequent seizure may be made.

13. (1) Where no writ of summons has issued, the writ of attachment shall summon the defendant to appear before the Court and a copy of the writ of attachment shall be served upon the defendant; if the defendant is not the owner of the logs or timber or lumber described in the writ of attachment, a copy of the writ shall also be served upon the owner of the logs or timber or lumber or upon the agent or person in whose possession, custody or control for the owner they may be found.

(2) The owner may on his own application or by the direction of a judge be made a defendant.

(3) A copy of the statement of claim shall be attached to the copy of the writ of attachment and served with it.

14. Where the defendant or owner cannot be found within the Territory or the owner cannot be ascertained and no agent or person is in possession for the owner, a writ of attachment under this Ordinance may be served in such manner as the judge by order directs.

15. Where service upon the defendant or owner has not been personal the judge, notwithstanding that a defence has not been entered, may at any time before the close of the proceedings admit the defendant and the owner or either of them to make full defence upon such terms as he deems just.
Woodmen's Lien.

16. (1) Except where logs or timber or lumber are in the possession of any person for the purpose of being driven or sorted or delivered to the owners, or to satisfy any statutory lien, the sheriff shall not seize or detain any logs, timber or lumber under this Ordinance when in transit from the place where the same were cut to the place of destination if the place of destination is within the Territory.

(2) When logs or timber or lumber are in the possession of a person for any purpose mentioned in subsection (1), attachment of such logs or timber or lumber may be made by serving a copy of the writ of attachment upon the person driving or holding them, and from the time of the service such person shall be deemed to hold the logs or timber or lumber both on his own behalf and for the sheriff to the extent of the lien, until the logs or timber or lumber can be driven and sorted out.

(3) When the logs or timber or lumber possessed by a person for any purpose mentioned in subsection (1) are driven or sorted out, the sheriff may receive the same from such person, and the statutory lien of the person is not released by the holding of the sheriff or his agents.

17. When a writ of attachment is issued, if the owner of the logs or timber or lumber or any person in his behalf executes and files with the Clerk of the Court a good and sufficient bond to the person claiming the lien executed by two sureties and conditioned for the payment of the claim and for all damages, costs, charges, disbursements and expenses that may be recovered by the claimant in such proceedings together with the amount for which any other lien is claimed and the costs of the proceedings to the date of attachment, the sheriff shall, if he is satisfied as to the sufficiency of the bond, issue an order to the sheriff directing the release of the logs, timber or lumber and upon service of the order upon him the sheriff shall release them.

18. Any person who is served with a copy of the writ of attachment and who desires to dispute the claim shall within twenty days after service enter in the Court a notice that he disputes the claim upon the lien in whole or in part.

19. (1) The defendant may at any time after service of a writ of summons or attachment and before the sale of the logs or timber or lumber pay into Court the amount for which the lien is claimed together with the amount for which any other lien is claimed and the costs of the proceedings to the date of such payment, as taxed by the Clerk of the Court if so required.

(2) Upon the certificate mentioned in subsection (1) being filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court, the lien or liens are vacated and all further proceedings thereon shall cease and the person making payment is entitled to a certificate vacating the lien and to an order directing the delivery up of the logs or timber or lumber seized under the attachment or the cancellation of any bond given under section 17.
20. After the expiration of the time within which notice of dispute may be entered the judge shall, in chambers as provided by section 10 or at the next sitting of the Court, after due notice to all parties to the proceedings and to all persons claiming liens on the logs or timber or lumber and whose liens are filed pursuant to this Ordinance or to their solicitors hear all such parties and claimants and take all accounts necessary to determine the amounts, if any, due to them or any of them or to any other holders of liens who may be called by the judge to prove their liens and shall tax costs and determine by whom such costs shall be payable and settle their priorities and generally determine all matters necessary for the adjustment of the rights of all parties.

21. At the conclusion of the inquiry the judge shall make his report and order which shall state his findings and direct payment into Court of the amounts, if any, found due and the costs within ten days thereafter, and in default of payment that the logs or timber or lumber be sold by the sheriff within twenty days after the default for the satisfaction of the amounts found due to the several parties upon the inquiry and costs.

22. (1) When the sheriff is ordered to sell logs or timber or lumber pursuant to section 21, he shall do so in the manner and subject to the same provisions of law as goods and chattels seized or taken in execution unless the judge directs that additional publicity be given to the sale; and the amount realized by the sale shall, after deducting the expenses thereof payable to the sheriff, be paid into Court and shall upon the application of the several parties found to be entitled thereto under the order of the judge be paid out to them by the Clerk of the Court.

(2) Where the amount realized upon a sale under subsection (1) is not sufficient to pay the claims in full and costs, the judge shall apportion the amount realized pro rata among the different claimants.

23. Where after the sale and distribution of the proceeds thereof any balance remains due to any person under the order made pursuant to section 21, judgment may be entered therefor against the person or persons by whom the claim was directed to be paid and execution may be issued thereupon as in the case of other judgments in the Court.

24. Where nothing is found due upon a claim filed under this Ordinance or upon any lien in respect of which proceedings have been taken the judge before whom the proceedings are taken may direct that the lien be discharged and the logs or timber or lumber be released or the security given thereof be delivered up and cancelled and he shall also direct payment forthwith of any costs which are found due to the defendant or owner of the logs or timber or lumber.
Woodmen's Lien.

25. Where more money is paid into Court as the proceeds of the sale of logs or timber or lumber than is required to satisfy the liens which have been proved and the interest and costs, the remaining money shall be paid over to the party entitled to it.

26. Any person affected by proceedings under this Ordinance may apply to the judge before whom the proceedings are taken to dismiss the proceedings for want of prosecution and the judge may upon such application make such order as to costs or otherwise as he deems just.

27. The judge before whom proceedings are taken may at any stage of the proceedings on the application of any party, or as he sees fit, order that any person who is deemed a necessary party to the proceedings be added as a party thereto or be served with any process or notice provided for by this Ordinance; and the judge may make such order as to the costs of adding such person or as to such service as he deems just.

