   "Archivist" means the person appointed as the Archivist under the Archives Act;
   "department" means
       (a) any department, branch, or unit of the public service of the Government of Yukon, and
       (b) any board, commission, foundation, corporation or other similar agency established as an agent of the Commissioner of Yukon;
   "information" means information in any form including information that is written, photographed, recorded or stored in any manner whatsoever;
   "public business" means any activity or function carried on or performed by a department;
   "record" means the form in which information is kept.

3 (1) The purpose of this Act is to provide reasonable access by the public to information in records of departments and to subject that right only to specific and limited exceptions necessary for the effective operation of departments in the public interest.

4 (1) Subject to this Act, every person shall have access to information relating to the public business of the Government of Yukon.
Access to Information Act

5 (1) Any person may request information in a record of a department by applying to the Archivist.

(2) The request may be made orally or in writing, and if the request is made orally the person who receives it shall make a written record of the relevant particulars of the request.

(3) The person who makes the request shall describe the record or the subject matter of the information he wants with enough detail about time, place, person, or event to enable a person familiar with the subject matter to identify the relevant record.

(4) If the record containing the requested information cannot be identified, the Archivist shall, in writing, tell the person who made the request that the record cannot be identified and ask him to give more details that might help a departmental official identify the relevant record.

(5) If the record containing the requested information can be identified but the information cannot be supplied immediately or the record cannot be located, the Archivist shall, in writing, tell the person who made the request when he can return for the information.

(6) If the record that contained the information no longer exists the Archivist shall, in writing, tell the person who made the request that the record no longer exists and, if possible, when it was destroyed.

(7) A request for information shall be made during the regular working hours of the office of the Archivist.

6 (1) A request for information shall be granted or denied within 30 days after the day on which the request is made.

(2) A request for information that is not granted within 30 days of the day on which the request was made or within the extended time allowed under subsection (3), shall be deemed to have been denied and the reasons for the denial shall be provided.
(3) If the record containing the requested information cannot be identified and the person who requested it has been asked to give more details to help identify the relevant record, the request shall be granted or denied within 30 days after enough additional details are given to enable the record to be identified.

7 (1) If the request for information is granted and the prescribed fee has been paid the Archivist shall make the information available and provide copies of the record upon request.

8 (1) There is no right to information under this Act where access to it or its release
(a) would disclose information the confidentiality of which is protected by law;
(b) would reveal information concerning another person's identity, residence, dependents, marital status, employment, financial transactions, income, assets and liabilities, credit worthiness, education, character, reputation, health, physical or personal characteristics, or mode of living, where that information was given in the reasonable expectation that its confidentiality would be protected;
(c) would violate the confidentiality of information that was given by another government;
(d) would violate the confidentiality of information that was given by another person and is of a kind consistently treated as confidential by that person;
(e) would likely cause a financial loss to or gain for a person or department, or affect the competitive position of a person or department;
(f) would jeopardize negotiations in relation to an existing or proposed agreement or contract;
(g) would disclose the substance of proposed legislation or regulations;
(h) would disclose the existence or content of opinions or recommendations communicated to, between, or from members of the Executive Council on matters relating to the formulation of government policy and the making of government decisions;
(i) would disclose any agenda for or record of the deliberations of the Executive Council;

- 72 -
(j) would disclose legal opinions or advice given to a person or department, or privileged communications as between solicitor and client in a matter of departmental business;

(k) would be detrimental to the proper enforcement of any law of Canada or of the Territory, the conduct of lawful investigations in respect of such laws, the administration of justice, or the proper custody, control or supervision of persons under sentence;

(l) would violate any right respecting intellectual property, including any copyright, patent right or trade mark right;

(m) would hamper an audit in progress or reveal an auditing program or auditing operation plan;

(n) would likely prejudice the outcome of judicial proceedings in progress.

9 (1) If a record contains some information that cannot be disclosed, that portion of the record shall not be disclosed and the remainder shall be disclosed.

(2) If it is not practical to separate the portion of the record that can be disclosed from the portion that cannot be disclosed, the portion that can be disclosed shall, if the prescribed fee is paid, be transcribed into a form that can be disclosed to and used by the person who requests the information.

10 (1) A request for information may only be denied

(a) where the record of the information does not exist, or

(b) in accordance with section 8.

(2) If a request for information is denied the Archivist shall give to the person who made the request

(a) written reasons for the denial, and

(b) a written description of the right and procedure for appealing against the denial.
Access to Information Act

11 (1) If the request for information is denied, the person who made the request may appeal the denial by delivering to the Archivist a written notice of appeal within 15 days after the day his request was denied.

(2) The appeal shall be considered and decided by the Executive Council member charged with responsibility for the department to whose operation the information relates.

(3) The appeal to the Executive Council Member is not a judicial proceeding and he may review the request and the denial in any manner and consult with any person and hear any representations and receive any recommendations as he thinks appropriate.

(4) The Executive Council Member shall, within 30 days after the notice of appeal is delivered to the Archivist, uphold, vary or overrule the denial and shall give reasons for the decision.

(5) If the Executive Council Member overrules or varies the denial, he shall issue appropriate instructions to ensure that the requested information, or the portion that he decides can be released, is made available to the person who made the request.

12 (1) If the request for information has been denied by the Executive Council Member, the person who requested the information may appeal by means of a petition to a judge of the Supreme Court.

(2) On the appeal to him the Supreme Court judge may require the production of and may inspect the information that is the subject of the appeal, if the information exists, but that inspection shall be conducted without the presence of any person and the confidentiality of the information shall be preserved pending the judge's decision about whether the person who requests the information has a right to it.

(3) Upon hearing the appeal, the Supreme Court judge may (a) order that the Archivist grant the request for some or all of the requested information,
(b) order that the denial of the request be upheld in relation to some or all of the information, or
(c) make any order in consequence of, or to implement, an order under paragraph (a) and (b) that seems necessary and just in the circumstances.

(4) If under section 8 there is no right to the requested information the Supreme Court judge shall not order the Archivist to grant the request.

13 (1) The Commissioner in Executive Council may make regulations
(a) prescribing fees for the purposes of this Act,
(b) without requiring the use of any particular form, prescribing forms that may be used under this Act, and

1(1) This Act may be cited as the Certified General Accountants Act.

2(1) There is hereby established a corporation to be known as the Certified General Accountants Association of Yukon, in this Act referred to as the "Association".

(2) The head office of the Association shall be in the City of Whitehorse or such other place as may be determined by the Board.

(b) to hold examinations and establish tests of competency for admission to membership in the Association; and
(c) to discipline a member guilty of misconduct in the practice of his business or profession.

4(1) The affairs and business of the Association shall be managed by a Board of Governors, in this Act referred to as the "Board", comprising three or, if the by-laws so provide, more than three members elected by and from among the members of the Association.

(2) The Board shall elect from its members a president and at least one vice-president.
(3) The Board shall appoint a secretary-treasurer or a secretary and a treasurer, who need not be a member of the Board.

(f) establish and administer a benevolent fund for the benefit of members or the dependents of deceased members, and for that purpose may make and receive contributions and donations;

(g) contract or arrange for insurance for the benefit of members and the dependents of deceased members; and

(h) affiliate with any incorporated association of accountants for the mutual benefit of members, for the establishment of uniform qualifications or examinations, and for the recognition of qualifications and examinations.

7(1) The objects and powers of the Association may be carried out and exercised by bylaws or by resolutions passed by the Board, but the Board shall not exercise any power or do any act that is directed or required by this Act or by a by-law to be exercised or done by the Association in a general meeting.

8(1) The Board may pass bylaws to carry out the objects of the Association and without limiting the generality of the foregoing the Board may pass bylaws respecting

(a) membership fees and the termination of membership;

(b) nomination, election or appointment, terms of office and remuneration of members of the Board or employees of the Association;

(g) a student class of membership and the rights and privileges thereof and the conditions upon which persons wishing to become members of the Association may be registered as students;

(h) a non-practicing class of membership and the rights and privileges thereof and the conditions upon which persons may maintain non-practicing membership and change to practicing membership.

(i) the enrollment of members and registration of students;

(j) the curriculum of studies and examinations to test the competence of registered students or of candidates for enrollment as members;

(k) the granting, suspension, revocation and renewals of certificates of registration; and

(l) other matters that are necessary for the management of the Association and the attainment of its objects.

(2) No such bylaw or any repeal thereof or amendment thereto shall take effect until it has been approved by the members of the Association in a general meeting.

(3) Any bylaw passed by the Board may be amended or rejected by the members of the Association in a general meeting, and the members may propose and pass a by-law in a general meeting whether or not it has already been passed by the Board.

(4) The Board shall file with the Executive Council Member a copy of each bylaw within two weeks after the bylaw has been approved by the members of the Association.

(5) The Commissioner in Executive Council may annul any bylaw of the Association.
9(1) At least one general meeting of the members of the Association shall be held in each year for the transaction of such business as may be brought before the meeting.

(2) The Board may convene other general meetings of the members of the Association at its discretion and shall convene such other general meetings as are required pursuant to a bylaw.

10(1) Every member of the Association, other than a student member, may use the designation "certified general accountant" and the initials "C.G.A." to indicate that he is a certified general accountant.

(2) No person shall use the designation "certified general accountant" or the initials "C.G.A." alone or in combination with any other words or initials as his occupational, business or professional designation, where he is not a member of the Association and no person shall in any other way represent or imply that he is a certified general accountant, unless he is a member of the Association.

(3) Any firm of certified general accountants whose members are entitled to practice as certified general accountants outside Yukon and whose head office is outside Yukon, but which maintains a practice within Yukon, may describe themselves in Yukon as certified general accountants, or C.G.A.'s, if at least one member of the firm is a member, other than a student or non-practicing member, of the Association.

(4) Each day's continuance of any contravention of this section constitutes and is deemed to be a new and distinct offence.

11(1) Nothing in the Act affects or interferes with the right of a person who is not a member of the Association to practice as an accountant or auditor in Yukon.
12(1) Any person of the age of majority, upon making application for membership and paying examination fees as required by a bylaw, has the right to try the examination set by the Board as the test of competency for membership in the Association.

13(1) The Board shall keep a register in which shall be entered in alphabetical order the names of all members and their class of membership.

(2) The register of members shall be open to any person for inspection free of charge during reasonable business hours.

(3) The register, or a copy of it or of an extract from it certified true by an officer of the Association, shall be received in evidence as prima facie proof of the facts stated in the register or extract produced.

(4) The certificate of an officer of the Association certifying that he has examined the register and that a person is not shown on the register as a member of the Association shall be received in evidence as prima facie proof that the person is not a member.

14(1) Any surplus derived from carrying on the affairs and business of the Association shall be applied solely in promoting and carrying out the objects and purposes of the Association, and shall not be divided among the members of the Association.

(2) No person who ceases to be a member of the Association, and no representative of any member who dies, shall, by reason of the membership, have any interest in or claim against the funds and property of the Association.

(3) The Association may be wound up in the same way as if it were incorporated under the Companies Act but dissolution of the Association in consequence of the winding up may occur only by repeal of this Act.
A member who has been reprimanded or whose membership in the Association has been suspended or expelled may, after exhausting all other rights of appeal provided by a bylaw, appeal to the Supreme Court of Yukon against the decision imposing the reprimand, suspension or termination.

(2) The appeal shall be taken within 30 days of the decision appealed against or such longer time as a judge of the Court may allow.

(3) The procedure for the conduct of an appeal to the Court under this section shall be, with such reasonable modifications directed by the Court as may be necessary, the same as for an appeal in the Court of Appeal.

(4) Upon hearing the appeal, the Court may affirm, reverse, or modify the decision appealed against, and make such other order as seems proper to the Court.

