(b) the Commissioner is of the opinion that a direct result of the carrying out of the project will be a net increase in the number of opportunities for long-term employment in the Territory or the prevention of a decrease in the number of such opportunities.

No application for financial assistance shall be approved for a purpose in relation to a project that is not of an industrial or commercial nature.

No application for financial assistance shall be approved for a purpose that is not authorized by this Ordinance.

Except as provided by subsection 25(3), no application for financial assistance shall be approved for the purpose of the operation of a project.

(d) the purpose, in relation to the project, has not been fully carried out to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, or
(e) there is reason to believe that the applicant has, since accepting the approval, discontinued or changed substantially his intentions as represented by him in, or in support of, his application.

Where, in any proceeding by a person against the Commissioner for the payment of financial assistance under subsection (1), it is alleged that the requirements of this Ordinance for the payment of the financial assistance have been satisfied, the burden of proving the allegation is on the person making the allegation.

Notwithstanding paragraphs (1)(a) and (d), the Commissioner may authorize the payment of financial assistance in an amount less than the amount specified in the approval, where
(a) the applicant has, in the opinion of the Commissioner, complied substantially with the terms and conditions specified in the approval, or
(b) the applicant has paid an amount for carrying out the purpose in relation to the project, and the failure of the applicant to comply with any term or condition was not, in the opinion of the Commissioner, due to circumstances within the control of the applicant.

| Progress payments (4)                      | Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Commissioner may authorize the partial payment of financial assistance before the purpose is fully carried out where the Commissioner is satisfied that (a) there is no reason to believe that the purpose will not be fully carried out, or that the payment of the balance of the financial assistance may not be authorized under subsection (1), and (b) the partial payment of the financial assistance is important to the carrying-out of the purpose or the success of the project. |

| Local projects 10(1)                          | No financial assistance shall be paid under this Ordinance in respect of a project that is not being, or has not been, carried out within the Territory. |
| Real estate (2)                               | No financial assistance shall be paid under this Ordinance in respect of a project that consists |

1(1) Section 18 of the Condominium Ordinance is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

"18(1) The Corporation shall obtain and maintain insurance in respect of the units and the common elements to the replacement value thereof against fire, and against such other perils including liability as may be specified by the declaration or by-laws to the amount required by the declaration or the by-laws; and for this purpose the Corporation shall be deemed to have an insurable interest in the units, the common elements, and in the subject matter of any other perils insurance.

(2) Any payment by an insurer under a policy of insurance entered into under subsection (1) shall, notwithstanding the terms of the policy, be paid to the order of the insurance trustees designated by the declaration or the by-laws of the Corporation, if any, and otherwise shall be paid to or to the order of the Corporation; and, subject to section 20, the Corporation shall forthwith use the proceeds for the repair or replacement of the damaged units and common elements so far as the same may lawfully be effected.
No contribution

A policy of insurance issued to a corporation under subsection (1) is not liable to be brought into contribution with any other policy of insurance except another policy issued on the same property under subsection (1); and, notwithstanding the provisions of the policy, shall be deemed not to be other insurance in relation to such other policy.

Insurance by unit owner

Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Insurance Ordinance or any other law relating to insurance, a unit owner may obtain and maintain insurance

(a) in respect of loss or damage to his unit against fire and other perils in excess of any amount for which it is insured by the Corporation under subsection (1),

(b) in respect of loss or damage to his unit in excess of any amount for which the improvements are insured by the Corporation under subsection (1),

Payment to mortgagee

Notwithstanding the Insurance Ordinance or the terms and conditions of the policy, any payment by an insurer under a policy of insurance entered into for the purpose of

Security to sheriff (2) The sheriff is not required to do any act to effect the seizure or sale of property, or to do any act in relation to the seizure or sale of property, unless the execution creditor, where required by the sheriff to do so, has provided reasonable security
(a) indemnifying the sheriff against all damages, costs and expenses, including the costs and expenses of interpleader proceedings, that the sheriff may incur or to which he may become liable by doing the act, and
(b) indemnifying any person who has an interest in the property against any damages, costs or expenses that the person may suffer by reason of the doing of the act.

Application to judge (3) Where a difference occurs as to the security required to be provided pursuant to subsection (2),
(a) the execution creditor may apply at his own cost to a judge for an order determining the security to be provided, and
(b) the sheriff is not required to do any act to which subsection (2) applies until the security has been provided pursuant to the order.

Costs of application (4) Except in the case of a writ of execution issued upon a judgment for an amount within the jurisdiction of a Small Claims Official, the costs of providing security under this section, including the costs of an application under subsection (3), may be added to the costs of the execution creditor that may be included in the amount required to be levied by the writ.

Effect of writ (6) A writ of execution binds the personal property of the execution debtor from the receipt of the writ by the sheriff, but the writ does not affect an interest in any of that property acquired by a person for valuable consideration before he receives notice that the writ has been received by the sheriff.

Where a writ of execution that has not been satisfied remains in the hands of the sheriff and he receives another writ of execution, the property of the execution debtor shall be deemed to have been bound by the later writ from the date from which the property was bound by the earlier writ.

Seizure of Personal Property

Before he seizes any personal property, the sheriff may require written instructions from the execution creditor instructing him to effect the seizure, and the sheriff may require that the instructions contain a description of the property that will enable him to identify and seize it.

Notwithstanding any provision of the Exemptions Ordinance, where the sheriff deems it impracticable to distinguish between personal property that is exempt from seizure and personal property that is not exempt, he may seize exempt property along with property that is not exempt, but the seizure of the exempt property shall be released as soon as the sheriff can ascertain which of the seized property is exempt.

In addition to any other method of seizure that may be applicable, the sheriff may effect the seizure of personal property that consists of or relates to shares in a company by delivering a copy of the writ of execution to the registered office of the company in the Territory.

A seizure of an execution debtor's interest in personal property under subsection (1) shall be deemed to take place upon the receipt of the writ at the registered office of the company.

Exception (3)

Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to shares in respect of which a share warrant to bearer has been issued but has not been surrendered.

Effect of seizure (4)

Where a seizure has been effected under subsection (1) or by any other method, no transfer of the shares or of any interest in the shares by the execution debtor is valid unless the seizure has been released.

Payment of dividends, etc. (5)

From the receipt of a copy of a writ of execution at the registered office of a company, all dividends, premiums, bonuses or other pecuniary profits in the shares that would otherwise be paid by the company to the execution debtor shall be paid by the company to the sheriff, until the seizure is released.

Situs (6)

Personal property seized under this section shall be deemed to be personal property found by the sheriff at the registered office of the company.

Seize of mobile home (9)(1)

Except as provided by subsection (2), where personal property that is a mobile home is occupied, the sheriff shall not take possession of the property without demanding and receiving the permission of the occupant to do so.

Refusal of permission (2)

Where the occupant of personal property that is a mobile home refuses to deliver up possession of the mobile home upon demand by the sheriff, or where no response is made to the demand, the execution creditor may apply to a judge for an order directing the occupant to deliver up possession of the property to the sheriff.

Making of demand (3)

A demand under this section may be made by affixing a notice in the prescribed form to the mobile home.
Where the sheriff seizes personal property and does not cause such possession to be taken of the property as would be reasonable notice to others of the seizure, he shall, at the time of the seizure, affix a notice in the prescribed form to the property, or to a conspicuous place upon the premises where the property is located at the time of the seizure.

Where the sheriff has affixed a notice as provided by subsection (1) and he believes that the notice may become lost or obliterated, he shall also cause the notice to be published in a newspaper circulating in the Territory.

No person shall remove or deface a notice affixed by the sheriff under this section.

The sheriff shall keep a record of all notices affixed or published by him under section 10 and the record shall be open for inspection by any person at the prescribed times, upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Where a notice is affixed or published under section 10, every person who has not previously received notice of the receipt of the writ of execution by the sheriff shall be deemed to have received such notice upon the affixation of the notice.

Notice that property has been seized by the sheriff shall be deemed to be notice of the receipt of the writ of execution by the sheriff.

A seizure is not affected by the failure of the sheriff to affix or publish a notice as provided by section 10 or by any defect in a notice affixed or published under section 10.
which it is situated at the time of the seizure, he may remove the property by such means, at such times, and to such places as he deems proper.

Inventory of property

(2) The sheriff shall deliver an inventory of personal property that has been seized
(a) to the execution debtor, upon request,
and
(b) to a person, other than the execution debtor, in possession of the property at the time of the seizure, upon request made before the property is removed from the premises upon which it is situated at the time of the seizure.

Request before removal

(3) Where a request under subsection (2) is made before the property is removed from the premises upon which it is situated at the time of the seizure, the sheriff shall not remove it from the premises until he has delivered the inventory to the person making the request.

Agent for seizure

(4) Where the sheriff has seized personal property, he may appoint the execution debtor or any other person to be his agent to hold the property on behalf of the sheriff, but no such appointment is effective unless it is accepted in writing by the appointee.

Seizure continues

15(1) A seizure of personal property shall be deeded to be a continuing seizure until the seizure is released.

Release of seizure

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, a seizure of personal property is released
(a) by the sale of the property, or
(b) by the issuance of a notice of release of the seizure in the prescribed form by the sheriff.
Notice of release

16(1) Where a period of six months has elapsed from the date upon which a seizure was effected, the sheriff may give, to any execution creditor, 60 days' notice of his intention to release the seizure.

Form and service

(2) A notice of the sheriff's intention to release a seizure under subsection (1) shall be in the prescribed form and it shall be served upon the person to whom it is directed, or mailed to him by registered or certified mail.

Continuation of seizure

(3) A person who receives a notice of intention under subsection (1) may, within the 60-day period, apply to a judge for an order continuing the seizure.

Procedure

(4) An application under subsection (3) may be made ex parte or upon such notice as a judge may direct.

Order by judge

(5) A judge, upon hearing an application, may make an order providing for the release or continuation of the seizure upon such terms as he considers proper.

Release after notice

(6) Where a person who has been given notice under subsection (1) does not apply for an order under subsection (3) and the sheriff releases the seizure after the expiration of the 60-day period, no action arising out of the release of the seizure is maintainable by that person against the sheriff.

Sale of Personal Property

17(1) Before the sheriff sells personal property that has been seized, he may require the written instructions of the execution creditor to sell the property, and he may require that the instructions set forth the execution creditor's instructions as to the terms and conditions of the sale.
Except as otherwise provided by this Ordinance, or unless a judge otherwise orders, a sale of personal property that has been seized shall be held by way of public auction or public tender.

At least 20 days before personal property is offered for sale under subsection (1), the sheriff shall
(a) serve notice of the offer in the prescribed form on the execution creditor and the execution debtor, or send it to them by registered or certified mail, and
(b) cause public notice of the sale in the prescribed form to be published in a newspaper circulating in the Territory.

A notice of objection in the prescribed form shall be served upon or mailed to the execution debtor with the notice of the offer for sale served or mailed under paragraph (2)(a).

Where personal property that has been seized consists of shares in a private company, the property shall be offered for sale at a reasonable price to the other shareholders of the company or any one of them.

For the purposes of subsection (1), an offer of sale shall be made by mailing an offer of sale in the prescribed form by registered or certified mail to the registered office of the company, and the offer shall be deemed to have been made when the offer of sale is received.

At least ten days before an offer of sale is made under this section, the sheriff shall serve notice of the offer in the prescribed form on the execution creditor and the execution debtor, or send it to them by registered or certified mail.

This Ordinance shall come into force on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner.
The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of the said Territory, enacts as follows:

1(1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Fatal Accidents Ordinance.

2(1) In this Ordinance,

"child" includes a son, daughter, grandson, grand-daughter, step-son, step-daughter, an illegitimate child, an adopted child, and a person to whom the deceased stood in loco parentis;

"deceased" means a person whose death has been caused as mentioned in subsection 3(1);

"parent" includes a father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, step-father, step-mother, an adoptive parent, and a person who stood in loco parentis to the deceased; and

"tortfeasor" means a person whose wrongful act, neglect or default has caused the death, or contributed to the cause of the death of the deceased and who, if death had not ensued, would have been liable to him for damages, and includes a person who would have been liable vicariously or otherwise for such damages.

3(1) Where the death of a person is caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would, if death had not ensued, have entitled the deceased to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, the person who would have been liable, if death had not ensued, is liable for damages, notwithstanding the death of the deceased, even if the death was caused in circumstances amounting in law to culpable homicide.

Subject to subsection (5), the liability for damages under this section arises upon the death of the deceased.

No settlement made, release given or judgment recovered in an action brought, by the deceased within a period of three months after the commission or occurrence of the wrongful act, neglect or default causing his death, is a bar to a claim made under this Ordinance or is a discharge of liability arising under this Ordinance, but any payment made thereunder shall be taken into account in assessing damages in any action brought under this Ordinance.

Unless it is set aside, a settlement made or release given or a judgment recovered in an action brought by the deceased after the expiration of the period mentioned in subsection (3) is a discharge of liability under this Ordinance.

If, at the time of the death of the deceased, the tortfeasor is himself dead, the liability arising under this Ordinance shall be conclusively deemed to have been subsisting against the tortfeasor before his death.