28. Where proceedings are taken to enforce a lien but no lien is found to exist, judgment may be directed for any amount found due as in an ordinary case.

29. Nothing in this Ordinance disentitles a person to any other remedy provided by any other law for the recovery of any amount due in respect of labour or any part thereof performed upon or in connection with logs or timber.

30. Any number of lienholders may join in taking proceedings under this Ordinance or may assign their claims to any one or more persons, but in such case the statement of claim shall include a particular statement of the claim of every person so joining and shall be verified by the affidavit of such person or separate statements of claim may be filed and verified and one writ of attachment issued on behalf of all such persons.

(2) An employer who is himself insured against injury or death by the terms of a contract of insurance entered into by him under this Ordinance for the protection of his workmen is deemed to be a workman for the purposes of this Ordinance.

cents, and the amount so included in respect of any such period shall, for the purposes of this Ordinance and any contract of insurance entered into by him under this Ordinance, be deemed to be his remuneration for that period.

7. (1) Where an accident that would entitle the workman or his dependants to compensation under this Ordinance if the accident had happened in the Territory happens while he is employed elsewhere than in the Territory, the workman or his dependants are entitled to compensation under this Ordinance if

(a) the workman is a resident of the Territory or his usual place of employment is in the Territory;

(c) the employment out of the Territory has immediately followed employment by the same employer within the Territory; and

(d) the employment out of the Territory has lasted less than six months.

(2) Where by the law of the country or place in which the accident happens the workman or his dependants are entitled to compensation or other remedy in respect of it, he or they, as the case may be, are bound to elect whether they will claim compensation or other remedy under the law of that country or place or compensation under this Ordinance and to give notice of such election; and if such notice of election is not given it shall be presumed that they have elected not to claim compensation under this Ordinance.

(3) Notice of the election shall be given to the Commissioner within thirty days after the happening of the accident or, in case it results in death, within thirty days after the death or within such longer period not exceeding one year as, either before or after the expiration of such thirty days, the Commissioner may allow.

(4) Where, pursuant to subsection (2), a workman elects to claim compensation under this Ordinance in respect of an accident that happened outside the Territory, and, previously, concurrently or subsequently claims or has claimed compensation or other remedy under the law of any other country or place in respect of the same accident, the workman shall be deemed to have forfeited all rights to compensation under this Ordinance in respect of that accident, and any moneys paid to him or on his behalf by the employer in respect thereof shall be deemed to be a debt due by him to the employer.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), a workman who, before claiming under this Ordinance, has in error claimed compensation under the laws of the country or place wherein the accident happened and has been found not entitled to such compensation shall be deemed not to have forfeited his rights to compensation under this Ordinance by reason of having made such claim.

8. Every employer to whom this Ordinance applies shall pay
(a) to a workman in respect of personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment including disability by reason of disease due to the employment, and
(b) to the dependants of that workman in respect of the death of that workman by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment including disability by reason of disease due to the employment, compensation as provided in this Ordinance.

9. The Commissioner may designate from time to time a person or persons to act as referee.

10. (1) The referee has exclusive jurisdiction either with or without notice to any person or persons interested, to examine, inquire into, hear and determine all matters and questions arising under this Ordinance and referred to the referee by the Commissioner, and the action or decision of the referee thereon is final and conclusive and is not open to question or review in any court, and no proceedings by or before the referee shall be restrained by injunction, prohibition or other process or proceedings in any court or be removable by certiorari or otherwise into any court, nor shall any action be maintained or brought against the referee in respect of any act or decision done or made in the honest belief that the same was within the jurisdiction of the referee.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall prevent the referee, within five years from the date of the accident, either with or without notice to any person or persons interested from reconsidering any matter that has been dealt with by it or from rescinding, altering or amending any decision or order previously made, all of which the referee has authority to do.

(3) The decisions of the referee shall be upon the real merits and justice of the case and he is not bound to follow strict legal precedent and no decision or ruling of the referee is binding upon him as a precedent for any other decision or ruling, the intent of this provision being that each case shall be decided on its own merits.

(4) The referee has the like powers as a court for compelling the attendance of witnesses and of examining them under oath and compelling the production and inspection of books, papers, documents and things.

(5) The referee may cause depositions of witnesses residing within or without the Territory to be taken before any person appointed by the referee in manner similar to that prescribed by the Rules of the Territorial Court.
Workmen's Compensation.

(6) The referee may act upon the report of any person appointed by the referee to make an inquiry.

(7) The person appointed to make the inquiry has for the purposes thereof all powers conferred upon the referee.

(8) Without thereby limiting the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), it is declared that the exclusive jurisdiction of the referee extends to determining

(a) whether an injury has arisen out of or in the course of an employment within the scope of this Ordinance;
(b) the existence and degree of disability by reason of an injury;
(c) the permanence of disability by reason of an injury;
(d) the degree of diminution of earning capacity by reason of an injury;
(e) the amount of average earnings;
(f) the existence, for the purpose of the Ordinance, of the relationship of any member of the family of an employer or of a workman;
(g) the existence of dependency;
(h) whether or not an industry or any part, branch or department of any industry is within the scope of this Ordinance;
(i) whether or not any person or aggregation of persons is an employer within the meaning of this Ordinance;
(j) whether or not any person is a workman within the meaning of this Ordinance; and
(k) whether or not any workman is entitled to compensation under this Ordinance.

11. (1) The referee may in any case where it is deemed necessary and shall on the application of an employer or workman interested in any order, ruling or decision of the referee, issue a certificate embodying the substance of any such order, ruling or decision.

(2) If an award of the referee is not paid within sixty days the workman may file the referee's certificate with the Clerk of the Court and such certificate has the same force and effect as if it were a judgment of such Court and execution against the employer may be issued thereon.