The first general meeting of the Association shall be held within six months after the date on which this Act comes into force and may be called by notice given by any three persons entitled to be members of the Association.

(2) The notice of the first general meeting may be given or published by any method likely to give reasonable notice to persons who are practicing accountancy in Yukon and who would likely qualify as certified general accountants under this Act and are not members of the Institute of Chartered Accountants or of the Society of Management Accountants.

(a) the corporation is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due, or
(b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and stated capital of all classes.

41 (1) A corporation may pay a dividend by issuing fully paid shares of the corporation and, subject to section 40, a corporation may pay a dividend in money or property.

(2) If shares of a corporation are issued in payment of a dividend, the declared amount of the dividend stated as an amount of money shall be added to the stated capital account maintained or to be maintained for the shares of the class or series issued in payment of the dividend.

42 (1) Except as permitted under subsection (2), a corporation shall not, directly or indirectly, give financial assistance by means of a loan, guarantee or otherwise
(a) to a shareholder or director of the corporation or of an affiliated corporation,
(b) to an associate of a shareholder or director of the corporation or of an affiliated corporation, or
(c) to any person for the purpose of or in connection with a purchase of a share issued or to be issued by the corporation or an affiliated corporation,

if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

(d) the corporation is, or after giving the financial assistance would be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due, or
(e) the realizable value of the corporation's assets, excluding the amount of any financial assistance in the form of a loan or in the form of assets pledged or encumbered to secure a guarantee, after giving the financial assistance, would be less than the aggregate of the corporation's liabilities and stated capital of all classes.

(2) A corporation may give financial assistance by means of a loan, guarantee or otherwise
(a) to any person in the ordinary course of business if the lending of money is part of the ordinary business of the corporation,
(b) to any person on account of expenditures incurred or to be incurred on behalf of the corporation,
(c) to a holding body corporate if the corporation is a wholly owned subsidiary of the holding body corporate,
(d) to a subsidiary body corporate of the corporation, or
(e) to employees of the corporation or any of its affiliates
   (i) to enable or assist them to purchase or erect living accommodation for their own occupation, or (ii) in accordance with a plan for the purchase of shares of the corporation or any of its affiliates to be held by a trustee.

(3) A contract made by a corporation in contravention of this section may be enforced by the corporation or by a lender for value in good faith without notice of the contravention.

(4) Unless disclosure is otherwise made by a corporation, a financial statement referred to in paragraph 149(1)(a) shall contain the following information with respect to each case in which financial assistance is given by the corporation by way of loan, guarantee or otherwise, whether in contravention of this section or not, to any of the persons referred to in paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c), if the financial assistance was given during the financial year or period to which the statement relates or remains outstanding at the end of that financial year or period:
(a) the identity of the person to whom the financial assistance was given;
(b) the nature of the financial assistance given;
(c) the terms on which the financial assistance was given;
(d) the amount of the financial assistance initially given and the amount, if any, outstanding.

43 (1) The shareholders of a corporation are not, as shareholders, liable for any liability, act or default of the corporation except under subsection 36(4), 113(6), 140(7) or 219(4).

(2) Subject to subsections 45(8) and (9.1), the articles may provide that the corporation has a lien on a share registered in the name of a shareholder or his legal representative for a debt of that shareholder to the corporation, including an amount unpaid in respect of a share issued by a body corporate on the date it was continued under this Act.

(3) A corporation may enforce a lien referred to in subsection (2) in accordance with its by-laws.

(4) Except as provided in subsection 36(1), a shareholder of a Yukon company continued under section 4.2, remains liable for any amount unpaid in respect of an issued share and the corporation may call in and by notice in writing demand from a shareholder the whole or any part of the amount unpaid on a share and if the call is not paid in accordance with the demand, the corporation may forfeit any share on which the call is not paid.

"bearer" means the person in possession of a security payable to bearer or endorsed in blank;

"bona fide purchaser" means a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim who takes delivery of a security in bearer form or order form or of a security in registered form

(a) a trustee, guardian, committee, curator or tutor,
(b) an executor, administrator or representative of a deceased person, and

(3) A security is a negotiable instrument except when
(a) its transfer is restricted and noted on the security in accordance with subsection 45(8) or (9.1), or
(b) it is stated conspicuously on the security certificate that it is non-negotiable.

(4) A security is in registered form if
(a) it specifies a person entitled to the security or to the rights it evidences, and
(b) either its transfer is capable of being recorded in a securities register or the security so states.

(5) A debt obligation is in order form if by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person specified in it with reasonable certainty or to him or his order.

(6) A security is in bearer form if it is payable to bearer according to its terms and not by reason of any endorsement.

(7) A guarantor for an issuer is deemed to be an issuer to the extent of his guarantee whether or not his obligation is noted on the security.

45 (1) A security holder is entitled at his option to a security certificate that complies with this Act or a non-transferable written acknowledgment of his right to obtain a security certificate from a corporation in respect of the securities of that corporation held by him.

(2) A corporation may charge a reasonable fee for a security certificate issued in respect of a transfer.

(3) A corporation is not required to issue more than one security certificate in respect of securities held jointly by several persons, and delivery of a certificate to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all.

(4) A security certificate shall be signed manually by at least one director or officer of the corporation or by or on behalf of a registrar, transfer agent or branch transfer agent of the corporation, or by a trustee who certifies it in accordance with a trust indenture, and any additional signatures required on a security certificate may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced on it.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (4), a manual signature is not required on
(a) a security certificate representing
   (i) a fractional share, or
   (ii) an option or a right to acquire a security, or
(b) a scrip certificate.

(6) If a security certificate contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a person, the corporation may issue the security certificate, notwithstanding that the person has ceased to be a director or an officer of the corporation, and the security certificate is as valid as if he were a director or an officer at the date of its issue.

(7) There shall be stated on the face of each share certificate issued by a corporation
(a) the name of the corporation,
(b) the words "Incorporated under the Business Corporations Act",
(c) the name of the person to whom it was issued, and
(d) the number and class of shares and the designation of any series that the certificate represents.

(8) If a security certificate issued by a corporation or by a body corporate before the body corporate was continued under this Act is or becomes subject to
(a) a restriction on its transfer other than a constraint under section 168, or
(b) a lien in favour of the corporation, the restriction or lien is ineffective against a transferee of the security who has no actual knowledge of it unless
(c) it or a reference to it is noted conspicuously on the security certificate,
(d) the security certificate contains a conspicuous statement that it is non-negotiable, or
(e) the transferee is not
   (i) a bona fide purchaser, or
   (ii) a purchaser against whom the owner of the security may not assert the ineffectiveness of an endorsement under section 64.

(9) A distributing corporation shall not restrict the transfer of its shares except by way of a constraint permitted under section 168.

(9.1) Where a Yukon company continued under section 4.2 has outstanding security certificates, and the words "private company" appear on the certificates, those words are deemed to be a notice of a restriction, lien, agreement or endorsement for the purposes of subsection (8).

(10) There shall be stated legibly on a share certificate issued by a corporation that is authorized to issue shares of more than one class or series
   (a) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the shares of each class and series that exists when the share certificate is issued, or
   (b) that the class or series of shares that it represents has rights, privileges, restrictions or conditions attached to it and that the corporation will furnish to a shareholder, on demand and without charge, a full copy of the text of
       (i) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to each class authorized to be issued and to each series in so far as they have been fixed by the directors, and
       (ii) the authority of the directors to fix the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of subsequent series.

(11) If a share certificate issued by a corporation contains the statement mentioned in paragraph (10)(b), the corporation shall furnish to a shareholder on demand and without charge a full copy of the text of
   (a) the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to each class authorized to be issued and to each series in so far as they have been fixed by the directors, and
   (b) the authority of the directors to fix the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions of subsequent series.
(12) A corporation may issue a certificate for a fractional share or may issue in its place scrip certificates in a form that entitles the holder to receive a certificate for a full share by exchanging scrip certificates aggregating a full share.

(13) The directors may attach conditions to any scrip certificates issued by a corporation, including conditions that
(a) the scrip certificates become void if they are not exchanged for a share certificate representing a full share before a specified date, and
(b) any shares for which those scrip certificates are exchangeable may, notwithstanding any pre-emptive right, be issued by the corporation to any person and the proceeds of those shares distributed rateably to the holders of the scrip certificates.

(14) A holder of a fractional share issued by a corporation is not entitled to exercise voting rights or to receive a dividend in respect of the fractional share, unless
(a) the fractional share results from a consolidation of shares, or
(b) the articles of the corporation otherwise provide.

(15) A holder of a scrip certificate is not entitled to exercise voting rights or to receive a dividend in respect of the scrip certificate.

46 (1) A corporation shall maintain a securities register in which it records the securities issued by it in registered form, showing with respect to each class or series of securities
(a) the names, alphabetically arranged, and the latest known address of each person who is or has been a security holder,
(b) the number of securities held by each security holder, and
(c) the date and particulars of the issue and transfer of each security.

(2) A corporation may appoint
(a) an agent to maintain a central securities register or registers, and
(b) an agent or agents to maintain a branch securities register or registers.
(3) Registration of the issue or transfer of a security in the central securities register or in a branch securities register is complete and valid registration for all purposes.

(4) A branch securities register shall contain particulars of securities issued or transferred at that branch.

(5) Particulars of each issue or transfer of a security registered in a branch securities register shall also be kept in the corresponding central securities register.

(6) Neither a corporation, nor its agent nor a trustee defined in subsection 77(1) is required to produce
(a) a cancelled security certificate in registered form, an instrument referred to in subsection 29(1) that is cancelled or a like cancelled instrument in registered form 6 years after the date of its cancellation,
(b) a cancelled security certificate in bearer form or an instrument referred to in subsection 29(1) that is cancelled or a like cancelled instrument in bearer form after the date of its cancellation, or
(c) an instrument referred to in subsection 29(1) or a like instrument, irrespective of its form, after the date of its expiry.

47 (1) A corporation or a trustee as defined in subsection 77(1) may, subject to sections 128, 129 and 132, treat the registered owner of a security as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices, to receive any interest, dividend or other payments in respect of the security, and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner of the security.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), but subject to a unanimous shareholder agreement, a corporation whose articles restrict the right to transfer its securities shall, and any other corporation may, treat a person as a registered security holder entitled to exercise all the rights of the security holder he represents if that person furnishes evidence as described in subsection 72(4) to the corporation that he is
(a) the executor, administrator, heir or legal representative of the heirs of the estate of a deceased security holder,
(b) a guardian, committee, trustee, curator or tutor representing a registered security holder who is an infant, an incompetent person or a missing person, or
(c) a liquidator of, or a trustee in bankruptcy for, a registered security holder.

(3) If a person on whom the ownership of a security devolves by operation of law, other than a person described in subsection (2), furnishes proof of his authority to exercise rights or privileges in respect of a security of the corporation that is not registered in his name, the corporation shall treat that person as entitled to exercise those rights or privileges.

(4) A corporation is not required to inquire into the existence of, or see to the performance or observance of, any duty owed to a third person by a registered holder of any of its securities or by anyone whom it treats, as permitted or required by this section, as the owner or registered holder of the securities.

(5) If an infant exercises any rights of ownership in the securities of a corporation, no subsequent repudiation or avoidance is effective against the corporation.

(6) A corporation shall treat as owner of a security the survivors of persons to whom the security was issued if
(a) it receives proof satisfactory to it of the death of any joint holder of the security, and
(b) the security provides that the persons to whom the security was issued are joint holders with right of survivorship.