Where the tortfeasor dies at the same time as the deceased, or in circumstances rendering it uncertain which of them survived the other, or after the death of the deceased, the liability and cause of action arising under this Ordinance shall be conclusively deemed to lie upon and continue against the executor or administrator of the tortfeasor as if the executor or administrator were the tortfeasor in life.
| Persons who may benefit | Every action under this Ordinance shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent or child of the deceased, or any of them, and except as hereinafter provided, shall be brought by and in the name of the executor or administrator. |
| Apportionment of damages | Subject to subsection (3), in every action under this Ordinance such damages as are proportional to the pecuniary loss resulting from the death shall be awarded to the persons respectively for whose benefit the action is brought. |
| Funeral expenses | Where an action has been brought under this Ordinance there may be included in the damages awarded an amount sufficient to cover the reasonable expenses of the funeral and the disposal of the body of the deceased if those expenses were incurred by any of the persons by whom or for whose benefit the action is brought. |
| Negligence of beneficiary | Where a person for whose benefit alone or with others an action may be brought under this Ordinance is a tortfeasor, the damages that would otherwise be awarded for his benefit shall be reduced in proportion to the degree in which the court finds that his wrongful act, neglect or default contributed to the cause of the death of the deceased. |
| Negligence of deceased | Where the wrongful act, neglect or default of the deceased contributed to the cause of his death, the damages that would otherwise be awarded under this Ordinance shall be reduced in proportion to the degree in which the court finds that his wrongful act, neglect or default contributed to the cause of his death. |
| Special administrator | Where, within three months after the death of the tortfeasor, (a) no executor of his will or administrator | of his estate has been appointed in the Territory, and

(b) no letters probate of his will or letters of administration have been re-sealed in the Territory, any person intending to bring or continue an action under this Ordinance may apply to a judge of the court in which the action is to be, or has been, brought to appoint an administrator of the estate of the tortfeasor to act for all purposes of the intended or pending action and as defendant therein; and the judge, on such notice as he may direct, given either specially or generally by public advertisement and to such persons as he may designate, may appoint such an administrator.

Powers of administrator

The administrator appointed under subsection (1) is an administrator against whom an action under this Ordinance may be brought or continued and by whom such action may be defended; and the administrator may bring any action or take any proceedings in respect of the action that the tortfeasor could have brought or taken if he were alive.

Effect of judgment

Any judgment obtained by or against the administrator so appointed has the same effect as a judgment in favour of or against the tortfeasor or the executor of his will or the administrator of his estate.

Limitation on application

No application shall be made under subsection (1) after the expiration of the period of one year mentioned in subsection 9(4), but where such an application is made not earlier than three months before the expiration of that period, the judge may, in his discretion and if he thinks it just to do so, extend for a period not exceeding one month the time within which action may be brought as provided in subsection 9(4).

Action by beneficiaries

Where there is no executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased, or, there being an executor or administrator, no action is brought by him, within six months after the death of the deceased, an action may be brought by and in the name or names of any one or more of the persons for whose benefit the action would have been brought if it had been brought by the executor or administrator.

Every action so brought shall be for the benefit of the same persons as if it were brought by the executor or administrator.

In assessing damages in an action brought under this Ordinance there shall not be taken into account,

(a) any sum paid or payable on the death of the deceased under any contract of insurance or assurance, whether made before or after the coming into force of this Ordinance,

(b) any premium that would have been payable in future under any contract of insurance or assurance if the deceased had survived,

(c) any benefit or right to benefits, resulting from the death of the deceased under the Workers' Compensation Ordinance, the Social Assistance Ordinance, or the Child Welfare Ordinance, or under any other Act that is enacted by any legislature, parliament or other legislative authority and that is of similar import or effect,

(d) any pension, annuity or other periodical allowance accruing payable by reason of the death of the deceased, and

(e) any amount that may be recovered under any statutory provision creating a special right to bring an action for the benefit of persons for whose benefit an action may be brought under this Ordinance.

Only one action lies under this Ordinance in respect of the death of the deceased.

Except where it is expressly declared in another Ordinance that it operates notwithstanding this Ordinance, it is not necessary that any notice of claim or intended claim, or notice of action or intended action or any other notice, or any other document, be given or served, as provided in any such other Ordinance, or otherwise, before bringing an action under this Ordinance.

Effect of limitation (3)

If the deceased, at the time of his death, could not have brought an action against the tortfeasor by reason of lapse of time or failure to comply with any statutory or contractual condition, a person entitled to bring action under this Ordinance is not, solely by reason of that fact, barred from so doing.

Limitation period (4)

Except where it is expressly declared in another Ordinance that it operates notwithstanding this Ordinance, an action, including an action to which subsection 3(5) or (6) applies, may be brought under this Ordinance within one year after the death of the deceased, but, subject to subsection 6(4), no such action shall be brought thereafter.

Effect of contract (5)

This section has effect notwithstanding any contract.

Payment into court 10(1)

The defendant may pay into court one sum of money as compensation for his wrongful act, neglect or default to all persons entitled to damages under this Ordinance, without specifying the shares into which, or the parties among whom it is to be divided under this Ordinance.

Particulars 11(1) of beneficiaries

In every action brought under this Ordinance, (a) the statement of claim shall contain, or the plaintiff shall deliver therewith, full particulars of the names, addresses and occupations of the persons for whose benefit the action is brought, and (b) the plaintiff shall file with the statement of claim an affidavit in which he shall state that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the persons on whose behalf the action is brought as set forth in the statement of claim or in the particulars delivered therewith are the only persons entitled, or who claim to be entitled, to the benefit of the action.

Order for particulars (2) Where the plaintiff fails to comply with subsection (1), the court, on application, may order the plaintiff to give such particulars or so much thereof as he is able to give; and the action shall not be tried until he complies with the order; but the failure of the plaintiff to comply with subsection (1) or with an order made under this subsection is not a ground of defence to the action, or a ground for its dismissal.

Dispensing order (3) A judge of the court in which the action is brought may dispense with the filing of the affidavit, as required in subsection (1), if he is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for doing so.

Apportionment by judge 12(1) Where the amount recovered has not been otherwise apportioned, a judge in chambers may apportion it among the persons entitled thereto.

Questions between beneficiaries 13(1) Where an action is brought under this Ordinance, a judge of the court in which the action is pending may make such order as he may deem just for the determination of all questions as to the persons entitled under this Ordinance to share in the amount, if any, that may be recovered.

Commissioner 14(1) The Commissioner is bound by this Ordinance.

Settlements by infants 15(1) Where an action is maintainable under this Ordinance, and some or all of the persons for whose benefit the action is maintainable are infants, and where the executor or administrator of the person deceased has agreed, either before or after the commencement of an action, on a settlement of the claim or action, either the executor or administrator or the person against whom the claim or action is made or brought, may, on ten days' notice to the opposite party, apply to a judge for an order confirming the settlement.

The judge may on the application confirm or disallow the settlement, but, if the settlement is confirmed by him, the party against whom the claim is made or action brought shall be discharged from all further claims.

The judge may also on the application order the money or a portion thereof to be paid into court or otherwise apportioned and distributed as he may deem best in the interests of those entitled thereto.

The Fatal Accidents Ordinance is repealed.

This Ordinance comes into force on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner.

NOTE: This Ordinance is based on a model Act recommended by the Uniform Law Conference of Canada.

Issuance of Writ

Subject to section 7, a writ of immediate garnishment shall be issued by the clerk of the court upon request of a creditor.
Subject to section 7, a writ of continuing garnishment shall be issued by the clerk of the court upon request of a creditor, but a creditor shall not make such a request unless

Upon the hearing of an application under subsection (2) an order shall be granted for the setting aside of the writ unless the creditor satisfies the court that subsection (1) and section 7 were complied with.

Writ may be set aside

(3) A writ of garnishment issued under subsection (1) before judgment shall be set aside by the court upon application made by the debtor at any time before judgment unless the court is satisfied that

(a) the creditor's claim against the debtor is for a liquidated demand,
(b) there are reasonable grounds for believing that, if the judgment is obtained by the creditor, it may not be satisfied if the writ is set aside,
(c) having regard to the potential hardship and inconvenience to the debtor and to the potential benefit to the creditor, the writ will achieve a result that is equitable in the circumstances,
(d) the creditor has demonstrated sufficiently the merits of his claim against the debtor, and
(e) the creditor has established that the issuance of the writ did not contravene subsection (1) or section 7.

Section 4

(4) Nothing in this section limits the power of a court to set aside a writ of garnishment under section 4.

Issuance and effect

7(1) A writ of garnishment shall not be issued before judgment except as provided by section 6 or 8, but a writ of garnishment issued before judgment otherwise is subject to all of the provisions of this Ordinance, including section 4, that apply to writs of garnishment issued after judgment.

Salary or wages (2) No writ of garnishment shall be issued before judgment for the attachment of a debt that is or may become due to a debtor for salary or wages.

Issuance with leave 8(1) A writ of garnishment shall be issued before judgment by the clerk of the court upon the request of the plaintiff in an action for a money judgment to which section 6 does not apply where the plaintiff has applied for and obtained the leave of the court for the issuance of the writ before judgment.

Application for leave (2) An application for the leave of the court for the issuance of a writ of garnishment before judgment shall specify the amount sought to be attached by the writ.

Grounds for giving leave (3) Leave shall not be given for the issuance of a writ of garnishment before judgment unless the court is satisfied that
(a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that, if a judgment is obtained by the creditor, it may not be satisfied if the writ is not issued,
(b) having regard to the potential hardship and inconvenience to the debtor and the potential benefit to the creditor, the issuance of the writ will achieve a result that is equitable in the circumstances,
(c) the creditor had demonstrated sufficiently the merits of his claim against the debtor,
(d) the issuance of the writ will not contravene the provisions of section 7,
(e) the debtor has been given two days' notice of the application, and
(f) the creditor, if successful, is likely to recover a judgment in the action for an amount not less than the sum of the amount specified in the application and the proceeds of any previous garnishment in respect of the action.

Amount to be attached

(4) An order granting leave for the issuance of a writ of garnishment before judgment shall specify the amount that may be attached by the writ, and the amount specified in the order shall not exceed, but it may be less than, the amount specified under subsection (2) in the application for leave.

Amount is not admission

(5) The specification in an application under subsection (2) of an amount sought to be attached shall be deemed not to be an admission by the plaintiff as to the amount of his claim against the defendant.

Demonstration of merits

9(1) For the purposes of subsections 6(3) and 8(3), the merits of a creditor's claim against a debtor are demonstrated sufficiently if

(a) there appears to be no defence that has a reasonable prospect of defeating the claim, other than a defence that, to succeed, depends on a finding, favourable to the debtor, on a fact that is in dispute, and

(b) one or more affidavits filed on behalf of the creditor set out and verify the facts on which the creditor's claim is based and, where a defence is made, deny the facts on which the defence is based, or set out and verify additional facts that rebut the defence.

Presumptions

(2) In an application to the court under subsection 6(3) or 8(1), it may be presumed in favour of the creditor that, unless the debtor gives evidence to the contrary,

(a) there are reasonable grounds for believing that, if a judgment is obtained by the creditor, it will not be satisfied if the writ is not issued,
(b) having regard to the potential hardship and inconvenience to the debtor and to the potential benefit to the creditor, issuance of the writ will achieve a result that is equitable in the circumstances, and

(c) the creditor is likely to recover a judgment in the action for an amount not less than the sum of the amount specified in the application and the proceeds of any previous garnishment in respect of the action.

Where an application has been made to the court for leave for the issuance of a writ of garnishment before judgment under section 8, the clerk of the court shall issue a writ of temporary garnishment upon the request of the creditor.

Service of a writ of immediate garnishment upon the garnishee attaches, up to the amount specified in the writ, every debt that is due from the garnishee to the debtor at the time of service.

Extension of term (2) Notwithstanding subsection 11(2), upon application made to the court by the creditor at any time during the initial term during which debts are attached by a writ of continuing garnishment, the term may be extended for one additional term not exceeding one year from the date on which the application for the extension is granted.

Order to be served (3) Until a copy of an order extending the term of a writ of continuing garnishment has been served on the garnishee the order does not attach any debt that becomes due from the garnishee to the debtor after the expiration of the initial term during which debts are attached by the writ.

Other Attachable Rights

Funds in court 14(1) Where a proceeding has been commenced under which funds have been, or may be, paid into court, a writ of garnishment may be served upon the clerk of the court, and the service of the writ attaches any funds held by the court that are payable to the debtor at the time of service. And if the writ is a writ of continuing or temporary garnishment, it attaches also any funds that may be held thereafter by the court and become payable to the debtor during the term of the writ.

Funds held by sheriff (2) Where a proceeding has been commenced under which funds have been, or may be, held by the sheriff, a writ of garnishment may be served on the sheriff, and the service of the writ attaches any funds held by the sheriff that are payable to the debtor at the time of service, and if the writ is a writ of continuing or temporary garnishment, it attaches also any funds that may be held thereafter by the sheriff during the term of the writ.

Contents of writ (3) A writ of garnishment served upon the clerk under subsection (1), or upon the sheriff under subsection (2), does not attach any funds that may be held by the court or the sheriff unless it contains a statement identifying the proceedings in respect of which the funds have been, or may be, held by the court or the sheriff, by specifying the action number, the style of cause, or both, as the practice of the court may require.

Service of a copy of a writ of immediate garnishment upon an insurer attaches any insurance proceeds that are due at the time of service from the insurer to the garnishee in respect of any debt attached by the service of the writ on the garnishee.

Service of a copy of a writ of continuing or temporary garnishment upon an insurer attaches any insurance proceeds that are due from the insurer to the garnishee at the time of service, or that become due from the insurer to the garnishee during the term of the writ, in respect of any debt attached by the service of the writ on the garnishee.

Where a copy of a writ of garnishment is served upon an insurer under this section, he shall be deemed to be a garnishee for the purposes of this Ordinance, and this Ordinance applies as if the insurer were liable directly to the debtor under the writ.
Improper payment (5)
The payment of insurance proceeds by an insurer to a debtor in contravention of this section is not, as between the creditor and the garnishee, a failure to comply with the writ of garnishment, and it does not render the garnishee liable to the creditor under section 33.