12. (1) The Commissioner may

(a) make regulations for the prevention of accidents and industrial diseases among workmen; and
(b) make such other regulations and prescribe such forms as are deemed expedient for carrying out the provisions of this Ordinance and not inconsistent therewith.

(2) Any regulation made under the authority of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) shall not come into force or effect unless the Territorial Council has by resolution first given its approval.
13. (1) Where in any employment to which this Ordinance applies, personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of employment is caused to a workman, compensation shall be paid unless the injury is attributable solely to the serious and wilful misconduct of the workman and death or serious disablement does not result from it.

(2) Where the personal injury consists of disease, in part due to the employment and in part due to causes other than the employment, compensation shall be paid in the same proportion to the whole of the compensation that would have been payable had the personal injury been wholly due to the employment, as the part thereof that is due to the employment is in proportion to the whole of the personal injury.

(3) Where a workman is found dead at a place where the workman had a right in the course of his employment to be, it shall be presumed that his death was the result of personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, unless there is evidence sufficient to rebut the presumption.

(4) Where the accident arose out of the employment, unless the contrary is shown, it shall be presumed that it occurred in the course of the employment and where the accident occurred in the course of the employment, unless the contrary is shown, it shall be presumed that it arose out of the employment.

(5) Where a workman suffers disablement from or because of any of the diseases enumerated in Schedule 2 and at some time during the twelve months previous to the disablement was employed in a process appearing in the second column of the said Schedule and the disease contracted is the disease in the first column of the said Schedule set opposite to the description of such process, the disease shall be deemed to have been due to the nature of that employment unless the contrary is proved.

(6) If the injury does not disable the workman longer than the period of three days from earning full wages at the work at which he was employed, no compensation, other than medical aid, is payable under this Ordinance; if the injury disables the workman longer than the period of three days, no compensation, other than medical aid, is payable for the first three days of disability; and where the disability is of more than six days' duration, compensation is payable from the date of disability.

14. (1) Except as authorized by this Ordinance, it is not lawful for any employer, either directly or indirectly, to deduct from the wages of his workmen any part of any insurance premium that he is or may become liable to pay, or to require or to permit any of his workmen to contribute in any manner towards indemnifying him against any liability that he has incurred or may incur under this Ordinance.

(2) It is not competent for a workman to agree with his employer to waive or to forego any of the benefits to which he or his dependants may become entitled under this Ordinance and every agreement to that end is absolutely void.
(3) Except as herein otherwise provided, no sum payable as compensation or by way of commutation of any periodical payment in respect of it, is capable of being assigned, charged or attached unless with the approval of the Commissioner.

(4) If and when compensation payments have been made to a workman beyond the period of his disability or to a dependant in an amount in excess of that to which he is entitled, the amount of the overpayment may be recovered by the employer as a debt due to him by such workman or dependant, as the case may be, and without in any way limiting the employer's remedies for recovery, may be set off against any compensation that may be or become payable to such workman or dependant.

15. (1) All claims for permanent disability, whether total or partial, shall be determined by the referee on being referred to him by the Commissioner.

(2) All claims for temporary disability shall be determined by the insurer or other person designated by the Commissioner for the purpose in accordance with this Ordinance, except that if an employee who has been awarded compensation for a temporary disability notifies the Commissioner that he is dissatisfied with the disposition of his claim, such claim shall at the request of the Commissioner be reviewed by the referee who shall make such disposition of the claim as he deems appropriate.

(3) The rights and compensation payable under this Ordinance are in lieu of all rights and rights of action statutory or otherwise to which a workman or his legal personal representative or his dependants are or may be entitled against the employer of the workman or against any workmen of the employer, by reason of personal injury to or the death of the workman arising out of any accident happening to the workman while in the employment of the employer, and no action in respect of such personal injury or death lies against the employer except for compensation to which the workman is entitled under this Ordinance.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), where an accident happens to a workman in the course of his employment in such circumstances as entitled him or his legal personal representative or his dependants to an action against some person other than his employer or another workman of his employer, the workman or his legal personal representative or his dependants may bring such action.

(5) Where an accident happens to a workman in the course of his employment entitling him or his dependants to compensation under this Ordinance, and the circumstances thereof are such as to entitle him or his legal personal representative or his dependants to an action against some person other than his employer or another workman of his employer, the employer and insurer are subrogated to all rights of the workman or his legal personal representative or his dependants as against such other person for the claim of the workman or his legal personal representative or his dependants against such other person for or in respect of the personal injury to or death of the workman.

(6) Upon payment to the employer of his claim against any such person the employer may accept the same and give a receipt therefor and release such other person or his legal personal representative, as the case may be, from liability in respect of the personal injuries suffered by the workman in or because of the accident in question.

(7) Any amount received by the employer from such other person in excess of the cost of the accident to the employer shall be paid over to the injured workman or his legal personal representatives or his dependants, as the case may be, upon the employer receiving from such injured workman or his legal personal representative, or his dependants, as the case may be, a release from any further claim upon the employer in respect of the accident for or on account of which payment was or is being received, in which case the workman or his legal personal representatives or his dependants, as the case may be, is not thereafter entitled to receive from or be paid by the employer or the insurer any further compensation or medical aid for or in respect of injury or death arising out of such accident.

16. (1) In every case of injury to a workman by accident in any industry within the scope of this Ordinance, it is the duty of the workman or in the case of his death, the duty of a dependant, as soon as practicable, after the happening of the accident, to give notice thereof to the employer.

(2) The notice shall give the name and address of the workman and is sufficient if it states in ordinary language the cause of the injury and where the accident happened.

(3) Failure to give notice as required by virtue of subsections (1) and (2), unless excused by the Commissioner on the grounds that notice for some sufficient reason could not have been given;

(b) that the employer or his superintendent or agent in charge of the work where the accident happened had knowledge of the injury; or

(c) that the Commissioner is of the opinion that the claim is a just one and ought to be allowed;

is a bar to any claim for compensation under this Ordinance.