(7) Subject to any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes, a person referred to in paragraph (2)(a) is entitled to become a registered holder or to designate a registered holder, if he deposits with the corporation or its transfer agent
(a) the original grant of probate or of letters of administration, or a copy of it certified to be a true copy by
   (i) the court that granted the probate or letters of administration,
   (ii) a trust company incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province, or
(iii) a lawyer or notary acting on behalf of the person referred to in paragraph (2)(a),

or

(b) in the case of transmission by notarial will in the Province of Quebec, a copy of the will authenticated pursuant to the laws of that province, together with

(c) an affidavit, statutory declaration or declaration of transmission made by a person referred to in paragraph (2)(a), stating the particulars of the transmission, and

(d) the security certificate that was owned by the deceased holder

(i) in the case of a transfer to a person referred to in paragraph (2)(a), with or without the endorsement of that person, and

(ii) in the case of a transfer to any other person, endorsed in accordance with section 61, and accompanied by any assurance the corporation may require under section 72.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (7), if the laws of the jurisdiction governing the transmission of a security of a deceased holder do not require a grant of probate or of letters of administration in respect of the transmission, a legal representative of the deceased holder is entitled, subject to any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes, to become a registered holder or to designate a registered holder, if he deposits with the corporation or its transfer agent

(a) the security certificate that was owned by the deceased holder, and

(b) reasonable proof of the governing laws, of the deceased holder's interest in the security and of the right of the legal representative or the person he designates to become the registered holder.
(9) Deposit of the documents required by subsection (7) or (8) empowers a corporation or its transfer agent to record in a securities register the transmission of a security from the deceased holder to a person referred to in paragraph (2)(a) or to any person that the person referred to in paragraph (2)(a) may designate and, thereafter, to treat the person who thus becomes a registered holder as the owner of the security.

48 (1) The provisions of this Part that validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue or reissue would result in overissue, but
(a) if a valid security, similar in all respects to the security involved in the overissue, is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to the validation or issue may compel the issuer to purchase and deliver such a security to him against surrender of the security that he holds, or
(b) if a valid security, similar in all respects to the security involved in the overissue, is not reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to the validation or issue may recover from the issuer an amount equal to the price the last purchaser for value paid for the invalid security.

(2) When an issuer subsequently amends its articles, or a trust indenture to which it is a party, to increase its authorized securities to a number equal to or in excess of the number of securities previously authorized plus the amount of the securities overissued, the securities so overissued are valid from the date of their issue.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the issuer has purchased and delivered a security in accordance with paragraph (1)(a) or paid the amount referred to in paragraph (1)(b).

(4) A purchase or payment by an issuer under subsection (1) is not a purchase or payment to which section 32, 33, 34 or 37 applies.

49 (1) In an action on a security,
(a) unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on the security or in a necessary endorsement is admitted,
(b) a signature on the security is presumed to be genuine and authorized but, if the effectiveness of the signature is put in issue, the burden of establishing that it is genuine and authorized is on the party claiming under the signature,

(c) if a signature is admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defence or a defect going to the validity of the security, and

(d) if the defendant establishes that a defence or defect exists, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the defence or defect is ineffective against him or some person under whom he claims.

50 (1) Unless otherwise agreed, and subject to any applicable law, regulation or stock exchange rule, a person required to deliver securities may deliver any security of the specified issue in bearer form or registered in the name of the transferee or endorsed to him or in blank.

Division 2

Issue - Issuer

51 (1) Even against a purchaser for value and without notice of a defect going to the validity of a security, the terms of the security include those stated on the security and those incorporated in it by reference to another instrument, statute, rule, regulation or order to the extent that the terms so referenced do not conflict with the stated terms, but such a reference is not of itself notice to a purchaser for value of a defect going to the validity of the security, notwithstanding that the security expressly states that a person accepting it admits such notice.

(2) A security is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value without notice of any defect going to its validity.

(3) Except as provided in section 53, the fact that a security is not genuine is a complete defence even against a purchaser for value and without notice.
(4) All other defences of an issuer, including non-delivery and conditional delivery of a security, are ineffective against a purchaser for value without notice of the particular defence.

52 (1) After an event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by a security, or that sets a date on or after which a security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is deemed to have notice of any defect in its issue or of any defence of the issuer,

(a) if the event requires the payment of money or the delivery of securities, or both, on presentation or surrender of the security, and such funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange, and the purchaser takes the security more than one year after that date, or

(b) if the purchaser takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which such performance became due.

53 (1) An unauthorized signature on a security before or in the course of issue is ineffective, except that the signature is effective in favour of a purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of authority, if the signing has been done by

(a) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security, or of similar securities, or their immediate preparation for signing, or

(b) an employee of the issuer or of a person referred to in paragraph (a) who in the ordinary course of his duties handles the security.

54 (1) If a security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect,

(a) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks in accordance with his authority, and

(b) notwithstanding that the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of the incorrectness.
(2) A completed security that has been improperly altered, even if fraudulently altered, remains enforceable, but only according to its original terms.

55 (1) A person signing a security as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security, warrants to a purchaser for value without notice that
   (a) the security is genuine,
   (b) his acts in connection with the issue of the security are within his authority, and
   (c) he has reasonable grounds for believing that the security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed, a person referred to in subsection (1) does not assume any further liability for the validity of a security.

Division 3

Purchase

56 (1) On delivery of a security, the purchaser acquires the rights in the security that his transferor had or had authority to convey, except that a purchaser who has been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security or who as a prior holder had notice of an adverse claim does not improve his position by taking from a later bona fide purchaser.

(2) A bona fide purchaser, in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser, also acquires the security free from any adverse claim.

(3) A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.

(4) Nothing in subsection (2) confers any rights on a purchaser unless all necessary endorsements are made by an appropriate person as defined in section 61.
57 (1) A purchaser of a security, or any broker for a seller or purchaser, is deemed to have notice of all adverse claims if
(a) the security, whether in bearer or registered form, has been endorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer, or
(b) the security is in bearer form and has on it a statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor, except that the mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

(2) Notwithstanding that a purchaser or any broker for a seller or purchaser has notice that a security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or endorsed by a fiduciary, he has no duty to inquire into the rightfulness of the transfer and has no notice of an adverse claim, except that if a purchaser knows that the consideration is to be used for, or that the transaction is for, the personal benefit of the fiduciary or is otherwise in breach of the fiduciary's duty, the purchaser is deemed to have notice of an adverse claim.

58 (1) An event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by a security or that sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange is not of itself notice of an adverse claim, except in the case of a purchase
(a) after one year from any date set for such presentation or surrender for redemption or exchange, or
(b) after six months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date.

59 (1) A person who presents a security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that he is entitled to the registration, payment or exchange, except that a purchaser for value without notice of an adverse claim who receives a new, reissued or re-registered security on registration of transfer warrants only that he has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature in a necessary endorsement.
(2) A person by transferring a security to a purchaser for value warrants only that
(a) the transfer is effective and rightful,
(b) the security is genuine and has not been materially altered, and
(c) he knows of nothing that might impair the validity of the security.

(3) If a security is delivered by an intermediary known by the purchaser to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim to be collected against such delivery, the intermediary by such delivery warrants only his own good faith and authority even if he has purchased or made advances against the draft or other claim to be collected against the delivery.

(4) A pledgee or other holder for purposes of security who redelivers a security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person, gives only the warranties of an intermediary under subsection (3).

(5) A broker gives
(a) to his customer and to a purchaser the warranties provided in subsection (2), and
(b) to the issuer the warranties provided in subsection (1).

(6) A broker has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section.

(7) The warranties of and in favour of a broker acting as an agent are in addition to warranties given by his customer and warranties given in favour of his customer.

(1) If a security in registered form is delivered to a purchaser without a necessary endorsement, he may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the endorsement is supplied, but against the transferor the transfer is complete on delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary endorsement supplied.
61 (1) In this section, "appropriate person" means
(a) the person specified by the security or by special endorsement to be entitled to the security,
(b) if a person described in paragraph (a) is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity, either that person or his successor,
(c) if the security or endorsement mentioned in paragraph (a) specifies more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity, the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified,
(d) if a person described in paragraph (a) is an individual and is without capacity to act by reason of death, incompetence, minority, or otherwise, his fiduciary,
(e) if the security or endorsement mentioned in paragraph (a) specifies more than one person with right of survivorship and by reason of death all cannot sign, the survivor or survivors,
(f) a person having power to sign under applicable law or a power of attorney, or
(g) to the extent that a person described in paragraphs (a) to (f) may act through an agent, his authorized agent.

(2) Whether the person signing is an appropriate person is determined as of the time of signing and an endorsement by such a person does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this Part by reason of any subsequent change of circumstances.

(3) An endorsement of a security in registered form is made when an appropriate person signs, either on the security or on a separate document, an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it, or when the signature of an appropriate person is written without more on the back of the security.

(4) An endorsement may be special or in blank.

(5) An endorsement in blank includes an endorsement to bearer.

(6) A special endorsement specifies the person to whom the security is to be transferred, or who has power to transfer it.
(7) A holder may convert an endorsement in blank into a special endorsement.

(8) Unless otherwise agreed, the endorser by his endorsement assumes no obligation that the security will be honoured by the issuer.

(9) An endorsement purporting to be only of part of a security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the endorsement.

(10) Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the jurisdiction governing the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of a transfer, does not render his endorsement unauthorized for the purposes of this Part.

62 (1) An endorsement of a security, whether special or in blank, does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the security on which it appears or, if the endorsement is on a separate document, until delivery of both the security and that document.

63 (1) An endorsement of a security in bearer form may give notice of an adverse claim under section 57 but does not otherwise affect any right to registration that the holder has.

64 (1) Unless the owner has ratified an unauthorized endorsement or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness, he may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser, other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims, who has in good faith received a new, reissued or re-registered security on registration of transfer.

65 (1) A person who guarantees a signature of an endorser of a security warrants that at the time of signing

(a) the signature was genuine,

(b) the signer was an appropriate person as defined in section 61 to endorse, and

(c) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

(2) A person who guarantees a signature of an endorser does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer.
(3) A person who guarantees an endorsement of a security warrants both the signature and the rightfulness of the transfer in all respects, but an issuer may not require a guarantee of endorsement as a condition to registration of transfer.

(4) The warranties referred to in this section are made to any person taking or dealing with the security relying on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to that person for any loss resulting from breach of warranty.

66 (1) Delivery to a purchaser occurs when
   (a) he or a person designated by him acquires possession of a security,
   (b) his broker acquires possession of a security specially endorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser,
   (c) his broker sends him confirmation of the purchase and the broker in his records identifies a specific security as belonging to the purchaser, or
   (d) with respect to an identified security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person, that person acknowledges that he holds it for the purchaser.

(2) A purchaser is the owner of a security held for him by his broker, but a purchaser is not a holder except in the cases referred to in paragraphs (1)(b) and (c).

(3) If a security is part of a fungible bulk a purchaser of the security is the owner of a proportionate interest in the fungible bulk.

(4) Notice of an adverse claim received by a broker or by a purchaser after the broker takes delivery as a holder for value is not effective against the broker or the purchaser, except that, as between the broker and the purchaser, the purchaser may demand delivery of an equivalent security in relation to which no notice of an adverse claim has been received.
67 (1) Unless otherwise agreed, if a sale of a security is made on an exchange or otherwise through brokers,
(a) the selling customer fulfils his duty to deliver when
   (i) he delivers the security to the selling broker or to a person designated by the selling broker, or
   (ii) he causes an acknowledgement to be made to the selling broker that the security is held for him,

(b) the selling broker, including a correspondent broker, acting for a selling customer fulfils his duty to deliver
   (i) by delivering the security or a like security to the buying broker or to a person designated by the buying broker, or
   (ii) by effecting clearance of the sale in accordance with the rules of the exchange on which the transaction took place.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section and unless otherwise agreed, a transferor's duty to deliver a security under a contract of purchase is not fulfilled until he
(a) delivers the security in negotiable form to a purchaser or to a person designated by the purchaser, or
(b) causes an acknowledgement to be made to the purchaser that the security is held for him.