Certain other debts

A debt that does not arise out of a trust or contract is not attachable under a writ of garnishment unless judgment has been recovered thereon against the garnishee.

Wage exemption

Except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, seventy percent of the wages payable from time to time by an employer to a debtor is not attachable under a writ of garnishment, but in no case shall the monthly amount that is exempt from attachment under this subsection be less than,

Contents of notice (2)

Copies of a notice of response served under subsection (1) shall be completed to show

Notice of payment

Where a garnishee who has been served with a writ of garnishment, or an insurer who has been served with a copy of a writ of garnishment, pays money sought to be attached by the writ into court otherwise than in compliance with the writ, he shall deliver forthwith to the creditor a notice that he has done so.
Where a writ of garnishment is served upon the garnishee, the garnishee is not entitled to set off against the amount due from the garnishee to the debtor any claim against the debtor by the garnishee arising after the service of the writ unless the garnishee establishes that
(a) the claim arose pursuant to a binding commitment entered into before the service of the writ, or
(b) the garnishee has behaved reasonably and with good faith in the circumstances, and it would be inequitable to deny his claim to a right of set-off.

In this section, a right of set-off includes a right that could be raised by way of counterclaim or otherwise by a garnishee to resist, or that could be raised in reduction of, a claim brought by the debtor on a debt attached, or sought to be attached, by a writ of garnishment.

Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), where a garnishee pays an amount into court under a writ of garnishment, he is entitled to deduct, from the amount attached, his costs as between solicitor and client relating to the payment of the money into court, and the deductions may be for the minimum amounts set out in section 45.

(a) the creditor may apply to the court for an order determining the liability of the garnishee under the writ, and
(b) if the creditor does not apply to the court for an order under paragraph (a) within two months of the date when the notice of response was filed, the garnishee may apply for an order to set aside the writ of garnishment.

Upon an application by the garnishee under paragraph (1)(b) or by the creditor under paragraph (2)(a) or subsection (3), the court may
(a) fix a time for summarily determining the liability of the garnishee, or
(b) order the trial of an issue to determine the liability of the garnishee.

The court may direct who shall be the parties to the determination of the liability of the garnishee under this section, and where the garnishee does not appear the court may, if it thinks fit, determine his liability ex parte either summarily or by the trial of an issue.

The court may order the garnishee to pay an amount into court,
(a) where the garnishee does not dispute his liability and does not appear to contest an application made by the creditor under section 30, without determining the liability of the garnishee under the writ, or
(b) where it is determined by the court upon proceedings under section 30 that the garnishee is liable to pay an amount of money into court under the writ.

Enforcement of order

An order under subsection (1) may be enforced by the creditor as a judgment against the garnishee.

Refusal to make order

The court may refuse to make an order under subsection (1) where it appears to the court that the garnishee has made reasonable efforts to comply with the writ of garnishment and, in all the circumstances, it would be inequitable to make the order.

Payment under order

Money paid into court pursuant to an order made under subsection (1) shall be held in court as if paid in by the garnishee in compliance with the original writ of garnishment.

Liability to debtor

The liabilities of a garnishee to a debtor are discharged by

(b) the satisfaction of an order of the court for the payment of money into court under a writ of garnishment, and to the extent of the payment or satisfaction made, even though any proceedings in relation to the garnishment may be set aside, or the judgment reversed.

(c) the deduction of an amount for costs under subsection 29(3),

Liability of insurer

The liabilities of an insurer to a garnishee are discharged by

(a) the payment of an amount into court under a copy of a writ of garnishment served upon him under section 16,

(b) the satisfaction of an order of the court for the payment of money into court under the writ of garnishment, and
(c) the deduction of an amount for costs under subsection 29(3),
to the extent of the payment or satisfaction made, even though any proceedings in relation to the garnishment may be set aside, or the judgment reversed.

Money in Court

Notice to debtor 34(1)

Where any money is paid into court under a writ of garnishment, the creditor shall deliver to the debtor within ten days of the date on which the creditor learns of the payment into court

Continuing attachment 2

Where a writ of continuing garnishment is issued, the creditor shall deliver a copy of the writ to the debtor within 14 days of the date on which it is served upon the garnishee.

Payment out without order 35(1)

Money paid into court under a writ of garnishment may be paid out of court to the creditor without an order of the court where
(a) judgment has been entered in the action in respect of which the writ of garnishment was issued, and
(b) no application is pending to set aside or otherwise to dispute the garnishment, and

(c) an affidavit is filed by the creditor verifying that

(i) the documents required to be delivered to the debtor under section 34 have been delivered, and

(ii) the creditor knows of no person other than the creditor, the debtor and the garnishee who is interested in, or entitled to, the money paid into court, and

(d) the clerk of the court has received no notice that any person other than the creditor, the debtor and the garnishee may be interested in or entitled to the money paid into court, and

(e) 30 days have elapsed since the later of

(i) the payment of the money into court,

(ii) the entry of judgment as required by paragraph (a), and

(iii) the filing of an affidavit as required by paragraph (c).

Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), money paid into court under a writ of garnishment may be paid out to the creditor at any time with the consent of the debtor.

Where an amount has been paid into court under a writ of garnishment issued before judgment and the creditor does not recover judgment against the debtor for the full amount paid into court, the full amount, or the balance to which the creditor is not

Restoration of interests (3) Where an order is made under subsection (2) in respect of money that has been paid into court, the court may give directions for the restoration, to persons other than the creditor and debtor, of beneficial interests and for the payment of the debtor's beneficial interest out of court to the creditor or the debtor.

Notice to others (4) Where it is suggested in a notice of response filed by a garnishee, or where it otherwise appears to the court, that a person other than the creditor, debtor or garnishee may be interested beneficially in money that has been paid into court under a writ of garnishment, the clerk of the court shall notify that person of his right to make an application under subsection (2).

Failure to appear (5) An order made under subsection (2) may bar the claim of a person to whom notice has been

Termination of order

Where an order is made under this section for the payment of a judgment by installments, the order shall be terminated

(a) by the default of the debtor in paying any of the installments so ordered for more than five days, or

(b) by the issuance of a writ of garnishment against the debtor in a proceeding other than that in respect of which the installment payments were ordered.

Substitution of security

Where an amount is paid into court under a writ of garnishment issued before judgment and no application to set aside the writ or to pay the money out of court is outstanding,

(a) the creditor or debtor may apply to the court for an order empowering the applicant to substitute for the amount paid into court an interest-bearing security satisfactory to the court,

(b) the creditor or debtor may apply to the court for an order that the money paid into court be used to purchase an interest-bearing security, or

(c) the debtor may apply to the court for an order empowering him to have the amount paid out to him upon the provision to the court of such security over the debtor's property as, in the opinion of the court, is adequate to secure the amount sought to be paid out to the debtor.

Security provided under subsection (1) takes the place of and shall be dealt with as if it were the amount paid into court under the writ of garnishment, and for that purpose the security may be managed, assigned, liquidated, discharged or otherwise dealt with as the court may direct from time to time.

The provision of security under this section, or the failure of a creditor or debtor to make an application under this section, may be taken into account for the purpose of an assessment under subsection 39(2).

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of the said Territory, enacts as follows:

Short title 1(1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Human Tissue Gift Ordinance.

2(1) In this Ordinance,

"consent" "consent" means a consent given under this Ordinance;

"medical practitioner" "medical practitioner" has the same meaning as in the Medical Profession Ordinance;

"tissue" "tissue" includes an organ, but does not include any skin, bone, blood, blood constituent or other tissue that is replaceable by natural processes of repair;

"transplant" "transplant" means the removal of tissue from a human body, whether living or dead, and its implantation in a living human body; and

"writing" "writing" includes a will and any other testamentary instrument whether or not probate has been applied for or granted and whether or not the will or other testamentary instrument is valid.

Inter Vivos Gifts for Transplants

3(1) A transplant from one living human body to another living human body may be done in accordance with this Ordinance but not otherwise.

4(1) Any person who has attained the age of majority, is mentally competent to consent, and is able

Notwithstanding subsection (1), a consent given thereunder by a person who had not attained the age of majority, was not mentally competent to consent, or was not able to make a free and informed decision is valid for the purposes of this Ordinance if the person who acted upon it had no reason to believe that the person who gave it had not attained the age of majority, was not mentally competent to consent, or was not able to make a free and informed decision as the case may be.

A consent given under this section is full authority for any medical practitioner (a) to make any examination necessary to assure medical acceptability of the tissue specified therein, and (b) to remove forthwith such tissue from the body of the person who gave the consent.

If for any reason the tissue specified in the consent is not removed in the circumstances to which the consent relates, the consent is void.

Any person who has attained the age of majority may consent (a) in a writing signed by him at any time, or (b) orally in the presence of at least two witnesses during his last illness that his body or the part or parts thereof specified in the consent be used after his death for therapeutic purposes, medical education or scientific research.
Notwithstanding subsection (1), a consent given by a person who had not attained the age of majority is valid for the purposes of this Ordinance if the person who acted upon it had no reason to believe that the person who gave it had not attained the age of majority.

Upon the death of a person who has given a consent under this section, the consent is binding and is full authority for the use of the body or the removal and use of the specified part or parts for the purpose specified, except that no person shall act upon a consent given under this section if he has reason to believe that it was subsequently withdrawn.

Where a person of any age who has not given a consent under section 5 dies, or in the opinion of a medical practitioner is incapable of giving a consent by reason of injury or disease and his death is imminent,

(a) his spouse of any age,

(i) by the telegraphic, recorded telephonic, or other recorded message of the spouse, relative or other person to the body or the part or parts thereof specified in the consent being used after death for therapeutic purposes, medical education or scientific research.

Exception (2) No person shall give a consent under this section if he has reason to believe that the person who died or whose death is imminent would have objected thereto.

Effect of consent (3) Upon the death of a person in respect of whom a consent was given under this section the consent is binding and is, subject to section 7, full authority for the use of the body or for the removal and use of the specified part or parts for the purpose specified except that no person shall act on a consent given under this section if he has actual knowledge of an objection thereto by the person in respect of whom the consent was given or by a person of the same or closer relationship to the person in respect of whom the consent was given than the person who gave the consent.

"possesion (4) of the body" In subsection (1), "person lawfully in possession of the body" does not include

(b) the Public Administrator or any person on his behalf in possession of the body for the purposes of its burial,

(c) an embalmer or funeral director in possession of the body for the purpose of its burial, cremation or other disposition, or

(d) the superintendent of a crematorium in possession of the body for the purpose of its cremation.

Directions by coroner 7(1) Where in the opinion of a medical practitioner the death of a person is imminent by reason of injury or disease and the medical practitioner has reason to believe that section 7 of the Coroners Ordinance may apply when death does occur and a consent under this Ordinance has been obtained for a post-mortem transplant of tissue from the body, a coroner having jurisdiction, notwithstanding that death has not yet occurred, may give such directions as he thinks proper respecting the removal of such tissue after the death of the person, and every such direction has the same force and effect as if it had been made after death.

Determining death

For the purposes of a post-mortem transplant, the fact of death shall be determined by at least two medical practitioners in accordance with accepted medical practice.

Exception

General

No action or other proceeding for damages lies against any person for any act done in good faith and without negligence in the exercise or intended exercise of any authority conferred by this Ordinance.

Prohibited transactions

11(1) No person shall buy, sell or otherwise deal in, directly or indirectly, for a valuable consideration, any tissue for a transplant, or any body or part or parts thereof other than blood or a blood constituent, for therapeutic purposes, medical education or scientific research, and any such dealing is invalid as being contrary to public policy.

Confidential information

12(1) Except where legally required, no person shall disclose or give to any other person any information or document whereby the identity of any person (a) who has given or refused to give a consent, (b) with respect to whom a consent has been given, or (c) into whose body tissue has been, is being or may be transplanted, may become known publicly.

Exception (2)

Where the information or document disclosed or given pertains only to the person who disclosed or gave the information or document, subsection (1) does not apply.

13(1) Any dealing with a body or part or parts thereof that was lawful before this Ordinance came into force shall, except as provided in this Ordinance, continue to be lawful.

Offence and penalty

14(1) Every person who knowingly contravenes any provision of this Ordinance commits an offence and on summary conviction is liable to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months, or to both.

Coroners Ordinance

15(1) Except as provided in section 7, nothing in this Ordinance affects the operation of the Coroners Ordinance.

16(1) The Cornea Transplant Ordinance is repealed.

17(1) This Ordinance comes into force on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner.

Subject to this Ordinance, a council may pass by-laws for the borrowing of money for the purpose mentioned in section 3, but no such by-law shall be valid unless, before it is finally passed by the council, it is approved in accordance with the Municipal Ordinance.

Effect of agreement

A loan agreement made pursuant to this Ordinance is valid and binding upon a municipality notwithstanding any insufficiency in the form or substance of the agreement or the by-law if the by-law has been approved in accordance with the Municipal Ordinance.

(c) a person having a child or grandchild within clauses (b)(i) to (iv), or such a person any of whose children or grandchildren, if subsequently born, would by virtue of his descent, fall within those clauses;
(d) any person who takes any prior interest in the property disposed of and any person on whose death a gift over takes effect; and

(e) where a disposition is made in favour of any spouse of a person who is in being and ascertainable at the commencement of the perpetuity period, or where an interest is created by reference to the death of the spouse of such a person, or by reference to the death of the survivor, the same spouse whether or not he was in being or ascertainable at the commencement of the period.

Reduction of age

7(1) Where a disposition creates an interest in real or personal property by reference to the attainment by any person or persons of a specified age exceeding 21 years, and actual events existing at the time the interest was created or at any subsequent time establish

(a) that the interest but for this section would be void as incapable of vesting within the perpetuity period, but

(b) that it would not be void if the specified age had been 21 years, the disposition shall be read as if, instead of referring to the age specified, it had referred to the age nearest the age specified that would, if specified instead, have prevented the interest from being so void.