(4) No compensation is payable in respect of any claim unless notice of the claim is given to the employer or the Commissioner by the claimant within twelve months from the happening of the accident or where death results from such accident, by a dependant, within twelve months from the date of death; but the referee may notwithstanding subsection (2) of section 15, on proof of the accident and injury being filed with the employer or the Commissioner within three years of the date of its happening, award compensation where

Chap. 111.

(a) the workman gave notice of the accident to his employer as soon as practicable after its occurrence, and

(b) in the opinion of the Commissioner the claim is a just one and ought to be allowed.

(5) Every employer to whom the Ordinance applies having knowledge or notice of the happening of an accident or of the allegation of the happening of an accident to a workman in his employ, shall forward to the Commissioner and the insurer forthwith after the same comes to his knowledge or notice, notification of the happening of the accident or of the allegation of the happening of an accident and shall at the same time forward to the workman a copy of such notification, and the employer shall also, in the event of the injured workman or the allegedly injured workman returning to his work or being able to return to his work, forward to the Commissioner and the insurer within twenty-four hours after the fact of the return or ability to return comes to his knowledge, notification thereof and make such further and other reports respecting the accident or alleged accident and workman as may be required by the Commissioner.

(6) Every employer who fails to make any report required by virtue of this section, unless excused by the Commissioner on the ground that the report for some sufficient reason could not have been made, is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars and costs, and in default of payment to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

(7) In case an employer fails to make any report required by virtue of this section, the Commissioner may make a special investigation of the accident and of the facts and circumstances surrounding it and may charge the cost of such investigation against such employer.

(8) A physician who attends an injured workman shall forward to the Commissioner, in duplicate,

(a) a report within two days after the date of his first attendance upon the workman;

(b) upon the first and fifteenth days of each month progress reports, during such time as the injured workman is unable to work as a result of the injuries;

(c) a final report within three days after the workman is in his opinion able to resume work; and

(d) from time to time such reports in respect of the injury in such form as may be required by the regulations.

(9) The physician shall also give all reasonable and necessary information, advice and assistance to the injured workman and his dependants in making application for compensation and in furnishing in connection therewith such certificates and proofs as may be required, without charge to the workman.

(10) Payment of a medical account for medical services rendered to an injured workman does not of itself constitute the making of a claim by such workman or acceptance of a claim.
Chap. 111.  Workmen's Compensation.

17. (1) A workman who claims compensation or to whom compensation is payable under this Ordinance shall submit himself for medical examination in such manner and at such time and place as the employer, the insurer or the referee may require.

(2) A workman is not required to submit himself for examination save as required by the employer, the insurer, or the referee.

(3) If a workman does not submit himself for examination as and when required by the employer, the insurer or the referee so to do or in any way obstructs an examination, his right to compensation, or if he is in receipt of a periodical payment, his right thereto, shall be suspended until the examination has taken place, and the condition found upon such examination shall, unless the referee otherwise directs, be deemed to have been the condition of the workman in relation to his disability at the date for which the examination was called.

18. (1) If and when a workman claims
(a) a greater disability than that allowed him;
(b) a continuance of compensation beyond the period allowed;
(c) an error in some feature or circumstance of his claim as affected by his physical condition; or
(d) that the medical opinion upon which the disputed finding was made is erroneous; and makes a request in writing to the Commissioner for examination under the provisions of this section, the Commissioner shall refer the claim to the referee who, after consultation with the workman's attending physician, if any, may nominate four or more duly qualified medical practitioners.

(2) From the medical practitioners so nominated two shall be selected in the following manner:

(a) the referee shall notify the workman and the insurer by registered mail of the names and addresses of the medical practitioners nominated and each may select from the said names one such medical practitioner, such selection to be made and communicated in writing to the referee within thirty days after the mailing of the notice by the referee;

(b) if one of either the workman or the insurer fails to make a selection within the time provided or if both select the same medical practitioner, the referee shall select one other medical practitioner from those nominated; and

(c) if both the workman and the insurer fail to make a selection within the time provided, the referee shall select two medical practitioners from those nominated.

(3) The two medical practitioners selected shall examine the workman and certify to the referee as to
(a) the condition of the workman;
(b) his fitness for employment;
(c) if unfit, the cause of such unfitness;
(d) the extent of his temporary or permanent disability by reason of the injury in respect of which he has claimed compensation; and

(e) such other matters as may in their opinion or in the opinion of the referee be pertinent to the claim.

(4) If after examining the workman the two medical practitioners are unable to agree on the matters in respect of which their certificate is required they shall select a third medical practitioner from the list of those first nominated, and in event of their being unable to agree on a third practitioner the selection shall be made by the referee and the three so selected shall examine the workman and the decision of the majority shall be certified to the referee with respect to the matters set out in subsection (3).

(5) The certificate of the medical practitioners is conclusive as to the matters certified unless the referee at any time directs otherwise.

(6) The referee may of his own motion or at the request of the employer or insurer require a workman to be examined under the provisions of this section and may without any request from a workman nominate a list of medical practitioners and notify the workman and the employer, whereupon the examination shall be proceeded with under the provisions of this section in the same manner as if a request had been made by the workman.

(7) A reference in subsection (2) to an insurer shall, in any case where there is no insurer, be construed as a reference to the employer.

19. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a workman to whom compensation is payable leaves Canada, he shall not be entitled thereafter to receive compensation until permission to reside outside of Canada is granted by the employer, if the employer is exempted from the application of section 3, the insurer or the referee.

(2) Where in the opinion of the referee the disability resulting from the injury is likely to be of a permanent nature and the referee so directs, the workman is entitled to the amount of periodical payments accruing due while a resident outside of Canada if he proves in such manner as may be prescribed by the referee his identity and the continuance of the disability in respect of which the periodical payments are payable.

(3) Where a workman leaves Canada and subsequently claims compensation for a disability allegedly suffered in the course of his employment in the Yukon Territory, the employer shall not be liable for compensation unless the workman returns at his own expense to Canada for such medical examination as the employer, insurer or referee may require.
Chap. 111. Workmen's Compensation.