(3) A sale to a broker purchasing for his own account is subject to subsection (2) and not subsection (1), unless the sale is made on a stock exchange.

68 (1) A person against whom the transfer of a security is wrongful for any reason, including his incapacity but not including an unauthorized endorsement, may against any person except a bona fide purchaser reclaim possession of the security or obtain possession of any new security evidencing all or part of the same rights or claim damages.
(2) If the transfer of a security is wrongful by reason of an unauthorized endorsement, the owner may reclaim possession of the security or obtain possession of a new security even from a purchaser for value and without notice of an adverse claim if the ineffectiveness of the purported endorsement may be asserted against such purchaser under section 64.

(3) The right to reclaim possession of a security may be specifically enforced, its transfer may be restrained and the security may be impounded pending litigation.

69 (1) Unless otherwise agreed, a transferor shall on demand supply a purchaser with proof of his authority to transfer or with any other requisite that is necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of a security, but if the transfer is not for value a transferor need not do so unless the purchaser pays the reasonable and necessary costs of the proof and transfer.

(2) If the transferor fails to comply with a demand under subsection
(1) within a reasonable time, the purchaser may reject or rescind the transfer.

70 (1) No seizure of a security of a distributing corporation or other interest evidenced by a security is effective until the person making the seizure obtains possession of the security.

70.1 (1) An agent or bailee who in good faith, including observance of reasonable commercial standards if he is in the business of buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities, has received securities and sold, pledged or delivered them according to the instructions of his principal is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal has no right to dispose of them.

71 (1) If a security in registered form is presented for registration of transfer, the issuer shall register the transfer if
(a) the security is endorsed by an appropriate person, as defined in section 61,
(b) reasonable assurance is given that that endorsement is genuine and effective,
(c) the issuer has no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty,
The Business Corporations Act

(d) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with,
(e) the transfer is rightful or is to a bona fide purchaser, and
(f) any fee referred to in subsection 45(2) has been paid.

(2) If an issuer has a duty to register a transfer of a security, the issuer is liable to the person presenting it for registration for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer.

72 (1) An issuer may require an assurance that each necessary endorsement on a security is genuine and effective by requiring a guarantee of the signature of the person endorsing and by requiring
(a) if the endorsement is by an agent, reasonable assurance of the agent's authority to sign,
(b) if the endorsement is by a fiduciary, evidence of his appointment or incumbency,
(c) if there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so, and
(d) in any other case, assurance that corresponds as closely as practicable to the foregoing.

(2) In subsection (1), "guarantee of the signature" means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be a responsible person.

(3) An issuer may adopt reasonable standards to determine responsible persons for the purpose of subsection (2).

(4) In paragraph (1)(b), "evidence of appointment or incumbency" means
(a) in the case of a fiduciary appointed by a court, a copy of the order certified in accordance with subsection 47(7), and dated not earlier than 60 days before the date a security is presented for transfer, or
(b) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or other evidence believed by the issuer to be appropriate.
(5) An issuer may adopt reasonable standards with respect to evidence for the purposes of paragraph (4)(b).

(6) An issuer is not deemed to have notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to subsection (4) except to the extent that the contents relate directly to appointment or incumbency.

(7) If an issuer demands assurance additional to that specified in this section for a purpose other than that specified in subsection (4) and obtains a copy of a will, trust or partnership agreement, by-law or similar document, the issuer is deemed to have notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer.

73 (1) An issuer to whom a security is presented for registration of transfer has a duty to inquire into adverse claims if

(a) written notice of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner that affords the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the issue of a new, reissued or re-registered security and the notice discloses the name and address of the claimant, the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part, or

(b) the issuer is deemed to have notice of an adverse claim from a document that is obtained under subsection 72(7).

(2) An issuer may discharge a duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered mail sent to the address furnished by him or, if no such address has been furnished, to his residence or regular place of business, that a security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person, and that the transfer will be registered unless within 30 days from the date of mailing the notice either

(a) the issuer is served with a restraining order or other order of the Court, or

(b) the issuer is provided with an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any registrar, transfer agent or other agent of the issuer from any loss that may be incurred by any of them as a result of complying with the adverse claim.
(3) Unless an issuer is deemed to have notice of an adverse claim from a document that it obtained under subsection 72(7) or has received notice of an adverse claim under subsection (1), if a security presented for registration is endorsed by the appropriate person as defined in section 61 the issuer has no duty to inquire into adverse claims, and in particular,

(a) an issuer registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent or correct description of the fiduciary relationship, and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security,

(b) an issuer registering a transfer on an endorsement by a fiduciary has no duty to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with the document or with the law of the jurisdiction governing the fiduciary relationship, and

(c) an issuer is not deemed to have notice of the contents of any court record or any registered document even if the record or document is in the issuer's possession and even if the transfer is made on the endorsement of a fiduciary to the fiduciary himself or to his nominee.

(4) A written notice of adverse claim received by an issuer is effective for 12 months from the date when it was received and thereon ceases to be effective unless the notice is renewed in writing.

(5) An issuer who registers the transfer of a security on an unauthorized endorsement is liable for improper registration.

74 (1) Except as otherwise provided in any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner or any other person who incurs a loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if

(a) the necessary endorsements were on or with the security, and

(b) the issuer had no duty to inquire into adverse claims or had discharged any such duty.
(2) If an issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to it, the issuer shall on demand deliver a like security to the owner unless
(a) subsection (1) applies,
(b) the owner is precluded by subsection 75(1) from asserting any claim, or
(c) the delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 48.

75 (1) If
(a) a security has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken, and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact by giving the issuer written notice of his adverse claim within a reasonable time after he knows of the loss, destruction or taking, and
(b) the issuer has registered a transfer of the security before receiving such notice, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim to a new security.

(2) If the owner of a security claims that the security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the issuer shall issue a new security in place of the original security if the owner
(a) so requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser and before a purchaser described in section 64 has received a new, reissued or re-registered security,
(b) furnishes the issuer with a sufficient indemnity bond, and
(c) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

(3) If, after the issue of a new security under subsection (2), a bona fide purchaser of the original security presents the original security for registration of transfer, the issuer shall register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by section 48.

(4) In addition to any rights on an indemnity bond, the issuer may recover a new security issued under subsection (2) from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under him other than a bona fide purchaser.
76 (1) An authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other agent of an issuer has, in respect of the issue, registration of transfer and cancellation of a security of the issuer,
(a) a duty to the issuer to exercise good faith and reasonable diligence, and
(b) the same obligations to the holder or owner of a security and the same rights, privileges and immunities as the issuer.

(2) Notice to an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other agent of an issuer is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent.

PART 7
CORPORATE BORROWING
Division 1
Trust Indentures

77 (1) In this Division,

"event of default" means an event specified in a trust indenture on the occurrence of which
(a) a security interest constituted by the trust indenture becomes enforceable, or
(b) the principal, interest and other money payable under the trust indenture become or may be declared to be payable before maturity,

but the event is not an event of default until all conditions prescribed by the trust indenture in connection with that event for the giving of notice or the lapse of time or otherwise have been satisfied;

"trustee" means any person appointed as trustee under the terms of a trust indenture to which a corporation is a party and includes any successor trustee;
"trust indenture" means any deed, indenture or other instrument, including any supplement or amendment to it, made by a corporation after its incorporation or continuance under this Act, under which the corporation issues debt obligations and in which a person is appointed as trustee for the holders of the debt obligations issued under it.

(2) This Division applies to a trust indenture only if the debt obligations issued or to be issued under the trust indenture are part of a distribution to the public.

78 (1) No person shall be appointed as trustee if there is a material conflict of interest between his role as trustee and his role in any other capacity.

(2) A trustee shall, within 90 days after he becomes aware that a material conflict of interest exists,
(a) eliminate the conflict of interest, or
(b) resign from office.

(3) A trust indenture, any debt obligations issued under it and a security interest effected by it are valid notwithstanding a material conflict of interest of the trustee.

(4) If a trustee contravenes subsection (1) or (2), any interested person may apply to the Court for an order that the trustee be replaced, and the Court may make an order on any terms it thinks fit.

79 (1) A trustee, or at least one of the trustees if more than one is appointed, shall be a body corporate incorporated under the laws of Canada or a province and authorized to carry on the business of a trust company.

80 (1) A holder of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture may, on payment to the trustee of a reasonable fee, require the trustee to furnish within 15 days after delivering to the trustee the statutory declaration referred to in subsection (4), a list setting out
(a) the names and addresses of the registered holders of the outstanding debt obligations,
(b) the principal amount of outstanding debt obligations owned by each of those holders, and

(c) the aggregate principal amount of debt obligations outstanding, as shown on the records maintained by the trustee on the day that the statutory declaration is delivered to that trustee.

(2) On the demand of a trustee, the issuer of debt obligations shall furnish the trustee with the information required to enable the trustee to comply with subsection (1).

(3) If the person requiring the trustee to furnish a list under subsection (1) is a body corporate, the statutory declaration required under that subsection shall be made by a director or officer of the body corporate.

(4) The statutory declaration required under subsection (1) shall state
   (a) the name and address of the person requiring the trustee to furnish the list and, if the person is a body corporate, the address for service of the body corporate, and
   (b) that the list will not be used except as permitted under subsection (5).

(5) A list obtained under this section shall not be used by any person except in connection with
   (a) an effort to influence the voting of the holders of debt obligations,
   (b) an offer to acquire debt obligations, or
   (c) any other matter relating to the debt obligations or the affairs of the issuer or guarantor of the debt obligations.

(6) A person who, without reasonable cause, contravenes subsection (5) is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than 6 months or to both.
81 (1) An issuer or a guarantor of debt obligations issued or to be issued under a trust indenture shall before the doing of any act under paragraph (a), (b) or (c), furnish the trustee with evidence of compliance with the conditions in the trust indenture relating to
(a) the issue, certification and delivery of debt obligations under the trust indenture,
(b) the release or release and substitution of property subject to a security interest constituted by the trust indenture, or
(c) the satisfaction and discharge of the trust indenture.

(2) On the demand of a trustee, the issuer or guarantor of debt obligations issued or to be issued under a trust indenture shall furnish the trustee with evidence of compliance with the trust indenture by the issuer or guarantor in respect of any act to be done by the trustee at the request of the issuer or guarantor.

82 (1) Evidence of compliance as required by section 81 shall consist of
(a) a statutory declaration or certificate made by a director or an officer of the issuer or guarantor stating that the conditions referred to in that section have been complied with, and
(b) if the trust indenture requires compliance with conditions that are subject to review
(i) by legal counsel, an opinion of legal counsel that those conditions have been complied with, and
(ii) by an auditor or accountant, an opinion or report of the auditor of the issuer or guarantor, or any other accountant the trustee may select, that those conditions have been complied with.

83 (1) The evidence of compliance referred to in section 82 shall include a statement by the person giving the evidence
(a) declaring that he has read and understands the conditions of the trust indenture described in section 81,
(b) describing the nature and scope of the examination or investigation on which he based the certificate, statement or opinion, and
(c) declaring that he has made any examination or investigation that he believes necessary to enable him to make the statements or give the opinions contained or expressed therein.
84 (1) On the demand of a trustee, the issuer or guarantor of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture shall furnish the trustee with evidence in any form the trustee may require as to compliance with any condition of the trust indenture relating to any action required or permitted to be taken by the issuer or guarantor under the trust indenture.

(2) At least once in each 12-month period beginning on the date of the trust indenture and at any other time on the demand of a trustee, the issuer or guarantor of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture shall furnish the trustee with a certificate that the issuer or guarantor has complied with all requirements contained in the trust indenture that, if not complied with, would, with the giving of notice, lapse of time or otherwise, constitute an event of default, or, if there has been failure to so comply, giving particulars of the failure.