Only one reduction

(2) One age reduction to embrace all potential beneficiaries shall be made pursuant to subsection (1).

Different ages

(3) Where in the case of any disposition different ages exceeding 21 years are specified in relation to different persons,

(a) the reference in paragraph (1)(b) to the specified age shall be construed as a reference to all the specified ages, and

(b) that paragraph operates to reduce each such age so far as is necessary to save the disposition from being void for remoteness.

(a) that a male is able to have a child at the age of 14 years or over, but not under that age, and
(b) that a female is able to have a child at the age of 12 years or over, but not under that age or over the age of 55 years, but in the case of a living person, evidence may be given to show that he will or will not be able to have a child at the time in question.

Effect of decision (2)

Subject to subsection (3), where any question is decided in relation to a disposition by treating a person as able or unable to have a child at a particular time, then he shall be so treated for the purpose of any question that may arise concerning the rule against perpetuities in relation to the same disposition notwithstanding that the evidence on which the finding or ability or inability to have a child at a particular time is proved by subsequent events to have been erroneous.

Disproof of decision (3)

Where a question is decided by treating a person as unable to have a child at a particular time and that person subsequently has a child at that time, the Court may make such order as it sees fit to protect the right that such child would have had in the property concerned as if such question had not been decided and as if such child would, apart from such decision, have been entitled to a right in the property not in itself invalid by the application of the rule against perpetuities as modified by this Ordinance.

Adoption and legitimation (4)

The possibility that a person may at any time have a child by adoption or legitimation shall not be considered in deciding any question that turns on the ability of a person to have a child at some particular time, but, if a person does subsequently have a child by such means, then subsection (3) applies to such child.
Application to Court

An executor or a trustee of any property or any person interested under, or in the validity or invalidity of, an interest in that property may at any time apply for the opinion, advice or direction of the Court as to the validity or invalidity with respect to the rule against perpetuities of an interest in that property and with respect to the application of any provision of this Ordinance.

Order of remedies

The remedial provisions of this Ordinance apply in the following order:
(a) section 10;
(b) section 5;
(c) section 7;
(d) section 8; and
(e) section 9.

Interim income

Pending the treatment or declaration of a presumptively valid interest within the meaning of section 5 as valid or invalid, the income arising from that interest and not otherwise disposed of shall be treated as income arising from a valid contingent interest, and any uncertainty whether the disposition will ultimately prove to be void for remoteness shall be disregarded.

Expectant interests

A disposition that, if it stood alone, would be valid under the rule against perpetuities is not invalidated by reason only that it is preceded by one or more dispositions that are invalid under the rule against perpetuities, whether or not such disposition expressly or by implication takes effect after, or is subject to, or is ulterior to and dependent upon, any such invalid disposition.

Acceleration

Where a prior interest is invalid under the rule against perpetuities, any subsequent interest that, if it stood alone, would be valid shall not be prevented from being accelerated by reason only of the invalidity of the prior interest.
General Power

A power that satisfies the conditions of paragraphs 1(a) and (b) shall, for the purpose of the rule against perpetuities, be treated as a general power.

Power under will

For the purpose of determining whether an appointment made under a power of appointment exercisable by will only is void for remoteness, the power shall be treated as a general power where it would have been so treated if exercisable by deed.

Powers of trustees

The rule against perpetuities does not invalidate a power conferred on trustees or other persons to sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any property, or to do any other act in the administration (as opposed to the distribution) of any property including, where authorized, payment to trustees or other persons of reasonable remuneration for their services.

Subsection (1) applies for the purpose of enabling a power to be exercised at any time after this Ordinance comes into force, notwithstanding that the power is conferred by an instrument that took effect before that time.
Avoidance of contracts 17(1) Where a disposition inter vivos would be treated as void for remoteness if the rights and duties thereunder were capable of transmission to persons other than the original parties and had been so transmitted, it shall be treated as void as between the person by whom it was made and the person to whom or in whose favour it was made or any successor of his, and no remedy lies in contract or otherwise for giving effect to it or making restitution for its lack of effect.

Option for reversion 18(1) The rule against perpetuities does not apply to an option to acquire for valuable consideration an interest reversionary on the term of a lease or renewal of a lease, whether the lease or renewal is of real or personal property,
(a) if the option is exercisable only by the lessee or his successors in title, and
(b) if it ceases to be exercisable at or before the expiration of one year following the determination of the lease or renewal.

Agreement for lease 2 Agreement for lease Subsection (1) applies to an agreement for a lease as it applies to a lease, and "lessee" shall be construed accordingly.

Pre-emption, first refusal 3 Subsection (1) applies to a right of first refusal or pre-emption as it applies to an option.

Option to renew lease 4 The rule against perpetuities does not apply to options to renew a lease of real or personal property.

Commercial transactions 19(1) In the case of a contract whereby for valuable consideration an interest in real or personal property may be acquired at a future time, the perpetuity period is 80 years from the date of the contract, and if the contract provides for the acquisition of such an interest at a time greater than 80 years, then the interest may be acquired up to 80 years and not thereafter.
In particular and not so as to restrict the generality of subsection (1), it applies to all contracts relating to a future sale or lease, to options in gross, rights of pre-emption or first refusal, and to future profits a prendre, easements and restrictive covenants.

This section does not apply to any provision in a will or inter vivos trust.

In the case of,

(a) a possibility of reverter on the determination of a determinable fee simple, or

(b) a possibility of a resulting trust on the determination of any determinable interest in real or personal property, the rule against perpetuities as modified by this Ordinance applies in relation to the provision causing the interest to be determinable as it would apply if that provision were expressed in the form of a condition subsequent giving rise on its breach to a right of re-entry or an equivalent right in the case of personal property, and, where the event that determines the determinable interest does not occur within the perpetuity period, the provision shall be treated as void for remoteness and the determinable interest becomes an absolute interest.

The perpetuity period for the purpose of a possibility of reverter or a possibility of a resulting trust or of a right of re-entry on breach of a condition subsequent or equivalent right in personal property is 40 years.

Subsection (1) does not apply where the event, which determines the prior interest, or on which the prior interest could be determined, is the cessation of a charitable purpose but in such a case if the cessation of the charitable purpose takes place after the expiration of the perpetuity period the property shall be treated as if it were the subject of a charitable trust to which the cy pres doctrine applies.

Exception  (4)

This section does not apply, nor does the rule against perpetuities apply, to a gift over from one charity to another.

Trusts 21(1) for non-charitable purpose

A trust for a specific non-charitable purpose that creates no enforceable equitable interest in a specific person shall be construed as a power to appoint the income or the capital, as the case may be, and, unless the trust is created for an illegal purpose or a purpose contrary to public policy the trust is valid so long as and to the extent that it is exercised either by the original trustee or his successor, within a period of 21 years, notwithstanding that the disposition creating the trust manifested an intention, either expressly or by implication, that the trust should or might continue for a period in excess of that period, but, in the case of such a trust that is expressed to be of perpetual duration, the court may declare the disposition to be void if the court is of opinion that by so doing the result would more closely approximate the intention of the creator of the trust than the period of validity provided by this section.

Unexpended part of trust (2)

To the extent that the income or capital of a trust for a specific non-charitable purpose is not fully expended within a period of 21 years, or within any annual or other recurring period within which the disposition creating the trust provided for the expenditure of all or a specified portion of the income or the capital, the person or his successors, who would have been entitled to the property comprised in the trust if the trust had been invalid from the time of its creation, are entitled to such unexpended income or capital.
The rule of law prohibiting the disposition, after a life interest to an unborn person, of an interest in land to the unborn child or other issue of an unborn person is hereby abolished, but without affecting any other rule relating to perpetuities.

The rules of law and statutory enactments relating to perpetuities and to accumulations do not apply and shall be deemed never to have applied to the trusts of a plan, trust or fund established for the purpose of providing pensions, retirement allowances, annuities or sickness, death or other benefits to employees, or persons not being employees, engaged in any lawful calling, or to their surviving spouses, dependants or other beneficiaries.

This Ordinance and the rule against perpetuities bind the Crown except in respect of dispositions of property made by the Crown.

Except as provided in subsection 16(2) and section 23, this Ordinance applies only to instruments taking effect after this Ordinance comes into force, and such instruments include an instrument made in the exercise of a general or special power of appointment after this Ordinance comes into force even though the instrument creating the power took effect before this Ordinance comes into force.

The Perpetuities Ordinance is repealed.

This Ordinance comes into force on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner.

This Ordinance is based on a model Act recommended by the Uniform Law Conference of Canada.

PRESUMPTION OF DEATH ORDINANCE

(Assented to April 14, 1980)

The Commissioner of the Yukon Territory, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of the said Territory, enacts as follows:

Short title

1(1) This Ordinance may be cited as the Presumption of Death Ordinance.

"interested person"

2(1) In this Ordinance, "interested person" means any person who is or would be affected by an order made under this Ordinance and includes,

(a) the next of kin of the person in respect of whom an order is made or applied for,

and

(b) a person who holds property of the person in respect of whom an order is made or applied for.

Making of order

3(1) Where, upon the application of an interested person, the Court is satisfied that

(a) a person has been absent and not heard of or from by the applicant, or to the knowledge of the applicant by any other person since a day named,

(b) the applicant has no reason to believe that the person is living, and

(c) reasonable grounds exist for supposing that the person is dead, the Court may make an order declaring that the person shall be presumed to be dead for all purposes, or for such purposes only as are specified in the order.

Date of death

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall state the date on which the person is presumed to have died.

Change, etc. of order

(3) Any interested person may, with leave of the Court, apply to the Court for an order to vary, amend, confirm or revoke an order made under subsection (1).

An order, or a certified copy thereof, declaring that a person shall be presumed to be dead for all purposes or for the purposes specified in the order is proof of death in all matters requiring proof of death for such purposes.

Where an order has been made declaring that a person shall be presumed to be dead for all purposes or for the purpose of distributing his estate, and the personal representative of the person presumed to be dead believes or there are reasonable grounds for him to believe that the person is not in fact dead, the personal representative shall not thereafter deal with the estate or remaining estate unless the presumption of death is confirmed by an order made under subsection 3(3).

Where a person who is presumed to be dead is, in fact, alive, any distribution of his property that has been made in reliance upon an order made under section 3, and not in contravention of section 4, shall be deemed to be a final distribution and to be the property of the person to whom it has been distributed as against the person presumed to be dead.

Where a person who is presumed to be dead is found by the Court to be alive, the Court may, upon the application of any interested person and subject to subsection (1), by order give such directions as the Court considers appropriate respecting the property of the person found to be alive and its preservation and return.

Where a person who is presumed to be dead is in fact found to be dead, any distribution of his property that has been made in reliance upon an order made under section 3 shall be deemed to be a final distribution and to be the property of the person to whom it has been distributed as against any person who would otherwise be entitled if the order made under section 3 had not been made.

Any interested person may appeal an order made under this Ordinance to the Court of Appeal.

The Presumption of Death Ordinance is repealed.

This Ordinance comes into force on a day to be fixed by the Commissioner.

Receipt of final order
3(1) Where the Commissioner receives a certified copy of a final order made in a reciprocating state before, on or after the day on which this Ordinance comes into force with information that the respondent is in the Territory, the Commissioner shall designate a court in the Territory for the purposes of the registration and enforcement of the order, and shall forward the order and supporting material to that court.

Registration (2) On receipt of a final order transmitted to a court under subsection (1) or under a provision in a reciprocating state corresponding to paragraph 6(8)(a), the proper officer of the court shall file the order with the court and give notice of the registration of the order to the respondent.

Departure of claimant (3) Where a final order is made in the Territory before, on or after the day on which this Ordinance comes into force and the claimant subsequently leaves the Territory and is apparently resident in a reciprocating state, the court that made the order shall, on the written request of the claimant, the respondent or the Commissioner, deem the order to be a registered order.

Variation of order (4) A registered order varied in a manner consistent with this Ordinance continues to be a registered order.

Setting aside order (5) A respondent may, within one month after receiving notice of the registration of a registered order, apply to the registration court to set the registration aside.

Grounds (6) On application under subsection (5) the registration court shall set aside the registration if it determines that the order was obtained by fraud or error or was not a final order.

Disposition of order (7) An order determined not to be a final order and set aside under subsection (6) may be dealt with by the registration court under section 6 as a provisional order.

Provisional order 4(1) On application by a claimant before, on or after the day on which this Ordinance comes into force, a court may, without notice to and in the absence of a respondent, make a provisional order against the respondent.

Amount (2) An order under subsection (1) shall not include maintenance provisions in excess of those the court could have included in a final order in a proceeding of which the respondent had notice in the Territory but in which he failed to appear.

Transmission of order (3) Where a provisional order is made, a proper officer of the court shall send to the Commissioner for transmission to a reciprocating state

(a) three certified copies of the provisional order,
(b) a sworn document setting out or summarizing the evidence given in the proceeding,
(c) a copy of the enactments under which the respondent is alleged to have an obligation to maintain the claimant, and
(d) a statement giving available information respecting identification, location, income and assets of the respondent.

Further evidence (4) Where, during a proceeding for a confirmation order, a court in a reciprocating state remits the matter back for further evidence to the court in the Territory that made the provisional order, the court in the Territory shall, after giving notice to the claimant, receive further evidence.

Evidence and recommendations (5) Where evidence is received under subsection (4), a proper officer of the court shall forward to the court in the reciprocating state a sworn document setting out or summarizing the evidence, with such recommendations as the court in the Territory considers appropriate.