20. Where an injured workman

(a) changes physicians without prior authorization from the employer, if the employer is exempted from the application of section 3, the insurer or the referee except when referred by the original physician to another physician,

(b) persists in insanitary or injurious practices that tend to imperil or retard his recovery, or

(c) refuses to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as, in the opinion of the employer or insurer based upon independent expert medical or surgical advice is reasonably essential to promote his recovery, the employer or insurer may, with the consent in writing of the referee, reduce or suspend the compensation of that workman.

21. (1) Where in any case, in the opinion of the referee, it is in the best interests of an injured workman, in order to cure or relieve him from the effects of the injury, to provide a special surgical operation or other special medical treatment, the employer shall provide such surgical operation or other special medical treatment.

(2) Where in the case of any claim for compensation the referee is of the opinion that the injury would be alleviated to some extent by the supplying of any apparatus usually provided in such cases, the employer shall supply such apparatus to the workman, but any such action shall not affect in any way the payments made to the workman.

(3) To aid in getting an injured workman back to work and to assist in lessening or removing any handicap resulting from his injuries, the employer shall take such measures and make such expenditures as the referee may deem necessary or expedient.

(4) The employer shall provide for the repair, maintenance or renewal of any apparatus provided by him that becomes in need of repair, maintenance or renewal by reason of accident or ordinary wear and tear and through no misconduct on the part of the workman, so long as the disability in respect of which such apparatus was supplied continues.

(5) The employer shall assume the expense of replacement and repair of dentures, eye-glasses, artificial eyes or limbs or hearing aids, broken as a result of an accident arising out of and in the course of employment of the workman.

(6) If an autopsy is deemed necessary by the referee, the employer or the insurer to assist in determining the cause of any death, the Commissioner may direct that the autopsy be made within a time to be fixed by him, and if the dependant or dependants refuse to permit the autopsy, the referee may reject any claim for compensation under this Ordinance.

(7) Where the death of a workman to whom this Ordinance applies occurs while he is confined to a hospital, the hospital authority shall report the same to the employer and the Commissioner immediately after the death has occurred.
Workmen's Compensation.

22. (1) Where a workman suffers a permanent disability and the referee is of the opinion that occupational retraining is desirable, the referee may

(a) direct the type of training to be undertaken by the workman, or

(b) order the payment by the employer or insurer of the cost of the occupational retraining including travelling and living allowances, room and board, tuition, books, tools and equipment up to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars for any one workman of the employer.

(2) In this section "occupational retraining" means the training of a workman in an occupation other than the occupation in which he was disabled.

(3) This section shall come into force on a day to be fixed by order of the Commissioner.

23. (1) Any payment to a workman may be reviewed at the request of the workman, employer or insurer within five years from the date of the accident, and on the review the referee may put an end to or diminish the payment or may increase it to a sum not beyond the maximum hereinafter prescribed; the referee shall forthwith notify the Commissioner and the Commissioner shall forthwith notify the employer of any such appeal.

(2) Where compensation is payable the employer, with the consent of the Commissioner, may commute the payments payable to a workman or a dependant to a lump sum.

(3) The employer may in any case where in his opinion, the interest or pressing need of the workman or any dependant warrants it, advance or pay to or for the workman or the dependant such lump sum as the circumstances warrant and as the employer may determine, and any sum so advanced or paid shall be on account of and chargeable against the compensation payable to the workman.

(4) Where a lump sum payment has been made to a workman or a dependant as a settlement in full of his claim and has been so accepted by the workman or dependant, such workman or dependant is not entitled to receive or be paid any further or other compensation for or in respect of the degree of disability for which he was being compensated, but this subsection does not in any way affect the application of subsection (4) of section 21.

(5) In case of death or permanent total disability or in case of permanent partial disability where the impairment of the earning capacity of the workman exceeds five per cent of his earning capacity at the time of the accident, no commutation of periodical payments shall be made except upon the application of and at an amount agreed to by the dependant or workman entitled to the payments.

Chap. 111. Workmen's Compensation.

(6) Where any person entitled to compensation under this Ordinance is committed to a gaol or prison, compensation is not payable to him for the period of his confinement therein, but the whole or any part of the compensation may be paid to any dependant of any person so committed.

(7) If any person entitled to compensation under this Ordinance is committed to any institution, the compensation payable to or in respect of such person may, with the approval of the Commissioner, be paid to the dependent wife or other dependants of such person.

(8) The employer or the insurer may, from time to time, require from any person entitled to compensation, whether a workman or dependant, such particulars of his place of residence, address and other information relative to the disability and compensation, as he may deem necessary, and pending the receipt of such particulars, may withhold further payments.

24. Where a workman is entitled to compensation and it is made to appear to the Commissioner

(a) that a spouse, child or children dependent upon the workman and residing in the Territory, are without adequate means of support and are or are apt to become a public charge or a charge upon private charity; or

(b) that a spouse, child or children dependent upon the workman and residing outside the Territory are not being supported by the workman and an order has been made against him by a court of competent jurisdiction for the support or maintenance of the spouse or children or for alimony;

the Commissioner may order the compensation to be diverted in whole or in part from the workman for the benefit of the spouse or children of the workman.