85 (1) The trustee shall, within 30 days after the trustee becomes aware of its occurrence, give to the holders of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture, notice of every event of default arising under the trust indenture and continuing at the time the notice is given, unless the trustee reasonably believes that it is in the best interests of the holders of the debt obligations to withhold the notice and so informs the issuer or guarantor in writing.

86 (1) A trustee in exercising his powers and discharging his duties shall
(a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the holders of the debt obligations issued under the trust indenture, and
(b) exercise the care, diligence and skill of a reasonably prudent trustee.

87 (1) Notwithstanding section 86, a trustee is not liable if he relies in good faith on statements contained in a statutory declaration, certificate, opinion or report that complies with this Act or the trust indenture.

88 (1) No term of a trust indenture or of any agreement between
(a) a trustee and the holders of debt obligations issued under the trust indenture, or
(b) between the trustee and the issuer or guarantor shall operate so as to relieve a trustee from the duties imposed on him by section 86.

PART 8

RECEIVERS AND RECEIVER-MANAGERS

89 (1) A receiver of any property of a corporation may, subject to the rights of secured creditors, receive the income from the property, pay the liabilities connected with the property and realize the security interest of those on behalf of whom he is appointed, but, except to the extent permitted by the Court, he may not carry on the business of the corporation.

90 (1) A receiver of a corporation may, if he is also appointed receiver-manager of the corporation, carry on any business of the corporation to protect the security interest of those on behalf of whom he is appointed.

91 (1) If a receiver-manager is appointed by the Court or under an instrument, the powers of the directors of the corporation that the receiver-manager is authorized to exercise may not be exercised by the directors until the receiver-manager is discharged.

92 (1) A receiver or receiver-manager appointed by the Court shall act in accordance with the directions of the Court.

93 (1) A receiver or receiver-manager appointed under an instrument shall act in accordance with that instrument and any direction of the Court made under section 95.

94 (1) A receiver or receiver-manager of a corporation appointed under an instrument shall
(a) act honestly and in good faith, and
(b) deal with any property of the corporation in his possession or control in a commercially reasonable manner.
95 (1) On an application by a receiver or receiver-manager, whether appointed by the Court or under an instrument, or on an application by any interested person, the Court may make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any or all of the following:
   (a) an order appointing, replacing or discharging a receiver or receiver-manager and approving his accounts;
   (b) an order determining the notice to be given to any person or dispensing with notice to any person;
   (c) an order fixing the remuneration of the receiver or receiver-manager;
   (d) an order
      (i) requiring the receiver or receiver-manager, or a person by or on behalf of whom he is appointed, to make good any default in connection with the receiver's or receiver-manager's custody or management of the property and business of the corporation;
      (ii) relieving any of those persons from any default on any terms the Court thinks fit;
      (iii) confirming any act of the receiver or receiver-manager;
   (e) an order giving directions on any matter relating to the duties of the receiver or receiver-manager.

96 (1) A receiver or receiver-manager shall

(f) prepare at least once in every 6-month period after the date of his appointment financial statements of his administration as far as is practicable in the form required by section 149, and, subject to any order of the Court, file a copy of them with the Registrar within 60 days after the end of each 6-month period, and

(g) on completion of his duties,

(i) render a final account of his administration in the form adopted for interim accounts under paragraph (f),

(ii) send a copy of the final report to the Registrar who shall file it, and

(iii) send a copy of the final report to each director of the corporation.

PART 9

DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

97 (1) Subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement, the directors shall manage the business and affairs of a corporation.

(2) A corporation shall have one or more directors but a distributing corporation shall have not fewer than three directors, at least two of whom are not officers or employees of the corporation or its affiliates.

98 (1) Unless the articles, by-laws or a unanimous shareholder agreement otherwise provide, the directors may, by resolution, make, amend or repeal any by-laws that regulate the business or affairs of the corporation.

(2) The directors shall submit a by-law, or an amendment or a repeal of a by-law, made under subsection (1) to the shareholders at the next meeting of shareholders, and the shareholders may, by ordinary resolution, confirm, reject or amend the by-law, amendment or repeal.
(3) A by-law, or an amendment or a repeal of a by-law, is effective from the date of the resolution of the directors under subsection (1) until it is confirmed, confirmed as amended or rejected by the shareholders under subsection (2) or until it ceases to be effective under subsection (4) and, if the by-law is confirmed or confirmed as amended, it continues in effect in the form in which it was so confirmed.

(4) If a by-law, or an amendment or a repeal of a by-law, is rejected by the shareholders, or if the directors do not submit a by-law, or an amendment or a repeal of a by-law, to the shareholders as required under subsection (2), the by-law, amendment or repeal ceases to be effective and no subsequent resolution of the directors to make, amend or repeal a by-law having substantially the same purpose or effect is effective until it is confirmed or confirmed as amended by the shareholders.

(5) A shareholder entitled to vote at an annual meeting of shareholders may in accordance with section 131 make a proposal to make, amend or repeal a by-law.

98.1 (1) Unless the articles or by-laws of, or a unanimous shareholder agreement relating to, a corporation otherwise provide, the directors of a corporation may, without authorization of the shareholders,
(a) borrow money on the credit of the corporation,
(b) issue, reissue, sell or pledge debt obligations of the corporation,
(c) subject to section 42, give a guarantee on behalf of the corporation to secure performance of an obligation of any person, and
(d) mortgage, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise create a security interest in all or any property of the corporation, owned or subsequently acquired, to secure any obligation of the corporation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsections 110(2) and paragraph 116(1)(a), unless the articles or by-laws of, or a unanimous shareholder agreement relating to a corporation otherwise provide, the directors may, by resolution, delegate the powers referred to in subsection (1) to a director, a committee of directors or an officer.

- 69 - 99 (1) After issue of the certificate of incorporation, a meeting of the directors of the corporation shall be held at which the directors may
(a) make by-laws,
(b) adopt forms of security certificates and corporate records,
(c) authorize the issue of securities,
(d) appoint officers,
(e) appoint an auditor to hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders,
(f) make banking arrangements, and
(g) transact any other business.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a body corporate to which a certificate of amalgamation has been issued under section 179 or 180.1 or to which a certificate of continuance has been issued under section 181.

(3) An incorporator or a director may call the meeting of directors referred to in subsection (1) by giving not less than 5 days' notice of the meeting to each director, stating the time and the place of the meeting.

(4) A director may waive notice under subsection 99(3).

100 (1) The following persons are disqualified from being a director of a corporation:
(a) anyone who is less than 19 years of age;
(b) anyone who
   (i) is the subject of an order under the Mental Health Act appointing a committee of his person or estate or both,
       or
   (ii) has been found to be mentally incompetent by a court
        elsewhere than in Yukon;
(c) a person who is not an individual;
(d) a person who has the status of bankrupt.

(2) Unless the articles otherwise provide, a director of a corporation is not required to hold shares issued by the corporation.
(3) A person who is elected or appointed a director is not a director unless
(a) he was present at the meeting when he was elected or appointed and did not refuse to act as a director, or
(b) if he was not present at the meeting when he was elected or appointed,
   (i) he consented to act as a director in writing before his election or appointment or within 10 days after it, or
   (ii) he has acted as a director pursuant to the election or appointment.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3), a person who is elected or appointed as a director and refuses under paragraph (3)(a) or (b) to consent or act under paragraph (3)(b) shall be deemed not to have been elected or appointed as a director.

101 (1) At the time of sending articles of incorporation, the incorporators shall send to the Registrar a notice of directors in prescribed form and the Registrar shall file the notice.

(2) Each director named in the notice referred to in subsection (1) holds office from the issue of the certificate of incorporation until the first meeting of shareholders.

(3) Subject to paragraph (9)(a) and section 102, shareholders of a corporation shall, by ordinary resolution at the first meeting of shareholders and at each succeeding annual meeting at which an election of directors is required, elect directors to hold office for a term expiring not later than the close of the next annual meeting of shareholders following the election.

(4) If the articles so provide, the directors may, between annual general meetings, appoint one or more additional directors of the corporation to serve until the next annual general meeting, but the number of additional directors shall not at any time exceed one third of the number of directors who held office at the expiration of the last annual meeting of the corporation.

(5) It is not necessary that all directors elected at a meeting of shareholders hold office for the same term.
(6) A director not elected for an expressly stated term ceases to hold office at the close of the first annual meeting of shareholders following his election.

(7) Notwithstanding subsections (2), (3) and (6), if directors are not elected at a meeting of shareholders, the incumbent directors continue in office until their successors are elected.

(8) If a meeting of shareholders fails to elect the number or the minimum number of directors required by the articles by reason of the disqualification or death of any candidate, the directors elected at that meeting may exercise all the powers of the directors if the number of directors so elected constitutes a quorum.

(9) The articles or a unanimous shareholder agreement may provide for the election or appointment of a director or directors
(a) for terms expiring not later than the close of the third annual meeting of shareholders following the election, and
(b) by creditors or employees of the corporation or by a class or classes of those creditors or employees.

102 (1) If the articles provide for cumulative voting,
(a) the articles shall require a fixed number and not a minimum and maximum number of directors,
(b) each shareholder entitled to vote at an election of directors has the right to cast a number of votes equal to the number of votes attached to the shares held by him multiplied by the number of directors to be elected, and he may cast all those votes in favour of one candidate or distribute them among the candidates in any manner,
(c) a separate vote of shareholders shall be taken with respect to each candidate nominated for director unless a resolution is passed unanimously permitting two or more candidates to be elected by a single resolution,
(d) if a shareholder votes for more than one candidate without specifying the distribution of his votes among the candidates, he is deemed to have distributed his votes equally among the candidates for whom he voted,
The Business Corporations Act
Chapter 13

(e) if the number of candidates nominated for director exceeds the number of positions to be filled, the candidates who receive the least number of votes shall be eliminated until the number of candidates remaining equals the number of positions to be filled,

(f) each director ceases to hold office at the close of the first annual meeting of shareholders following his election,

(g) a director may not be removed from office if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him and those votes could be voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast and the number of directors required by the articles were then being elected, and

(h) the number of directors required by the articles may not be decreased if the votes cast against the motion to decrease would be sufficient to elect a director, and those votes could be voted cumulatively, at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast and the number of directors required by the articles were then being elected.

103 (1) A director of a corporation ceases to hold office when
(a) he dies or resigns,
(b) he is removed in accordance with section 104, or
(c) he becomes disqualified under subsection 100(1).

(2) A resignation of a director becomes effective at the time a written resignation is sent to the corporation, or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later.

104 (1) Subject to paragraph 102(1)(g) or a unanimous shareholder agreement, the shareholders of a corporation may by ordinary resolution at a special meeting remove any director or directors from office.

(2) If the holders of any class or series of shares of a corporation have an exclusive right to elect one or more directors, a director so elected may only be removed by an ordinary resolution at a meeting of the shareholders of that class or series.
(3) Subject to paragraphs 102(1)(b) to (e), a vacancy created by the removal of a director may be filled at the meeting of the shareholders at which the director is removed or, if not so filled, may be filled under section 106.

(4) A director elected or appointed under subsection 101(9) may be removed only by those persons having the power to elect or appoint that director.

(b) in his capacity as a director or officer of another body corporate if he acts or acted in that capacity at the corporation's request, except when the liability relates to his failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the body corporate.

(5) A corporation or a person referred to in subsection (1) may apply to the Court for an order approving an indemnity under this section and the Court may so order and make any further order it thinks fit.

(6) On an application under subsection (5), the Court may order notice to be given to any interested person and that person is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

(2) For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to receive

(e) the rights being conferred by this section are being abused to secure publicity.