New order (6) Where a provisional order made under this section comes before a court in a reciprocating state and confirmation is denied in respect of one or more claimants, the court in the Territory that made the provisional order may, on application within six months from the denial of confirmation, reopen the matter, receive further evidence and make a new provisional order for a claimant in respect of whom confirmation was denied.

Affiliation 5(1) Where the affiliation of a child is in issue and has not previously been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, the affiliation may be determined as part of a maintenance proceeding under this Ordinance.

Dispute (2) If the respondent disputes affiliation in the course of a proceeding to confirm a provisional order for maintenance, the matter of affiliation may be determined even though the provisional order makes no reference to affiliation.

Effect of determination

A determination of affiliation under this section has effect only for the purpose of maintenance proceedings under this Ordinance.

Designation of court

Where the Commissioner receives from a reciprocating state documents corresponding to those described in subsection 4(3) with information that the respondent is in the Territory, the Commissioner shall designate a court in the Territory for the purpose of proceedings under this section and shall forward the documents to that court.

Procedure

On receipt of the documents referred to in subsection (1), the court shall, whether the provisional order was made before, on or after the day on which this Ordinance comes into force, issue a summons to the respondent in the same manner as it would in a proceeding under the Maintenance Ordinance for the same relief and shall proceed, taking into consideration the sworn document setting out or summarizing the evidence given in the proceeding in the reciprocating state.

Absence of respondent

Where the respondent apparently is outside the territorial jurisdiction of the court and will not return, a proper officer of the court, on receipt of documents under subsection (1), shall return the documents to the Commissioner with available information respecting the whereabouts and circumstances of the respondent.

Confirmation of payments

At the conclusion of a proceeding under this section the court may make a confirmation order in the amount it considers appropriate or make an order refusing maintenance to any claimant.

Commencement of payments

Where the court makes a confirmation order for periodic maintenance payments, the court may direct that the payments begin from a date not earlier than the date of the provisional order.

The court, before making a confirmation order in a reduced amount or before denying maintenance, shall decide whether to remit the matter back for further evidence to the court that made the provisional order.

Where a court remits a matter under subsection (6), it may make an interim order for maintenance against the respondent.

At the conclusion of a proceeding under this section, the court, or a proper officer of the court, shall
(a) forward a certified copy of the order to the court that made the provisional order and to the Commissioner,
(b) file the confirmation order, where one is made, and
(c) where an order is made refusing or reducing maintenance, give written reasons to the court that made the provisional order and to the Commissioner.

Where the law of the reciprocating state is pleaded to establish the obligation of the respondent to maintain a claimant resident in that state, the court in the Territory shall take judicial notice of that law and apply it.

An enactment of a reciprocating state may be pleaded and proved for the purposes of this section by producing a copy of the enactment received from the reciprocating state.

Where the law of the reciprocating state is not pleaded under subsection (1), the court in the Territory shall
(a) make an interim order for maintenance against the respondent where appropriate,
(b) adjourn the proceeding for a period not exceeding 90 days, and
(c) request the Commissioner to notify the appropriate officer of the reciprocating state of the requirement to plead and prove the applicable law of that state if that law is to be applied.

Lack of proof (4) Where the law of the reciprocating state is not pleaded after an adjournment under subsection (3), the court shall apply the law of the Territory.

Statement of local law (5) Where the law of a reciprocating state requires the court in the Territory to provide the court in the reciprocating state with a statement of the grounds on which the making of the confirmation order might have been opposed if the respondent were served with a summons and had appeared at the hearing of the court in the Territory, the Commissioner shall be deemed to be the proper officer of the court for the purpose of making and providing the statement of the grounds.

Variation and rescission 8(1) The provisions of this Ordinance respecting the procedure for making provisional orders and confirmation orders apply with the necessary changes to proceedings, except under subsection (5), for the variation or rescission of registered orders.

Variation prohibited (2) This section does not
(a) authorize a provincially appointed judge to vary or rescind a registered order made in Canada by a federally appointed judge, or
(b) allow a registered order originally made under a federal enactment to be varied or rescinded except as authorized by a federal enactment.

Powers of lower court (3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a provincially appointed judge may make a provisional order
Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders Ordinance Chp. 25

Acceptance of jurisdiction (4) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a registration court has jurisdiction to vary or rescind a registered order where both the claimant and respondent accept its jurisdiction.

Application against resident (5) Where the respondent is ordinarily resident in the Territory a registration court may, on application by the claimant, vary or rescind a registered order.

Confirmation order (6) A registration court may make a confirmation order for the variation or rescission of a registered order where:
(a) the respondent is ordinarily resident in the Territory,
(b) the claimant is ordinarily resident in a reciprocating state,
(c) a certified copy of a provisional order of variation or rescission made by a court in a reciprocating state is received by the registration court through the Commissioner, and
(d) the respondent is given notice of the proceeding and an opportunity to appear.

Powers of registration court (7) A registration court may, on application by the respondent, vary or rescind a registered order where:
(a) where
(i) the respondent is ordinarily resident in the Territory,
(ii) the claimant is ordinarily resident in a reciprocating state, and
(iii) the registration court, in the course of the proceeding, remits the matter to the court nearest to the place where the claimant lives or works for the purpose of obtaining evidence on behalf of the claimant, or
(b) where
   (i) the respondent is ordinarily resident in the Territory,
   (ii) the claimant is not ordinarily resident in a reciprocating state, and
   (iii) the claimant is given notice of the proceeding.

Application by resident (8) Where a claimant ordinarily resident in the Territory applies for the variation or rescission of a final order and the respondent apparently is ordinarily resident in a reciprocating state, the court may make a provisional order of variation or rescission, and section 4 applies with the necessary changes to the proceeding.

Variation in other state 9(1) Where an order originally made in the Territory is varied or rescinded in a reciprocating state under the law in that state corresponding to section 8, the order shall be deemed to be so varied or rescinded in the Territory.

Enforcement 10(1) The registration court has jurisdiction to enforce a registered order notwithstanding that the order
   (a) was made in a proceeding in respect of which the registration court would have had no jurisdiction, or
   (b) is of a kind that the registration court has no jurisdiction to make.

Maintenance Ordinance (2) The provision of the Maintenance Ordinance for the enforcement of maintenance orders apply with the necessary changes to registered orders and interim orders made under this Ordinance.

Effect of order (3) A registered order has, from the date it is filed or deemed to be registered, the same effect as if it had been a final order originally made by the registration court and may, both with respect to arrears accrued before registration and with respect to obligations accruing after registration, be enforced, varied or rescinded as provided in this Ordinance whether the order is made before, on or after the day on which this Ordinance comes into force.

| Status of order | (4) Where a registered order is registered with the Court, it may be enforced as if it were an order of the Court. |
| Service not necessary | (5) Where a proceeding is brought to enforce a registered order, it is not necessary to prove that the respondent was served with the order. |
| Recording variations | (6) Where a registered order is being enforced and the registration court finds that the order has been varied by a court subsequent to the date of registration, the registration court shall record the fact of the variation and enforce the order as varied. |
| Remedies of a state | 11(1) Where the Territory, a province, a state or a political subdivision or official agency of the Territory, a province or a state is providing or has provided support to a claimant, it has, for the purpose of obtaining reimbursement or to obtain continuing maintenance for the claimant, the same right to bring proceedings under this Ordinance as the claimant. |
| Duties of Commissioner | 12(1) The Commissioner shall, on request in writing by a claimant or an officer or court of a reciprocating state, take all reasonable measures to enforce an order made or registered under this Ordinance. |
| Transmit documents | (2) On receipt of a document for transmission under this Ordinance to a reciprocating state, the Commissioner shall transmit the document to the proper officer of the reciprocating state. |
Delegation (3)

The Commissioner may, in writing, authorize a person to perform or exercise a power or duty given to the Commissioner under this Ordinance.

Documents of other states 13(1)

Where a document signed by a presiding officer of the court in a reciprocating state or a certified copy of the document is received by a court in the Territory through the Commissioner, the court in the Territory may deem the document to be a provisional order or a final order, according to the tenor of the document, and proceed accordingly.

Terminology (2)

Where in a proceeding under this Ordinance a document from a court in a reciprocating state contains terminology different from the terminology of this Ordinance or customarily in use in the court in the Territory, the court in the Territory shall give a broad and liberal interpretation to the terminology so as to give effect to the document.

Canadian currency 14(1)

Where confirmation of a provisional order or registration of a final order is sought and the documents received by a court refer to amounts of maintenance or arrears not expressed in Canadian currency, a proper officer of the court shall first obtain from a bank a quotation for the equivalent amounts in Canadian currency at a rate of exchange applicable on the day the order was last made or varied.

Certified amount (2)

The amounts in Canadian currency certified on the order by the proper officer of the court under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be the amounts of the order.

Translation (3)

(e) an assignment of a right to payment under a contract to an assignee who is to perform the assignor's obligations under the contract,
(f) a sale of accounts or chattel paper as part of a sale of the business out of which they arose, unless the vendor remains in apparent control of the business after the sale,

(g) an assignment of accounts solely to facilitate the collection of accounts for the assignor,

(h) the assignment of any right to payment that arises in connection with an interest in or lease of real property other than an assignment of a right to payment evidenced by a security,

(i) the creation or assignment of an interest in or a lien on real property, including a lease, except to the extent that provision is made with respect to fixtures,

(j) an assignment of a claim for damages or a judgment representing a right to damages,

(k) an assignment for the general benefit of creditors made pursuant to legislation of the Parliament of Canada relating to insolvency and,

(l) an interest in or claim to property arising under the Matrimonial Property Ordinance.

Conflict of Laws

Validity of interest

5(1) Except where otherwise provided in this Ordinance, the validity, perfection and effect of perfection or non-perfection of

(a) a security interest in goods, and

(b) a possessory security interest in securities, instruments, negotiable documents of title, money and chattel paper, is determined by the law of the jurisdiction where the collateral is situated when the security interest attaches.

Perfection continues

2(2) A security interest in goods perfected, under the law of the jurisdiction in which the goods are situated when the security interest attaches, before the goods are brought into the Territory, continues perfected in the Territory

(a) as against a buyer in good faith who acquires an interest in the goods after they are brought into the Territory, if the security interest is perfected in the Territory prior to the acquisition, and
(b) as against all other persons, if the security interest is perfected in the Territory:
   (i) within 60 days after the day the goods are brought into the Territory,
   (ii) within 15 days after the day the secured party receives notice that the goods have been brought into the Territory, or
   (iii) prior to the day that perfection ceases under the law of the jurisdiction in which the goods were situated when the security interest attached, whichever is earliest.

Perfection otherwise (3) A security interest that is not perfected as provided in subsection (2) may be otherwise perfected under this Ordinance.

Goods brought into Territory (4) Where a security interest mentioned in subsection (1) is not perfected under the law of the jurisdiction in which the collateral was situated when the security interest attached before being brought into the Territory, it may be perfected under this Ordinance.

Goods brought into Territory 6(1) Subject to section 7, if the parties to a security agreement creating a security interest in goods in one jurisdiction understand at the time the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in another jurisdiction, and the goods are removed to another jurisdiction within 30 days after the security interest attaches for purposes other than transportation through the other jurisdiction, the validity, perfection and effect of perfection or non-perfection of the security interest are determined by the law of the other jurisdiction.

Perfection in other jurisdictions (2) Where the jurisdiction to which the goods are removed is other than the Territory and the goods are later brought into the Territory, the security interest in the goods is deemed to be one to which subsection 5(2) applies if it had been perfected under the law of the jurisdiction to which the goods were removed.
Choice of Law

7(1) The validity, perfection and effect of perfection or non-perfection of
(a) a security interest in intangibles or in goods which are of a type that are normally used in more than one jurisdiction, if such goods are classified as equipment or as inventory leased or held for lease by a debtor to others, and
(b) a non-possessory security interest in securities, instruments, negotiable documents of title, money and chattel paper, are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the debtor is located when the security interest attaches.

Location of debtor

2 For the purposes of this section, a debtor is deemed to be located at his place of business if he has one, at his chief executive office if he has more than one place of business, and otherwise at his place of residence.

Change of location

3 When a debtor changes his location to another jurisdiction, a perfected security interest mentioned in subsection (1) continues perfected in the new jurisdiction if it is perfected in the new jurisdiction
(a) within 60 days after the day the debtor changes his location,
(b) within 15 days after the day the secured party receives notice that the debtor has changed his location, or
(c) prior to the day that perfection ceases under the law of the first jurisdiction, whichever is earliest.

Perfection in Territory

4 If the jurisdiction in which a debtor is deemed to be located under this section does not provide for public registration or recording of security interests mentioned in subsection (1) and the collateral is not in the possession of the secured party, any security interest in the collateral that is not perfected under this Ordinance is deemed to be an unperfected security interest in relation to any interests in the collateral acquired by a person in the Territory.

Procedural and substantive issues

(4) Notwithstanding sections 5, 6 and 7 and subsections (1) and (2) of this section

(a) all procedural issues involved in the enforcement of the rights of a secured party against collateral other than intangibles are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the collateral is located at the time of the exercise of such rights,
(b) all procedural issues involved in the enforcement of the rights of a secured party against intangibles are governed by the law of the forum, and
(c) all substantive issues involved in the enforcement of the rights of a secured party against collateral are governed by the proper law of the contract between the secured party and the debtor.

PART II
VALIDITY OF SECURITY AGREEMENTS AND RIGHTS OF PARTIES

Enforcement of interest

9(1) A security interest is not enforceable against a person other than the debtor unless
(a) the collateral is in the possession of the secured party at the time when the other person acquires an interest in the collateral, or
(b) the debtor has signed a security agreement that contains a sufficient description of the collateral.