25. (1) Where death results from the injury, the amount of the compensation shall be

(a) the necessary expenses of the burial of the workman, not exceeding two hundred dollars;

(b) to a dependent widow or dependent invalid widower as a contribution to additional expense occasioned consequent upon the death of the deceased workman,

(i) where the accident occurred on or before the 31st day of December, 1955, the sum of one hundred dollars, or

(ii) where the accident occurred on or after the 1st day of January, 1956, the sum of three hundred dollars;

(c) where the death occurred away from the workman's usual place of residence and in the opinion of the referee the transportation of the body seems desirable

(i) the necessary expense of transporting the body from the place of death to the usual place of residence up to but not exceeding one hundred dollars, or
(ii) the expense necessarily incurred for such of the transportation that takes place within the Territory up to but not exceeding one hundred dollars, where the usual place of residence of the workman is outside the Territory and it is proposed to transport the body to that place;

(d) to a dependent widow or dependent invalid widower,
   (i) where the accident occurred on or before the 31st day of December, 1955, a monthly payment of fifty dollars, or
   (ii) where the accident occurred on or after the 1st day of January, 1956, a monthly payment of seventy-five dollars;

(e) to a dependent child under the age of sixteen years other than a dependent invalid child a monthly payment of twenty-five dollars to continue until the child attains the age of sixteen years or dies before attaining that age;

(f) to a dependent invalid child irrespective of the age of the child, a monthly payment of twenty-five dollars to continue as long as in the opinion of the referee it might reasonably have been expected had the workman lived he would have continued to contribute to the support of the child;

(g) where a workman leaves no widow or widower or where a surviving widow or widower subsequently dies or is confined to a gaol, prison or institution, the employer shall make from time to time such additional payments not exceeding ten dollars monthly to a dependent child under the age of sixteen years or to a dependent invalid child as in the discretion of the referee appears necessary to adequately maintain and support such child;

(h) to a dependent widow in necessitous circumstances because of illness such additional amount as the referee may see fit up to but not exceeding fifteen dollars a month for such period as to the referee may seem appropriate by reason of the illness; and

(i) to a dependent child or a dependent invalid child such additional amount because of illness as the referee may see fit up to but not exceeding ten dollars per month for such period as may to the referee seem appropriate by reason of the illness.

(2) In subsection (3), unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "existing household" means any household where all the children entitled to compensation are maintained and taken care of by one foster-mother; and

(b) "foster-mother" includes a natural mother.

(3) Where the workman leaves no widow or the widow subsequently dies and it seems desirable to continue the existing household, and an aunt, sister or other suitable person acts as foster-mother in keeping up the household and maintaining and taking care of the children entitled to compensation in a manner which the referee deems satisfactory the foster-mother while so doing is entitled to receive the same compensation for herself and the children as if she were the widow of the deceased.

(4) All payments to foster-mothers under subsection (3) shall cease when all the dependent children who constitute the existing household have ceased to be entitled to compensation.

26. (1) Where a workman for the three years immediately preceding his death cohabited with a dependent common law wife, by whom he had one or more children and leaves no dependent widow, the compensation to which a dependent widow would have been entitled under this Ordinance may, in the discretion of the referee, be paid to such common law wife until such time as she marries.

(2) A dependent common law wife receiving or entitled to receive compensation under this Ordinance may not be paid compensation for acting or claiming to act as a foster-mother to the children of the deceased workman.

27. (1) Where a dependent child of a workman who,
(a) at the time of the death of the workman from the injury, was sixteen years of age or over and under the age of eighteen years, or
(b) immediately before reaching sixteen years of age, was a child to whom a monthly payment was being made under paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section 25, is attending an academic, technical or vocational school and making progress satisfactory to the referee, the referee may in his discretion order payment of compensation of twenty-five dollars a month to be made or to be continued, as the case may be, to or in respect of that child until such time as the child
(c) fails to make satisfactory progress at the school,
(d) ceases to attend school, or
(e) attains the age of eighteen years.

(2) Where a dependent child who is receiving payments under subsection (1) attains the age of eighteen years during a school year the referee may order the payments of compensation to be extended to the end of the then current school year.

28. Where the only dependants are persons other than those mentioned in subsection (1) of section 25, section 26 or section 27, the compensation shall be a sum to be determined by the referee, reasonable and proportionate to the pecuniary loss to such dependants occasioned by the death but not exceeding
(a) fifty dollars per month to a parent or parents and not exceeding in the whole eighty-five dollars per month where the accident occurred on or before the 31st day of December, 1955, or Workmen's Compensation.

Chap. 111.

(b) seventy-five dollars per month to a parent or parents and not exceeding in the whole one hundred dollars per month where the accident occurred on or after the 1st day of January, 1956.

29. Any payment to or for a child may be made to the parent of the child or the referee may direct that the payment be made to such other person or be applied in such manner as it may seem best for the advantage of the child.

30. Where a dependent widow remarries the monthly payments to her shall cease but she shall be paid a lump sum of

(a) six hundred dollars within one month of the date of her marriage where the accident occurred on or before the 31st day of December, 1955; or

(b) one thousand dollars within one month of the date of her marriage where the accident occurred on or after the 1st day of January, 1956.

31. Where a person is receiving or is entitled to receive a pension because of the death of a workman and subsequently becomes entitled to a pension because of the death of another workman such person shall not receive both pensions but shall be paid the greater of the two.

32. (1) Where a dependant is not a resident of Canada, he is not entitled to compensation unless by the law of the place or country in which he resides the dependants of a workman to whom an accident happens in such place or country, if resident in Canada, would be entitled to compensation, and where such dependants would be entitled to compensation under such law, the compensation to which the non-resident dependant is entitled under this Ordinance shall not be greater than the compensation payable in the like case under that law.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the referee may order payment of such compensation or sum in lieu of compensation to any such non-resident dependant as may be deemed proper.

33. Where permanent total disability results from the injury, the amount of the compensation shall be a weekly payment during the life of the workman equal to seventy-five per cent of the average weekly earnings of workmen employed at similar work in the same occupation as determined by the referee.

34. (1) Where permanent partial disability results from the injury, the referee shall estimate the impairment of earning capacity from the nature and degree of the disability by reason of the injury and award compensation accordingly based upon seventy-five per cent of the average weekly earnings of workmen employed at similar work in the same occupation as determined by the referee.
Chap. 111. Workmen's Compensation.

(2) When deemed just, the impairment of earning capacity may be estimated from the nature of the injury having in view the workman's fitness to continue the employment in which he was injured or adapt himself to some other suitable occupation.