(6) No corporation or person acting on its behalf incurs any liability by reason only of circulating a proposal or statement in compliance with this section.
(7) If a corporation refuses to include a proposal in a management proxy circular, the corporation shall, within 10 days after receiving the proposal, notify the shareholder submitting the proposal of its intention to omit the proposal from the management proxy circular and send to him a statement of the reasons for the refusal.

(8) On the application of a shareholder claiming to be aggrieved by a corporation's refusal under subsection (7), the Court may restrain the holding of the meeting to which the proposal is sought to be presented and make any further order it thinks fit.

(9) The corporation or any person claiming to be aggrieved by a proposal may apply to the Court for an order permitting the corporation to omit the proposal from the management proxy circular, and the Court, if it is satisfied that subsection (5) applies, may make any order it thinks fit.

132 (1) A corporation having more than 15 shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall prepare a list of shareholders entitled to receive notice of a meeting, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the number of shares held by each shareholder,

(a) if a record date is fixed under subsection 128(2), not later than 10 days after that date, or

(b) if no record date is fixed,

(i) at the close of business on the last business day preceding the day on which the notice is given, or

(ii) if no notice is given, on the day on which the meeting is held.

(2) If a corporation fixes a record date under subsection 128(2), a person named in the list prepared under paragraph (1)(a) is entitled to vote the shares shown opposite his name at the meeting to which the list relates, except to the extent that

(a) the person has transferred the ownership of any of his shares after the record date, and

(b) the transferee of those shares

(i) produces properly endorsed share certificates, or

(ii) otherwise establishes that he owns the shares, and demands, not later than 10 days before the meeting, or any shorter period before the meeting that the by-laws of the corporation may provide, that his name be included in the list before the meeting, in which case the transferee is entitled to vote his shares at the meeting.

(3) If a corporation does not fix a record date under subsection 128(2), a person named in a list prepared under clause (1)(b)(i) is entitled to vote the shares shown opposite his name at the meeting to which the list relates except to the extent that

(a) the person has transferred the ownership of any of his shares after the date on which a list referred to in clause (1)(b)(i) is prepared, and

(b) the transferee of those shares
   (i) produces properly endorsed share certificates, or
   (ii) otherwise establishes that he owns the shares, and demands, not later than 10 days before the meeting or any shorter period before the meeting that the by-laws of the corporation may provide, that his name be included in the list before the meeting, in which case the transferee is entitled to vote his shares at the meeting.

(4) A shareholder may examine the list of shareholders
   (a) during usual business hours at the records office of the corporation or at the place where its central securities register is maintained, and
   (b) at the meeting of shareholders for which the list was prepared.

133 (1) Unless the by-laws otherwise provide, a quorum of shareholders is present at a meeting of shareholders, irrespective of the number of persons actually present at the meeting, if the holder or holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote at the meeting are present in person or represented by proxy.
(2) If a quorum is present at the opening of a meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present may, unless the by-laws otherwise provide, proceed with the business of the meeting, notwithstanding that a quorum is not present throughout the meeting.

(3) If a quorum is not present at the opening of a meeting of shareholders, the shareholders present may adjourn the meeting to a fixed time and place but may not transact any other business.

(4) If a corporation has only one shareholder, or only one holder of any class or series of shares, the shareholder present in person or by proxy constitutes a meeting.

134 (1) Unless the articles otherwise provide, each share of a corporation entitles the holder of it to one vote at a meeting of shareholders.

(2) If a body corporate or association is a shareholder of a corporation, the corporation shall recognize any individual authorized by a resolution of the directors or governing body of the body corporate or association to represent it at meetings of shareholders of the corporation.

(3) An individual authorized under subsection (2) may exercise on behalf of the body corporate or association he represents all the powers it could exercise if it were an individual shareholder.

(4) Unless the by-laws otherwise provided, if two or more persons hold shares jointly, one of those holders present at a meeting of shareholders may in the absence of the others vote the shares, but if two or more of those persons who are present, in person or by proxy, vote, they shall vote as one on the shares jointly held by them.

135 (1) Unless the by-laws otherwise provide, voting at a meeting of shareholders shall be by show of hands except when a ballot is demanded by a shareholder or proxyholder entitled to vote at the meeting.
(2) A shareholder or proxyholder may demand a ballot either before or on the declaration of the result of any vote by show of hands.

136 (1) A resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the shareholders.

(2) A resolution in writing dealing with all matters required by this Act to be dealt with at a meeting of shareholders, and signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote at that meeting, satisfies all the requirements of this Act relating to meetings of shareholders.

(3) A copy of every resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2) shall be kept with the minutes of the meetings of shareholders.

137 (1) The holders of not less than 5% of the issued shares of a corporation that carry the right to vote at a meeting sought to be held may requisition the directors to call a meeting of shareholders for the purposes stated in the requisition.

(2) The requisition referred to in subsection (1), which may consist of several documents of like form each signed by one or more shareholders, shall state the business to be transacted at the meeting and shall be sent to each director and to the registered office of the corporation.

(3) On receiving the requisition referred to in subsection (1), the directors shall call a meeting of shareholders to transact the business stated in the requisition unless
(a) a record date has been fixed under subsection 128(2) and notice of the record date has been given under subsection 128(4),
(b) the directors have called a meeting of shareholders and have given notice of the meeting under section 129, or
(c) the business of the meeting as stated in the requisition includes matters described in paragraphs 131(5)(b) to (e).

(4) If the directors do not within 21 days after receiving the requisition referred to in subsection (1) call a meeting, any shareholder who signed the requisition may call the meeting.
(5) A meeting called under this section shall be called as nearly as possible in the manner in which meetings are to be called pursuant to the by-laws, this Part and Part 12.

(6) Unless the shareholders otherwise resolve at a meeting called under subsection (4), the corporation shall reimburse the shareholders the expenses reasonably incurred by them in requisitioning, calling and holding the meeting.

138 (1) If for any reason it is impracticable to call a meeting of shareholders of a corporation in the manner in which meetings of those shareholders may be called, or to conduct the meeting in the manner prescribed by the by-laws and this Act, or if for any other reason the Court thinks fit, the Court, on the application of a director, a shareholder entitled to vote at the meeting or, if the corporation is a distributing corporation the Registrar of Securities, may order a meeting to be called, held and conducted in the manner the Court directs.

(2) Without restricting the generality of subsection (1), the Court may order that the quorum required by the by-laws or this Act be varied or dispensed with at a meeting called, held and conducted pursuant to this section.

(3) A meeting called, held and conducted pursuant to this section is for all purposes a meeting of shareholders of the corporation duly called, held and conducted.

139 (1) A corporation or a shareholder or director may apply to the Court to determine any controversy with respect to an election or appointment of a director or auditor of the corporation.

(2) On an application under this section, the Court may make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any one or more of the following:
   (a) an order restraining a director or auditor whose election or appointment is challenged from acting pending determination of the dispute;
   (b) an order declaring the result of the disputed election or appointment;
The Business Corporations Act

(c) an order requiring a new election or appointment, and including in the order directions for the management of the business and affairs of the corporation until a new election is held or appointment made;

(d) an order determining the voting rights of shareholders and of persons claiming to own shares.

139.1(1) A written agreement between two or more shareholders may provide that in exercising voting rights the shares held by them shall be voted as provided in the agreement.

140 (1) A unanimous shareholder agreement may provide for any or all of the following:

(a) the regulation of the rights and liabilities of the shareholders, as shareholders, among themselves or between themselves and any other party to the agreement;

(b) the regulation of the election of directors;

(c) the management of the business and affairs of the corporation, including the restriction or abrogation, in whole or in part, of the powers of the directors;

(d) any other matter that may be contained in a unanimous shareholder agreement pursuant to any other provision of this Act.

(2) If a unanimous shareholder agreement is in effect at the time a share is issued by a corporation to a person other than an existing shareholder,

(a) that person is deemed to be a party to the agreement whether or not he had actual knowledge of it when the share certificate was issued,

(b) the issue of the share certificate does not operate to terminate the agreement, and

(c) if he is a bona fide purchaser without actual knowledge of the unanimous shareholder agreement, that person may rescind the contract under which the shares were acquired by giving a notice to that effect to the corporation within a reasonable time after the person receives actual knowledge of the unanimous shareholder agreement.
(3) Notwithstanding subsection 45(8), if a unanimous shareholder agreement is in effect when a person who is not a party to the agreement acquires a share of a corporation, other than under subsection (2),
(a) the person who acquired the share is deemed to be a party to the agreement whether or not he had actual knowledge of it when he acquired the share, and
(b) neither the acquisition of the share nor the registration of that person as a shareholder operates to terminate the agreement.

(4) If
(a) a person referred to in subsection (3) is a bona fide purchaser as defined in subsection 44(2) and did not have actual knowledge of the unanimous shareholder agreement, and
(b) his transferor's share certificate did not contain a reference to the unanimous shareholder agreement, that person may, within 30 days after he acquires actual knowledge of the existence of the agreement, send to the corporation a notice of objection to the agreement.

(5) If a person sends a notice of objection under subsection (4),
(a) he is entitled to be paid by the corporation the fair value of the shares held by him, determined as of the close of business on the day on which he became a shareholder, and
(b) subsections 184(4) and (6) to (20) applies, with the necessary changes, as if the notice of objection under subsection (4) were a written objection sent to the corporation under subsection 184(5).

(6) A transferee who is entitled to be paid the fair value of his shares under subsection (5) also has the right to recover from the transferor by action the amount by which the value of the consideration paid for his shares exceeds the fair value of those shares.
(7) A shareholder who is a party or is deemed to be a party to a unanimous shareholder agreement has all the rights, powers and duties and incurs all the liabilities of a director of the corporation to which the agreement relates to the extent that the agreement restricts the powers of the directors to manage the business and affairs of the corporation, and the directors are thereby relieved of their duties and liabilities to the same extent.

(8) A unanimous shareholder agreement may not be amended without the written consent of all those who are shareholders at the effective date of the amendment unless otherwise provided for in the unanimous shareholder agreement.

(2) The management of a corporation is not required to send a form of proxy under subsection (1)

(a) if the corporation has not more than 15 shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders, two or more joint shareholders being counted as one shareholder, or

(b) if all of the shareholders entitled to vote at a meeting of shareholders have agreed in writing to waive the application of subsection (1).

(3) A shareholder may revoke a waiver given under paragraph (2)(b) in respect of any meeting of shareholders by sending to the corporation a notice in writing to that effect not less than 40 days before the date of the meeting in respect of which the waiver was given.

(4) If the management of a corporation, without reasonable cause, contravenes subsection (1), the corporation is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000.

(5) If a corporation contravenes subsection (1), then, whether or not the corporation has been prosecuted or convicted in respect of that contravention, any director or officer of the corporation who knowingly authorizes, permits or acquiesces in the contravention is also guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or to both.

(3) A person required to send a management proxy circular or copy of it with the Registrar of Securities, together with a copy of the notice of the meeting, form of proxy and any other documents for use in connection with the meeting.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (3) is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or to 146 (1) A person who solicits a proxy and is appointed as a proxyholder shall attend in person or cause an alternate proxyholder to attend the meeting in respect of which the proxy is given and comply with the directions of the shareholder who appointed him.

(2) A proxyholder or an alternate proxyholder has the same rights as the shareholder who appointed him to speak at a meeting of shareholders in respect of any matter, to vote by way of ballot at the meeting and, except where a proxyholder or an alternate proxyholder has conflicting instructions from more than one shareholder, to vote at such a meeting in respect of any matter by way of any show of hands.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), if the chairman of a meeting of shareholders declares to the meeting that, if a ballot is conducted, the total number of votes attached to shares represented at the meeting by proxy required to be voted against what to his knowledge will be the decision of the meeting in relation to any matter or group of matters is less than 5% of the votes attached to the shares entitled to vote and represented at the meeting on that ballot, then, unless a shareholder or proxyholder demands a ballot,
   (a) the chairman may conduct the vote in respect of that matter or group of matters by a show of hands, and
   (b) a proxyholder or alternate proxyholder may vote in respect of that matter or group of matters by a show of hands.