Delivery of Copy of Agreement

Time for delivery

10(1) Where a security agreement is in writing, the secured party shall deliver a copy of it to the debtor, without charge, within 21 days after its execution.
Failure to deliver (2) Where a secured party fails to comply with subsection (1) after a request to do so by the debtor, a judge, on application by the debtor, may make an order for the delivery of a copy to the debtor and make such order as to costs as the judge deems just.

Exception (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to assignments of accounts or chattel paper not intended as security.

Interest may be void 11(1) Where the secured party fails to comply with an order made under subsection 10(2), the debtor may apply to have the secured party's security interest, or any part of it, declared void, and if in all the circumstances, and having regard to the prejudice suffered by the debtor and the secured party, this is an appropriate remedy, the judge shall declare the security interest or part of it void.

Reinstatement of interest (2) Where all or part of a security interest has been declared void, a judge may, on application by the person who but for such declaration would have been a secured party, order the security interest to be reinstated, if satisfied that it would be appropriate to do so.

Priority after reinstatement (3) Where all or part of a security interest is ordered to be reinstated, priority in that security interest shall be determined by the latest of the following events:
(a) the date on which the reinstatement is ordered;
(b) the date on which the security interest is registered; or
(c) the date on which the secured party acquires possession of the collateral.

Attachment

Time of attachment 12(1) A security interest attaches when
(a) value is given,
(b) the debtor has rights in or to the collateral, and

- 103 -
(c) except for the purpose of enforcing inter parties rights of the parties to the security agreement, it becomes enforceable within the meaning of section 9, unless the parties intend it to attach at a later time, in which case it attaches in accordance with the intentions of the parties.

Rights to collateral
(2)
For the purposes of subsection (1),
(a) a debtor has rights to goods purchased by him under an agreement for sale when he obtains possession of them pursuant to the agreement, and
(b) he has rights to goods leased to him, hired by him or delivered to him under a consignment when he obtains possession of them pursuant to the lease, hiring agreement or consignment.

When debtor has no rights
(3)
For the purposes of subsection (1), the debtor has no rights in or to
(a) crops until they become growing crops,
(b) fish until they are caught,
(c) the young of animals until they are conceived,
(d) oil, gas, or other minerals until they are extracted, or
(e) timber until it is cut.

Future Interests

After-acquired property
13(1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a security agreement may cover after-acquired property, and such a security interest attaches in accordance with section 12 without specific appropriation by the debtor.

Crops
(2) No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause in a security agreement to crops that become such more than one year after the security agreement has been executed, except that a security interest in crops given in conjunction with a lease, purchase, or mortgage of land may, if so agreed, attach to crops to be grown on the land during the term of the lease, purchase, or mortgage.

Rights of secured party

(2) Unless otherwise agreed, where collateral is in the secured party's possession,
(a) reasonable expenses, including the cost of insurance and payment of taxes or other charges incurred in the custody and preservation of the collateral, are chargeable to the debtor and are secured by the collateral,
(b) the risk of loss or damage, except where caused by the negligence of the secured party, is on the debtor to the extent of any deficiency in any insurance coverage,
(c) the secured party may hold as additional security any increase or profits, except money, received from the collateral, and shall apply money so received, unless remitted to the debtor, forthwith upon its receipt in reduction of the obligation secured, and
(d) the secured party may create a security interest in the collateral upon terms that do not impair the debtor's rights under Part V.

Liability of secured party

(3) A secured party is liable for any loss or damage caused by
(a) his failure to meet any obligation imposed by subsections (1) or (2), or
(b) his use of the collateral otherwise than as authorized by subsection (4), but does not lose his security interest.

Use of collateral

(4) A secured party may use the collateral
(a) in the manner and to the extent provided in the security agreement,
(b) for the purpose of preserving the collateral or its value, or
(c) pursuant to an order of
   (i) a court before which a question relating thereto is being heard, or
   (ii) a judge upon application with notice to all persons concerned.

Information from Secured Party

Demand for information

18(1) A debtor, creditor, or other person with a legal or equitable interest in or to the collateral may, by a notice in writing, containing an address for reply and served on the secured party, require the secured party to send or deliver to him, at the address for reply
(a) a statement in writing of the amount of the indebtedness and the terms of payment as of the date specified in the notice,
(b) a written approval or correction, as of the date specified in the notice, of the itemized list of the collateral attached to the notice,
(c) a written approval or correction, as of the date specified in the notice, of the amount of the indebtedness and the terms of payment, and
(d) a copy of the security agreement, and amendments, if any,
or any one or more of the foregoing.

| General reply | (2) Where a notice referred to in paragraph (1)(b) is served on the secured party and he claims a security interest in all of a particular type of collateral in or to which the debtor has rights, the secured party may so indicate in lieu of approving or correcting the itemized list of the collateral. |
| Failure to reply | (3) The secured party shall comply with a notice given under subsection (1) within 15 days after it is served, and if without reasonable excuse he fails to do so or his reply is incomplete or incorrect, the person who has given the notice is entitled (a) to recover from the secured party any direct loss or damage caused thereby, and (b) to apply to a judge for an order requiring the secured party to comply with the notice. |
| Disclosure of successors in interest | (4) Where the person receiving a notice under subsection (1) no longer has an interest in the obligation or collateral, he shall, within 15 days after it is served, disclose the name and address of the latest successor in interest known to him, and if without reasonable excuse he fails to do so or his reply is incomplete or incorrect, he is liable for any direct loss or damage caused thereby to the person who has given the notice. |

PERFECTION AND PRIORITIES

Time of perfection

A security interest is perfected when
(a) it has attached, and
(b) all steps required for perfection under this Ordinance have been completed, regardless of the order of occurrence.

Subordination of Security Interests

Except as provided in section 21 an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the interest of
(a) a person who is entitled to priority under this Ordinance,
(b) a person who causes the collateral to be seized under legal process, including execution, attachment, or garnishment, or who obtains a charging order or equitable execution affecting the collateral,
(c) the trustee in bankruptcy of the debtor, or the representative of the creditors of the debtor but only for the purpose of enforcing the rights of persons mentioned in paragraph (b),
(d) a transferee who is not a secured party and acquires his interest for value without notice of the security interest and before it is perfected
(i) in documents of title, securities, instruments or goods where the transferee receives delivery of the collateral,
(ii) in intangibles other than accounts,
(iii) in accounts acquired through a transaction not otherwise governed by this Ordinance, or
(iv) in chattel paper acquired through a transaction not otherwise governed by this Ordinance, where the transferee receives possession of the chattel paper.

A perfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of persons mentioned in paragraphs (1)(b) or (c) except to the extent that the security interest secures
(a) advances made before the interest of such a person arises,
(b) advances made before the secured party receives notice of the interests of such persons, or
(c) reasonable costs incurred and expenses made by the secured party for the protection, maintenance, preservation or repair of the collateral.

A purchase-money security interest that is registered before or within 15 days after the debtor's possession of the collateral commences, or in the case of an intangible, within 15 days after the security interest attaches, has priority over the interest of a person mentioned in paragraphs 20(1)(b) or (c).

If a security interest is originally perfected in any way permitted under this Ordinance and is again perfected in some way under this Ordinance without an intermediate period when it is unperfected, the security interest shall be deemed to be perfected continuously for the purposes of this Ordinance, and shall be deemed for the purposes of section 35 to be continuously perfected.
in the way in which it was originally perfected.

Assignees (2)
An assignee of a security interest succeeds in so far as its perfection is concerned to the position of the assignor at the time of the assignment.

Perfection by possession 23(1)
Subject to section 19, possession of the collateral by the secured party, or on his behalf by a person other than the debtor or the debtor's agent, perfects a security interest in
(a) chattel paper,
(b) goods,
(c) instruments,
(d) securities,
(e) negotiable documents of title, or
(f) money
but, subject to section 22, only while it is actually held as collateral.

Possession by debtor 2(2)
For the purposes of subsection (1), a secured party is deemed not to have taken or retained possession of collateral that is in the apparent possession or control of the debtor or the debtor's agent.

Perfection by registration 24(1)
Subject to section 19, registration perfects a security interest in any collateral, but only during the period in which the registration of a financing statement relating to the security interest is effective.

Automatic perfection 25(1)
A security interest that is a purchase-money security interest in consumer goods other than special consumer goods is perfected automatically immediately upon attachment without the need for compliance with section 23 or section 24, or any other provision of this Ordinance dealing with the perfection of a security interest except paragraph 19(1)(a).

Temporary perfection 26(1)
A security interest in instruments, securities or negotiable documents of title is a perfected security interest for the first 15 days after it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.
A security interest perfected under section 23 in
(a) an instrument that a secured party delivers to the debtor for the purpose of
(i) ultimate sale or exchange,
(ii) presentation, collection, or renewal, or
(iii) registration of transfer; or
(b) a negotiable document of title, or goods held by a bailee that are not covered by a negotiable document of title, which document of title or goods the secured party makes available to the debtor for the purpose of
(i) ultimate sale or exchange,
(ii) loading, unloading, storing, shipping, or trans-shipping, or
(iii) manufacturing, processing, packaging, or otherwise dealing with goods in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange, remains perfected for the first 15 days after the collateral comes under the control of the debtor.

Beyond the period of 15 days referred to in subsection (1), a security interest under this section becomes subject to the provisions of this Ordinance for perfecting a security interest.

Subject to this Ordinance, where collateral gives rise to proceeds, a security interest in the collateral
(a) continues as to the collateral, unless the secured party expressly or impliedly agrees otherwise, and
(b) extends to the proceeds.

A security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral
(a) is perfected by the registration of a financing statement that covers the original collateral and proceeds from it, and contains a description of property that may be claimed as proceeds sufficient to distinguish it from property that may not be claimed as proceeds,
(b) is perfected by the registration of a financing statement that covers the original collateral and proceeds from it, where the proceeds are of a type that falls within the description of the original collateral contained in the financing statement, or

(c) is perfected by the registration of a financing statement that covers the original collateral and proceeds from it, where the proceeds consist of money, a bill of exchange drawn on a financial institution, or an account with a financial institution.

Temporary perfection (3)

In a case other than one mentioned in subsection (2), a perfected security interest in proceeds remains perfected as to the proceeds for a period of 15 days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor, but the security interest becomes unperfected as to the proceeds on the expiration of the 15-day period unless it is perfected as to the proceeds by any of the methods and under the circumstances prescribed in this Ordinance for original collateral of the same type.

Goods Held by Bailee

Perfection 28(1)

A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee is perfected
(a) by the issuance of a document of title in the name of the secured party,
(b) by a holding on behalf of the secured party pursuant to section 23,
(c) by registration as to the goods, or
(d) where the bailee has issued a negotiable document of title covering the goods, by perfection of a security interest in the negotiable document of title.

Other security interests (2)

The issuance of a negotiable document of title covering goods does not preclude any other security interest in the goods from arising during the period that the negotiable document of title is outstanding.

Priority (3)

A security interest in a negotiable document of title covering goods takes priority over a security interest in the goods otherwise perfected after the goods become covered by the negotiable document of title.

Priority (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), a perfected security interest in goods takes priority over a security interest in a negotiable document of title covering the goods where the security interest in the goods was registered at the time when the security interest in the negotiable document of title was perfected.

Returned or Repossessed Goods

Interest may reattach 29(1) A security interest in goods that are the subject of a sale or lease and that are returned to, or repossessed by,
(a) the person who sold or leased the goods,
(b) a transferee of chattel paper or a person having a security interest in an intangible resulting from the sale or lease of the goods, or
(c) a secured party who had a security interest in the goods at the time they were sold or leased or anyone claiming from or under him, reattaches to the extent that the obligations under the security agreement remain unfulfilled.

Perfection of interest (2) Where a security interest that reattaches under subsection (1) was perfected at the time of the sale, lease or exchange by a registration that is still effective at the time of the return or repossession of the goods, the security interest reattaches as a perfected interest, but otherwise requires for its perfection a registration or a taking of possession by the secured party.

Interest in goods (3) A security interest in goods that attaches while the goods are in the possession of a buyer or lessee of the debtor and that is perfected before the goods are returned or repossessed has priority over the security interest mentioned in paragraph (1)(c).

Chattel paper (4) Where a sale or lease creates chattel paper and the goods are returned or repossessed, the unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods, and, if the unpaid transferee took possession of the chattel paper in the ordinary course of business and for new value, the transferee's security interest has priority over the security interest mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) and has priority over a security interest in the returned or repossessed goods as after-acquired property which first attaches on return or repossession.

Where a sale or lease creates an intangible and the goods are returned or repossessed, the secured party who had the security interest in the intangible has a security interest in the goods, but the security interest mentioned in paragraph (1)(c) has priority over that interest.

A security interest asserted under subsection (4) or (5) is a perfected security interest in the goods when the security interest in the chattel paper or intangible was perfected, but it becomes unperfected 15 days after the day of return or repossession of the goods unless the secured party perfects his interest in the goods by taking possession of them or registering his security interest in them before the expiration of the 15-day period.

A buyer or lessee of goods sold or leased in the ordinary course of the business of the seller or lessor takes them free from any perfected or unperfected security interest in the goods given by or reserved against the seller or lessor or arising under section 29, whether or not the buyer or lessee knows of it, unless he also knows that the sale or lease constitutes a breach of the security agreement.

A buyer or lessee of consumer goods other than special consumer goods takes free of a perfected security interest in those goods if

(a) he buys or leases the goods without knowledge of the security interest,

(b) he gives new value for his interest, and
Terms of sale or lease

For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), the sale or lease may be for cash, by exchange for other property, on credit, or by delivery of goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale or lease, but subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to a transfer in bulk, or to a transfer as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a past liability.