(3) Where the impairment of the earning capacity of the workman does not exceed five per cent of his earning capacity, instead of such weekly payments the Commissioner may, unless in his opinion it would not be to the advantage of the workman to do so, direct that such lump sum as is determined by him to be the equivalent of such payments shall be paid to the workman.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the referee may in case a workman has been seriously and permanently disfigured about the face or head or otherwise permanently injured, recognize an impairment of earning capacity and may allow lump sums or periodical payments or both, as compensation.

35. Where temporary total disability results from the injury, the amount of the compensation shall be a weekly payment so long as the disability lasts, equal to seventy-five per cent of the workman's average weekly earnings, computed in accordance with section 38.

36. Where temporary partial disability results from the injury, the employer or the referee, as the case may be, shall estimate the impairment of earning capacity from the nature and degree of the disability by reason of the injury and award compensation accordingly based on seventy-five per cent of the workman's average weekly earnings computed in accordance with section 38 but such compensation is payable only so long as the disability lasts.

37. In case of workmen suffering injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment while doing rescue work in a mine after an explosion, accident or catastrophe or in any other industry or the premises thereof during or immediately after a fire or other catastrophe for the saving of human life, the compensation payable in such case shall be computed on the basis of one hundred per cent in lieu of the seventy-five per cent as herein otherwise provided.

38. (1) The average weekly earnings of a workman for the purposes of this Ordinance shall be based upon the earnings of the workman during the previous twelve months in industries to which this Ordinance applies where the same are ascertainable, except that where by reason of the shortness of the time during which the workman has been in the employment of his employer or the casual nature of the employment, it is impracticable at the date of the accident to compute the rate of remuneration, regard may be had to the average earnings which were earned by a person in the same grade of employment for the previous Workmen's Compensation.

Chap. 111.

twelve months, but nothing in this subsection applies to any case in which the basis of compensation is fixed by section 33 or 34.

(2) Where in any case in the opinion of the employer or the referee, as the case may be, the provisions of subsection (1) are inapplicable, the employer or the referee, as the case may be, may award compensation having regard to the earnings of the workman at the time of the accident.

(3) For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of compensation payable under sections 33 to 37, average weekly earnings shall be computed in such manner as is best calculated to give the rate per week at which the workman was being remunerated, but not so as in any case to exceed:

(a) three thousand dollars per annum where the accident occurred on or before the 31st day of December, 1955, or
(b) four thousand dollars per annum where the accident occurred on or after the 1st day of January, 1956.

(4) Where a workman is receiving compensation for a permanent or temporary disability, he shall not receive compensation for any further or other disability in any amount that would result in his receiving in the aggregate compensation in excess of that payable for total disability.

(5) Where a workman has received a lump sum in lieu of the periodic payments that otherwise would have been payable for a permanent disability, he shall for the purposes of this subsection be deemed to be still in receipt of the periodic payments.

(6) Where the workman has entered into concurrent contracts of service with two or more employers in industries to which this Ordinance applies under whom he worked at one time for one such employer and at another time for another such employer, his average weekly earnings shall be computed as if his earnings under all such contracts were earnings in the employment of the employer for whom he was working at the time of the accident.

(7) Where the employer has been accustomed to pay to the workman a sum to cover any special expenses entailed on him by the nature of the employment, the sum so paid shall not be reckoned as part of the earnings.

39. (1) The amount of compensation to which an injured person is entitled for temporary total or permanent total disability under this Ordinance shall not be less than twenty-five dollars per week or where his average earnings are less than twenty-five dollars per week, the amount of such earnings.

(2) The employer or the referee, as the case may be, may, whenever it is deemed advisable, provide that the payments of compensation may be monthly or semi-monthly instead of weekly, or where the workman or dependant is not a resident of the Territory, or ceases to reside therein, the employer or the referee, as the case may be, may fix the periods of payment or commute the compensation as it may deem proper, but if a workman or dependant entitled to compensation at the rate of twenty dollars a month or more files with the employer or the referee, as the case may be, a request in writing that the compensation payable to him be paid semi-monthly, the compensation payable to such workman or dependant shall thereafter be paid semi-monthly.

(3) No commutation of compensation under subsection (2) shall be made by the employer or the referee, as the case may be, to a workman or dependant unless the workman or dependant has, since leaving the Territory, resided in the same province or other jurisdiction for a period of thirteen consecutive months.

(4) For the purpose of ascertaining the amount of compensation due, such amount may be computed on a daily basis.

(5) Where a workman or dependant is under the age of twenty-one years or is under any other legal disability, the compensation to which he is entitled may be paid to him or be applied in such manner as the employer or the referee, as the case may be, may deem best for his advantage.

(6) Where the workman was at the date of the accident under twenty-one years of age the compensation payable to such workman may, upon his attaining the age of twenty-one years, be paid on the basis of the earnings at the time of the accident of workmen of the age of over twenty-one years employed in an occupation similar to that in which the workman was employed at the time of the accident.

40. In fixing the amount of a payment, regard shall be had to any payment, allowance or benefit which the workman may receive from his employer in respect of the period of his disability, including any pension, gratuity or other allowance provided wholly at the expense of the employer.

41. (1) In this section, “silicosis” means a fibrotic condition of the lungs caused by dust containing silica and evidence of specific x-ray appearances accompanied by a substantially lessened capacity for work.

(2) Nothing in this Ordinance entitles a workman or his dependants to compensation, medical aid or payment of burial expenses for disability or death from silicosis, unless in the opinion of the referee the workman has been exposed to silica dust in his employment in the Territory for periods amounting in all to at least three years preceding his disablement.

(3) Subsection (2) does not prevent allowance of any claim due to silicosis that the referee considers is entirely due to employment in the Territory.

42. (1) The employer shall furnish or provide for the injured workman such medical aid as may be reasonably necessary at the time of the injury and thereafter during the disability to diagnose, cure and relieve from the effects of the injury, and the Commissioner may make regulations with respect to the furnishing of and the payment for medical aid to injured workmen.