(4) A proxyholder or alternate proxyholder who without reasonable cause fails to comply with the directions of a shareholder under this section is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 dollars or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or to both.

147 (1) Shares of a corporation that are registered in the name of a registrant or his nominee and not beneficially owned by the registrant shall not be voted unless the registrant, forthwith after receipt of the notice of the meeting, financial statements, management proxy circular, dissident's proxy circular and any other documents, other than the form of proxy sent to shareholders by or on behalf of any person for use in connection with the meeting, sends a copy of those documents to the beneficial owner and, except where the registrant has received written voting instructions from the beneficial owner, a written

(3) A person by or on behalf of whom a solicitation is made shall, at the request of a registrant, forthwith furnish to the registrant at that person's expense the necessary number of copies of the documents referred to in subsection (1) other than copies of the document requesting voting instructions.

(4) A registrant shall vote or appoint a proxyholder to vote any shares referred to in subsection (1) in accordance with any written voting instructions received from the beneficial owner.

(5) If requested by a beneficial owner, a registrant shall appoint the beneficial owner or a nominee of the beneficial owner as proxyholder.

(6) The contravention of this section by a registrant does not render void any meeting of shareholders or any action taken at a meeting of shareholders.

(7) Nothing in this section gives a registrant the right to vote shares that he is otherwise prohibited from voting.

(8) A registrant who knowingly contravenes this section is guilty to an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or to both.

(9) If the registrant who contravenes this section is a body corporate, then, whether or not the body corporate has been authorizes, permits or acquiesces in the contravention is also guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000 or to imprisonment for a term of not more than six months or to both.

148 (1) If a form of proxy, management proxy circular or dissident's proxy circular contains an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact required in it or necessary to make a statement contained in it not misleading in the light of the circumstances in which it was made, an interested person or, if the corporation is a distributing corporation the Registrar of Securities, may apply to the Court and the Court may make any order it thinks fit including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any one or more of the following:

(b) an order requiring correction of any form of proxy or proxy circular and a further solicitation; or

(c) an order adjourning the meeting.

151 (1) A corporation shall keep at its records office a copy of the financial statements of each of its subsidiary bodies corporate and of each body corporate the accounts of which are consolidated in the financial statements of the corporation.

(2) Shareholders of a corporation and their agents and legal representatives may on request examine the statements referred to in subsection (1) during the usual business hours of the corporation, and may make extracts from them, free of charge.
(3) A corporation may, within 15 days of a request to examine under subsection (2), apply to the Court for an order barring the right of any person to so examine, and the Court may, if it is satisfied that the examination would be detrimental to the corporation or a subsidiary body corporate, bar that right and make any further order it thinks fit.

(4) A corporation shall give notice of an application under subsection (3) to the person making a request under subsection (2), and that person may appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

152 (1) The directors of a corporation shall approve the financial statements referred to in section 149 and the approval shall be evidenced by the signature of one or more directors.

(a) approved and signed in accordance with subsection (1), and
(b) accompanied by the report of the auditor of the corporation, if any.

153 (1) A corporation shall, not less than 21 days before each annual meeting of shareholders or before the signing of a resolution under subsection 136(2) in lieu of the annual meeting, send a copy of the documents referred to in section 149 to each shareholder, except to a shareholder who has informed the corporation in writing that he does not want a copy of those documents.

(2) A corporation that, without reasonable cause, contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000.

154 (1) A distributing corporation shall, not less than 21 days before each annual meeting of shareholders or forthwith after the signing of a resolution under subsection 136(2) in lieu of the annual meeting, and in any event not later than 15 months after the last date when the last preceding annual meeting should have been held or a resolution in lieu of the meeting should have been signed, file a copy of the documents referred to in section 149 with the Registrar of Securities.
(2) If a distributing corporation
(a) sends to its shareholders, or
(b) is required to file with or send to a public authority or a stock exchange

corporation shall forthwith file copies of them with the Registrar of Securities.

(3) A subsidiary corporation is not required to comply with this section if
(a) the financial statements of its holding corporation are in consolidated or combined form and include the accounts of the subsidiary, and
(b) the consolidated or combined financial statements of the holding corporation are included in the documents filed with the Registrar of Securities by the holding corporation in compliance with this section.

(4) A corporation that contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5000.

155 (1) Subject to subsection (5), a person is disqualified from being an auditor of a corporation if he is not independent of the corporation and its affiliates and the directors and officers of the corporation and its affiliates.

(2) For the purposes of this section,
(a) independence is a question of fact, and
(b) a person is deemed not to be independent if he or his employee of the corporation or any of its affiliates, or a business partner of any director, officer or employee of the corporation or any of its affiliates,

(4) An interested person may apply to the Court for an order declaring an auditor to be disqualified under this section and the office of auditor to be vacant.

(5) An interested person may apply to the Court for an order exempting an auditor from disqualification under this section and the Court may, if it is satisfied that an exemption would not unfairly prejudice the shareholders, make an exemption order on any terms it thinks fit, which order may have retrospective effect.

156 (1) Subject to section 157, shareholders of a corporation shall, by ordinary resolution, at the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each succeeding annual meeting, appoint an auditor to hold office until the close of the next annual meeting.

(a) he dies or resigns, or
(b) he is removed pursuant to section 159.

(2) A resignation of an auditor becomes effective at the time a written resignation is sent to the corporation or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later.

159  (1) The shareholders of a corporation may by ordinary resolution at a special meeting remove from office the auditor, other than an auditor appointed by the Court under section 161.

160  (1) Subject to subsection (3), the directors shall forthwith fill a vacancy in the office of auditor.

(2) If there is not a quorum of directors, the directors then in office shall, within 21 days after a vacancy in the office of auditor occurs, call a special meeting of shareholders to fill the vacancy and, if they fail to call a meeting or if there are no directors, the meeting may be called by any shareholder.

(3) The articles of a corporation may provide that a vacancy in the office of auditor shall only be filled by vote of the shareholders.

   (c) each notice states that the corporation intends to amalgamate with one or more specified corporations in accordance with this Act unless a creditor of the corporation objects to the amalgamation within 30 days from the date of the notice.

(4) On receipt of articles of amalgamation and the other documents required by subsections (1) and (2), and on receipt of the

(a) the extra-territorial corporation is authorized to amalgamate with the corporation by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the extra-territorial corporation is incorporated, and
(b) one is the wholly-owned subsidiary of the other.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the corporation is a professional corporation.

(9) Notwithstanding subsection 24(1), if a corporation continued under this Act had, before it was so continued, issued a share certificate in registered form that is convertible to a share certificate in favour of bearer, the corporation may, if a holder of such a share certificate exercises the conversion privilege attached to it, issue a share certificate in favour of bearer for the same number of shares to the holder.

(2) A notice of a meeting of shareholders complying with section 129 shall be sent in accordance with that section to each shareholder and shall state that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of his shares in accordance with section 184, but failure to make that statement does not invalidate a discontinuance under this Act.

(3) Each share of the corporation carries the right to vote in respect of a continuance whether or not it otherwise carries the right to vote.

(4) An application for continuance becomes authorized when the shareholders voting on it have approved of the continuance by a special resolution.

   (a) include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the agreement of sale, lease or exchange, and
(b) state that a dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair value of his shares in accordance with section 184, but failure to make that statement does not invalidate a sale, lease or exchange referred to in subsection (1).

(3) At the meeting referred to in subsection (2) the shareholders may authorize the sale, lease or exchange and may fix or authorize the directors to fix any of its terms and conditions.

(4) Each share of the corporation carries the right to vote in respect of a sale, lease or exchange referred to in subsection (1) whether or not it otherwise carries the right to vote.

   (d) be continued under the laws of another jurisdiction under section 182, or (e) sell, lease or exchange all or substantially all its property under section 183.

(2) A holder of shares of any class or series of shares entitled to vote under section 170 may dissent if the corporation resolves to amend its articles in a manner described in that section.

(3) In addition to any other right he may have, but subject to subsection (20), a shareholder entitled to dissent under this section and who complies with this section is entitled to be paid by the corporation the fair value of the shares held by him in respect of which he dissents, determined as of the close of business on the last business day before the day on which the resolution from which he dissents was adopted.

(4) A dissenting shareholder may only claim under this section with respect to all the shares of a class held by him or on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of the dissenting shareholder.

(5) A dissenting shareholder shall send to the corporation a written objection to a resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2)
(a) at or before any meeting of shareholders at which the resolution is to be voted on, or
(b) if the corporation did not send notice to the shareholder of the purpose of the meeting or of his right to dissent, within a reasonable time after he learns that the resolution was adopted and of his right to dissent.

(6) An application may be made to the Court after the adoption of a resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2),
(a) by the corporation, or
(b) by a shareholder if he has sent an objection to the corporation under subsection (5), to fix the fair value in accordance with subsection (3) of the shares of a shareholder who dissents under this section.

(7) If an application is made under subsection (6), the corporation shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, send to each dissenting shareholder a written offer to pay him an amount considered by the directors to be the fair value of the shares.
(8) Unless the Court otherwise orders, an offer referred to in subsection (7) shall be sent to each dissenting shareholder
(a) at least 10 days before the date on which the application is returnable, if the corporation is the applicant, or
(b) within 10 days after the corporation is served with a copy of the originating notice, if a shareholder is the applicant.

(9) Every offer made under subsection (7) shall
(a) be made on the same terms, and
(b) contain or be accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined.

(10) A dissenting shareholder may make an agreement with the corporation for the purchase of his shares by the corporation, in the amount of the corporation's offer under subsection (7) or otherwise, at any time before the Court pronounces an order fixing the fair value of the shares.

(11) A dissenting shareholder
(a) is not required to give security for costs in respect of an application under subsection (6), and
(b) except in special circumstances shall not be required to pay the costs of the application or appraisal.

(12) In connection with an application under subsection (6), the Courts may give directions for
(a) joining as parties all dissenting shareholders whose shares have not been purchased by the corporation and for the representation of dissenting shareholders who, in the opinion of the Court, are in need of representation,
(b) the trial of issues and interlocutory matters, including pleadings and examinations for discovery,
(c) the payment to the shareholder of all or part of the sum offered by the corporation for the shares,
(d) the deposit of the share certificates with the Court or with the corporation or its transfer agent,
(e) the appointment and payment of independent appraisers, and the procedures to be followed by them,
(f) the service of documents, and
(g) the burden of proof on the parties.
(13) On an application under subsection (6), the Court shall make an order
(a) fixing the fair value of the shares in accordance with subsection (3) of all dissenting shareholders who are parties to the application,
(b) giving judgment in that amount against the corporation and in favour of each of those dissenting shareholders, and
(c) fixing the time within which the corporation must pay that amount to a shareholder.

(14) On
(a) the action approved by the resolution from which the shareholder dissents becoming effective,
(b) the making of an agreement under subsection (10) between the corporation and the dissenting shareholder as to the payment to be made by the corporation for his shares, whether by the acceptance of the corporation's offer under subsection (7) or otherwise, or
(c) the pronouncement of an order under subsection (13), whichever first occurs, the shareholder ceases to have any rights as a shareholder other than the right to be paid the fair value of his shares in the amount agreed to between the corporation and the shareholder or in the amount of the judgment, as the case may be.

(15) Paragraph (14)(a) does not apply to a shareholder referred to in paragraph (5)(b).

(16) Until one of the events mentioned in subsection (14) occurs,
(a) the shareholder may withdraw his dissent, or
(b) the corporation may rescind the resolution, and in either event proceedings under this section shall be discontinued.