Goods

A buyer or lessee of goods takes free of a security interest that is temporarily perfected under subsection 26(2), 27(3) or 29(6) or a security interest the perfection of which is continued under subsection 46(2) if

- (a) he gives new value for his interest,
- (b) he buys or leases the goods without notice of the security interest, and
- (c) he receives delivery of the goods.

Special Cases

Money

A holder of money has priority over any security interest in it perfected under section 24 or temporarily perfected under subsection 27(3) if the holder

- (a) acquired the money without notice that it was subject to a security interest, or
- (b) was a holder for value, whether or not he acquired the money without notice that it was subject to a security interest.

Payment of debt

Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (3), a creditor who receives money or an instrument drawn or made by a debtor and delivered in payment of a debt owing to him by that debtor takes free from a security interest in the money or instrument drawn or made by the debtor whether or not the creditor has notice of the security interest.

Instrument or security

A purchaser of an instrument or a security has priority over any security interest in the instrument or security perfected under section 24 or temporarily perfected under section 25 or subsection 27(3) if the purchaser

- (a) gave value for his interest,
Negotiable document of title

A holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been negotiated has priority over any security interest in the negotiable document of title that is perfected under section 24 or temporarily perfected under section 26 or subsection 27(3) if the holder

(a) gave value for the document of title, and
(b) took the negotiable document of title without notice that it was subject to a security interest.

Chattel paper

A purchaser of chattel paper who takes possession of it in the ordinary course of business and who gives new value for it

(a) has priority over any security interest in it that, in the case of chattel paper claimed as original collateral, was perfected under section 24, or any security interest in it as proceeds of equipment or consumer goods, if the purchaser acquired the chattel paper without notice that it was subject to a security interest, and
(b) has priority over any security interest in it as proceeds of inventory, whether or not the purchaser has notice of the security interest.

Liens

Where a person in the ordinary course of business furnishes materials or services with respect to goods that are subject to a security interest, any lien that he has in respect of the materials or services has priority over a perfected security interest unless the lien is given by an Ordinance that provides that the lien does not have such priority.

Transfer by debtor

The rights of a debtor in collateral may be transferred voluntarily or involuntarily, notwithstanding a provision in the security agreement prohibiting transfer or declaring a transfer to be a default, but no transfer prejudices the rights of the secured party under the security agreement or otherwise, including the right to treat a prohibited transfer as an act of default.

Purchase-money Security Interest

General priority 34(1) Subject to section 27, a purchase-money security interest in collateral or its proceeds, other than inventory, has priority over any other security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds given by the same debtor where the purchase-money security interest is perfected
(a) in the case of an intangible, within 15 days after the purchase-money security interest in the intangible attaches, or
(b) in the case of collateral other than an intangible, within 15 days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral.

Inventory (2) Subject to section 27 and subsection (4), a purchase-money security interest in inventory or its proceeds has priority over another security interest in the same collateral given by the same debtor if
(a) the purchase-money security interest in the inventory is perfected at the time when the debtor obtains possession of the collateral,
and
(b) the purchase-money secured party gives a notice in accordance with subsection (3) to the holder of the other security interest, where the holder of the other security interest has, before the earlier of
(i) the date of registration by the purchase-money secured party, or
(ii) the date when the collateral comes under the control of the debtor, registered a financing statement covering the same type or kind of collateral of the debtor.

Notice re inventory (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a notice shall
(a) state that the person giving the notice has acquired, or expects to acquire, a
Proceeds of inventory

(b) contain a sufficient description of the collateral, and
(c) be received by the holder of the other security interest within a period of two years before the debtor obtains possession of the collateral.

No purchase-money security interest in proceeds of inventory has priority over a security interest in accounts given for new value where a financing statement relating to the security interest in accounts is registered before the purchase-money security interest is perfected or a financing statement relating to it is registered.

A purchase-money security interest in proceeds under subsection (1) or (2) is subordinate to a non-proceeds purchase-money security interest in the same collateral if the non-proceeds purchase-money security interest is perfected at the time when the debtor obtains possession of the collateral or within 15 days thereafter.

A perfected security interest in crops or their proceeds given for a consideration to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise has priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations that were contracted more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving the consideration knew of the earlier security interest.

If no other provision of this Ordinance is applicable, priority between conflicting perfected security interests in the same collateral shall be determined by the order of
(a) registration,
(b) possession of the collateral by the secured party under section 23, and
(c) perfection, whichever is earliest, and, as between unperfected security interests, by the order of attachment.

Where, after the registration or perfection of a security interest, or after possession is taken of collateral by a secured party, there is a period during which there is no registration or perfection of the security interest, or there is no possession of the collateral by the secured party, the priority of the security interest shall be determined with reference to the time when, subsequently or again, the security interest is registered or perfected, or possession is taken of the collateral by the secured party.

The date for determining priority of conflicting security interests in proceeds, where no other provision of this Ordinance is applicable, is the date established under subsection (1) for determining priority between conflicting security interests in the collateral.

If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected, the security interest has the same priority for the purposes of this section with respect to future advances as it has with respect to the first advance.

Where the registration of a security interest lapses as a result of the secured party's failure to renew the registration or where the registration of a security interest has been discharged fraudulently, in error or without authorization, the secured party may re-register his security interest within thirty days after the lapse or discharge, and, where he re-registers, the prior lapse or discharge does not affect the priority status of the security interest in relation to competing interests in the collateral that arose prior to the lapse or discharge, except insofar as subsequent advances are made or contracted for following the lapse or discharge and prior to the re-registration.
Where a debtor transfers his interest in collateral that at the time of the transfer is subject to a security interest, the security interest has priority over any other security interest granted by the transferee before the transfer, except insofar as the security interest granted by the transferee secures advances made or contracted for after the transfer at a time when the security interest is unperfected through the operation of section 46.

Subsection (6) does not apply where the transferee acquires the debtor's interest free of the security interest granted by the debtor.

Except as provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4),
(a) a security interest that attaches to goods before they become fixtures has priority as to the goods over the claim of any person to the extent that his interest in the goods depends upon his interest in the real property, and
(b) a security interest that attaches to goods after they become fixtures has priority as to the goods over the claim of a person to the extent that his interest in the goods depends upon an interest in the real property subsequently acquired, but does not have priority over the claim of a person to the extent that his interest in the goods depends upon an interest in the real property that is registered at the time when the security interest attaches to the goods if he does not, in writing, consent to the security interest or disclaim his interest in the goods depending upon his interest in the real property.

A security interest mentioned in subsection (1) is subordinate to another interest in the goods to the extent that the other interest depends upon a subsequent purchase for value of an interest in the real property, or upon a prior encumbrance of record on the real property in respect of a subsequent advance, if the purchase or advance is made or contracted for without fraud and before the security interest is registered under the Land Titles Act (Canada) in accordance with section 44.

Prior execution

A security interest mentioned in subsection (1) is subordinate to another interest in the goods to the extent that the other interest depends upon the binding of the real property by a writ under section 125 of the Land Titles Act (Canada) without fraud and before the security interest is registered under the Land Titles Act (Canada) in accordance with section 44.

Purchase-money interest

Notwithstanding subsection (3), an interest in goods, to the extent that it depends upon the binding of real property under section 125 of the Land Titles Act (Canada), is subordinate to a purchase-money security interest in the goods that is registered under the Land Titles Act (Canada) within 15 days after the debtor receives possession of the goods.

Notice of intention to remove goods

A secured party who intends to exercise his right to remove fixtures from real property shall serve, on each person who appears by the records of the Land Titles Office to have an interest in the real property, a written notice containing

(b) a sufficient description of the fixtures,
(c) a statement as to the amount required to satisfy the obligations secured by his security interest,
(d) a description of the real property, and
(e) a statement of his intention to remove the fixtures unless the obligations secured by his security interest are satisfied before a specified day that is not less than 12 days after the service of the notice.

A secured party shall not exercise his right to remove fixtures from real property
(a) before the expiration of 15 days after the service of every notice required to be served under subsection (5), or
(b) after he is refused permission under subsection (9).

Any person, other than the debtor, who has an interest in the real property at the time when goods subject to a security interest become fixtures is entitled to reimbursement for any damage to his interest in the real property resulting from the removal of the fixtures, but is not entitled to reimbursement for diminution in the value of the real property caused by the absence of the fixtures removed or by the necessity for their replacement.

The persons entitled to reimbursement as provided in subsection (8) may refuse permission to remove the goods until the secured party has given adequate security for the reimbursement.

The secured party may apply to a court for an order
(a) determining the persons entitled to reimbursement under this section,
(b) determining the amount and kind of security to be provided by the secured party, or
(c) dispensing with the consent of any or all of the persons mentioned in paragraph (a).

A person entitled to receive a notice under subsection (5) may apply to a judge for an order postponing the removal of the goods from the real property, and the judge may make any order that he considers just.

A person having an interest in real property that is subordinate to a security interest by virtue of subsection (1) may, before the fixtures are removed from the real property by the secured party, retain the fixtures upon satisfaction of the obligations secured by the security interest having priority over his interest.
A secured party who, under this Ordinance, has the right to remove fixtures from real property shall exercise his right of removal in a manner that causes no greater damage or injury to the land or to the other property situated on the land, or that puts an owner, lessee or occupier of the real property to any greater inconvenience, than is necessarily incidental to the removal of the fixtures.

Accessions

Except as provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4), and in section 38,

(a) a security interest that attaches to goods before they become an accession has priority as to the accession over the claim of any person to the extent that his interest in the accession depends upon his interest in the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached, and

(b) a security interest that attaches to goods after they become an accession has priority as to the accession over the claim of a person to the extent that his interest in the accession depends upon an interest subsequently acquired in the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached, but does not have priority over the claim of a person to the extent that his interest in the accession depends upon an interest in the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached, acquired before the attachment of the security interest in the accession, if he does not, in writing, consent to the security interest in the accession or disclaim his interest in the accession depending upon his interest in the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached.

A security interest mentioned in subsection (1) is subordinate to another interest in the accession to the extent that the other interest depends upon a subsequent purchase for value of an interest in the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached, or upon a prior perfected security interest.
interest in those goods in respect of a subsequent advance, if the purchase or advance is made or contracted for before the security interest mentioned in subsection (1) is perfected.

Prior execution (3) A security interest mentioned in subsection (1) is subordinate to the interest of a creditor who has caused the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached to be seized under judicial process to enforce a judgment before the security interest is perfected.

Purchase-money interest (4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), an interest in an accession, to the extent that it depends upon the exercise of the rights of an execution creditor as such, is subordinate to a purchase-money security interest that is perfected within 15 days after the debtor obtains possession of the collateral.

Notice of intention to remove goods (5) A secured party who intends to exercise his right to remove accessions from the goods to which they are attached shall serve, on each person known by him to have an interest in those goods and on any person who has registered a financing statement indexed in the name of the debtor and referring to those goods, a written notice containing
(a) the name and address of the secured party,
(b) a sufficient description of the accessions,
(c) a statement as to the amount required to satisfy the obligations secured by his security interest,
(d) a sufficient description of the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached, and
(e) a statement of his intention to remove the accessions from the goods to which they are affixed or attached unless the obligations secured by his security interest are satisfied before a specified day that is not less than 12 days after the service of the notice.

Service of notice (6) A notice under subsection (5) and may be served in accordance with subsection 67(1) or, in the case of a person who has registered a financing statement, by registered mail addressed to his post office address as it appears on the security agreement or financing statement.
A secured party shall not exercise his right to remove an accession from the goods to which it is affixed or attached
(a) before the expiration of 15 days after the service of every notice required to be served under subsection (5), or
(b) after he is refused permission under subsection (9).

Any person, other than the debtor, who has an interest in the goods to which an accession is affixed or attached at the time when the goods subject to a security interest become an accession is entitled to reimbursement for any damage to his interest in the goods to which the accession is affixed or attached resulting from the removal of the accession, but is not entitled to reimbursement for diminution in their value caused by the absence of the accession or by the necessity for its replacement.

The persons entitled to reimbursement as provided in subsection (8) may refuse permission to remove the goods until the secured party has given adequate security for the reimbursement.

The secured party may apply to a court for an order
(a) determining the persons entitled to reimbursement under this section,
(b) determining the amount and kind of security to be provided by the secured party, or
(c) dispensing with the consent of any or all of the persons mentioned in paragraph (a).

A person entitled to receive a notice under subsection (5) may apply to a judge for an order postponing removal of the accession from the goods to which it is affixed or attached, and the judge may make any order that he considers just.

A person having an interest in goods that is subordinate to a security interest by virtue of subsection (1) may, before the accession is removed, retain the accession upon satisfaction of the obligations secured by the security interest having priority over his interest.

Duty of secured party (13) A secured party who has the right to remove an accession from the goods to which it is affixed or attached shall exercise his right of removal in a manner that causes no greater damage or injury to those goods, or that puts the person who is in possession of those goods to any greater inconvenience, than is necessarily incidental to the removal of the accession.

Continuity of perfection 38(1) A perfected security interest in goods that subsequently become part of a product or mass continues in the product or mass if the goods are so manufactured, processed, assembled or commingled that their identity is lost in the product or mass.

Sharing by interests (2) Where more than one perfected security interest attaches to the product or mass, the security interests are entitled to share in the product or mass according to the ratio that the obligations secured by each security interest entitled to share bear to the sum of the obligations secured by all the security interests entitled to share.

Exception (3) Nothing in subsection (2) affects the validity of a term in an assignment agreement that provides that any modification or substitution in relation to the agreement by the assignor is a breach of the agreement.