(2) All questions as to the necessity, character and sufficiency of any medical aid furnished or to be furnished shall be deter-dined by the referee.

(3) When the employer provides or is liable to pay for medical or other remedial attention as hereinbefore provided, the amount payable to any person in respect of medical or other remedial attention or any attention shall be as the referee shall direct and no action lies against the employer for or in respect of any amount greater than that fixed by the referee, nor in any event against the injured workman, his employer or any other person in respect of such attention, except, however, that when the employer provides or is liable to pay for hospital services, the amount shall be at such rates as have been mutually agreed upon by the employer and the hospital authority.

(4) Where workman is undergoing treatment under the direction of the referee or the employer in a district, settlement or place other than that in which the workman ordinarily resides and does not receive free board and lodging from his employer, the employer shall pay to such workman a subsistence allowance, while the workman is undergoing such treatment
(a) at the rate of six dollars per day, while the workman continues to maintain his house or other residence in the district, settlement or place in which he ordinarily resides;
(b) at the rate of three dollars per day, where the workman does not so maintain that house or residence; or
(c) in either case, such lesser amount as may be determined by the referee on reference by the Commissioner.

(5) The referee may contract with the doctors, nurses and hospitals or any other institutions for any medical aid required and in the case of a workman who has been rendered helpless through permanent total disability as a result of any injury, may order the provision of such other treatment services or attendance as in his opinion are required as a result thereof and the employer shall pay any charges or expenses incurred thereunder or in connection therewith in respect of any workman for whom he is responsible.

(6) Any major operations or operations of election require the approval of the employer or the insurer, or of the referee on reference by the Commissioner, before being performed and in the event that such approval is not obtained, except in cases of emergency the cost thereof may be paid or not at the discretion of the referee.

(7) Under no circumstances shall a workman be charged any amount to supplement that paid or to be paid by his employer or an insurer for services to which the workman is entitled under this Ordinance.
Hospitalization of injured workman.

Assessment of insured employers for administrative purposes.

Idem.

Assessment of exempted employers.

Statement of payroll.

(8) Every employer shall, at his own expense, furnish to any workman injured in his employment who is in need of it, immediate conveyance and transportation to a hospital or to a physician or to the workman's home or to such other place as the condition of the workman requires him to be sent, and any employer who fails to do so is liable by order of the Commissioner to pay for such conveyance and transportation as may be procured by the workman or by anyone for him.

43. (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), each employer shall

(a) annually, on the date that the whole or any part of the annual premium on his contract of insurance entered into under this Ordinance is first due, pay to the Commissioner or to a person authorized by him as his agent in that behalf an assessment of

(i) such percentage, not exceeding one-half of one per cent, of his estimated payroll for the twelve-month period commencing on that date, as the Commissioner from time to time prescribes, or

(ii) one dollar, whichever is the greater; and

(b) within thirty days after each anniversary of the date referred to in paragraph (a), submit to the Commissioner in prescribed form a statement of his actual payroll for the twelve-month period preceding such anniversary date.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subsection (1), within thirty days after the date on which an employer ceases to be an employer or his contract of insurance expires, whichever first occurs, he shall submit to the Commissioner in prescribed form a statement of his actual payroll for the period from the date mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) to the applicable date mentioned in this paragraph.

(3) An employer who is exempted under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of section 3 shall

(a) on the date that the exemption is granted, pay to the Commissioner or to a person authorized by him as his agent in that behalf an assessment of

(i) such percentage, not exceeding one-half of one per cent, of his estimated payroll for the period in respect of which the exemption is granted, as the Commissioner from time to time prescribed, or

(ii) one dollar, whichever is the greater; and

(b) within thirty days after the date on which he ceases to be exempt from the application of section 3 or the date on which he ceases to be an employer, whichever first occurs, submit to the Commissioner in prescribed form a statement of his actual payroll for the period during which he was exempt.
Workmen's Compensation.

(4) A change in the rate of assessment is effective on the first due date for payment of any assessment following the date on which the new rate is prescribed.

(5) Where an assessment paid by an employer is greater than the amount payable on the basis of his actual payroll, the amount of the overpayment shall, if it exceeds one dollar, be refunded to him following receipt by the Commissioner of the statement of the employer's actual payroll.

(6) Where the assessment paid by an employer is less than the amount payable on the basis of his actual payroll, he shall pay the amount of the difference, if it exceeds one dollar, to the Commissioner at the time he submits the statement of his actual payroll.

(7) The Commissioner may authorize any person as his agent to collect any assessment payable under this section, and such agent shall have full power to take, and may institute and carry out all necessary legal proceedings in his own name to recover any such assessment for the Commissioner.

(8) From and out of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund there may be paid the referee's fees and expenses, the sum to which an employer is entitled to be refunded under this section and such other costs incidental to the administration and enforcement of this Ordinance, and such part of the moneys collected by assessment in excess of all such fees, expenses, refunds and costs as the Commissioner may determine.

44. Each employer shall furnish to the Commissioner such information regarding his payroll as the Commissioner may from time to time require.

45. Where an award of the referee is not paid promptly as it falls due, the amount of such award may be paid from and out of the moneys issued and advanced out of the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund, and such amount so paid is a debt due to the Commissioner who may recover the same in any court of competent jurisdiction.

46. Every employer shall keep posted in his premises at a place readily accessible to his workmen a poster provided by the Commissioner setting out in concise form the provisions of the Ordinance and the procedure to be followed in reporting accidents and making claims.

47. In any prosecution of a person for failing to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) of section 3, a certificate purporting to be signed by the Commissioner alleging that such person has failed to enter into and maintain in force a contract of insurance as required by subsection (1) of section 3 shall be received in evidence as prima facie proof of the facts alleged therein.
Chap. 111. Workmen’s Compensation.

Penalty. 48. Every employer who fails to comply with or violates any provision of this Ordinance or the regulations for which failure or violation no other penalty is herein provided is guilty of an offence and liable upon summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.