(17) The Court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder, from the date on which the shareholder ceases to have any rights as a shareholder by reason of subsection (14) until the date of payment.
If subsection (20) applies, the corporation shall, within 10 days after
(a) the pronouncement of an order under subsection (13), or
(b) the making of an agreement between the shareholder and the corporation as to the payment to be made for his shares, notify each dissenting shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.

Notwithstanding that a judgment has been given in favour of a dissenting shareholder under paragraph (13)(b), if subsection
(20) applies, the dissenting shareholder, by written notice delivered to the corporation within 30 days after receiving the notice under subsection (18), may withdraw his notice of objection, in which case the corporation is deemed to consent to the withdrawal and the shareholder is reinstated to his full rights as a shareholder, failing which he retains a status as a claimant against the corporation, to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the corporation but in priority to its shareholders.

A corporation shall not make a payment to a dissenting shareholder under this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that
(a) the corporation is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due, or (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.

PART 15

CORPORATE REORGANIZATION AND ARRANGEMENTS

185 (1) In this section, "order for reorganization" means an order of the Court made under
(a) section 234,
(b) the Bankruptcy Act (Canada) approving a proposal, or
(c) any other Act of the Parliament of Canada or an Act of the Legislature that affects the rights among the corporation, its shareholders and creditors.

(2) If a corporation is subject to an order for reorganization, its articles may be amended by the order to effect any change that might lawfully be made by an amendment under section 167.

(2) An application may be made to the Court by a corporation or a security holder or creditor of a corporation for an order approving an arrangement in respect of the corporation.

(3) If an arrangement can be effected under any other provision of this Act, an application may not be made under this section unless it is impracticable to effect the arrangement under that other provision.

(4) In connection with an application under this section, the Court, unless it dismisses the application,

(a) shall order the holding of a meeting of shareholders or a class or classes of shareholders to vote on the proposed arrangement,

(b) shall order a meeting of persons who are creditors or holders of debt obligations of the corporation or of options or rights to acquire securities of the corporation, or any class of those persons, if the Court considers that those persons or that class of persons are affected by the proposed arrangement,

(c) may, with respect to any meeting referred to in paragraph (a) or (b), give any directions in the order respecting

(i) the calling of and the giving of notice of the meeting,

(ii) the conduct of the meeting,

(iii) subject to subsection (6), the majority required to pass a resolution at the meeting, and

(d) in the case of a vote of holders of options or rights to acquire securities, the majority that would be required under paragraph (a) or (c) if those holders had acquired ownership of the securities.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in subsections (4) to (6), if a resolution required to be voted on pursuant to the order under subsection (4) is in writing and signed by all the persons entitled to vote on the resolution.
(a) the meeting required to be held by the order need not be held, and
(b) the resolution is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting.

(8) If the application is in respect of a distributing corporation, the applicant shall give the Registrar of Securities notice of the application and the Registrar of Securities is entitled to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.
(9) After the holding of the meetings required by an order under subsection (4) or the submission to it of written resolutions that comply with subsection (7), the Court shall hear the application and may in its discretion
(a) approve the arrangement as proposed by the applicant or as amended by the Court, or
(b) refuse to approve the arrangement,

(11) On filing any documents referred to in paragraphs 10(b) and (c), the Registrar shall issue the appropriate certificate in accordance with section 255.

(12) An arrangement becomes effective
(a) on the date shown in the certificate issued pursuant to subsection (11), or
(b) if no certificate is required to be issued pursuant to subsection (11), on the date the documents are filed pursuant to subsection (10).

(13) An arrangement as approved by the Court is binding on the corporation and all other persons.
187 (1) In this Part,

"dissenting offeree" means an offeree who does not accept a take-over bid and a person who acquires from an offeree a share for which a take-over bid is made;

"offeree corporation" means a corporation whose shares are the object of a take-over bid;

"offeror" means a person, other than an agent, who makes a take-over bid, and includes two or more persons who, directly or indirectly,
(a) make take-over bids jointly or in concert, or
(b) intend to exercise jointly or in concert voting rights attached to shares for which a take-over bid is made;

"share" means a share with or without voting rights and includes
(a) a security currently convertible into such a share, and
(b) currently exercisable options and rights to acquire such a share or such a convertible security;

"take-over bid" means an offer made by an offeror to shareholders to acquire all of the shares of any class of shares of an offeree corporation not already owned by the offeror, and includes every take-over bid by a corporation to repurchase all of the shares of any class of its shares which leaves outstanding voting shares of the corporation.

188 (1) A take-over bid is deemed to be dated as of the date on which it is sent.
(2) If within the time limited in a take-over bid for its acceptance or within 120 days after the date of a take-over bid, whichever period is the shorter, the bid is accepted by the holders of not less than 90% of the shares of any class of shares to which the take-over bid relates, other than shares of that class held at the date of the take-over bid by or on behalf of the offeror or an affiliate or associate of the offeror, the offeror is entitled, on the bid being so accepted and on complying with this Part, to acquire the shares of that class held by the dissenting offerees.

(3) The rights of an offeror and offeree under this Part are subject to any unanimous shareholder agreement.

189 (1) An offeror may acquire shares held by a dissenting offeree by sending by registered mail within 60 days after the date of termination of the take-over bid and in any event within 180 days after the date of the take-over bid, an offeror's notice to each dissenting offeree stating that
(a) the offerees holding more than 90% of the shares to which the bid relates have accepted the take-over bid,

(c) a dissenting offeree is required to elect
   (i) to transfer his shares to the offeror on the terms on which the offeror acquired the shares of the offerees who accepted the take-over bid, or
   (ii) to demand payment of the fair value of his shares
       (A) by notifying the offeror, and
       (B) by applying to the Court to fix the fair value of the shares of the dissenting offeree, within 60 days after the date of the sending of the offeror's notice, (d) a dissenting offeree who does not notify the offeror and apply to the Court in accordance with clause (c)(ii) is deemed to have elected to transfer his shares to the offeror on the same terms that the offeror acquired the shares from the offerees who accepted the take-over bid, and
(e) a dissenting offeree shall send the share certificates of the class of shares to which the take-over bid relates to the offeree corporation within 20 days after he receives the offeror's notice.

(2) Concurrently with sending the offeror's notice under subsection (1), the offeror shall send to the offeree corporation a notice of adverse claim in accordance with section 73 with respect to each share held by a dissenting offeree.

190 (1) A dissenting offeree to whom an offeror's notice is sent under subsection 189(1) shall, within 20 days after he receives that notice, send his share certificates of the class of shares to which the take-over bid relates to the offeree corporation.

(2) Within 20 days after the offeror sends an offeror's notice under subsection 189(1), the offeror shall pay or transfer to the offeree corporation the amount of money or other consideration that the offeror would have had to pay or transfer to a dissenting offeree if the dissenting offeree had elected to accept the take-over bid under clause 189(1)(c)(i).

191 (1) The offeree corporation is deemed to hold in trust for the dissenting offerees the money or other consideration it receives under subsection 190(2), and the offeree corporation shall deposit the money in a separate account in a bank or other body corporate any of whose deposits are insured by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation or guaranteed by the Quebec Deposit Insurance Board, and shall place the other consideration in the custody of a bank or such other body corporate.

(2) Within 30 days after the offeror sends an offeror's notice under subsection 189(1), the offeree corporation shall, if the offeror has paid or transferred to the offeree corporation the money or other consideration referred to in subsection 190(2), (a) issue to the offeror a share certificate in respect of the shares that were held by dissenting offerees,
(b) give to each dissenting offeree who elects to accept the take-over bid terms under clause 189(1)(c)(i) and who sends or delivers his share certificates as required under subsection 190(1), the money or other consideration to which he is entitled, disregarding fractional shares, which may be paid for in money, and

(c) send to each dissenting shareholder who has not sent his share certificates as required under subsection 190(1) a notice stating that
(i) his shares have been cancelled,
(ii) the offeree corporation or some designated person holds in trust for him the money or other consideration to which he is entitled as payment for or in exchange for his shares, and
(iii) the offeree corporation will, subject to sections 192 to 198, send that money or other consideration to him forthwith after receiving his shares.

192 (1) If a dissenting offeree has elected to demand payment of the fair value of his shares under paragraph 189(1)(c), the offeror may, within 20 days after it has paid the money or transferred the other consideration under subsection 190(2), apply to the Court to fix the fair value of the shares of that dissenting offeree.

193 (1) A dissenting offeree is not required to give security for costs in an application made under this Part.

194 (1) If more than one application is made under sections 189 and 192, the offeror or a dissenting offeree may apply to have the applications heard together.

195 (1) On an application under this Part, the Court shall fix a fair value for the shares of each dissenting offeree who is a party to the application.

196 (1) The Court may in its discretion appoint one or more appraisers to assist the Court to fix a fair value for the shares of a dissenting offeree.
The final order of the Court shall be made against the offeror in favour of each dissenting offeree who has elected to demand payment of the fair value of his shares for the fair value of his shares as fixed by the Court.

In connection with proceedings under this Part, the Court may make any order it thinks fit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it may do any or all of the following:
(a) fix the amount of money or other consideration that is required to be held in trust under subsection 191(1);
(b) order that that money or other consideration be held in trust by a person other than the offeree corporation;
(c) allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting offeree from the date he sends or delivers his share certificates under subsection 190(1) until the date of payment;
(d) order that any money payable to a shareholder who cannot be found be paid to the Treasurer and subsection 220(3) applies in respect of money so paid.

If the take-over bid is an offer by a corporation to repurchase its own shares subsection 189(2) does not apply, and subsection 190(2) does not apply, but the corporation shall comply with subsection 191(1) within 20 days after it sends an offeror's notice under subsection 189(1).

If
(a) the take-over bid is an offer by a corporation to repurchase its own shares, and
(b) the corporation is prohibited by section 32
(i) from depositing or placing the consideration for the shares pursuant to subsection 191(1), or
(ii) paying the amount for the shares fixed by the Court pursuant to section 195

the corporation

(c) shall re-issue to the dissenting offeree the shares for which the corporation is not allowed to pay, and
(d) is entitled to use for its own benefit any money or consideration deposited or placed under subsection 191(1), and the dissenting offeree is reinstated to his full rights, as a shareholder.

PART 17

(12) On the date shown in the certificate of revocation of intent to dissolve, the revocation is effective and the corporation may continue to carry on its business or businesses.

(13) If a certificate of intent to dissolve has not been revoked and the corporation has complied with subsection (7), the corporation shall prepare articles of dissolution.

(4) The corporation ceases to exist on the date shown in the certificate of dissolution.

206 (1) The Registrar or any interested person may apply to the Court for an order dissolving a corporation if the corporation has
(a) failed for two or more consecutive years to comply with the requirements of this Act with respect to the holding of annual meetings of shareholders,

(a) if the order is to dissolve the corporation, issue a certificate of dissolution in prescribed form, or
(b) if the order is to liquidate and dissolve the corporation under the supervision of the Court, issue a certificate of intent to dissolve in prescribed form and publish notice of the order in the Yukon Gazette.

(5) The corporation ceases to exist on the date shown in the certificate of dissolution.

207 (1) The Court may order the liquidation and dissolution of a corporation or any of its affiliated corporations on the application of a shareholder,
(a) if the Court is satisfied that in respect of a corporation or any of its affiliates
   (i) any act or omission of the corporation or any of its affiliates effects a result,
(ii) the business or affairs of the corporation or any of its affiliates are or have been carried on or conducted in a manner, or

(iii) the powers of the directors of the corporation or any of its affiliates are or have been exercised in a manner that is oppressive or unfairly prejudicial to or that unfairly disregards the interests of any security holder, creditor, director or officer, or

(b) if the Court is satisfied that