Debtor may pay assignor (4) Subject to paragraph 10(1)(e) of the Judicature Ordinance, the debtor on an intangible or chattel paper may pay the assignor until the debtor receives notice of the assignment reasonably identifying the relevant rights and, if requested by the debtor within a reasonable time, proof of the assignment.

Every local improvement by-law shall provide for the payment of the special levy within the probable life of the local improvement for which the debt has been incurred as certified by the officer appointed by the council for that purpose.

Where, in order to afford an outlet for the sewage from or the draining of land other than that fronting or abutting upon the road along which a sewer or drain is to be constructed, a sewer or drain is constructed of a larger capacity than that required for the efficient carrying off of sewage and drainage from the land so fronting or abutting, the council may impose a special levy upon

(b) a direction of the Commissioner under subsection 309(3), or
(c) the date of proclamation of this Ordinance, or
(d) the date of adoption of an official community plan under section 324, the council may by resolution provide that no person shall carry out any development within the area that will be affected by the proposed official community plan or zoning by-law as the case may be except with the written permission of the council of the municipality.

A municipality shall give notice of its intention to pass a resolution under subsection (1) by publishing an advertisement inserted at least once a week for two successive weeks in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the proposed development is planned, or by any other method approved by the council; and the first of the notices shall be published at least four clear weeks before a date fixed by the council for passing the resolution.
(3) A person who desires to carry out any development in an area that will be affected by the proposed official community plan or zoning by-law shall apply to the council of the municipality for permission to carry out the development and upon receipt of such an application, the council of the municipality shall, within sixty days:
(a) grant the permission applied for;
(b) grant the permission applied for subject to specified conditions;
(c) defer making a decision in respect of the application for a period not exceeding six months from the date of application; or
(d) refuse the permission applied for.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), no development that is contrary to:

(5) A person aggrieved by the decision of the council of the municipality under subsection (3) may appeal to the Yukon Municipal Board.

341(1) From and after the first publication by a municipality of an advertisement under subsection 340(2) the council of the municipality may withhold the issuance of a building permit for any building or other structure in the area affected by the proposed resolution for a period not exceeding three months from the date of the application for the permit.
| Effect of failure to adopt by-law | 342(1) | When a council fails to adopt an official community plan or zoning by-law, any refusal of permission to, or conditions imposed upon a grant of permission to, carry out development made pursuant to section 340 or 341 becomes invalid and the development may be carried out as if the resolution to prohibit the carrying out of development had never been passed. |
| Interpretation | 343(1) | In this Division "application" means an application for approval of a proposed subdivision of land; "subdivision" means the division of a lot or parcel by an instrument, or the creation of a new parcel from previously unsubdivided land, and "subdivide" has a corresponding meaning. |
| Approval of Commissioner | 344(1) | No subdivision of land shall be made unless in accordance with this Ordinance and the regulations and with plans and specifications submitted to and approved by the approving authority. |
| Approving authority | 345(1) | The Commissioner may by Order declare that from a date to be named in the Order: (a) the Inspector shall be an approving authority within that area of a municipality not under the jurisdiction of any other approving authority; (b) a council shall be an approving authority within the area under its jurisdiction; (c) a council shall only be made an approving authority if it has adopted a subdivision control by-law approved by the Commissioner. |
Every person who makes or agrees to make a subdivision shall provide access thereto by a highway approved under regulations made by the Commissioner, or under regulations made by an approving authority and approved by the Commissioner, as the case may be.

Subsection (1) shall not apply to:

(a) land intended for use as a railway right-of-way, or a right-of-way for a ditch, irrigation canal, pipeline, telecommunication or power transmissions line, or as a municipal utility described in section 349,

(b) land conveyed or to be conveyed to the owner of adjoining land to which access has been provided by a public highway, if in the opinion of the approving authority, the land conveyed or to be conveyed and the adjoining land are to be used for a common purpose and if the certificates of title to the lands may be consolidated into one certificate for one consolidated parcel of land.

The requirement for access under subsection (1) may be waived by the approving authority where strict compliance is impractical or unnecessary, but the design shall not be such as to preclude the provision of access at some future time.

Every plan of proposed subdivision shall make provision for the dedication to the public use, in addition of streets and lanes to a maximum of ten percent of the land to be subdivided, except that the requirements of this section shall not apply to:

(a) land to be subdivided into units of four hectares or over in area;
(b) land intended for a railway station ground or right-of-way, or a right-of-way for a ditch, irrigation canal, pipeline, telephone line or power transmission line, or a reservoir or a sewage lagoon;
(c) land to be resubdivided for the purpose of correcting or rearranging boundaries or land previously included in an area subject to the requirements of this section, and where reversionary rights have been exercised on any subdivision, no further dedication for public use shall be required.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where land adjacent to surface water or any other body of water is to be subdivided for other than public recreational uses, the following dedication of land to the public use may be required
(a) a parcel of land, of such width as may be determined by the approving authority, lying between the bank of the land containing the water and the land to be retained by the owner, for the preservation of the bank and the protection of the land retained by the owner against flooding and to provide public access to the water;
(b) other land as may be required to provide access to the shoreline of the land containing the water to serve the proposed subdivision, not exceeding ten percent of the area of the land to be subdivided.

(3) Where the approving authority so determines, no subdivision shall be carried out on any sloping land or on any land that the approving authority considers may be unstable unless it has been certified after a consideration of geotechnical survey data and analysis in respect of the land carried out in accordance with good professional practice at the expense of the person proposing the subdivision, that the land is suitable for development; and where subdivision of the land is not permitted the land may be dedicated to the public use and may be accepted as part of the land required to be dedicated to the public use if the dedication is approved under subsection (5).

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where the land to be subdivided contains ravines, swamps, natural drainage courses or other areas that in the opinion of the approving authority are unsuitable for building sites or other private uses, the approving authority may require that those areas be dedicated to the public use as parks, natural areas or areas for public recreational use in addition, or in part contribution, to the amount of land that is required to be dedicated to the public use pursuant to this section.

(5) The location and suitability of land dedicated to the public use shall be subject to the approval of the approving authority.

(6) Each parcel of land dedicated to the public use shall vest in the Crown and the parcels shall be designated on the application and plan of survey as "Public Reserve PR1" or Public Reserve PR2" and so on, as the case may be, and the area thereof shall be shown.

(7) Where land, that was subject to the requirement for the dedication of a certain amount of the land to the public use or that was subdivided prior to the requirement for such dedication, is designated under a zoning by-law for residential use by more than ten dwellings per hectare of the land that is subject to the plan of subdivision, or where an owner requests rezoning of any other land not previously subject to dedication to the public use, provision may be made for the dedication of additional land to the public use, provided that the total dedication shall not be more than the percentage required in subsection (1), and in such case the approving authority may require the registered owner of the land to either:

(a) submit, within three months from the date of mailing of the notice, a plan of survey dedicating the required land to the public use; or

(b) pay to the council, within three months from the date of mailing of the notice, an amount equal to the fair value of the required land;

and the council may:

(c) withhold or authorize its proper officer to withhold a development permit or a building permit for any building or other structure on the land subject to the requirement for dedication to the public use or payment in lieu thereof; or

(d) refuse the request for rezoning of the land.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (1) where it appears to the approving authority that the dedication of land to the public use by a person proposing a subdivision of land would serve no practical purpose or for any other reason would be unnecessary or undesirable, the approving authority may direct that the requirements of dedicating land to the public use in respect of the proposed subdivision:

(a) be deferred in whole or in part until a further subdivision is made; or

(b) be waived in total and may provide that in lieu thereof the applicant be required to pay to the municipality a sum of money in an amount no greater than the value of the land that would otherwise have been dedicated to the public use, and may direct the time and method of payment.

(9) For the purpose of subsection (8), the value of the land shall be determined on the basis of its fair value immediately after the subdivision of the land, and such fair value shall be established pursuant to the Assessment and Taxation Ordinance.

(10) Where the dedication of land to the public use is deferred under clause (a) of subsection (8), the approving authority shall file a caveat against the title of the land concerned to protect the interest of the future requirement of dedicating to the public use the required amount of land.

Buffer strips

348(1) Where a subdivision design requires the provision of land as a buffer between adjacent lands and the land to be so provided consists of strips for the development or preservation of earth berms or plantings, the plan of subdivision shall, in addition to the requirement of the dedication of lands for the public use provide for strips of land of adequate width to accomplish the intended purpose and the parcels shall be designated "Buffer Strip B1" or Buffer Strip B2"
and so on and the lands comprising the buffer strips vest in the Crown.

(2) The amount of land required to be provided as buffer strips in a subdivision of land other than for residential purposes may be included in calculating the amount of land required to be dedicated to the public use in a subdivision of land where the approving authority considers that the public interest is best served by such an arrangement.

349(1) Where a subdivision is proposed that would create a parcel of land exclusively for the use of a municipal water, sanitary sewer, drainage, electrical, natural gas, telecommunications or other similar service or utility, the parcel may be of such shape and size as may be required, and shall be designated "Utility Lot U1" or "Utility Lot U2" and so on as may be appropriate and shall only be used for such a utility.

(2) Where a utility occupies a right-of-way which is an easement over other land, the requirements of subsection (1) shall not apply.

(3) Where a utility occupies a utility parcel, the provisions of subsection 348(2) shall apply.

350(1) Where land is subdivided and designated a highway or a public reserve or buffer strip under sections 347 or 348 respectively, ownership of such road or parcel shall vest in the Commissioner.

351(1) All lands dedicated to the public use and lands constituting buffer areas now vested or that hereafter become vested in the Commissioner, by reason of the registration in the land titles office of the plan of the subdivision of land into lots, blocks or parcels, and all land transferred by any person to the Commissioner for public use may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of or transferred to any municipality subject to any condition which may be prescribed.

The Commissioner may make regulations consistent with this Part for controlling the subdivision of land.

The regulations made under subsection (1) may:
(a) prescribe reasonable conditions respecting the submission of plans to the council, governmental agencies and public utility organizations, the information to be shown on plans or otherwise supplied, and proof of the suitability of the land and its proposed subdivision;
(b) prescribe conditions and standards respecting the construction and manner of laying out streets, lanes, public reserves, lots, blocks and other units of land, the permissible minimum widths and maximum grades of streets and lanes, and the provision of service streets in proposed subdivisions abutting controlled access highways.

A council that has been designated as an approving authority by the Commissioner may by by-law make regulations not inconsistent with this Ordinance or the regulations made under section 352 for controlling the subdivision of land and may make regulations with respect to any matter not mentioned in regulations made by the Commissioner.
Application

354(1) An owner or any person who proposes to subdivide land, hereinafter referred to as the applicant, shall submit an application to the approving authority in accordance with the requirements of the regulations prescribed by the approving authority.

(2) If the applicant is not the owner of the land to be subdivided, the applicant shall with the application, submit the approval of the owner to the approving authority in the form specified in the regulations.

355(1) Where an application complies in all respects with the applicable provisions of this Ordinance, the official community plan, the zoning by-law and the regulations, the approving authority shall issue its certificate of approval of the application.

(2) A certificate of approval shall be valid for a period of twelve months and shall be subject to renewal for one or more periods of twelve months at the discretion of the approving authority.

(3) Subject to any other provisions of this Ordinance, where an approving authority is of the opinion that compliance with a requirement of any applicable regulation is impractical or undesirable because of circumstances peculiar to a proposed subdivision, the approving authority may relieve the applicant in whole or in part from compliance with the requirement; but no relief shall be granted that is contrary to the provisions of an official community plan or zoning by-law.

Revocation of approval

356(1) An approving authority may revoke an approval of a proposed plan of subdivision where the plan has not been registered in the proper land titles office or where certificate of title to the land has not been issued, as the case may be, if in its opinion it is necessary to do so.

(2) A revocation of approval of a proposed plan of subdivision may be appealed in the same manner as a refusal to approve the proposed plan may be appealed.

357(1) Refusal of approval

Subject to section 355, the approving authority shall refuse to approve a plan of proposed subdivision if in the opinion of the authority, the plan is not in the public interest, or is inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Ordinance or of any order, regulation, by-law, or other planning scheme issued, made or approved under this or any other Ordinance; and

(2) where the approving authority refuses to approve a plan of subdivision the authority shall advise the applicant of his right to appeal under this Ordinance and shall notify him respecting the time within which an appeal may be made.

358(1) Rights of appeal

Where an application for approval of a proposed plan of subdivision is refused the applicant may, within thirty days after the date on which he is served with notice of the refusal and after giving written notice to the approving authority of his intention to do so, appeal therefrom to the Municipal Board.

359(1) Where an approving authority refuses or revokes an approval of a proposed plan of subdivision, the authority shall serve the applicant with notice of the refusal or revocation by sending to him a notice thereof to the address contained in the application or by serving him personally with a copy of the notice.
360(1) An application to subdivide land shall be considered approved if a decision has not been made by the approving authority within ninety days of the submission of the application.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the time allowed for consideration of an application may be extended with the approval of the Commissioner.

361(1) No subsequent unaltered application for approval of a proposed subdivision of land that provides for the same use of the land shall be made by the same or any other person within six months of the date of the refusal by the approving authority.

362(1) Where an instrument:
(a) granting a lease of part only of a parcel of land; or
(b) charging, mortgaging or otherwise encumbering a part only of a parcel of land;
has the effect or may have the effect of subdividing the parcel, the registrar shall not accept the instrument for registration unless it is approved in accordance with this Part, however:
(c) nothing in this section prevents the registration of any such instrument in existence prior to the coming into force of this Ordinance;
(d) the length of time during which any such instrument has been in existence shall not be taken into account by the approving authority when considering the application for approval of the subdivision.

(2) Where a parcel of land is separated into two or more areas by a registered plan for a road or right-of-way pursuant to
